STATIONS, CLERICAL OR LAY MISSIONARIES, AND NATIVE CLERGYMEN

SUPPORTED EITHER DIRECTLY BY THE SOCIETY, OR BY NATIVE CHURCH FUNDS AIDED BY THE SOCIETY.

MAY 1, 1878.

 A STATION is the place at which a Clerical or Lay Missionary is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society. The letter (m) means Married.—Wives of Missionaries, &c., though not named, except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Women; such as cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing the adult women.

The figures after the Names of the European Labourers show the date of their first connexion with the Society's Missions.

The asterisk (*) denotes that the Missionary is on his way out. The mark (†) that he is on his way home.

The mark ‡ denotes that the Name to which it is prefixed is that of an Agent supported by Native Church Funds.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

(As revised at a Special Meeting of Members of the Society, held June 25, 1878.)

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a COMMITTEE, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for Members of the Royal Family; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the Churches of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such other persons as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas, or upward, and Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Auxiliaries and of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The COMMITTEE shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Honorary Members for Life, or Honorary Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and COMMITTEE chosen.

VIII. The COMMITTEE may summon a Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society [at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum] at any time, and they shall do so on receipt of a requisition in writing, addressed to the Secretaries, and signed by not less than Fifty Members of the Society, and specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Laws and Regulations of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones made, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the COMMITTEE. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The COMMITTEE shall consist of Twenty four Lay Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland; and of all Clergymen who are Members of the Society and have been so for not less than one year. Of the Twenty-four Lay Members, Eighteen shall be re-appointed each year from the existing COMMITTEE, and Six shall be elected from the General Body of the Society.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, a Committee of Finance, and a Committee of Estimates, and shall have power to fill up vacancies. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same for confirmation to the COMMITTEE.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate to the COMMITTEE, proper persons as Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Honorary Life Governors, Honorary Life Members of the Society, and preachers of the Anniversary Sermons.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt means of obtaining Subscriptions, Benefactions, and Collections in Churches, Chapels, and at Meetings; to take a general oversight of the Associations; and to nominate, from time to time, to the COMMITTEE, suitable persons to act as Agents and Representatives of the Society for these objects.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to nominate them to the COMMITTEE, to superintend their instruction, to recommend their location, and to correspond with them when sent out, and generally to direct the foreign work of the Society.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Finance is, generally to superintend the accounts and financial affairs of the Society.

XVII. The office of the Committee of Estimates is, to prepare and submit to the COMMITTEE an Estimate of the probable expenditure of the Society, and from time to time to note and to report to the COMMITTEE how far the expenditure corresponds with the sanctioned Estimate.

XVIII. The Committee of Correspondence shall elect from among themselves, at their first Meeting in every year, a Clerical Sub-Committee, for the examination of Missionary Candidates.

XIX. The COMMITTEE shall receive and deal with the Reports of the other Committees, shall decide upon the countries where Missions shall be carried on, and shall superintend and control the affairs of the Society in general.

XX. The COMMITTEE shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject, in the case of the appointment of Secretaries, to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting. One, at least, of the Secretaries shall be a layman.

XXI. The COMMITTEE shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; but should the second Monday be a Bank Holiday the Meeting shall be held on the day following. The other Committees shall meet as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on. All Committee Meetings shall be opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy.

XXII. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees. Governors, being Members of the Established Church of England, or of the Church of Ireland, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the COMMITTEE.

XXIII. Five Members shall be necessary to form a Quorum of the COMMITTEE; and Three of each of the Committees provided for in Law XII.; in each case exclusive of the Secretaries. In cases of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XXIV. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three Members of the COMMITTEE, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary, or in his absence by one of the other Secretaries.

XXV. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the COMMITTEE, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom not more than two shall be Members of the COMMITTEE. Three shall be a Quorum.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXVI. In the selection of Candidates for the Missionary office the following course shall be pursued. The cases of Candidates who are already in Holy Orders, or who are University Graduates, or whom it is proposed to send out without further training, shall be considered by the Committee of Correspondence, the Candidate having (as a rule) appeared in person before them, and a report having been given, after a personal interview, by one or more members of the Clerical Sub-Committee. If any Member of the Committee of Correspondence shall show reason for requiring further information, the consideration shall be deferred till a subsequent Meeting of that Committee. Other Candidates shall be examined by the Clerical Sub-Committee, which shall report to the Committee of Correspondence.

XXVII. A Candidate nominated by the Committee of Correspondence, and accepted by the COMMITTEE, shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time that the COMMITTEE shall decide, and be subject to such Regulations as may be established by the COMMITTEE for the direction of Missionaries: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society.

XXIX. Each Candidate, when duly prepared and finally approved for Missionary work, shall go out, either ordained or unordained, at the discretion of the COMMITTEE*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the COMMITTEE: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the COMMITTEE, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, such provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable as in the judgment of the COMMITTEE is suitable. The COMMITTEE shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support. The COMMITTEE shall be further empowered in special cases to make such arrangements with those employed by them as they may think fit.

GENERAL.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. All questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between a Bishop of the Church of England abroad and the COMMITTEE, shall, in the absence of any tribunal having legal cognizance of the same, be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, whose decision thereupon shall be binding upon the Society and its agents and representatives.

The proposed reference shall be made by the COMMITTEE, through His Grace the Primate, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the COMMITTEE may deem advisable.

XXXIII. The object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as in any other respect to alter the principles and practices of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The Bishops of the Church of England, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] the Society's Missionaries; and in the event of their being appointed by the COMMITTEE to labour at stations within the jurisdiction of a Bishop of the Church of England abroad, it is the practice of the Society to apply to the Bishop for licenses, in which are specified the districts to which the Missionaries have been assigned. This is done on the understanding that licenses will neither be refused, nor when granted be withdrawn from the Missionaries during their connexion with the Society, except for some assigned legal cause.

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, April 30, 1878, being the Seventy-ninth Anniversary—

The Right Hon. the EARL OF CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

AFTER PRAYER AND THE READING OF A PORTION OF HOLY SCRIPTURE, THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE REV. H. WRIGHT, M.A., Honorary Secretary;

On the Motion of the RIGHT REV. THE LORD BISHOP OF SYDNEY, V.P., seconded by the REV. J. C. MILLER, D.D., Canon of Rochester and Vicar of Greenwich, and supported by MAJOR-GEN. SIR WM. HILL, V.P., it was—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of the Meeting be given to the Right Rev. the Bishop of Cashel for his Sermon before the Society last evening, and that it be printed and circulated; that Captain the Hon. Francis Maude, R.N., be the Treasurer of the Society, and the following gentlemen be the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies.—[See List, p. iv.]

On the Motion of the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF SASKATCHEWAN, V.P., seconded by the REV. W. T. SATTIANÂDHAN, Native Minister from Madras, and supported by the REV. H. J. MARTIN, M.A., Hon. Canon of Durham, and Vicar of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, it was—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while heartily thanking God for the successful issue granted to the efforts of zealous friends throughout the country during the past year to increase the Society's income, this Meeting, in view of the wonderful openings which God in His providence has granted in Africa, India, China, and throughout the world, desires to place on record its sense of the loud call for humiliation on the part of the Christian Church for the utterly inadequate supply of Missionary labourers and pecuniary resources in view of the work to be accomplished, and of the deep need of a larger measure of the spirit of whole-hearted consecration for which, by God's help, this Meeting pledges itself to pray earnestly and expectantly in the present year.

At a Second Meeting, held in Exeter Hall, on the Evening of the same Day—

The Right Rev. the LORD BISHOP OF SODOR AND MAN, V.P., in the Chair,

PREACHED

AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH,

FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 29, 1878,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society,

BY THE RIGHT REV.

THE BISHOP OF CASHEL,

VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY.

O God the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; We beseech Thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end.

Stir up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A

SERMON,

MALACHI III. 10.

"BRING YE ALL THE TITHES INTO THE STOREHOUSE, THAT THERE MAY BE MEAT IN MINE HOUSE, AND PROVE ME NOW HEREWITH, SAITH THE LORD OF HOSTS, IF I WILL NOT OPEN YOU THE WINDOWS OF HEAVEN, AND POUR YOU OUT A BLESSING, THAT THERE SHALL NOT BE ROOM ENOUGH TO RECEIVE IT."

IT seems right on such an occasion as the present, to consider what circumstances there may be in the position of the Church Missionary Society which require specially to be brought forward,—what truth it needs to be reminded of, or what duty its friends are called more immediately to set before them.

There can be little doubt, I think, in the minds of any who consider it, as to what is the great topic at present most needing to be urged. I think that all, when the case is put before them, will be ready to allow that it is this,—the loud and earnest call upon all Christian people, who know the value of the Gospel which it preaches, to give to this Society a measure of support far beyond anything which it has yet received; and so to enable it, through the Lord's blessing, to accomplish those works which in His providence He has been pleased to give it the opportunity of performing.

There are two other great requisites which are needed to enable the work of this or any other Missionary Society to go forward. They are the openings in heathen lands for the planting or extending of Christian Missions; and the supply of fit and faithful men to go forth and enter in where those openings have been made.

These two needful things it has pleased our gracious Lord very largely to supply to this Society during the later years of its existence. In answer to earnest prayers which were offered up, there have been opportunities opened on all sides and in various parts of the world, distant from one another, for extending the older Missions, and for sowing the seed in fields hitherto untouched. In West Africa, and especially in the Niger Mission, new stations have been established. In East Africa a work has been newly begun in connexion with the war against the slave-trade, which promises, through the Divine blessing, to be as successful, and, we may hope eventually, as widespread, there, as the work which has now arrived at its maturity on the western coast. Out of the interior of that continent has come the call from King Mtesa—as distinct an intimation surely to the minds of Christians, as was the call of the man of Macedonia to the mind of St. Paul at Troas. The Society accepted it as such; Missionaries have gone thither and have been most favourably received. Persia, an untrodden ground for our Missionary work since the sainted Henry Martyn laid down his life there for the cause of Christ, has been occupied, almost against the will of the Committee, by one of our faithful labourers; and seeing the prospect brightening before him, there was no other course possible but to tell him to go forward. In one province of China the work has so advanced, that as many as fifty new stations for Missionary preaching have been established; while in India 250 new schools have been added to our machinery, with an increase of 10,000 scholars; and in Ceylon upwards of 50 new schools with 5000 scholars.

These are a portion of the increased opportunities which our Lord has set before His servants; and, at the same time, He has in answer likewise to prayer, moved the hearts of many men whom His Spirit has fitted for the work, to offer themselves to go forth and make use of these opportunities which are given. A few years since it was difficult to get a graduate of a university to undertake willingly such a work as that of a Missionary to the heathen. Some eminent men did go forth, but they were few and far between. Now, during the one year, as many as nine have come forward from the universities. A few years since the number of Missionary students in the College at Islington fell so low as twenty-three, during the past year they have reached to nearly seventy. Thus, while the great want of the Church at home is a supply of educated and faithful men for the ministry, and while the great anxiety of those whose office it is to ordain men for the work is looking forward to see where such men are to be found, it has pleased the Lord to set this signal mark of favour upon the work of Missions to the heathen, as to supply men sufficient for the present, with those who from time to time are ordained to the ministry in the Native Churches, to enter through the various openings, and to spread the work by means of the increased opportunities which have been given.

And now the sad fact comes to stare us in the face, that after these opportunities have been so wonderfully provided, and after godly and faithful men have been raised up to do the work of Christian Missionaries among the heathen, the Church at home withholds from giving that increased support which the enlarged opportunities and additional number of labourers require. The two requisites which the Lord alone can supply by the working of His providence and of His Spirit have been abundantly bestowed; but the third requisite for carrying on the work, which comes at least through the means of our own self-denying exertions, is not forthcoming; and so both the opportunities and the men are to be of no use because we refuse to give our money. Is it indeed come to this? that Christian England should have been upon its knees for these five years past, praying most earnestly and solemnly to all appearance that the Lord would stretch forth His hand to forward the cause of Missions, and that when

He has done so in answer to our prayers, we should rise up and throw away as useless the blessings which He has given? This is not the language of exaggeration which I am employing. It is the literal fact stated in a very brief and business-like, but a very sad document issued by the Committee of the Society some months since. They thus mention some of the reductions in their Missionary work which it will be absolutely necessary for them to make: "No immediate reductions are proposed in the Persia and East Africa Missions;" but they plainly imply that unless the latter is helped in ways that are unlikely, it cannot be conducted on the scale which was intended; and so this great inlet of life and light to East Africa shall be allowed to wither up. Again, "The Missions at Constantinople and Smyrna are to be closed, and the Missionaries withdrawn:" at such a time as the present, when the eyes of the whole world are fixed with interest on those regions. Again, "Heavy sums are struck off the North, South, and Western India estimates in respect of Vernacular Schools and Native Agents. A further careful review of the stations is to be made, to see whether any can be given up." And then there are these two memorandums made as regards the increasing number of men who have been offering themselves: "The number of students under training at the Society's College at Islington is to be allowed to fall to forty, and the acceptance of fresh candidates is to be regulated accordingly." That is, we are obliged to refuse the men whom we prayed that the Lord would send. And lastly, "After the new Missionaries now ready to go out have sailed, no more are to be sent forth, except to fill up vacancies, until an adequate income has been secured."

This is sad indeed, but there is a note at the close of these memorandums which shows the case to be still worse. It says, "After all these deductions, the Society will still need for the present year at least £30,000 more than it received last year."

This increase, if it is obtained, will not, you see, prevent these reductions from being made, but will only prevent them from becoming greater; so that if we would avert these lamentable reductions altogether, and still more, if we would make use of the wider openings and additional men which are offering, I would suppose a second increase of £30,000 would be required—in all £60,000 beyond the income of the former year. I do not know whether the Committee will be able to report at the annual meeting to-morrow that such an addition has been actually made to the income of this Society; but whether it has been made already or not, I believe this must be looked at calmly and deliberately, as the smallest sum required to enable this great Society to go forward instead of going back in the work of God which it has in hand. The annual income has occasionally nearly reached the round sum of £200,000. I believe that owing to the blessing which the Lord has given to His servants—owing to the increased opportunities and additional number of men which He has given in answer to their prayers—it will be absolutely necessary that for all future years the income should reach to the sum of £250,000. If it does not, the shame must rest upon us as a Church and people, of having asked blessing from our God on successive specially-appointed days of solemn national supplication; and when He has given us the blessing, refusing to take it at His hands.

And can it be considered any extravagant sum to ask for such a work as this? It is notorious that there are individual personages in England whose annual income exceeds the whole sum which has been named. And when the Free Church of Scotland raises more than £200,000 a year for the support of its ministry at home, besides all its foreign Missionary operations,—a comparatively small and poor community with not more than 1,000,000 people,—would it be anything wonderful for the great Church of England, still possessing its own property as an Established Church, which I earnestly hope that through the Lord's blessing it may ever continue to be—an Established Church in close connexion with the State; would it be anything very wonderful for the Church of England with its many millions of members and their great wealth, to contribute an income of £250,000 a year to the great Missionary agency to which it has chiefly intrusted the spread of Christianity throughout the heathen world?

To accomplish this, and to continue it, there are certain fixed ideas which need to be firmly laid down, and by which alone any abiding effort of this kind can be sustained. The first and most essential of all is this, a firm and undoubting conviction of the Gospel as a Divine and supernatural revelation from God, an acquaintance with which is of paramount and everlasting importance to every human being. If the Christian religion is only one of many religions—better it may be than the others, but standing on the same authority—why should there be such anxiety to spread it in the world? Mohammedism or Buddhism may be as well-suited to other portions of mankind as Christianity is to us. But if the case is altogether different; if the Christian revelation, including of course the Patriarchal and Jewish, which were preparatory to it, stands alone as the one communication made to man by the unseen Author and Ruler of the universe, about the things which concern the well-being here and hereafter of all mankind; then there is the most solemn obligation on all who are acquainted with the message to send it on to every tribe, and kindred, and tongue, and people, so that all men may have the opportunity given them of receiving this inestimable benefit, which God has intended for all. This is the ground which is to be firmly kept to,—that 1800 years ago, One came upon this earth, who claimed to be the eternal Son of God in our nature, and who proved Himself to be such in ways that are still open to our examination, and that by the work then accomplished by that glorious Being, as well as by the work which He since carries on in the unseen world, and carries on by His power here upon earth, there is blessing provided for every human creature, and a healing for all the evils which fallen man is heir to. There is forgiveness of sin for the soul that is awakened to the painful sense of guilt. There is peace with God for the uneasy conscience. There is cleansing of the thoughts, and subduing of the passions, for the impure mind and disordered constitution of man. There is a bringing in of new objects by which the affections are to be raised, and higher ends to which the labours are to be directed. There is companionship for the solitary, and hope for the despairing. The powers of the unseen world are brought to bear with blessings upon the world of sight and sense, because the Creator of all things has Himself come forth to hold communion with, and to bless His creatures. The manifestation of the eternal Son of God is the planting of the tree of life upon the surface of this earth; and it is our privilege to call all the fallen sons of Adam, wherever they are found, to come and be partakers of its blessings.

My brethren, I know that this is the spirit in which all you who are supporters of this Society look upon the revelation of the Gospel. The very fact of your being supporters of it implies that you thus regard "The word of God by Jesus Christ" as His one communication to this world, in which all mankind are infinitely interested. But what we are called to remember is this, that it is only as this right view of the subject pervades the Church in general that men will be moved to give to the work of Missions to the heathen, in the manner and measure that they ought to do. The exclusive Divine authority, and the world-wide infinite importance of the Christian revelation, needs to be urged upon men in general; and we want no other grounds on which to urge it than those which have done the work in former times, which again and again have been reiterated, but which never have been answered. It appears sometimes to be thought that the old historical evidence for the truth of the Gospel has become unsuited, because of the changed character of the times, and the advanced discoveries of science. But it is hard to say how it is affected by such things, any more than any other matters of history are affected by them. The testimony on which we believe certain events to have happened, in the very noontide of the world's history, is not to be set aside, and is in nowise diminished, by certain theories, more or less established, of geology or physiology, of natural development or natural selection, or any other theories which may afterwards be added thereto. We call back men's minds to something far more certain; not to theories but to facts, and to facts which are in nowise contradicted by those theories, let them be ever so solid, instead of being varying and uncertain. We appeal to the great central fact of Christian history, the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, attested to us not only by the unimpeachable testimony of eye-witnesses, but by the very existence of the Christian religion at the time, the thousands of converts who embraced it in opposition to all worldly interests, on the sole ground that Jesus was indeed risen. We appeal to the conversion of St. Paul, whose history and letters are in our hands, no reasonable man doubting their genuineness as a whole, and we have here one who had every prejudice opposed to the Christian revelation, who fought against it with bitter hatred, who had a mind capable of judging, and who tells us that he was convinced of its truth, and all his opposition laid in the dust, by seeing face to face, and conversing with its risen and glorified Founder. We have the miracles performed by the Lord Himself during His sojourn upon the earth, recorded by those who saw them, who could not be mistaken as to their reality, and who, I believe, are no longer looked upon by any as wilful impostors. We have the long chain of prophecy, beginning with that concerning the three sons of Noah, the fulfilment of which reaches down even to the present time; and the existence of which prophecies can be traced back, beyond a doubt, to long before the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ into the world. And above all, and as the glorious centre of all, we have the character and teaching of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, admired beyond measure by many who reject Him, claiming Himself to be all that Christians now acknowledge; foretelling His resurrection and ascension, and present supreme government and future judgment of the world; so that if these claims are not true, we are bound to look on that glorious Being with abhorrence. My brethren, we have a right to urge all these things upon reasonable men, and to ask them not to be satisfied with discussing petty questions as to isolated portions of the evidence, but to consider, as they are bound to do, the concurrent force of all these various lines of evidence coming together from different quarters; and to ask whether, after every difficulty and objection has been given its full weight, there is not to be found overwhelming evidence of a supernatural and Divine revelation having been made. And if that revelation is connected with man's highest duty and happiness in this life, and with his eternal welfare in the life to come, then the first work for every rational man, who is acquainted with it, is to see that he himself obeys the call and enjoys the blessings which are wrapped up in this revelation; and after that, the urgent work for every benevolent man is to see that the warnings, and invitations, and blessings of this Divine communication are spread by every means wherever the race of man is to be found, so that all may have the opportunity of partaking of these blessings, which are intended for all; and that, as there will always be inequality in the share of the earthly goods which human beings are possessed of, multitudes of all classes, and countries, and colours, and conditions, may be gathered in to share together, on a common ground and level, the inestimable benefits which are provided for us in the Gospel.

If the minds of men in general are thus established in the belief of the Divine authority, and of the supreme importance to all mankind of the message of the Gospel; and if through grace and mercy they are themselves made partakers of its blessings, and desire that all the heathen should be partakers of them likewise; then the question comes to be asked, "In what way can so great an enterprise be carried out? and how shall means sufficient be provided to make use of all the openings for Missionary work, which are occurring throughout the world, and to send forth the increasing number of men, whose hearts the Lord in His great goodness has disposed to offer themselves to go forth in that work?"

The answer to this question is given in the text; we have here instruction given us as to how so great a work as this is to be accomplished. The end which is in view is mentioned; the means by which the end is to be attained; and the blessing which shall be given on the use of those means. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The object which we want to attain is here mentioned, "That there may be meat in Mine house." This means in the text that there should be food provided for the support of the priests and Levites who were performing service in the temple. What we want at present to accomplish, through the Lord's blessing, is that means should be provided for the support of the Missionaries who are employed in the service of the Gospel throughout the world, and in the support of a large addition to their number which we have the opportunity of making, and which the openings that the Lord has set before us imperatively call upon us to make. The support of an increased number of ministers of Christ at home and abroad is a great work which is set before the Church by the exigency of the times. The immense increase of the population in our great centres at home, the scattering of our emigrants from these kingdoms through every country under heaven, and the crying want of hundreds of millions of unevangelized heathen, all require that as a most urgent duty laid upon Christian people, means should be provided for the support of a vastly increased number of ministers of Christ. The efforts of many generous-minded and zealous people seem to be too much set in a different direction,—not in providing for the support of an increased number of ministers of the Word, but in adorning with lavish art and expenditure the buildings in which the Word is to be preached, and in which the worship is to be carried on. It is quite right that when churches are to be built, they should be erected according to the rules of architecture, and furnished and fitted-up with the decency and reverence suited to the holy purpose for which they are designed; and it is quite right that when ancient churches are repaired, there should be nothing done to disfigure or mar the beauty of the original building. But all this does not require the lavish expenditure upon merely ornamental work, which may gratify an artistic taste, but has no tendency to promote real spiritual religion. The work by which the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ is to be advanced in the world is very different. "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." The number of those who are required to preach the Gospel in public and in private needs greatly to be increased, and it is in turning their efforts to promote this great object, that Christian people are likely to reap the richest and most satisfactory results. This is the work for which the Church Missionary Society needs to be helped. The opportunities are given, the men are ready, but the means to send them are not found. Oh, that the call may sound widely through the whole of these kingdoms, and that all whose hearts the Lord has disposed to seek the spiritual good of their fellow-creatures, may see that here is a work worthy of their most earnest efforts. Living messengers of salvation to go forth to one and another dark place among the heathen, and tell of the unsearchable riches of Christ. Here is a work which angels can admire, and which the Lord of angels looks down upon with pleasure; for His own Word has said, "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace." We are carrying out the Lord's parting command; we are using His own appointed instrument for bringing men to the knowledge of salvation, and so are causing Him to "see of the travail of His soul, and be satisfied." Can any who truly love the Saviour doubt as to the exceeding blessedness of such a work as this, and not see that in giving means to support additional preachers of the Gospel where they are wanted and where they are ready to go, we are setting forward the most noble work that can be done upon this earth for the glory of God and for the good of man?

And how then can means sufficient be provided by which the Missionary preachers who are wanted may be supported in their work? The text tells us very plainly, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse." It is not by ever such increased efforts made by the Committee and agents of this Society that such an increase of means can be obtained. The necessary expenses which are connected with such efforts are often a painful drawback to the results which are produced. There is one body of men by whom this great work may be brought about more effectually than by any other, and with no expense at all attaching to their labours, and they are the parochial clergy in town and country throughout the whole land. It is by them that the work is to be commended to the people, not by an eloquent appeal from a strange visitor once a year, but as a regular and urgent part of their Christian duty, pressed upon the people continually by their own pastor resident among them. If the clergy have their own minds thoroughly acquainted with the subject of Missions to the heathen, and such knowledge is easily obtained from the ordinary publications of this Society, and if they have their hearts deeply moved with the obligation resting upon all Christian people to help on this work, and if, possessed of this knowledge and moved by these feelings, they speak from the pulpit in the course of their ordinary ministrations to the people committed to their care, and urge the support of Missions to the heathen upon them as they would any other part of Christian character and duty, a far wider and more abiding effort would be made in this cause than ever could be stirred by the efforts of the Committee or by any agency that they could possibly employ. And then it is not to be confined to pulpit exhortations. If any lessons which we urge are given merely from the pulpit, they are likely to have but little weight. Let us use occasions in private for commending the work of Missions to the heathen, as one whose genuine and substantial character we can answer for, and as one urgently calling for support. Let us suggest its claims to benevolent people who may ask our advice in the bestowal of their gifts. We have all heard of the contribution of £500 a year which the late excellent Mr. Vores, of Hastings, used to send up, year after year, to this Society, from his congregation in that place. Some time since I had the opportunity of conversing with one who knew him well, and he told me that the secret of his success in that way was that Mr. Vores always had the claims of the Church Missionary Society uppermost in his mind, and commended them whenever opportunity offered; that thus from one quarter and another gifts for this great work continually flowed in upon him. And the work of Missions to the heathen is of all other Christian works the one which requires to be pressed upon people in this way. Even men of the world will feel for temporal distress, and if they have any heart at all, will be ready to relieve it. Even when the cry comes from a distant land, as in the late Indian famine, hundreds of thousands will be poured forth—and thank God that it was so—for the lightening of so terrible a calamity.

Truly Christian people will feel likewise for the sin and ignorance that is about them in the world, and endeavour to grapple with it in a variety of ways. But the spiritual condition of the heathen is out of sight, and does not reach us by any audible cry as did lately their temporal distress. They are not conscious of their spiritual wants, and some of our own people who live among them are not alive to their condition. And so even truly Christian people at home, while ready to the work that is to be done in this country, have not their eyes opened to the magnitude of the work that is to be done abroad, and to the glory of advancing the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world. It needs therefore to be pressed upon their notice, and if the clergyman who lives in the midst of them, and whom they look to as their friend and teacher, earnestly presses this duty, it is likely more than any other means to have a great and practical effect.

The text teaches us a lesson as to the measure in which this or any other work for God is to be sustained. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse." The principle here laid down is one of great importance to be remembered. It is this, that what we give to the Lord should be in proportion to the means which we possess. It is that which is recognized in the New Testament, by the Apostle Paul, when he gives direction to the Corinthian Church as to the measure in which they should contribute towards the relief of Christians in distress. "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." This great principle is to be made use of, not merely in determining what we ought to give to any particular object, but what portion of our annual income we ought to consecrate wholly to the various works to which the Lord may call us. In this general application of it we may take up literally the language of the text, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse." This proportion to be consecrated to the Lord, did not originate with the Jewish law, it prevailed in Patriarchal times. Abraham offered the tenth of his spoils to Melchizedek; and when Jacob awaked from his vision of the ladder he made this vow before the Lord, "Of all that Thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto Thee." This proportion of what was to be given by His people, the Lord Himself sanctioned by direct command under the law. There is no such command given under the Gospel, but it may well be considered whether truly Christian people, with the vastly increased privileges which they possess, knowing so much more of the love of God than did his most exalted servants under the Old Testament, and called to a more heavenly walk; whether it should not be their voluntary and happy desire to give at least as large a proportion of the earthly goods which the Lord has given them. The same exact proportion cannot, I believe, be pressed universally. Some with small means and large families, could not give so much; others with large means, and few depending on them, might give much more; but, as suggesting in some measure the proportion to be given, this rate of offering, made by God's servants in the Old Testament, may well be kept in mind; and Christian men and women should ask themselves, "Is there anything that puts it out of my power to give a tenth of my income for religious and charitable uses?" And in some cases the inquiry might be made, "Shall not the love of Christ constrain me, and do not my circumstances permit me to give to my Lord and Master much more than the tenth of what He has so abundantly given to me?" And if such a portion of their income was set apart, I will not say by all the people of England, but by all truly Christian people, all who have love to the Saviour reigning in their hearts, from believing His great love to them; if from all such, taken one with another, a tenth of their income was to be given to the Lord's service—some not able to give so much, but others giving more—what an abundant revenue would be provided to carry out all the works which need to be done for the relief of temporal distress and spiritual ignorance; for the advancement in every way of the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world, both at home and abroad. We cannot enforce as a plain matter of duty upon all the exact proportion which is to be given, but we can, and, I believe, ought to press upon all to consider what proportion of their income it is right for them to give; and having once settled that, then to divide among the various claims which come before them, that portion of their income which is thus set apart. Great advantages will be found in every way from this. A benevolent man, who desires to give freely, will not then be disturbed in his mind by the thought that he is acting imprudently, for he is only giving from that portion of his income which he has already deliberately set apart; while at the same time he will be able, with a good conscience, to refuse an undeserving claim, when he remembers that his refusal does not keep any money to himself, but only saves for better objects that which he has consecrated. And on the other hand, this settling of the portion of the income to be given will correct the mistakes into which some are apt to fall, who think that because they give a few subscriptions and donations to charitable and religious objects, they are doing all they are called to in that way; whereas, if they would add up together all that they give in the course of a year, and compare it with their income, many would be led to see how small, in proportion to what it ought to be, is their tribute to Him from whom their all has been received. For all these reasons, and for others also, I believe it to be most important to press on all truly Christian people the duty and privilege of settling once for all the portion of their income which it is right for them to consecrate to the Lord. I remember hearing a godly layman give utterance, in private conversation, to a sentiment which greatly impressed me at the time, and has often occurred to me since; he said, "The Church of Christ has yet to learn the measure in which it ought to give." He has passed from the world, but while here he was himself an example of marvellously generous giving. It is a lesson which Christian people need to learn in this age of abounding wealth and luxury. If the Lord, in His providential government of the world, pours that wealth into the treasures of a godly man, it is to be looked upon as a great trial. It may bring a worldly spirit into that house where God before was greatly honoured. Let the danger then be anticipated. Let the wealth which is coming in be freely poured forth for the service of the Lord. Let gifts rise in proportion, and more than in proportion, to the increase of means. Let the thought be, not how luxuries may be multiplied, but how good works may be more abounding; and then the increase of wealth will be indeed a blessing: the Lord will be honoured in the prosperity of His servant.

When the tithes are then brought into the storehouse; when Christian people set apart a right proportion of their income for the service of the Lord, then there will be no fear but that a sufficient share of it will be devoted to the Missionary cause, to help on this great Society for the world-wide work which it has before it. Sound-hearted members of the Church of England, those who love the truths which our reformers restored to us, must value a Society which keeps fast hold of the principles of the reformation, and sees, as far as it can, that all its Missionary agents hold to those principles, and have experience of their power. Freedom-loving Englishmen must honour a body like this, which, while showing all due respect to civil and ecclesiastical authorities, claims for its Missionaries abroad the same immunities which by English law clergymen enjoy at home. And all truly devout Christians, whatever be their name, must reverence an institution which is carried on in the continued exercise of fervent and earnest prayer; which prayer the Lord has visibly answered, by wisdom guiding its counsels, and by the seal of His blessing set upon its work. There is no fear, therefore, that if an increased spirit of liberality is poured out on Christian people in these kingdoms; if they are led to the habit of regularly setting apart to the Lord a proper proportion of what He has given them; and if the parochial clergy bear the claims of the heathen upon their mind, and put their case before the people as a work which it is one of their highest duties and privileges to engage in; there is no fear but that a sufficient sum will annually find its way into the treasury of this Mission House; and that in place of withdrawing from work, or hesitating to send out the faithful men who offer, means will be found to do all the work which is continually opening out before us; and He, Who in answer to prayer has already given the increased opportunities and given the additional number of men, will thus, likewise in answer to prayer and through the awakened consciences of His people, supply the third requisite of money, now wanting to extend on every side this Missionary work.

But now I must add one other thought, if it were only in vindication of myself, and much more because the text, and all the testimony of Scripture, and all Christian experience require that it be referred to. Do not think for one moment that if we had the three requisites which I have often referred to in all abundance; if we had, as we have, widely extended opportunities; if we had, as we have in a measure, but need more abundantly, a large supply of men; and if we had, as we have not, but expect to have through the Lord's blessing an abundance of means by which they may be sent forth; do not think if we had all these to the utmost extent that our desires could reach, that therefore the Missionary work must as a matter of course prosper. We might have all this machinery, and wield it with consummate power and wisdom from its central point here at home, and yet after all nothing might be the result. It is not by any machinery which man has in his own hands to make use of, that the spiritual kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ can be advanced, or that heathens can be manufactured into Christians. "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." That same eternal and almighty Spirit, Who is described as coming down upon the Church at the beginning of the Acts, Who is spoken of as directing the apostles, and other preachers of the Gospel, in their movements, and Who is recognized as "The Hand of the Lord," accompanying their ministry, and making it effectual; it is He Who alone can do the work for which we can only make the preparations. We dig the cisterns and cut the channels, but it is only from above that the living water is to come down to run through them, with its life-giving and fertilizing power. We wait upon the Lord, "Until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest." But it is when we are faithful and self-denying, and thoroughly earnest in our preparation, that then the blessing will come. So it is promised in the text, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." The blessing specially intended in the text may have been temporal blessing, but it is by the same rule that spiritual blessing is given. When our efforts are whole-hearted, and self-forgetful, and that we cast ourselves upon the Lord, desirous only to do His work, it is then we may expect the Spirit to come down upon us, and to bless our labours. There was one little church, in times past, which gave itself entirely to Missionary work among the heathen, choosing the most uninviting regions of the earth as the places in which to labour, and sending forth to its Missions a larger number of its ministers and members than those who remained at home—the Church of the Moravians—and the Lord has signally blessed their self-denying efforts. And what might we not look for at the hands of the Lord, if the great Church of England, with all the advantages which it possesses, the Church of that nation which is looked up to and respected more than any other nation in the world; which has a larger heathen population placed under its rule, and a more extended dominion over the earth than was ever given before to any; if the Church of this nation would rise up, and with single-hearted devotedness cast itself at the Lord's feet, to do His work throughout the world, and use its wealth and influence, and the high education and Christian zeal of its sons and daughters, to accomplish that end to which the Lord in His providence seems specially to call it, to spread the spiritual kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ among all the varied people and nations with which it is brought into contact? How we might expect then that God the Holy Spirit, would seal that work, and stamp the impress of His power upon it, and make it effectual to the enlightenment and spiritual conversion of the heathen; then we might look, according to the language of the text, that the Lord would open the windows of heaven, and pour out such a blessing as that there would not be room enough to receive it. Then the natives of India, who have received so large a measure of intellectual enlightenment under our sway, and who have spread among them so widely a knowledge of the truths of Christianity, would receive those truths home in living power to their hearts, and believe on the Lord Jesus as the Saviour, given both for us and for them. Then the teeming multitudes of China, who in one province are showing a marvellous readiness for instruction, would gather to hear the tidings of salvation. Then the Japanese in the east, and the Red Indians in the west would listen to the Story of Peace proclaimed to them by British Christians. And the swarthy tribes of Africa, as here and there they are already doing, would receive that Gospel which brings true freedom to the soul, and rising from the slavery and degradation of many centuries, stand as equals by the side of their English fellow-Christians. If the English Church and nation would give itself to such a work as this, then would higher blessing than it ever yet has reached gather round it from the Lord's hand. The words spoken to Israel in the verse but one after the text (ver. 12), would be fulfilled in it, "All nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the Lord of hosts."

And let none think that the present agitated and uncertain state of the world is to be any hindrance to earnest Christian effort for the salvation of the heathen. It was in a far worse state of things that the fathers and founders of this Society first set their work on foot. Not only was war apprehended, but war was actually engaged in; nation after nation, on the Continent, were convulsed. England was then, indeed, in an isolated position; and the first Napoleon not only sought to combine the world against us, but even to land an invading army on our shores. It was in the midst of all these trying events that the earliest Missionaries of this Society went forth. And now, if it please God to stir up our hearts to make a fresh and onward movement, such as has not yet been made in this great cause of Christian Missions, we are not to be deterred by clouds on the political horizon. It is for that very reason we ought to be more earnest in the work. If we believe that He, who sent His blessed Son to be the Redeemer of sinners, is the same God who has all the affairs of the world in His hands, we may expect that when we are seeking to do His will, He will watch over us, and bless us. We do not want any political influence to be used in advancing the kingdom of Christ; but let Christian people in England pour forth freely their own resources, and combine together in their efforts for this end, and in place of taking away anything which might be used in the defence of our country, they are building up the best barrier for its defence. For, truly, the great strength of Britain does not consist in the wisdom of its statesmen, nor in the extent of its armies and its fleets, nor in the accumulated wealth of its people. It is in the Christian truth, and Christian morality, which to so great an extent prevail among them; and it is in proportion as these are preserved and upheld that its strength will continue. Let God's blessed word be honoured, and the truths which it reveals be heartily believed; let the worship of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ be upheld, unspoiled by the vagaries of superstition; let the rules of life, and the warnings against sin, which His word sets before us, be the standard by which our conduct is directed; and then, through the blessing of God resting on it, the greatness of this empire will remain unshaken; and when we send out our Missions over the whole earth, they will be so many stays by which that greatness shall be strengthened, our Christian influence shall be happily experienced, and a tie formed between those converted and Christianized heathen and our nation at home, more durable than any created by earthly power or policy. May the Lord Jesus Christ, the ever-living Head of His Church, pour out the Spirit upon all His people in these kingdoms, that they may be made ready thus to serve Him, to spread His Gospel, and to gather all men to the knowledge of His salvation.

THE following system for spelling NATIVE NAMES is recommended to the Society's Missionaries generally for adoption in their letters and reports, unless any of them should prefer a still closer approximation to the more elaborate scheme of Professor Lepsius. This system should not be applied, of course, to those well-known places of which the spelling has become so fixed that it would be mere pedantry to disturb it; as, for instance, Tinnevelly and Mysore.

RULES FOR PRONUNCIATION.

The powers of the vowels are as follows:—

a as in '*a*bout.'
â usually as in '*f*ather' (in North-Indian words as in '*a*ll').
e as in 'h*e*n.'
ê as in 'f*ê*te.'
i as in 'th*i*n.'
î as in 'p*i*que.'
o as in 'n*o*t,' or as in the French 'b*o*nne.'
ô as in 'n*o*te.'
u as in 'f*u*ll.'
û as in 'tr*u*ly.'
ai as i in 'th*i*ne.'
au or ou or ow as in 'b*ou*gh.'

It needs only to be noticed further that—

y always sounds as in '*y*ou.'
g „ as in '*g*o.'
j „ as in '*j*oin.'
gn as in 'poi*gn*ant,' 'Epa*gn*e.' ng as in 'thi*ng*.'
ei as in 'v*ei*n.'

h has always a separate sound, except in ch as in '*ch*urch,' and sh as in '*sh*e;' th and dh should, therefore, not be used in South Indian names to express the dental t and d.

c whether for k or s, being superfluous, is not used.

Doubled letters should each be pronounced distinctly, as in Italian.

ae represents a sound intermediate between a in 'm*a*t' and e in 'm*e*t.'

The above Rules are not adopted in the N.W. America Mission.

REPORT,

&c., &c.

The Committee acknowledge with humble gratitude to Him in whose hands are the hearts of all, the strenuous and self-denying exertions put forth by the supporters of the Society during the past year, to meet the adverse balance of 1876, and to sustain the Society's operations throughout the world.

The general receipts compared with those of the preceding year are as follows:—Associations, 143,695*l.*, as against 128,638*l.*; Benefactions, 35,757*l.*, as against 14,242*l.*; Legacies, 19,207*l.*, as against 24,688*l.*; Sundries, 8394*l.*, as against 8425*l*; making a total of 207,053*l.*, as against 175,993*l.* Of this about 16,000*l.* has been contributed specially towards meeting last year's excess of expenditure over income; 10,000*l.* being sent direct under Benefactions, and about 6000*l.* through the Associations. A legacy of 3000*l.* left by the late George Moore, Esq., invested for 3030*l.* for the trusts of the Disabled Missionaries' Fund, reduces the available income for the year to 204,025*l.*—The general expenditure during the past year (excluding special Funds) has been 194,429*l.*, to which must be added the last year's deficiency of 13,917*l.*, making a total of 208,346*l.*, and being an excess of expenditure over receipts of 4321*l.*

On account of Special Funds, connected with the East Africa the Victoria Nyanza the Niger and the Persia Missions, the Committee have received further the sum of 8118*l.*; but the expenditure in these Missions, especially the Nyanza and the Niger, has been large, so that these funds have again been overdrawn to the extent of about 4000*l.* This sum, together with the balance due on the general account, has been again temporarily supplied from the Capital Fund.

While the Committee are deeply thankful for the privilege of announcing such a result, it is their duty, at the same time, to remind their friends that the exigencies of the work will allow of no slackening of zeal. On the contrary, if that work is to be extended or even maintained in efficiency, the efforts of the past year must not be regarded as exceptional, but must be sustained and multiplied with increasing vigour.

But instead of enlarging upon this subject themselves, the Committee would quote from a letter just received from one of the oldest and staunchest friends of the Society, the Rev. G. T. Fox, of Durham—a letter which they are sure will be read with thankful interest, and be felt by their friends, as it has been by themselves, to be an encouragement for a new and more vigorous campaign in the name of their Ascended Lord:—

"My dear Mr. Wright,—It has for some time been upon my mind to make an offering of 5000*l.* to the Church Missionary Society. . . . . I have been led to this decision by the following considerations:—1. The anniversary last year showed such a serious deficiency in the funds as led the Committee to institute a very stringent process of retrenchment. The necessity for this I don't at all question. But there was one element involved in that retrenchment at which I felt most especially grieved, and that was the determination to reduce the number of students at Islington College. . . . . In the year 1872 a day was set apart for special prayer annually for Missions, having specially in view the provision of a larger supply of men. From that time the number of our students at Islington began to increase, till they reached the unprecedented number of sixty-one. Thus did our gracious God answer the prayers of His servants; and it comes home with peculiar pain to my heart, as a most ungracious act on the part of the Evangelical section of our Church, that we should refuse the gift and introduce retrenchment where God would seem to have ordained expansion. For this the Committee are in no wise to blame; it lies exclusively at the door of those who, professing to be under the influence of Gospel motives, refuse to deny themselves, and to give with larger liberality according to the increasing necessity of the case. I have no intention to shackle the Committee in any way; but I wish them to realize, that the leading object of my making this donation at this time, is to save us from the humiliating necessity of retrenchment at Islington; and I would like at the approaching anniversary to make an earnest appeal to the friends of the Society there assembled to take this important question into most serious consideration. Are we to refuse suitable and promising candidates whom God is raising up? Or shall we not rather recognize them as a gift of God, and that their education and maintenance are a solemn responsibility laid upon us, from which we must not shrink? In order to do this, however, the means must be forthcoming. That venerable man, Thomas Scott, one of the founders of our Society, wrote in the year 1799 in reference to this subject, "We have no fear of not getting money, if the Lord will but form us Missionaries." Let us not reverse this proposition, and refuse the Missionaries whom God is offering to form, by refusing to provide the funds for educating them. 2. The second motive inducing me to make this gift is purely personal. This is the fiftieth anniversary of my first becoming a subscriber. 3. The third and last is one which I am sure will be shared by every true-hearted supporter of our Society. Whilst fully recognizing the principle of stewardship as the only sound one for a Christian in his administration of the substance entrusted to his care by his Heavenly Father, so beautifully expressed by David in his prayer of dedication,—"All this store cometh of Thine hand and is all Thine own; for all things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee,"—yet, I don't consider there is anything inconsistent with this principle in making a specific gift, at a particular time, to take the form of a thankoffering for a special mercy. Acting on this principle, it is my desire to connect the offering which I now make to the Society with an expression of the deepest and most devout thankfulness to our Heavenly Father, for having preserved the Church Missionary Society during the last forty years, in so remarkable a way, both as regards its Committee, and Officers, and its Missionaries, from that influx of error wherewith our Church has been flooded during that period. That it still stands up in our land as a rallying-point for all who are attached to Evangelical principles; that it still upholds in pristine purity those grand dogmatic verities of Scripture on which it was founded by its honoured fathers of last century, is to me a source of deep, unfeigned, thankfulness and joy. . . . . The firmness of decision displayed recently by the Committee, in the Ceylon difficulty, certainly furnishes us with no grounds for fears [on this point]; and the divine support which can alone preserve it from drifting from its moorings in such stormy days as these, has been so wonderfully vouchsafed, that it ought to call forth the lively gratitude of every true-hearted Evangelical man and woman, and prompt them to give practical proof of their gratitude, by rallying around our beloved Society in its present necessities, so as to tide it over its difficulties; proving at the same time that there are no motives so powerful in constraining the heart to self-denying devotion to Christ as that of a free salvation through the blood of the Cross. I remain, yours most sincerely, G. T. Fox. Durham, April, 1878."

Another friend whose liberality was acknowledged last year under the name of "One of the Honorary Association Secretaries and Helper once in the Mission Field," has suggested the opening of a "Substitute for Service" list, and has offered to guarantee a sum of 250*l.* per annum for ten years if a few others would join him in the same.

PATRONAGE.

A special recognition will be accorded by the friends of the Society to some of the Episcopal names to be added this year, on their acceptance of the office, to the list of Vice-Presidents. To Dr. Thorold, Bishop of Rochester; Dr. Rowley Hill, Bishop of Sodor and Man; and Dr. Trollope, Bishop Suffragan of Nottingham; are added from the Mission-field the names of Dr. Johnson, Bishop of Calcutta; Dr. French, Bishop of Lahore; Dr. Titcomb, Bishop of Rangoon; Dr. Stuart, Bishop of Waiapu; and Bishops Sargent and Caldwell of Tinnevelly. Twenty-seven years ago, Thomas Valpy French, an honoured son of the University of Oxford, and Edward Craig Stuart, an equally honoured member of Trinity College, Dublin, went forth together to India in the same ship as Missionaries of this Society. During the past year, within a fortnight of each other, they have been advanced to the Episcopal office, one to the new Diocese in the Punjab, and the other, elected by the unanimous vote of the local Church Synod, to be a Bishop in the distant colony of New Zealand. J. D. Allcroft, Esq., M.P., and Major-General Sir William Hill, K.C.S.I., for years a member of the Committee, have also accepted the office of Vice-Presidents. The following, having rendered essential services to the Society, have been added to the list of Honorary Governors for life:—Nathanael Bridges, Esq., for thirteen years Hon. Solicitor to the Society, succeeding his father in that office after twenty years' service; Dr. George Johnson, for sixteen years the Society's Hon. Consulting Physician; Thomas Byard Sheppard, Esq., of Frome; and the Rev. James Vaughan, Vicar of Christ Church, Brighton.

The death-roll of the past year has been an unusually heavy one, both among the friends of the Society at home and the Missionaries abroad, and contains some honoured names. From among the Vice-Presidents and members of Committee, love and esteem claim special mention for General Edward Lake; General Clarke; Francis N. Maltby; and Thomas J. Knox. The Rev. Joseph Fenn, of Blackheath, himself a Missionary, and the father of two Missionaries; and the Rev. Peter French, the father of the Bishop, have also passed away to the Lord they loved, like shocks of corn fully ripe, honoured and beloved above many. Of English Missionaries, eight have been called away during the year, two by the stroke of martyrdom, while no less than seven have had to mourn the removal of their wives, devoted to their Saviour's service.

The Master calls by these things to His servants that are left to work while it is day, and to do their utmost in overtaking the long neglected harvest of the world.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES.

Fewer qualified labourers have been accepted for foreign service during the past year than in previous years, the number being six only. Of these, three were in Holy Orders —one from Oxford, one from Cambridge, and one from St. Bees. There is as yet, therefore, from the Universities more promise than fruit.

The Committee felt obliged, on financial grounds, to limit the number of students to be received into the Islington College. Some have on this account been kept waiting for a few months, but the Committee have as yet declined none who appeared to them to be really called of GOD to the work. Out of nearly fifty who offered themselves, twelve have been accepted during the year; so that the number at this time under training at Islington and elsewhere is still no less than sixty. The Committee would desire to prepare their supporters for the fact that the number leaving Islington next year will be unprecedented, namely, eighteen as against an average of eight or ten; so that if the whole number is to be utilized for the foreign field, the effort recently made to increase the Society's income must not only be sustained but increased.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Two of the Society's Missionaries have been consecrated to the office of Bishop, viz., Rev. E. C. Stuart to the Bishopric of Waiapu; and the Rev. T. V. French to the Bishopric of Lahore; twelve Missionaries have been admitted to Deacons' Orders during the year, viz., three by the Archbishop of Canterbury; four by the Bishop of London; one by the Bishop of Calcutta; one by the Right Rev. Bishop Gobat; one by the Bishop of Sierra Leone; one by the Bishop of Wellington; and one by the Bishop of Athabasca. Thirteen Deacons have received Priests' Orders from the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishops of London, Madras, Sierra Leone, Rupert's Land, Auckland, and Bishop Gobat during the year.

NUMBER OF LABOURERS.

During the year seventeen European Clergymen, and fifteen Laymen have been sent from Europe or received in the Mission-field; and twenty-two labourers of all classes have, through death and other causes, ceased to be agents of the Society. The number of the Society's European labourers at the present date is as follows:—

Abroad—
Missionaries in Holy Orders	164
Lay Missionaries	38
Female Teachers	10
		212
At Home—
Missionaries in Holy Orders	39
Lay Missionaries	5
Female Teachers	3
		259

Of the Native ordained labourers, six have died, two have retired, and one has joined the Native Church of Sierra Leone during the year. The number at present is 172, a decrease of four on the total of last year. There are also ten country-born Clergymen labouring as agents of the Society.

SIERRA LEONE.

General.

Progress in the independence of the Sierra Leone Church.

It was mentioned in last year's Report that the only congregation still connected with the Society in Sierra Leone was that of Kissey Road Church. Towards the close of the year now under review, this congregation also, by the consent of all parties concerned, and with the help of a grant from the Henry Venn Fund, was connected with the Sierra Leone Native Church. The pecuniary aid, therefore, rendered by the Society to the Sierra Leone Church, independently of the Society's educational establishments, will consist only of an annual grant to the Church Council, which will in due time be gradually withdrawn. The Society retains in its own hands the FOURAH BAY COLLEGE, the GRAMMAR SCHOOL, the ANNIE MEMORIAL SCHOOL (FEMALE INSTITUTION), and, in the more purely evangelistic branch of Missionary effort, the MOHAMMEDAN MISSION in the Colony, and the station of PORT LOKKOH.

Kissey Road Congregation.

From what has just been said, it will be understood that the present volume is the last Annual Report where the Kissey Road congregation will be referred to as connected with the Sierra Leone Mission. At the same time the Committee are thankful that the appointment of its late minister, the Rev. L. Nicholson, to a government chaplaincy in the colony enables them to retain his valuable services as the Corresponding Secretary of the Society. His Curate was the Rev. N. J. Cole. The number of Native Adherents connected with the Kissey Road Church was given in the preceding year at 1413. Mr. Cole, who adopts a broader mode of reckoning, states the number at 5000. The Communicants have increased from 560 to 574. The total of contributions for religious purposes is given by Mr. Cole as 93*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.* Mr. Cole remarks that the (registered) Communicants are very irregular in attendance, and that many of them, to his deep regret, do not seem to value the Holy Communion as they ought to do. The Sunday School, attended by adults as well as children, continues to prosper; and the District Visitors, male and female, work willingly and prayerfully. May the earnest prayers for the blessing of the Great Head of the Church, with which Mr. Cole closes his Annual Letter, be abundantly answered!

MOHAMMEDAN MISSION.

The Rev. A. Schapira had to leave Sierra Leone, by medical advice, in July, 1877. During the former half of the year he had been able to labour with diligence among the Mohammedans, while also giving some help at the Fourah Bay College. Mr. Schapira writes:—

> I thank God that my work among the Mohammedans for that time went on very favourably indeed. I had the opportunity of proclaiming the Gospel of the salvation of Christ to many, both at their own houses as well as in mine; and there were a great many eager listeners, not only from Sierra Leone, but those that had come many a hundred miles from the interior on trade. I had also several candidates for instruction in Christianity, and who were desirous to be baptized; but I could not see my way to do so, on account of their future prospects, as after baptism they would be most likely forsaken by their friends and entirely dependent on myself. The Mohammedan school was progressing; the children, both girls and boys, increased to a large number. The instructions consisted of reading English and Arabic; learning of passages of Scripture and hymns by heart; the Lord's Prayer in Yoruba, Arabic, and English; Watts's Catechism, and reading of the Bible, both in English and Arabic, to the elder boys and girls.

Mr. Schapira suggests that an Industrial School should be established, where Mohammedan inquirers might be taught some trade. A flourishing Church like that of Sierra Leone will doubtless be able to devise means for the reception of Mohammedan converts.

Mohammedan inquirers in Sierra Leone.

Since Mr. Schapira's leaving Sierra Leone the work has been taken up by Mr. A. Burtchaell. Mr. Burtchaell regularly visits the Mohammedans at their own residences, both those permanently residing in the colony and those sojourning there for the purposes of trade. He is allowed to read the Bible to them; and they almost always listen with attention, though objecting to the doctrine of the divinity of the Lord Jesus. Sometimes the visits are returned, when the conversation invariably assumes a religious character, and Arabic Bibles and Scripture portions are gladly received. There is opposition on the part of the priests and headmen; but, notwithstanding this, several Mohammedans seem to be honestly seeking for further acquaintance with the Gospel. Mr. Burtchaell speaks of it as "a glorious sight to see these men diligently reading the Bible, and noting down in their own language his remarks on the passage read." In the Mohammedan School there were at the date of the last accounts 86 children in attendance.

The Rev. C. L. Reichardt, besides assisting at Fourah Bay College, is diligently engaged in literary and other work for the benefit of the Fulahs visiting the colony or residing in it. He has frequent conversation with them, and is translating into their language the Book of Genesis. The Fulahs, it need scarcely be remarked, are all Mohammedans.

Education.

As regards numbers, the FOURAH BAY COLLEGE has made little or no advance during the year. Non-resident Students, of whom there were three at the close of 1876, are not mentioned in the most recent report. The Resident Students are twelve in number. Of these, three are pay-students from Lagos; five are "on the foundation;" and four hold scholarships given by the Society, in the hope that those who are by this means receiving a free education, may hereafter become evangelists among their countrymen. The Theological Students (who left the College at the close of 1877) were five in number. All these have been set to work, one at PORT LOKKOH, two in the Quiah and Bullom Missions of the Sierra Leone Church, one at Clines Town, and one with Mr. Burtchaell in the MOHAMMEDAN MISSION.

African University Students.

Four of them had passed the Durham University Theological Examination, conducted by means of papers sent out to Sierra Leone. The remaining seven were Art Students, and were reported of in January of the present year, as showing great diligence in their studies, and as holding themselves in readiness for an examination that was to be held immediately. Five of these have subsequently been successful. There is a small chapel-of-ease in the close neighbourhood of the College, which supplies work for the Theological Students on Thursday and Sunday. It is attended on Sunday morning by about seventy persons.

The FEMALE INSTITUTION is henceforth to be called the ANNIE MEMORIAL SCHOOL. The unhealthiness of the climate has had its usual effect on the European teachers; but just at the time when Miss Caspari seemed about to be left alone, she was joined by Miss Quaker, a native lady educated in England. And "a very good helper" Miss Caspari finds her to be. Miss Caspari writes,—

> You will be pleased to hear that we have applied to the College of Preceptors for some of our elder girls to be admitted to their yearly examinations; we are now awaiting their reply. We trust we shall be successful, and by this means stir up our children to more continuous study. I need hardly say that all study is considered as occupying a secondary place in comparison with Bible study; and for this end we have a daily Bible-class with the exception of Monday, because on that day the early morning lesson is of a Scriptural character. I think I can say of a few of our elder girls that they are truly striving to follow the Lord and to please Him; and on the whole, there is, I believe, a quicker perception of sin than there used to be. Will you sometimes remember us, and ask God with us, that for Jesus' sake it may please Him to pour out His Holy Spirit upon us all, so that there might be an awakening among these children, and that many a one might be constrained to give herself up to the Lord?

The Committee had hoped that ere this the SHERBRO MISSION would have been transferred to the Sierra Leone Church, but at present the proposal of the Committee has, on financial grounds, been declined. At each of the four stations, Bonth, Bendu, Victoria, York Island, the attendants at public worship (numbering altogether 375, with 175 Communicants) are mainly immigrants from Sierra Leone, who, being nominal Christians, are not properly objects for the Society's labours. Meanwhile the heathen in their neighbourhood form a suitable field for the Evangelistic activity of these Native Christian congregations. The Catechists at their different stations appear to have been working steadily; though it is to be regretted that some of them are still ignorant of the Sherbro language. Those friends in England who have taken a special interest in the Mendi and Sherbro Mission, will, it is hoped, redouble their prayers to God for a blessing on the work, when it is handed over to the Native Church.

PORT LOKKOH.

The work at Port Lokkoh was under the charge of the Rev. A. Schapira until his leaving the colony in July, 1877. The Rev. C. Baker, who was subsequently appointed to this station, arrived in Sierra Leone in the following November, but was compelled by complete failure of health to return to this country in February last. A Native Catechist is stationed there. Mr. Schapira writes,—

I visited Port Lokkoh every month, during which time the Gospel was proclaimed to many hundreds, not only to the people in Port Lokkoh, but to strangers, who came from the interior, in the Timneh, Mandingo, and Fulah languages. My stay in Port Lokkoh varied from two or three days to a fortnight. We had regular service at the shed which we have erected every Sunday morning and afternoon, and open-air service to strangers in the evening. The strangers who came to it were many hundreds. Two very rich men (Natives) asked to be baptized, but I refused, on the ground that they had many wives. One of them promised me to give up his harem, only to retain one, be baptized, and then married after the Christian law; but he has as yet not fulfilled his promise. I trust the Lord will yet open his eyes, and that he will yet be brought to the feet of Christ. The slave-trade is still very great in that part. To pass canoe after canoe, and see poor young men and women tied like beasts for sale is most distressing for a European, whom they know to be a despiser of the slave-trade, and their friend, having their eyes appealingly upon him, and who hears their cry for help, without being able to assist them.

THE Committee's efforts to strengthen the European staff in this Mission have not yet been successful. The Rev. J. S. Hill, who went out in 1876 and was compelled by failure of health to return home in 1877, has been declared by the Society's Medical Board unfit for a tropical climate, and has been transferred to the New Zealand Mission. A zealous young missionary, Mr. J. B. Read, who was sent out in July, 1877, to succeed Mr. Hill at Leke, was carried off by fever in the following December, after beginning work with very much energy and promise.

LAGOS.

Native Congregations.

The Rev. T. B. Wright (a native African Clergyman) ministers to the Faji congregation. The Native Adherents number 423, of whom 190 are Communicants. Fifteen adults were baptized during the year. The following extracts from Mr. Wright's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

On the whole our work in this district has made healthy progress and looks promising. The Mohammedans continue their visits to our places of worship. The services are not (like those in the mosque) altogether unmeaning to them, being conducted in the vulgar tongue. Besides this, there are some amongst them, like Nicodemus of old, who, convinced of the truthfulness of Christianity, are coming by stealth to know more of the way. One of those newly baptized is the Mohammedan woman of whom mention was made in my last year's letter. On the day of her baptism her countenance was so beaming with delight and joy that one could not but observe it. This woman had to suffer as much persecution as was possible under the British law. Some time before her conversion her husband had been away from Lagos, and before his return he became totally blind. This misfortune—although a Mohammedan, a believer in fate—he attributed, on his arrival home, to the change of religion made by his wife. The consequence of this was that she was expelled from the house, and her only daughter taken from her, the mind of whom was so biassed that she refused all intercourse with her mother. In spite of these, the woman was unmoved, hoping that a day of reconciliation with them might not be long in coming. May she be kept steadfast to the end, and may some, if not all, of those who are her persecutors eventually come to share in the blessing of God!

Mohammedan inquirers; baptism of a persecuted Mohammedan convert.

The destruction by fire of the churches of Ebute Ero and Breadfruit was mentioned in the Report for 1876-7. Mr. Maser states that, "through collections made after the fire, the school-church at Breadfruit has been more substantially built than it was before; and" that "in Ebute Ero a stately church and parsonage are well-nigh finished, in place of the old buildings of mud covered with thatch."

The Ebute Ero congregation is no longer connected with the Society, having been transferred to the Native Church organization.

The congregation of Breadfruit took an affectionate leave, in February, 1877, of their former pastor, the Rev. James Johnson, proceeding to Abeokuta, presenting him with a handsomely bound Bible, and a purse of 25*l*. The congregation has since his departure been under the care of the Rev. Henry Johnson, assisted by the Rev. S. Pearse; but no report of it has been received from either of them.

Of Aroloya, a congregation formed partly of refugees from Abeokuta on the occasion of the outbreak in 1867, its Native pastor, Rev. N. Johnson, writes as follows:—

Acknowledgment by a Native clergyman of the successful energy of a European Missionary.

The church of Aroloya is eleven years old. The history of the material building is no less interesting than that of the congregation itself; and while the former has now attained to something like perfection for the use of the present generation, the latter is gradually taking root downwards and bearing fruit upwards, some of which fruit has already been gathered into the heavenly garner. It is impossible to touch on this subject without a passing tribute of praise to the Rev. A. Mann, who was made the honoured instrument in God's hand to found this Church. He began this good work by force of circumstances; and, judging from the nature of the locality chosen, from its being entirely surrounded by bigoted Mohammedans, and from other seemingly insurmountable difficulties in his way, it is no exaggeration to affirm that a man of less courage, energy, and perseverance, could not have accomplished what he did. He set to work with an indomitable will; and the results amply repay his labour. He first obtained a piazza, then an empty, half-finished house for school and church purposes, and yet he had no school, no congregation. After a while the school was opened with three children, which gradually increased to five. The congregation numbered seven. A site having been obtained from Governor Glover, who warmly supported him, he was subsequently enabled to erect a temporary shed, which the then increasing congregation and scholars greatly needed.

The Church record shows that since the commencement, 98 infants and 102 adults have been admitted into the Church by baptism. The present number of communicants on the roll is 80; candidates for the Lord's Supper, 28; catechumens, 36; scholars in the day-school, 88; while the weekly Sunday services vary in number on an average between 160 and 170 in the morning, and 180 and 190 in the afternoon. The moral tone of the Church is in an improved state; and it is a source of comfort and joy to see some who had been evil-livers renouncing their sinful habits and bad practices, and kneeling meekly with the rest round the Table to partake of the dying memorials of our Redeemer. It is also pleasing to see the elder women training the younger ones in the constant practice of visiting the sick and afflicted, and, after a few words of sympathy, kneeling down and praying with and for them. One is very much affected with the simplicity and fervency of the prayers of some among the male portion in the congregation, in our monthly prayer-meetings. Their willingness and readiness to subscribe their pennies to any religious object, shows they are growing alive to the sense of their duties. Eleven years ago, such things could not have been said of them. And who can tell what shall be eleven years to come? Surely the Lord is working among us. May He continue to smile on our weak efforts, and grant to us His heavenly blessing!

A Native African congregation at Lagos.

The statistics of Aroloya show the following advance during the year:—Adherents, from 172 to 270; Communicants, from 75 to 80; adult baptisms, from 19 to 22.

Education.

The Training Institution is under the care of the Rev. J. B. Wood. The year began with 31 students and ended with 28. None were sent out to work during 1877; but some have subsequently received appointments. The earnestness and diligence of the assistant tutors "must not," Mr. Wood remarks, "pass without acknowledgment. They have thrown themselves into their work right heartily."

The Rev. T. B. Macaulay, a diligent and faithful Native African labourer, who had had the charge of the Grammar School for fourteen years, has recently been removed by small-pox. Shortly before his death he had sent in the subjoined Report:—

In reference to my department of labour in the Grammar School, I am thankful to be able to report that the Lord has graciously continued His mercies to us in this department of our work, notwithstanding our unworthiness and unprofitableness.

The pupils, twenty-five in number, have recently been examined publicly, as is usual at this time of the year, before the Christmas vacation. On Tuesday the 18th instant, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the morning, the public examination began, presided over by his Excellency the Acting Administrator, J. A. Dumaresq, Esq., who was welcomed in with the National Anthem, and who, in consequence of fever, was, after a short stay, compelled to leave, asking the Rt. Rev. Bishop Crowther to be kind enough to take his place. The proceedings were opened with singing, "The house upon a rock." Archdeacon Johnson read Eccles., 1st chapter, and offered prayer. The 2nd and 3rd class boys together were then examined in the Book of Exodus by my assistant teacher, who also examined them in Morell's Analysis and Latin Grammar. The Rev. J. A. Maser examined the 1st class boys in Nicholls' "Help to Reading the Bible;" the Rev. J. B. Wood examined the 1st class in Moral Science; Archdeacon Johnson examined the 1st class in Roman and Grecian Histories; and the same class was examined in Euclid's Elements, Bk. 1st, Prop. 5th, by myself. Five of the pupils recited select pieces on the occasion. These exercises went on till 2 p.m., when the Bishop concluded with a few practical remarks to the pupils, who then sang "Ring the bells of Heaven," the Bishop pronouncing the Benediction.

Besides the school duties, I take turns with Messrs. Maser and Wood in the conducting of the Sunday services at Christ Church, Faji—not mentioning other duties as secretary of the School Board, of the Church Committee, and of the Lagos Auxiliary Association of the British and Foreign Bible Society, composed of lay and clerical members of the several denominations here.

The charge of the Grammar School has been temporarily taken by the Rev. H. (now Archdeacon) Johnson.

The Rev. A. and Mrs. Mann returning to Europe to recruit their health, the FEMALE INSTITUTION was placed under the care of Mr. and Mrs. J. Field, who were sent from England for that purpose. The number of pupils remains as before, from 50 to 55. Of these thirteen are boarders. The instruction is in the English language, but does not go beyond elementary subjects. Scripture, it need scarcely be said, occupies the highest place. In the course of the year Mrs. Field was compelled by sickness to return to England. Mr. Field has made such arrangements as were possible for carrying on the work in her absence.

Itinerating Branch.

Mr. Faulkner has made several evangelistic tours, and has visited many towns and villages towards the north-east. His reception was varied, but on the whole encouraging.—The chief and people of Okeodan were especially favourable, and expressed the strongest desire to have a Christian teacher stationed among them. Mr. Faulkner succeeded in making arrangements with an intelligent and consistent Native

Christian, already settled in the place, to act as Catechist and Evangelist among them for a small remuneration, such as might compensate for the pecuniary loss which he would suffer from being able to pay less attention to the farms which he had under cultivation.—At Ado, on the other hand, there was a disappointment, the king and the elders having made over a site to Mr. Faulkner, but the war chiefs refusing to consent. Though the idol priests did what they could to stir up the opposition of the latter, it seems possible that the alleged cause of the difficulty may have been the real one, namely, that the war chiefs were not consulted, and did not receive their share of the present given on the occasion. It is hoped, however, that the delay thus occasioned will not be of long continuance.

LEKE AND ONDO.

Mr. Read's brief but earnest labours at LEKE have already been referred to. There is reason to believe that the Native brethren were much stirred up by his zeal. The 2nd of September, 1877, is described by the Native Catechist "a happy day." Fifteen adults were admitted to baptism, one of whom had been an Ifa priest of much influence. A congregation of upwards of one hundred persons was present on the occasion.

By an accidental misplacement of type it was made to appear in the Report for 1876-7, that the Rev. C. Phillips was stationed at Itebu. His station was then, as it is now, ODE ONDO. Mr. Phillips writes:—

> The average number of Ondo attendance at our Sunday services is fifty-seven for the morning service, and forty-four for the afternoon. I commenced a class for inquirers on the 30th of June with five men and one woman; I have now nine men and seven women on the list. I have reason to hope that some of them are sincere, and that they are understanding the truths of Christianity. At first they feared to have their names down on the list, but now they are boldly declaring their attachment to and preference for Christianity. Seven of the sixteen candidates belong to the family of Nasi, the chief in whose house Mr. Hinderer lodged. This chief not only allowed his people to attend our services and class-meetings, but he always attended the services himself. He did not make his annual sacrifice to Ifa this year. The king and chiefs and the people generally are showing us more respect and confidence, the refractory Lisa not excepted. When I first came here, he used to say, "I know no one but Governor Glover; if you were sent by him, I would receive you heartily." But now he says, "I know only Governor Glover and the missionaries." The chiefs have recently granted us a good plot of ground; and they have just consented to open a new road to Itebu, by which travelling and carriage will become cheaper and easier for us.

BADAGRY.

The Rev. D. Coker (African clergyman) is the Missionary of this station. The congregation have been for some years disturbed by mutual dissensions. Concord is now restored; and several of them show zeal in evangelizing their countrymen. Seven adults have been baptized during the year. The number of resident Christians does not, however, increase, owing to the continued emigration from Badagry to Lagos and other places. The population of Badagry has been for some time steadily diminishing, owing to the absence of trade. The backwardness of Badagry, in temporal matters, may arise from the same cause that retards the extension of the Gospel in its neighbourhood—the superstition and fanaticism of the Popos, who form the main part of the population. The Popos are heathen; but there are several Mohammedan residents at Badagry, with whom Mr. Coker has frequent conversation on religious subjects.

Mr. Coker has also paid evangelistic visits to neighbouring villages, but with few exceptions finds the inhabitants, who are also Popos, very averse to listen to the Gospel.

ABEOKUTA.

The Rev. James Johnson (who is so well known to many of the supporters of the Society at home) has been recently appointed by the Committee to superintend the Society's operations in Abeokuta and Ibadan and the adjoining districts. Mr. Johnson reached Abeokuta on the 26th of February, 1877. The chiefs received Mr. Johnson, when he called upon them, with courtesy, and even expressed themselves pleased at his official connexion with the Mission; though none of them returned the visit.

The population of Abeokuta is at the present time about 150,000. Ordinarily, it would be about 130,000. But the hostilities that have recently sprung up with Ibadan have brought in many from their farms.—The slave population is very large, and is steadily increasing, both by births and by purchase. A large number of slaves is a criterion of wealth and social importance. So also, alas! is polygamy.—The Alake (or king) died December 29th, 1877. He was a king only in name; and the throne is still vacant.

In a brief sketch of the past history of the Mission Mr. Johnson thus summarizes the result of former labours:—

The Mission work was commenced in Abeokuta in 1845, by the Rev. H. Townsend and the Rev. Samuel Crowther, now Bishop Crowther. The result of the work done is to be seen to-day in:—the existence of a Church Community of about 2000 persons; six Churches and Chapels; six Elementary Schools, and one High School, containing altogether 283 scholars; the three farm churches of Shuren, Afojupa, and Ofada (which promise soon to become centres for other churches of like description); the Churches of Ebute Meta and Aroloya in Lagos, formed from refugees, who fled on the outbreak in 1867; and lastly, Native Scripture-readers, Schoolmasters, Catechists, and Ministers. A very large number of believers have died in the faith. A complete translation has been made of the New Testament, of much of the Old Testament, and of the Liturgy and the Thirty-nine Articles, with various useful tracts. A native School Board has been formed; as also a native Church Council, administering local funds for pastoral and Missionary work. Among the converts, love for agriculture and legitimate trade (too intense in many cases) has succeeded love for war, kidnapping and the slave-trade.

The following are Mr. Johnson's first impressions of the present state of affairs:—

At Abeokuta, the adherents to the Church are about 2000, the result of years of hard and patient labour. All the ordinary routine machinery is at work. . . . The Church has had its trials and difficulties. . . . . A spirit of worldly-mindedness has overtaken the people. Sunday services are attended by an aggregate total of 1273, so that there is an aggregate average absence of 727. Weekday services are very carelessly and negligently attended. Sunday-schools are neglected; vernacular Scriptures are underrated, to the serious injury of vital godliness; the love of learning is very small, and so is the spirit of liberality. There is no manifestation of a spirit of manly independence—no desire to take up one's own burden. Polygamy is a decided difficulty, and in consequence of it the number of young men in full communion with the Church is very small indeed. Heathens come in in comparatively very small numbers. They are, generally speaking, indifferent to religious conversation. Worldly-minded before, increasing prosperity has made them more so now.

There is a School Board that shows much real and solid interest in the work; but it wants the interest of the whole Church and more liberal support; and in this work prejudice to the vernacular has yet to be overcome in many cases, in order to make the foundation of learning laid at school really solid.

We are extending our work by building a station for a catechist in the Ijaye township [part of Abeokuta itself], an out-station at Ilugu, and a catechist station at Ikeseku. We have been provided with a small fund of 20*l*. for Ijaye by a member of the AKE congregation. The people work themselves in a body once a week with much real pleasure.

I have had several conferences with the ministers and other agents, and had a general Church meeting—lay delegates and agents—on the 7th January, 1878. The result is an increase of weekly class-fee from one to seven and a half strings (i. e. from something over $\frac{1}{4}d.$ to $1\frac{1}{2}d.$). Three-fourths will go to a Local School Fund, and one and a quarter to the General Pastorate Fund. Local Church and School Committees have been formed; an Abeokuta Mission Fund has been established; Sunday offertories have been made general; a voluntary lay missionary agency and bands of district visitors have also been established; and a general harvest thanksgiving-day has been appointed. I am pleased to be able to say that my brother ministers and other agents manifest readiness to co-operate with me. Our conferences have been characterized with harmony and mutual sympathy. They have much helped me in devising plans and schemes for the Church.

I have formed a reading class with the catechists, and they have been reading Scripture, the Liturgy by Trollope, and the Mizan-ul-Haqq; but our meetings have of late suffered from unavoidable interruptions.

The war declared between this place and Ibadan in July last has much interfered with our work; it has cut off communication with the further interior, and often hindered us by the excitement it produces here. Our Christian people have been dragged into the affair; they have no desire for war. Indeed, the whole Egba country is tired of war, and dislikes it; but the present one is considered a war of defence.

Nov. 30th was with us here, as with Christians elsewhere, a day of special intercession for missions. I had an early meeting with the agents, when we endeavoured from Scripture to strengthen one another, and to realize our duty, privilege, and responsibility, and the way in which we should do our work. We had after this a united morning service at AKE, when Rev. W. Allen preached from Josh. xiii. 1. The attendance was not large, but the service was delightful and profitable. Intercession meetings were had in the different churches in the afternoon.

What I conceive to be our greatest want in this mission, and among our Native Christians generally, is a true missionary spirit, showing itself not only in liberal contributions, and even in services rendered when solicited, but in a readiness, willingness, and forwardness to make Christ known to the heathen, springing from one's own personal interest in and love for Jesus, one's own earnest desire to advance the kingdom, and one's own jealous regard for His honour; such an interest and such a forwardness as would lead converts and members of themselves to be spreading their religion in the farms and towns where they ply their trades without waiting for their ministers or any of the recognized forms of Church procedure—doing it only because they love Jesus and desire their friends' salvation.

In another communication Mr. Johnson writes:—

The two Christian townships contrast very favourably with other parts of the town, for regularity of streets and houses, cleanliness and quiet, and the comfort their inhabitants seem to enjoy. The influence of Christianity upon heathenism has been considerable. Faith in offerings to imaginary deities and devils is not so strong as it was; human sacrifices are scarcely heard of. Domestic slavery is kept up, but there is not any public slave-mart in Abeokuta itself. The Native Church—a religious Society alien in creed and practice to others in the country—now exists; it is comparatively small, but it is recognized by all as a distinct Society.

Collateral benefits arising from the preaching of the Gospel.

The Ake Station, under the pastoral care of the Rev. D. Williams, is in the royal township of that name. The congregation here, though but a fraction of the population of the township, is the largest and most important in Abeokuta, as also the most prosperous spiritually. It amounts to 1200 persons, of whom 294 are Communicants. Thirty-four adults have been baptized during the year, and there are 83 Candidates for baptism. Eleven persons have been suspended from Communion in the exercise of Christian discipline. Two of the female inquirers have been severely beaten by their husbands; but the patient perseverance of one of them has overcome her husband's prejudices, and he now comes with her to church. "In all public services," writes Mr. Williams, "the number of women exceeds that of men. This is owing," he adds, "to polygamy, the sin of which many Christian men are guilty, and which hinders the male sex among the heathens from embracing Christianity. Oh, cursed polygamy! the debaser of morals of heathen population! when will this execrable villainy be destroyed?"—The Christian Balogun, Okenla, is a member of this congregation, and sets a good example in many respects.

Evils of polygamy.

The congregation at IGBORE numbers 484, and the Communicants 144. There are 18 candidates for baptism, but no adults were baptized during the year. The congregation has suffered from the bodily weakness of its pastor, the Rev. W. Allen, whose health, however, is now somewhat improved.

The IKIJA Congregation numbers 233 persons, of whom 61 are Communicants. Here also no adults were baptized during the year, though there are eight Candidates. The Ikija congregation is not in a satisfactory state. It manifests but little either of Christian brotherly love or of zeal for the conversion of the heathen.

The village congregation of OSHIELLE numbers 160; the Communicants being 76. These numbers are lower than those given in the preceding year, which, sad to say, is the case throughout the Abeokuta Mission. The Oshielle congregation, however, is regarded by Mr. Johnson as in a healthy condition. Its pastor is the Rev. W. Moore; and "all, Christians and heathen alike," writes Mr. Johnson, "regard and speak of him as a father."

Itinerating Work and Out-stations.

During the first three months of the year 1877, Mr. Doherty, the Native itinerant, travelled almost uninterruptedly through the neighbouring districts, and was nearly everywhere well received. A strong desire was generally expressed, and probably with sincerity, to receive resident Christian teachers. This may have its origin from political considerations; but it opens a door for the Gospel. The war, however, that has unhappily broken out between Ibadan and Abeokuta, has sadly marred the hopeful prospect. Slave-hunting and war—two evils which in Africa are closely connected with each other—are the desolation and ruin of these districts.

Mr. Johnson thus reports of the work in the farm-villages of Shuren, Ofada and Afojupa:—

> These are farm villages inhabited by cultivators from Abeokuta. A search after more productive soil has induced some numbers of the agricultural population to remove to them; then the difficulty of conveyance, the convenience of cheap and easy living, and sometimes of easily and quickly reaching the Lagos market, have led them to make these farms residences for themselves and their families; but they still regard Abeokuta as their home, and identify themselves with its fortunes.

Shuren has a population of about 400 persons, of whom 130 are Christians; Ofada about the same number, with 120 Christians; and Afojupa about 500, with 20 Christians. The proportion of Christians in them is too small, compared with heathens and Mohammedans, to entitle them to the name of Christian villages; but they appear to have been settled by Christians. These Christians consider themselves and are considered a part of the Abeokuta Church, are superintended from it, and their church-work is partly maintained by it. The members of the two former of these branch churches retain and manifest the simplicity, warmth, and love that once characterized the Abeokuta Church.—I had an early service at Shuren on February 26, at which 121 persons were present, though the notice given was short. I addressed them on the duty Native Christians owe to themselves and their country to maintain and propagate their Christianity, directing their attention to the example set by our Mohammedan fellow-countrymen. After that I had a meeting of elders, at which a number of members of good repute were appointed district missionaries for the village and the many other heathen villages about it. The number of these missionaries was larger than I desired; but the elders rightly thought the position a privilege, and were anxious that this eligible brother and that eligible sister should be added to the list. I have since heard that the missionaries have been actively at work, and that heathens have come in from farms about two hours' distance to Shuren for worship.

Rural congregations in the Egba country.

My arrival at Ofada was unexpected and late at night, but the welcome accorded me was both cordial and warm. Old Ofada, who founded the village some twenty-one years ago, said with much emotion, "Oh! I wish all the farms here would be converted to Christ!" He is very old and infirm, and has long passed his threescore years and ten; but he is an earnest Christian—reminding one of the affection for Christ that shone brilliantly in the Abeokuta Church—the fire of love, and the devotedness that disregarded the sword and other instruments of persecution. An old woman was all ecstasy and joy when she spoke of the sweetness and preciousness of Jesus and His religion. I had an early service the next morning, and an elders' meeting followed it. Both were well attended. My address and arrangements were almost a repetition of those at Shuren—circumstances being much alike. Many villages have since received the message of the Gospel with joy, and some have asked for resident teachers.

Aged Egba Christians.

IBADAN.

Mr. Johnson visited Ibadan in March, April, and May, spending about seven weeks there. The agents (Rev. D. Olubi, two Catechists, and six other Lay Teachers) accorded him a hearty reception. Mr. Johnson writes:—

Ibadan is a large, compact, populous, and important city in the Yoruba kingdom. Its population is, I believe, much over 100,000, made up of freeborn, freedmen, and slaves. The number of the last far outruns that of the two former. Salutations are commonly heard from Yorubans in the dialect of the Ijeshas, whose number is very large, and whom they hold as their slaves. Ibadan occupies a position calculated to make it very healthy. Built on the declivity of a high hill, and intersected on all sides by small rivers, it is capable of draining itself thoroughly, and would have done so if houses had been regularly built on right lines. But these rivers are constantly polluted with dead bodies; marshes are allowed to increase and spread; and there are other obstructions to the health of the country, arising from ignorance of the laws of sanitation.—War is the principal occupation. All less exciting employments are subordinated to this, and sometimes despised. There are annual expeditions. A causa belli is easily found. The wars waged are more offensive than defensive. Every time I worshipped in the church, and the translation and adaptation of the prayer in the liturgy for the Queen's Majesty was read, that portion asking for victory over the enemies of the rulers of the country, always grated on my ears. I felt I could not conscientiously say "amen" to it. The composers of that prayer contemplated the sovereign of England undertaking only just and defensive wars, and not that he or she would create enemies abroad by an aggressive policy in slave-making expeditions and wars. Here there are annual expeditions undertaken, in very many cases, specially for the sake of increasing the number of slaves. —All able-bodied slaves have some care; but the sickly and infirm have little or none, and may sometimes be found dying, neglected in the streets, from starvation and disease—passers by, or those about whose doors they lie dying, and women amongst them, manifesting stolid indifference and unconcern.—Devotedness to idolatry is more intense than at Abeokuta, and social disadvantages attach themselves to a profession of Christianity. At Ibadan, devil-worship is of a very pronounced character; almost every family has its devil-hut in the street. Christianity is at a discount, and Christians hold a low social position; they are accounted and spoken of as a lazy, idle, and cowardly people because of their refusal to go out with slave-making expeditions, and their steady pursuit of agriculture.

Character of the Ibadan Christians.

But the small number of Christians (464) at Ibadan is a leaven which will leaven the whole lump. The seven weeks I spent there with the Christian Church and the agents, were delightful and refreshing. I noticed much confidence reposed in the agents by the Church, and especially in the Rev. D. Olubi; and these work in harmony and concord among themselves; each one of them has, according to the measure of his ability, done well. Order is maintained and discipline kept up. For some considerable time now the minister has not had occasion either to suspend or dismiss any member from communion. The Church is as yet singularly free from polygamy. What we have not gained in quantity, we have, it would seem, gained in quality; and, if general opinion is correct, and if what I saw of Ibadan Mohammedans allying themselves almost publicly with positive heathenism, idolatry, and its superstitions, were not exceptional —I should say that Ibadan Christians are, on the whole, more true to their profession than Ibadan Mohammedans; though the demands of Christian morality are far more advanced, and therefore more difficult to be met.

The buildings where services are held are of humble pretensions; services are regularly conducted on Sundays and Thursdays. Catechetical class-meetings are held on Mondays. Holy Communion is a central service, because of there being only one clergyman over the Church, and administered quarterly to all the Churches together. Music at service is hearty, though not likely to be always acceptable to cultivated ears. Sunday-school is well attended; nearly the whole Church is present. Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress in Yoruba is read with the Bible. Mr. Hinderer has conferred a boon on the Yoruba Mission by his translation of that excellent and popular book. A large proportion of the people can read in Yoruba. There is a small printing-press, which the minister makes use of in printing translations of small tracts and hymns and other little things. One of the catechists does the printing.

There is a large proportion of youthful vigour and warmth at Aremo and Ogunpa. Kudeti, the mother Church, has more of old and weakly people; and this deprives its meetings of the life and vigour discernible in the others.

At Ogunpa, I remarked much brotherly love and anxious interest in the Church. It was once a very backward station and exceedingly discouraging. Years of faithful and anxious toil by a European brother, Mr. Jeffreys, and his Native assistant, and their successors, produced little or no result. The Rev. D. Hinderer resolved to abandon the spot and remove the station. Before this resolution was carried out, the first droppings of the Spirit's shower were noticed in a convert here, and in another there. Eight years ago, the number was seven; but the returns made me in April last show it to be now eighty. There is scarcely a single adult of them that has not endured family persecution; scars of wounds inflicted by heathen persecutors on some of them who had been beaten almost unto death, lend a charm to their profession. There is a "Refuge" in the mission premises, as there had been at Kudeti, where several of them live together as members of the same family. I sometimes spent hours with them in the premises, enjoying the sight of their love, and listening to their simple tales of sufferings for Jesus. A young woman of nineteen was then going through her baptism of suffering—imprisonment, chains, beatings, starvations, and volleys of abusive language. Two of her brothers are in the "Refuge." Their story has a delightful charm in it. The elder brother had been a very bitter enemy of the missionaries, and thought the authorities remiss in their duty in not either destroying them or driving them out of the town. He would have been a very Saul of Tarsus if he had had the power; but once and again curiosity brought him into the Ogunpa Church; he was touched, and soon became an inquirer, and is now a persecuted communicant member. His brother took an active part in the persecution against him; he is now in the "Refuge"—a persecuted believer. Lastly their sister, who had denounced both as unworthy of the family connexion, is now a persecuted inquirer.

The Kakanfo, or Head Chief of Ibadan, who is a Mohammedan, always speaks highly of the Native Christians, and of their religion. He gave Mr. Johnson a most eligible site for a new Mission Station in a central part of the city. (Kudeti, Ogunpa, and Aremo being on the outskirts); and he also expressed his wish to see Christian Churches multiplied both in Ibadan itself and in the surrounding districts.

Mr. Johnson gives the following account of Oyo, which he visited on leaving Ibadan:—

Oyo is the royal city of the Yoruba kingdom. It is not old, and was built immediately after the destruction of the original city. It is not large, but is populous, and contains a population of about 40,000. Compared with either Ibadan or Abeokuta, it is better kept. The palace stands on a rising ground, and has about it a nice and spacious walk, which, with its compass, neatness, and shady trees, gives it an imposing appearance. It is a large enclosure. The dwelling carries several porticos with high conical roofs. The king is a young man of a graceful appearance, as is generally the case with the ruling families in the country, and kindly disposition, but is, like all his fellow-rulers, a prisoner in his own country. He goes nowhere, and so knows nothing of the outside world save what he hears from others; but he manifests respect for and confidence in civilized visitors, and a disposition to appreciate suggestions for the good of his country. He is a heathen. Mohammedanism does not sit upon the throne of Yoruba. The people wear softer, finer, and pleasanter countenances than those I have met with; are generally industrious, and follow farming, cloth weaving, and oil and bead manufacture; but often, much against their inclination, supply contingents to the Ibadan army. They are intensely idolatrous; but Mohammedanism is represented by twelve or more mosques.

Oyo was taken up in 1857 as a station of the Society, but was abandoned in 1861. It was not occupied again until 1871, and then only by a Reader. Since 1860 no European Mission agent or African clergyman has been stationed there. A small band of seventeen Communicants now represent the Christian Church in this royal city. Mr. Johnson writes:—

On the 30th of May, 1877, I baptized at Oyo three women, a lad of sixteen, and three children. One of the women had endured persecution from her husband, but the interference of the king has secured for her liberty to follow her conscientious convictions. The lad is nephew to one of the Oyo princes, who is also his guardian, and has allowed him to follow Christianity. His confession was clear and decided, and he showed anxiety for further instruction.

At a Church meeting, on May 28th, at which sixteen persons were present, six persons were appointed district visitors, and districts assigned them. Extension is desirable in this old field, and there is ample room for it. Suitable spots are available. A welcome awaits us from people in the neighbourhood; the king manifests readiness to second our movements, and some appreciation of the Gospel. On June 4th, I had an interview with him. He has promised to put up at his own expense a school chapel, whilst I, on the Society's part, promised to provide the agent for work and his salary for the present.

At Ogbomoso there are—besides the Scripture Reader, who is supported by the Ibadan Church—only three baptized Christians and two inquirers; the three former having been baptized by Mr. Johnson during his recent visit. Ogbomoso, though not larger than Oyo, is a collection of the remnants of 114 townships. "What a havoc," remarks Mr. Johnson, "has war made!"

Iseyin was first occupied as an out-station in 1857. It was (almost necessarily) abandoned at the time of the Ijaye war of 1860. The (so-called) Native Christians, though left to themselves, and nearly all of them polygamists, kept up a form of Christianity among themselves, by meeting together on Sundays for Scripture-reading and prayer. The station (or rather out-station) was reoccupied by a Native Agent in 1875. There are now four female Communicants, two inquirers, and an average of sixty persons, mostly heathens, attending service. The Agent is described by Mr. Johnson as earnest, laborious, and faithful.

OTA.

Little, if any, apparent change has taken place at this station. The Native Christians are again registered at 78, and the Communicants at 40. Nor has there been any improvement at the out-station of Igbesa; though one of the Ota converts, Erubami by name, who has influence at Igbesa, not unfrequently visits the place and gladdens the resident Catechist, by gathering considerable audiences together, and boldly denouncing before them the vanity of idol-worship. Mr. White mentions, however, some grounds of encouragement. He writes :—

In our various discourses with the people, the confession is often made by those who, some years ago, were warm advocates of the worship of idols, and staunch enemies of the Gospel, that we are in the right, that they have at last found out their mistake when too late, and that they have not joined us through shame. Others whom we have convinced, instead of being converted to the Christian faith, go over to Islamism on account of the sensual indulgence allowed in that religion, especially as regards the plurality of wives. During the year, two young men have regularly attended our Sunday services, one of whom has consented to be taught to read. Latterly, also, some young women have entered into a league to attend the Sunday services at any risk, unless prevented by unavoidable circumstances. As yet they have continued faithful to their promise. They tell us that it is a fear of being secretly poisoned for renouncing the religion of their forefathers that has hitherto kept them back from attending the house of God; and indeed this is the reason assigned by a majority of the people.

Our two Sunday services have been well attended throughout the year by our converts and a few heathens. Now and then a Mohammedan attends. All the old chiefs of Ota have died away, with the exception of two and the king. Of the two chiefs, the Olikosi is a regular attendant at church on the Lord's-day. The king of Ota still adheres to his idols, but shows no hostility either to Christianity or to Mohammedanism.

Of the villages and hamlets which we have visited in the neighbourhood of Ota during the year, the chief of Agege on the way to Lagos, and the chief of Isheri, to the south-east of Ota, show a disposition to receive Christian teachers. The chief of Isheri states, "You need not many arguments to convince me of the excellency of the Gospel, to which, some years ago, I was a great enemy. You have only to see and arrange with Taiwo, of Lagos, who is our king-elect." I have since had several communications with Mr. Taiwo, who has himself embraced the Gospel. He expressed his joy and approbation on our proceeding,

NIGER MISSION.

Onitsha, 1857; Akasa, 1861; Lokoja, 1865; Bonny, 1866; Brass, 1868; Osamâre, 1873; New Calabar, 1874; Asaba, 1875; Kipo Hill (Egan) 1876.

Conducted by Native African Teachers, under the superintendence of the Right Rev. Bishop Crowther.

European Labourer:

Mr. J. Henry Ashcroft (m) 1859, to Sierra Leone; to Niger, 1878.

General.

THREE important steps have been taken during the past year for the consolidation and extension of the Niger Mission. (1) A steamer of light draft, fitly named the Henry Venn, has been supplied to the Mission, enabling the Bishop to visit the various stations at all seasons of the year. The little vessel reached Sierra Leone, on its way to Lagos, on the 5th of April. (2) Mr. Ashcroft, the Society's valued industrial agent on the West Coast, has been appointed to relieve the Bishop of the secularities of the Mission, which have so heavily pressed upon him. (3) The Bishop has, with the approval of the Archbishop of Canterbury, appointed his son, Mr. Dandeson Crowther, and Mr. Henry Johnson, to be the Archdeacons of the Lower and Upper Niger—a pledge, the Committee trust, that the Mission will continue to grow and flourish under a purely Native agency.—The cost of the steamer has been 4500*l.*; the amount received, 2758*l.*, including a grant from the funds of the Society of 500*l.* The needed remainder, 1742*l.*, will, the Committee trust, soon be forthcoming.

Bishop Crowther arrived at Lagos from England on the 18th of August, 1877; and on the 25th, accompanied by the Rev. H. Johnson (now Archdeacon Johnson), he set sail for Bonny. The Henry Venn was, of course, not yet at his service; and his route was therefore determined to a great extent by the course of the merchant steamers in which he had to travel. This compelled him to begin his visitation with the stations on the banks of the Niger, leaving those on the coast to be visited after his return.—This report will, however, follow the usual geographical order:—

Improvement is scarcely at present visible at Akasa. Almost the only cheering point is that the agent in charge, an Assistant-Schoolmaster, superintended by the Rev. T. Johnson of Brass, is not only a zealous labourer, but is himself a fruit of the mission and a native of the place. The people are migratory, incapable apparently of industry, and devoid of all physical and mental energy. All efforts to make them interested in the Gospel message have hitherto failed. Only nine persons attend Divine Service, and five boys now and then make their appearance at the day school.

Progress at Brass.

The work at Brass is steadily advancing. The registered adherents amount to 328, and there are 77 Communicants. Thirty-six adults have been baptized during the year, and the average attendance at Divine Service on the Lord's day is 400.—The Native Church at this station, which had no existence previous to 1868, suffered at one time from severe persecution. These troubles have now ceased. King Okiya and his chiefs are regular attendants at Divine Service; and the idols which he worshipped are to be seen in the Society's House in London. A neatly built church, capable of holding 500 persons, has been adorned with handsome church furniture, at the expense of the once heathen rulers. The king has requested that a Christian teacher may be sent to his own capital, Nembe, thirty miles inland from the shipping port.

Fifty-eight candidates were confirmed by the Bishop on November 16th. In secular matters also the chiefs are adopting the habits of European civilization. Archdeacon Johnson writes :—

Social customs which offend against decency and morality are being abolished by the natives, of their own accord. They are also advancing rapidly in material prosperity. On Saturday, the 3rd of November, we (the Bishop, Rev. T. Johnson, and myself) visited the village of Tuwon, about a mile distant from the Mission Compound. I could scarcely believe what my eyes saw in the house of one of the chiefs, Samuel Sambo. Very few houses are better furnished either at Sierra Leone or Lagos. The most cultivated taste will admit the house to be a splendid one. Much money has been laid out in pictures, time-pieces, carpets, and every luxury that may be considered indispensable in the residence of a rich civilized gentleman. He has 300 dependents, and through them is accumulating a great amount of substantial wealth. We were taken to every apartment in the house; but there was one room, simply furnished, which gave me the most interest. There was a table, and a great number of forms. That was no other than the prayer-room, where, morning and evening, the good chief assembles his vast household for their devotions. Nine short years ago this man was full of the superstition which reigned in the country. I will not venture to say that, being of a tribe that practised cannibalism, he has never tasted human flesh. Nine years ago he venerated Juju superstition as devoutly as did his meanest slave; but now he is another man—a Christian,—and is emulating the practices of his brethren in Christ throughout the world.

A civilized African Christian Chief.

The Rev. W. E. Carew is the Missionary for NEW CALABAR. The work here is quite in its infancy. Mr. Carew writes :—

One great cause for thankfulness and comfort is, that there is a desire for Christian instruction amongst the heathen. Our number in school is increasing daily, and the children are making rapid progress. There are many who wish to be admitted into the visible Church of Christ by baptism, among whom are three influential chiefs. Two of them make it a duty to come to us for instruction, and are thinking of building houses near the mission premises, in order to be near us. Every department of our work has been duly attended to; each bids fair, and gives hope of success. The two services held every Lord's day, morning and afternoon, are well attended. So also is the Thursday afternoon service.

It should be added, that the school referred to in the above extract is a boarding school, containing 46 boys and 2 girls. These are slave children, who are sent and paid for by the chiefs.

Another martyr at Bonny.

At BONNY the persecution is still unabated. Death is openly threatened to any convert that is seen going to church. The church is now, therefore, nearly empty, though as late as Christmas, 1876, the congregation amounted to nearly 300. Quite recently a converted slave was literally starved to death. So constant was his faith, that up to the very last he refused to eat of the sacrifice offered to the idol, and astonished all who went near him by his calmness and willingness to die. On Bishop Crowther's last visit the chiefs declined to meet him. They, however, send their children to the boarding-school, where about forty are now under instruction. The European merchants on the river set an excellent example, providing Christian education for the boys belonging to their ships, and exercising a salutary influence in other respects.

The course taken by the steamer did not permit the Bishop to land at OSAMÂRE. Archdeacon Johnson, however, gives the following account of Mr. Düring and his work:—

Successful efforts of a Native clergyman to put down cruelty and war.

The Rev. J. Düring is stationed here, and maintains his post with a hearty good will. Of a loving, yielding disposition, none is more suited to cope with the wild spirits about him. He is exerting a very great influence among the people. Formerly human sacrifices used to be most frequent; but they are now kept within bounds, and I believe will before very long become a thing of the past. As soon as he hears an inkling of such a thing going on, Mr. Düring will go to the place of sacrifice and plead until he prevailed to rescue the devoted person. I saw one who was thus snatched from the jaws of death—a poor emaciated creature. The sacrificing of old women was once a very common practice. The number of those rescued by Mr. Düring, at various times, exceeds ten; and from the circumstance of his interesting himself so much on their behalf, he has been nicknamed "the life of old women." He has also distinguished himself by acting the part of mediator between hostile parties. The following story will convey to you more accurately than any laboured description the characteristics of the man. A civil war was about to take place on a certain occasion, the two parties being headed by the sons of opposing chiefs. Guns were loaded, swords were whetted, and war-drums were sounding furiously, when Mr. Düring hurried to the scene. The manner in which he succeeded to prevent the war taking place is well worth the consideration of—I was going to say—ambassadors, diplomatists, and Foreign Secretaries. He went to the spot, where preparations were all but completed, and having a large hand-bell concealed beneath his coat, he pulled it out and began to ring it violently, walking about the crowd and pushing away here and there those who seemed particularly excited and determined. He kept shouting, with laconic brevity, "Don't fight: don't fight: make peace: war ruins country: war brings misery: disperse: go home." He continued ringing, like an auctioneer's man, till his arm ached, and he had shouted himself hoarse. He was rewarded for his pains, for the people dispersed without firing a single shot. Many afterwards repaired to the Mission House to thank the missionary for his timely and successful interference to prevent bloodshed and all other evils dependent on civil wars.—Gradually and surely Christianity is exerting its influence upon the people. The leaven of it is permeating all classes of society; and one result has been the abolition of many of the cruel customs which were formerly observed.

At ONITSHA the work progresses, notwithstanding many obstacles. The mercantile agents at this place are partly Europeans, partly Africans, from Sierra Leone, Lagos, and the coast. On the whole, their influence on the Mission differs very sadly from that exercised by the merchants at Bonny. The Native population generally has been much benefited, temporally, by the establishment of a mission and by the introduction of European commerce. In a missionary point of view the results are of a mingled character. The Bishop writes:—

Instead of being thankful to God who has so favoured them with worldly advantages, and instead of being respectful to those who were the means in God's hand of bettering their poor degraded condition, they have become insatiably covetous. When spoken to on the most solemn subject of religion, the reply returned from almost every heathen visitor is, "You never gave me presents." Ambition to become men of title, to receive which honour they have to pay a large amount in goods and cowries, and to have many wives and slaves, is a ruling passion among them. Some of our male converts who have become prosperous in trade have backslidden, being carried away by these prevailing evils. In the midst of these conflicting elements decided improvements are perceptible; the Gospel continues to be preached without molestation, though accessions to the Church are not so numerous as formerly. Attendances at divine worship on the Lord's day, however, are on the increase, averaging 220 at morning service in both churches. The communicants are forty-eight; and there were three adult baptisms during the year.

Advance of civilization and Christianity at Onitsha.

Since the occupation of Onitsha as a Mission Station the Natives could never be induced to clean the road from the mission house to the factories, about a mile distant. It overhung with long grass, although walked on daily to the markets there. But on our return from the upper stations in October, I observed a wide space cleared on both sides of the path from the factories to the church. It struck me at once that some civilized thought must have to do with this improvement. On inquiring of the mission agents how this came about, I was told that it was a voluntary act by the young men, our converts, some of whom are residing at the factories where they are employed. They have determined not to let the grass grow again. When they were together I praised them for this decided improvement. The like improvement can be perceived in their houses, as in partitioning the sitting-room from the bedroom, and ventilating with windows, unknown before at Onitsha.

There are several barbarous customs at Onitsha, causing it, like other dark places of the earth, to be full of the habitations of cruelty. One is that of avenging the death of a relative with life for life, even though the death arise from purely accidental causes. The Bishop was compelled in consequence to decline the request of some leading Native Christians of Onitsha to educate their children at Lagos, as he did not know what the consequences might be should any of them be removed by death while under his care.—Archdeacon Johnson writes:—

Advance of civilization and Christianity at Onitsha.

The two Sundays we spent at Onitsha filled my soul with joy, and strengthened my faith in the future of this station. They were indeed "times of refreshing." It was gratifying to see the young men who had left school and were pursuing handicraft trades, come to church with their books, and take their part in the responses, just as in other Christian places of worship. Over 200 converts were present, decently apparelled and joining in the services with all the outward marks of devotion. Prayers were said partly in English and partly in the vernacular, as all have not yet been translated into the latter. It only requires a little more effort in this direction, and then worship can be carried on in the same perfect uniform style as in the Yoruba Mission.

During the visit of the Bishop, a treaty was concluded between her Majesty's Government and the chiefs of Onitsha; the British Consul, Mr. Tait, from Fernando Po, being present for the purpose. One of the terms of the treaty required the king to do his utmost for the abolition of human sacrifices. Another paragraph stipulated that the lands now occupied by the Church Missionary Society and the commercial firms respectively, shall be considered as belonging to them so long as they remain in the country, and that Missionaries shall be exempt from giving those annual presents to the chiefs which are expected from merchants.

The Rev. William Romaine, who was the senior Missionary at Onitsha, died on the 7th of November, 1877 (subsequently to the Bishop's visit), not without "cheering testimony," writes the Bishop, that he "steadfastly placed his hope of salvation solely on the merits of the Lord Jesus Christ."—The Rev. S. S. Perry, an energetic Missionary, is stationed at Iyawo, a suburb of Onitsha. He maintains his ground courageously amidst many difficulties, and is diligently engaged in translational work.—Alenso is an out-station, very recently occupied by the Rev. J. Buck.

The Bishop had no opportunity of visiting ASABA. The agents labouring there, the Rev. E. Phillips and Mr. E. Spencer, met him at Onitsha. Superstition still reigns at Asaba, the time and attention of the people being chiefly engrossed either in feasting and dancing, or in quarrelling with neighbouring towns and villages. A small congregation has, however, been gathered together, averaging thirty, nine of whom are candidates for baptism.

One of the Missionaries of LOKOJA, the Rev. T. C. John, with Mrs. John, was a fellow-passenger with the Bishop and the Archdeacon, Mr. John being on his return from a visit to England. He was received with the warmest expressions of welcome by Mohammedan and heathen friends as well as by the Christians. Bishop Crowther writes:—

> Lokoja is under the mixed influence of Mohammedanism and heathenism. Services are conducted in three different languages—Hausa, Nupe, and Bunu, this latter being a distant dialect of the Yoruba language. The progress of Christianity at this place is slow and tardy. But Lokoja is a nucleus for dispersing Christianity around. From this place the Mission agents go out itinerating among the various tribes. Mr. Williams and James Thomas and Obadiah Thomas have made visits to the Bunu country and Budon, to assure the people that their applications for religious teachers were not forgotten. Gbebe, and Yimaka on the Tshada branch, were visited in like manner to keep up their expectation of our settling among them in due time. Mr. John has been instructed to organize a plan to continue these visits till our return next season.

Archdeacon Johnson writes:—

I was struck, at the very first view, with the difference between the people of this place and those in the lower part of the river. The former have attained to a degree of civilization which contrasts very favourably with the almost total absence of it among the latter. Nude bodies are here the exception, and not the rule. A glance, too, was sufficient to show that Mohammedanism held sway. Flowing tobes and turbaned heads issued from every quarter. But let me crave pardon to say that to nickname the inhabitants as "the Great Unsoaped," would do them no injustice whatever. The tobes were red with the dirt and dust of years. It is said that from the time when they are put on, new, to the time when they become so threadbare as to be unfit for any further use, they are never dipped in water.

We spent a Sunday here on our return from the upper countries, and the Bishop preached in the morning, and I in the afternoon. As compared with Onitsha, the number of converts is small; but I am neither surprised nor disappointed, knowing how difficult it is for Christianity to make way in a country that is professedly Mohammedan. There is a small chapel, built expressly for the Bunu people. The Bishop preached there to a very attentive congregation.

Having spent four days at Lokoja, I had sufficient time to form an idea of the proficiency of the Mohammedans there in Arabic. The result of my inquiries was that their knowledge of Arabic was ridiculously meagre. If I except one of the priests, I did not come across a single person with any decent idea of reading. The priest I have alluded to has compiled a history of the Nupe Country, in Arabic, part of which he gave to the Bishop. I have not yet seen the copy; when I do I shall try to make it out, to see whether it be of any literary value. There was a man with whom I spoke Arabic, but he hailed from Waday, and his was a vulgar dialect spoken quite independently of Grammar. However, I was able to make out his meaning. The few who attempted to read out of my Koran managed but indifferently. The Lokojans make no sort of pretension to book learning. Their Mohammedanism is of a blind, imitative kind. From what I could gather, many of them are convinced of the superior excellence of the Christian faith, but don the Moslem garb with a view to stand well with the masters of the country. Many of them come to church as visitors.

The confluence of the Quora and Binuè branches of the Niger is also a confluence of languages. The most important of these are the Hausa and Fulah, the latter being the language of the conquering race, who, during the last seventy years have carried the Koran and the sword from Tita Zora on the North-east of Sierra Leone to the south bank of the Binuè River. Grammars and vocabularies of these two languages have just been completed. For his works in Hausa, the Institute of France have awarded a Volney medal to the Rev. J. F. Schön; and the Fulah grammar and vocabulary of Mr. Reichardt, of Sierra Leone, have been submitted for the Volney competition of this year.

At Kipo Hill, near Egan, where the Rev. C. Paul is now stationed, a decent brick mission-house has now been completed. It is frequently visited by people from the neighbouring villages, and by passengers crossing over from Egan on the southern bank to Bida, the capital. A village is springing up around it, inhabited chiefly by agriculturists, some of the inhabitants of which, though still Mohammedans or heathen, attend service on the Lord's day. The station is becoming a place of refuge from the extortion of the Native rulers and war chiefs. At a recent visit of one of the sons of the Sultan of Gondo (Suzerain of the King of Bida) the inhabitants of all the neighbouring villages were panic-struck, expecting to have their property seized to meet the prince's travelling expenses. They therefore removed all their valuable effects into the mission-house for protection. Mr. Paul was absent at the time. On the prince landing at the mission-wharf, he walked straight up to the house and gazed with wonder at its novel appearance. Mrs. Paul stepped out with a plate of thirty kola nuts, a sign of a kind reception and entertainment, and apologized for her husband, the mollam (priest), being absent from home. Though the prince, or some of his followers at least, must have been aware of the use his Nupe subjects had made of the mission-house, he made no attempt to touch any of the property stored up there, and withdrew with his retinue in perfect order and quietness.

Protection of heathen Natives by the wife of a Native clergyman.

From Kipo Hill the Bishop started off in company with Archdeacon Johnson, on a visit to Bida, where, as on former occasions, he met with a most gratifying reception. The king (Umoro) was much pleased with the presents from her Majesty's Government and from the Society, and listened with intense interest as the Bishop gave him information respecting the war between Russia and Turkey, illustrating it by a globe and a map of the seat of war in the East. The Bishop also showed him on the globe, Egypt, the Nile, Lakes Victoria, Albert, and Tanganiyaka, and prepared him for receiving European travellers coming from the East. Archdeacon Johnson was introduced to the king as an Arabic scholar who had resided nearly three years at El Kuds (Jerusalem) for the purpose of acquiring the Arabic language. Umoru was much pleased on finding that the Archdeacon was of Yoruba parentage, having kinsmen at Ilorin close by, and seemed to regard him as a neighbour and friend. Both Archdeacon Johnson and Mr. Consul Tait were very favourably impressed with Umoru's intellectual powers.

The people of Idda and Gbegbe, two towns formerly occupied by the Society, but abandoned from the turbulent character of their inhabitants, now earnestly beg the Bishop to return to them. An English merchant who has recently visited Idda, found the mission-house at that place in an excellent state of preservation. The entire building is kept in repair, the mud floor is kept constantly polished, the fruit-trees were bearing profusely, and everything appeared as if the premises had not been left a single day. Ten years have elapsed since the Missionary was removed.

The following extract from the Bishop's report will also be read with interest as bearing on the possibility of Missionary extension :—

Proposed extension of the Niger Mission.

Before leaving the upper countries, it will not be out of the way to note some of those lying on the right side of the Quora branch. From Lokoja to Shonga, a distance of some 150 miles along the river, the inhabitants are a mixture of Nupe, Kakanda, and tribes of different Yoruba dialects. The Nupes and Kakandas occupy a narrow belt of this part of the country to Shonga, not extending more than from 15 or 20 miles towards Yoruba. The Kakandas inhabit Budon and Gori, between Lokoja and Egan, on the bank of the river ; but the hilly countries inland are inhabited by the Bunus, Ijeshas, and other Yoruba-speaking tribes. All of these, with the exception of Ijesha, are tributary to the Mohammedan governments of Bida and Ilorin, and also to the Ibadan chiefs as dependents.

Sub-trading stations have been extended by the merchants along the river from Egan to Shonga, which is at present the starting town for Ilorin, being three or four days' journey from it. Should all be well, myself and Mr. Johnson intend to visit Ilorin at the next season ; the Mission steamer will convey us to Shonga, whence we intend to go by land to Ilorin and back.

Occupying Lagos as one point of a triangle, Akassa at the Nun as another, and Shonga on the Niger as the third, we shall have

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Alfred Menzies (m), to Sierra Leone, 1858; to East Africa, 1878: at home.
Rev. James Abner Lamb (m), to Yoruba, 1861; to Sierra Leone, 1870; to East Africa, 1876; at home.
Rev. Harry Kerr Binns (m), 1875: at home.
Mr. William Harris (m), 1875.
Mr. John W. Handford (m), 1875.
Mr. George J. Clark (m), 1876: at home.
Mr. John R. Streeter, 1877.

General.

The Rev. J. A. Lamb has been compelled by failure of health to resign his post as the spiritual head of this Mission. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb left Mombasa in March, 1878. Their stay on the East African coast, however, has been far from fruitless; and the Rev. A. Menzies, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. Lamb, will find it a great advantage that the ground has thus been in some measure prepared by the labours of Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, as well as by the previous labours of Mr. and Mrs. Price. Much yet remains to be done. Mr. Menzies, like Mr. Lamb, has the advantage of African experience on the Western coast. The Committee deeply lament the removal by death of Mrs. Russell, who had shown great interest in the work of the Mission. Captain Russell himself has returned to England for the reason mentioned below.—The Rev. H. K. Binns, who was also brought home by loss of health, suffered shipwreck on the voyage; but his life was mercifully preserved. Mr. Handford during the year went to Port Elizabeth, in the Cape Colony, and after an absence of five months, reached Mombasa with Mrs. Handford in January last. Mrs. Streeter died on her way out on the 30th of September, 1877. Mr. Streeter came home with the children, leaving Mombasa on November 7th, and after a brief stay in this country, again set sail for East Africa on February 6th, 1878. The Medical Missionary also returned to this country; and his place most urgently needs to be filled up. On the other hand, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, who came home invalided in 1876, have returned to their posts.

Thus Mr. Menzies, Mr. Streeter, Mr. Harris, and Mr. Handford are at present, or, if it please GOD, shortly will be, the agents carrying on the Society's work in this Mission.

These frequent changes in the Mission staff have not, humanly speaking, been favourable to the progress of the work. As regards the return home, however, of the Lay Superintendent (Captain Russell), who did good service while at the station, the Committee are glad to state that the cause that renders his presence no longer necessary is matter for unfeigned thankfulness. It is that, owing to the constant watchfulness of the British Consul-General at Zanzibar, and of the cruisers on the coast, and to the ready co-operation of the Sultan, the East African slave-trade has been almost entirely suppressed. Captain Russell reports further that although domestic slavery has not been abolished, the condition of the slaves is much ameliorated; and that as regards Mombasa and its vicinity, the existence of the liberated settlement, and the influence the Mission has been able to exercise, have materially aided in bringing about this result.

Overthrow of the East African slave-trade.

Little more than ten years have elapsed since the Committee began an effort on behalf of the victims of the East African Slave-Trade. The Committee, in humble thankfulness to GOD, cannot but contrast this period of ten years which has seen the commencement and the successful termination of the efforts for the abolition of the East African Slave-Trade, with that century of toil which, commencing in 1769 with the publication of Granville Sharpe's pamphlet, terminated in 1869 with the official (and successful) closing of England's crusade for the abolition of the West African Slave-Trade. The Committee cannot forbear also specially congratulating their friend Bishop Ryan on this happy result, due in no small measure to his persevering earnestness in calling attention to the subject.

FRERE TOWN.

No systematic and detailed account of the work of the year at this station has been received by the Committee.—A very well attended meeting was held at the settlement on the subject of the Native Pastorate Fund, on September 20th, 1877, when Mr. Lamb read the report of the year's progress, showing a balance of 30*l.* in hand. Mr. Lamb, with the help of a Suahîli teacher and his two native helpers, has translated portions of the prayer-book into that language. Some hymns have been translated into Suahîli by Mr. Binns, and others have been composed by Native Catechists.

In the industrial department, Mr. Streeter had had some success, though after considerable trouble, in training men and oxen to the use of the plough. About eight acres have been planted with various kinds of agricultural produce. It may here be mentioned that the 220 acres, which in previous Reports it has been stated that Frere Town comprises, are Bombay acres, five of which are equal to one English acre. Though the East Africans have not the stamina of English labourers, their docility and good temper impressed Mr. Streeter very favourably. Though Mr. Streeter himself could wish that greater progress had been made, the people of Mombasa, from the Governor to the porters passing by with loads on their heads, express great admiration at the success that has been achieved. As regards self-support, it seems not impossible that this may be more easily attained by assigning them portions of land which they may work for themselves in their own way. Frere Town is less favourably situated for this purpose than Rabai, any amount of land being procurable at the latter place.

All the land at Frere Town that can be spared for the purpose is now under cultivation. A small portion only remains in which freed slaves can live. Five miles to the N.E. there is a considerable amount of unoccupied land, which the local government has expressed its willingness to make over to the Mission.

RABAI (KISULUDINI.)

The church at this station is now finished, and services are held in it. Captain Russell, in visiting the place last September, was much pleased with the condition of the people and their good attendance at prayers. Several of the Wanikas show a disposition to join "the book." Two years ago there were only 35 people living at the settlement. Upwards of 80 are now established there, some being liberated slaves and some Wanikas. Many more of the Wanika people are anxious to settle near the place, and the few who have already done so are most regular in their attendance at church and prayers. A large population is to be found on the neighbouring hills.

East African Christians.

The little band of Christians at Godoma in Giriama (thirty-five in number) fifty miles away, present a refreshing picture of simple practical piety. Their spirit is emphatically that of their favourite Suahili hymn, which begins, "I love Thee, my Lord, for Thou hast loved me." Captain Russell, after visiting them last July, wrote, "We had the pleasure of seeing a band of Christians, small in number, but living together in perfect unity, leading thoroughly Christian lives, and making their influence felt on all the surrounding people."

In Christmas, 1877, they were visited by Mr. Last, formerly of the Mombasa Mission, now transferred to the Nyanza Mission. The following passages are extracted from Mr. Last's very interesting narrative:—

Abi Sidi and all the people who were at home came out to greet me, and gave me a hearty welcome. The place was very clean and orderly, no refuse or waste stuff lying about. The houses were clean and everything tidy, so very different to what is seen in the heathen Wanika villages. I found the Church—a building about 25 feet by 15—quite clean and ready for use. After breakfast I had some talk with Abi Sidi about the place and work. He was highly pleased with a Suahili translation of Isa. xii. which I had brought up, and said they were good words and filled his heart with "great joy." At about three o'clock several of the men came, bringing their books and asking for explanations to various parts which they had read. They showed themselves really anxious to acquire knowledge, and that the best of knowledge. In the evening, about six o'clock, all the people came in to prayers. I opened with a prayer in English, because I could best express myself to God in that. I felt I ought to thank God for bringing me to such people. Then I read part of the Evening Service and Psalm ciii., sung a hymn, and read a small portion from the Gospel of Matthew—all this was in Suahili. Abi Sidi then ended in prayer in the Giriâma dialect. It was a happy time, though I did not understand all that was said.

After breakfast next morning, all the people came in to prayers. In the morning I went about the place seeing the people, talking with them in their houses, and answering their questions. In the afternoon I had several of the men of the village in the church; their questions were very interesting, and all tended to show how much they were really in earnest. There has been a great number of heathen Wanika in and around the church since I arrived, and as I have opportunity I speak to them. They heard and saw all that was said and done.

On Sunday we met again in the church, some walking a distance of more than two hours to be present. We used the morning service by Dr. Steere—Psalms for the day. The people entered fully into the services, repeating all responses and alternate verses of the Psalms. I read 1 Kings xviii. for the first Lesson and Matthew iii. for the second Lesson. We sang a hymn in Suahili and then I spoke to the people. I thought it would be well to teach them as much as possible about Jesus, so I directed their attention to some of the characteristics of our Saviour's life. The people all listened very attentively, and told me that they were good words, and that they would try to follow them.

NYANZA MISSION.

Stations: Mpwapwa, 1876; Rubâga, 1877.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Charles Thomas Wilson, B.A., 1876.
Mr. Alex. M. Mackay, 1876.

Mr. Joseph T. Last, East Africa, 1874: rejoined for Nyanza, 1877.
Dr. Edward J. Baxter, 1877.
Mr. Alfred J. Copplestone, 1877.
Mr. James Henry, 1877.
Mr. G. Sneath, 1877.
Mr. S. Penrose, 1878.
Mr. Charles Stokes, 1878.

THE unspeakably sad tidings from the Victoria Nyanza have already spread far and wide, and stirred deep sympathy. The Committee can only bow with submission to a mysterious providence, which has deprived the Mission of two men who seemed specially qualified for it, and has so soon brought over the enterprise so dark a cloud.

The Mission party left MPWAPWA, in Usagâra, 230 miles inland from the coast opposite Zanzibar, in October, 1876, and were assembled (four Europeans, with Native African porters and artisans) at Kagêi, on the southern shore of the Victoria Nyanza, by the beginning of April, 1877. The mission boat, the Daisy, was immediately put together, and, notwithstanding some damage received on the way, proved very serviceable. On the 15th June it was made use of to remove the party to Ukĕrĕwê, a large island on the Lake not far distant, whose king had sought their acquaintance, and had favourably impressed them with his intelligence and friendly demeanour. Meanwhile a great loss had been suffered in the departure to his heavenly rest, after a brief illness, of their devoted medical brother, Dr. John Smith. Two or three days after being settled at Ukĕrĕwê, two letters were received from King Mtesa, written in English by a negro boy whom Mr. Stanley had left with him, urging the Missionaries to come to him with all speed. Lieut. Smith and Mr. Wilson at once set sail, and reached RUBAGA, the capital of Uganda, on Saturday evening, the 30th of June, 1877. Resting on the Lord's day with Mtesa's full consent, they had their public reception on the following Monday. Mtesa proved himself to be a monarch of much intelligence and capable of graceful courtesy. When the name of Jesus was read to him in the letter from the Society, a salute was fired in testimony of joy, the whole assembly repeatedly bowing their heads. He also called Lieut. Smith's attention to his flag, a many-coloured ensign, which he said that he had hoisted as a token of his believing in Christ. At a subsequent more private interview, when no Arabs and Mohammedans were present, he asked whether the Missionaries had brought him the Book—the Bible. On the 30th of July

Lieut. Smith returned to Ukĕrĕwê, leaving Mr. Wilson in Uganda. Up to that time Mtesa was most friendly, showing an apparently earnest desire to know more of Christianity, and being also anxious to learn English. A subsequent letter from Mr. Wilson describes the Uganda monarch as being somewhat disappointed at not receiving more secular advantages from the Mission; but the relations between the two were still amicable. In a private letter to a friend, dated 29th Nov., 1877, Mr. Wilson writes as follows:—

First beginning of Mission work in Uganda.

In the mission work there are both discouragements and encouragements, as one might expect. The services at the palace on Sunday mornings have been regularly held, and are fairly well attended; and it is a great thing in so young a mission, and before one knows the language, to be able to give some, at any rate the opportunity of hearing regularly God's Word, and receiving some instruction in the truths of our holy religion. The people are, as a rule, very attentive, and seem to take an interest in what is read and spoken to them, especially in our Lord's parables. I make the services more like classes in a Sunday-school than a regular service, as I find it keeps their attention better, and gives them more opportunities for asking questions, and so letting me see how far they understand or not. I begin by reading a chapter from the Old Testament. I read three or four verses at a time, and explain and comment on them, answering any questions that may be asked; then three or more verses till the chapter is finished; then a chapter from the New Testament is read in the same manner; a short address follows; and I conclude with a few prayers from the Prayer Book, the people all kneeling, and joining in the Amens. The questions that are asked are often decidedly intelligent, and I must say I have often had to teach far more inattentive and unappreciative classes in England. The Waganda are a promising people in an educational point of view, if one can get them to come for instruction, which I do not think will be very difficult. They are a sharp, quick-witted race, much more so than any negroes I have yet come across. They are very skilful in working in metals, iron, copper, and brass; and I have never seen anything to equal their basket making. They are also very clever in imitating things of European manufacture, as far as their imperfect tools permit, and in this respect certainly deserve the name of the Chinese of Africa.

In the following October, Lieut. Smith, acting on the Committee's instructions, surveyed the rivers and creeks at the southern end of the Lake, of which he has sent a journal of much value and interest. This accomplished, he proceeded to Ukĕrĕwê.

What followed is known only from Native accounts, the complete trustworthiness of which the Committee have no sufficient means of ascertaining. It would seem, however, that a quarrel had arisen between Lukongeh, the chief of the island, and Songoro, a resident Arab merchant. When Lieut. Smith returned to Ukĕrĕwê the dispute had grown warm, and Songoro begged that his wives and children might be sent away in the Daisy. This was done, leaving Smith and O'Neill on the island with only six men. Almost immediately afterwards, in the first week of December, Songoro and his men, being attacked by Lukongeh with a large force, the former fled to Smith for protection. Lieut. Smith refusing to surrender him, the little Mission party were immediately attacked by Lukongeh and were all killed, with the exception of one, a Native carpenter, who was taken prisoner, and after eight days released. On the return of the Daisy to Ukĕrĕwê, the Native interpreter, who was in charge of it at the time, finding what had happened, took off two men of Songoro's party who had escaped, and who swam out to him, and returned to Kagêi. After making an unsuccessful attempt to recover the bodies of the two martyred Missionaries, he sailed to Uganda, and took the sad news to Mr. Wilson and Mtesa. At Mtesa's request Mr. Wilson accompanied some Uganda men in the Daisy to Kagêi. After seeing to the safety of the Mission stores, he proceeded towards Unyanyembe for the purpose of procuring cloth, which in Central Africa is equivalent to money. There he intended to await the arrival of a second Mission party from the East Coast, and to return with them to Uganda.

Extract from Lieut. Smith's diary.

"October 19*th*.—I knelt down on the banks of the Ruwana, and thanked our Heavenly Father for His merciful protection of us this day. Is not this the day of small things? The time is coming, and I believe not far distant, when the glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ shall find its way over these mountains and plains, till these very rivers shall flow through unceasing praise."

The Committee arranged for the departure for Uganda early in May of four selected agents by way of the Nile; and these brethren reached Alexandria before the end of that month. Another party is to press forward from the East Coast.

MPWAPWA in Usagâra (mentioned above), has been selected as an intermediate station. It was occupied for a time in 1876 by a lay agent, who was, however, subsequently driven from it by failure of health. Four brethren, one of whom is a Medical Missionary, Dr. E. J. Baxter, have been assigned to re-establish it. Other intermediate stations are also contemplated.

While these sheets were passing through the press, a telegram came to the Society's House in London, bringing the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. W. C. Tytherleigh. Mr. Tytherleigh was a young man of much promise; a willing and skilful artisan, and a bright and attractive Christian.

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

(Commenced at Malta in 1815.)

CONSTANTINOPLE AND SMYRNA.

The financial difficulties of the year led the Committee seriously to consider whether there were any Mission-fields from which it might be desirable to withdraw, with the view of maintaining other Missions in unabated or increased strength. Constantinople and Smyrna were, after much prayerful deliberation, regarded as belonging to the former of these two classes. Efforts to set Evangelical truth before the ancient but corrupted Christian Churches of these countries, are carried on with vigour by American Missionaries. The Society's aim has been to reach the Mohammedans. The door, however, seems more closed than ever; and, should it ever be opened, it may be hoped that the strong American Mission, with its growing and intelligent Native Christian congregations, will not be slow to seize the opportunity. The Society had no other Turkish-speaking Mission, so that the work in the two cities above named was isolated, and the Missionaries labouring in them were to a great extent deprived of the advantage of consultation with brethren engaged in similar work.

The Committee do not doubt that the labours of Dr. Koelle, the Rev. J. T. Wolters, and other faithful labourers in the field thus about to be relinquished, have borne fruit to the glory of God and the good of man, besides those that have been indicated from time to time in the reports of their work. Further fruits will doubtless yet appear, and if these are reaped by other Societies, it will be a fresh instance of mutual help interchanged between the Missionary efforts of different Protestant bodies. The inestimable benefit conferred on Missionary effort in Africa by Dr. Koelle's great work—incomparable in its kind—the "Polyglotta Africana," will never be forgotten. Mr. Wolters's former Missionary career is interestingly referred to in the following extract from his Annual Letter for 1877:—

Retrospect of an aged Missionary.

It is with peculiar feelings that I take up the pen to write this year's Annual Letter from this station, which, as that of Constantinople, is to be discontinued according to the decision of the Committee. In this decision I have acquiesced from the time when it reached me in August last. Before that term I thought I would struggle on a few years longer, if they were granted to me; but, after serious consideration and humble prayer, I could not but submit to the decision, and see in it the leading hand of my Heavenly Father. His kind and merciful Providence has led me all my journey through, and especially in my missionary journeys, extending from the Russian territory beyond the Caucasus to Persia, and thence to Greece, and finally to Asia Minor. In taking a retrospective view of all those wanderings, many a "Mizpeh" and many an "Ebenezer" is rising up before my mind's eye, and causing me in grateful remembrance to say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." Such an Ebenezer, I have erected also on the 9th day of August of the year which is now drawing to a close, when the letter communicating to me the important decision of the Committee reached me. I felt at that very moment that, under the existing circumstances, and especially the financial difficulties of the Society, I could only say, "The Lord's will be done."

Palestine.

Jerusalem, 1851; Nazareth, 1852; Salt, 1873; Nablûs, 1876; Jaffa, 1876.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Theodore Frederick Wolters (m), 1860, Secretary.
Rev. F. Augustus Klein (m), 1851, engaged in literary work at home.
Rev. John Zeller (m), 1855.
Rev. Franklin A. S. Bellamy (m), 1873: at home.
Rev. J. R. Longley Hall (m), 1876.

Rev. James Huber (m), to West Africa, 1850; to Palestine, 1853.
Rev. Christian Fallscheer (m), joined in Palestine, 1876.
Mr. Nyland, joined in Palestine, 1876.

THE relinquishment of Constantinople and Smyrna will, the Committee trust, be synchronous with the introduction of increased strength and energy into the Palestine Mission. They are rejoiced to add that, notwithstanding the war and the distress occasioned by it, the tone of the Palestine Missionary Conference of March, 1878, was decidedly hopeful.

JERUSALEM.

The Native Christians connected with this station number 151. Of these 57 are Communicants. Their pastor, the Rev. Chalîl Jamal, writes as follows:—

Instruction given by a Native Pastor to a dying man.

The spiritual growth of our congregations, both in Jerusalem and in the out-stations, is, I am sorry to say, with few exceptions, feeble and slow. The Word of God, seems sometimes not to be effectual. Sinners are almost daily entreated to return to God; but it seems they have no ears to hear, or hearts to understand. May it please God the Holy Spirit to breathe upon the dry bones, and to quicken them, that they may hear the Word of the Lord and live! The following fact would prove, however, that there is here, then, a little leaven working in the heart. On the 8th of October last, one of our congregation departed this life. During his lifetime he knew but little of the Word of God. His moral character was not bad. The day he died I visited him twice. On the first visit I said to him, "Death is near—are you afraid to die?" "Yes, yes," he replied, "I am very much afraid." "What makes you afraid?" "My sins, for I am a great sinner." "But Jesus came to save sinners." (1 Tim. i. 15.) "Yes, but not to save me, not to save me. I am a great sinner. Jesus cannot love me, because I did not love Him." "But He will pardon all your sins if you believe on Him." Here he was silent, and I felt very sorry for him. After a few minutes he opened his eyes, and then I repeated 1 John ii. 1, 2, and i. 7, 8, 9; Acts xvi. 31; Isa. i. 18. He then said, "Yes, I am a sinner, a great sinner; but now I believe—yes, I believe that He accepts repenting sinners," and then he exclaimed, "Lord Jesus, pardon my sins; wash me with Thy precious blood!" After some words of comfort and consolation, I administered the Lord's Supper to him, and, after asking him to look up to Jesus, I left him. In the afternoon I visited him again, and, after repeating some of God's sweet promises to him, I asked whether he was still afraid to die. "No, for Jesus loves me, and I love Him, and of whom, then, shall I be afraid?"

"Must not the sinner be afraid of Jesus?" "No, the penitent sinner need not be afraid of Jesus, for He is his Beloved." "Do you feel that Jesus is near you?" "Yes, yes, He is before me—nearer to me than you are." (I was close by his bedside.) He repeated, with energy, "He is near, He is very near." Then he opened his eyes wide and smiled, as if he saw Jesus, and exclaimed, "To-morrow I shall be at rest from this trouble, for I shall go to heaven. . . . Jesus, there is rest, there is rest."

The subjoined extract from Mr. Jamal's letter will also be read with interest:—

Feelings of a Native Pastor on receiving ordination.

The twenty-third day of September last was a solemn day. I then felt in a peculiar way the holy presence of God our Saviour, especially during Divine Service in St. Paul's Church. I mean the day on which myself, as well as my friends and fellow-labourers in the Lord's vineyard, were admitted to the order of Presbytery in the Church of England. Three months before that memorable day, and more particularly a week before it, most humble and hearty prayers were offered up to God that I might be enabled to be useful in His service, and that I might be a holy instrument in His hands to bring sinners unto Him by preaching the Gospel of His dear Son. When I knelt before our good Bishop for the "laying on of hands," my heart also beat low with reverence and humility, full of thoughts of my unworthiness of this "holy order;" and there, in my inmost soul, I besought God the Holy Spirit to fill me with His holy presence, and to sanctify me unto Himself. Oh, what an honour it is to be a servant of God and an ambassador of Christ, to bear the banner of His love, marked by the blood of His cross, to invite sinners to come to Him, and in His name to preach salvation through faith! Oh, that I may spend and be spent in His service!

The Rev. J. Zeller, under date January and March, 1878, reports as follows:—

There are at the present moment seven students in the Preparandi class, all of whom are making satisfactory progress in their studies. Three of the elder boys in the Diocesan School will be admitted very soon, so as to bring the number up to ten. Though none of the seven just mentioned seem to be fit candidates for the native Pastorate, they give promise of future usefulness in the Mission as schoolmasters or Catechists.

All of these are satisfactory in their general conduct, and some give more marked evidence of being under the influence of the Holy Spirit. The object of our education is to impart a thorough knowledge of the Bible and of the chief doctrines of Christianity, together with that sound secular knowledge which is indispensable for them in their future calling as schoolmasters, of such subjects as mathematics, natural history, geography, general history, and music. English is also taught. A good knowledge of Arabic grammar is absolutely necessary. Besides myself, Messrs. Wolters, Palmer, and Chalîl Jamal take part in the teaching.

The girls' school is progressing satisfactorily. Forty girls attend pretty regularly. Of these six are Mohammedans.

An excellent opportunity is open for proclaiming the Gospel, not only to Christians, but also to Mohammedans, in the Prussian Deaconesses' Hospital and the Lepers' Home, where regular visits are paid twice a week by a member of our congregation.

The book-shop also affords opportunities of meeting with people of different creeds, and of entering into conversation with them on religious subjects; but on account of the war, and the absence of pilgrims, the attendance there has been very small.

Of the out-stations, Mr. Zeller writes:—

In Ramallah and Beit Sahûr the Schools have improved, and more pupils are now under instruction than formerly. Not so in Bir Zeit and Tayyibeh. In the former, local feuds, and in the latter, the inefficiency of the teacher, have been a hindrance. But it is hoped that these difficulties will gradually be overcome.

In Ramallah the Sunday services, also, are very encouraging; Mr. Nyland is well fitted for his work among the village people.

In reference to the work in the villages, Mr. Chalîl Jamal writes:—

Opportunities for preaching the Gospel to Moslems in Palestine.

In the country, a missionary or Scripture-reader meets with no opposition whatever, provided he be a good man and sociably disposed; even Moslems listen attentively. I always have reason to thank God for this. I have often heard Moslems in the country admiring the holiness and purity of the doctrines of the Gospel. In this way, no doubt, the way for the Lord Jesus Christ is being prepared, who is waiting to be gracious.

JAFFA.

The Rev. J. R. Longley Hall is the Missionary of this station, with which are connected the out-stations of Ramleh and Lydd. At these three places there are altogether about 150 Native Christian Adherents, forty of whom are Communicants. Each place has its boys' school, and each boys' school has about thirty pupils. Perhaps the most hopeful part of the work is the women's Bible Class, conducted mainly by Miss Blunt, who has joined the Mission at her own expense. The attendance varies from twenty to twenty-four. Four Mohammedan women attend it. Miss Blunt also regularly visits the women at their own houses, accompanied by a truly pious Native Bible-woman. At Jaffa, Ramleh, and Lydd there are altogether 120 children under instruction.

The following extracts from Mr. Hall's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

One thing I feel to be of the greatest importance in my work amongst these people, and that is to give very decided distinctive religious teaching. For this reason I always insist, as a sine qua non, that every child—boy and girl—in each of the schools committed to my charge, shall learn the Church Catechism; and after a while I hope I may be able to insist upon the learning of the Thirty-nine Articles.

Appreciation of the English Liturgy by Arab Protestants.

I may mention, also, how thoroughly appreciated our Litany and Church Services are by the three congregations to which I am permitted to minister. Especially is this the case at Jaffa. Here we have the full Morning Service, with Litany and Ante-Communion Service, exactly as it is in all our churches at home; and the hearty responses, singing, &c., have called forth expressions of pleasure from many friends. The people thoroughly enter into it, and very many have told me how much they enjoy it, "because they have a part to perform, and have not to leave the minister to do it all." Many have asked me to give them Prayer-books of their own, that they may study them at home.

During the year I have had several Moslems under Christian instruction for short periods, at the end of which they have generally disappeared entirely—disappointed at not receiving great pecuniary assistance and bribes to induce them to become Christians. There is one Moslem, however, who has been with us some months, and who, I do earnestly trust and pray, is a true Christian. He was a Moslem Katîb (or priest), and has suffered much persecution from the Government.

NABLÛS.

The Rev. T. F. Wolters, the Secretary of the Palestine Mission, writes as follows:—

The Rev. C. Fallscheer is in charge of Nablûs, with its three out-stations—Raphidieh, Nusf-el-Gebil, and Zebabdeh. The people are poor and degraded. Recently matters have been made worse through the heavy contributions exacted by the Government. The public means of grace are regularly kept up, and the schools have been carried on as usual, both with a fair average attendance. Mussulman fanaticism, is very strong in Nablûs and the country around, but has not interfered with our work, except in drawing away Mohammedan girls from our school. Even this has not been encouraged by the Pasha of Nablûs, and will not last when peace and some degree of order have been restored.

NAZARETH.

The Rev. J. Huber (recently admitted to Deacon's Orders, though for many years one of the Society's agents) is now in charge of this station. He estimates the Native Christian adherents at 420, the Native Communicants at 40, and the children under instruction (including 33 in the Boarding School of the Female Education Society) at 350. Mr. Huber writes:—

There has never passed a more important and anxious year since I have been in Palestine than the last one. But the protecting hand of our Heavenly Father was over us from day to day. The hatred of the Mohammedans is very great; but, in spite of it, I could not state a single instance during the whole year which might be called an insult, except that sometimes on our journeys, when Mr. Bellamy was with me, the boys would curse us as Christian dogs.

The schools are fairly prosperous. Among the 350 pupils, seven (boys) are Mohammedans.

The Rev. Michael Kawar, a Native brother, who co-operates with Mr. Huber, writes:—

The difference which existed in our congregation here has somewhat passed away. It was mainly caused by four persons who have now separated and left the Church. They seek for a perfect visible Church, a thing which is not to be found on earth.

In our Protestant school the scholars have lately increased on account of the shutting of the Russian schools. Schools are the starting-point of the missionary work. The parents see now the difference between our own and the Russian schools, in which latter instead of teaching the Gospel, they taught them love-poems, "Devan El Farid," composed by a Moslem of Egypt, who lived about the sixth century of the Hejra. They went so far as to sing those songs on the road whilst going from the school to the church.

If we say that the females of our country are without religion, we speak the truth. Most of the Christians in this country are [so-called] orthodox Greeks. They think that for girls to go to Church is something unbecoming and offensive. In their houses there is no family worship. The girl grows up in ignorance from childhood, and from her infancy she learns immoral songs from her mother. At weddings their voices are heard in the streets and in the houses, in bad, immoral, and ignorant songs. That which they know of their religion is the permission to go at Easter to their Church richly dressed and ornamented. When they have kissed the hands of the priests and kissed the pictures, they think that they have fulfilled their religious duties; and if they are asked what they have heard from the reading of the Word of God they can give no answer.

Mr. G. Nyland, recently added to the Society's staff in Palestine, who was stationed at Nazareth during the former half of 1877, and entrusted with the work in the neighbouring villages, states that in those villages Mohammedans attended the Protestant service on several occasions, apparently with much interest.

At the out-station of Shefamer, the Rev. S. Boutaji, a Native brother, carries on the work in a prayerful and persevering spirit, but finds the present circumstances of the Turkish empire a great hindrance. He is further distressed by the long delay, through want of funds, in completing the building of the Shefamer Church, as also by his inability, probably from the same cause, to establish a school for girls. In consequence of there being no Protestant girls' schools, the young women almost all grow up Roman Catholics; and this again renders it almost impossible for the Protestant young men to marry without renouncing their faith. The boys' school at Shefamer is well taught, and is in a satisfactory condition. There is a great demand for schools in the neighbouring villages; and Mr. Boutaji believes that the opening of such schools would be a means of making known the Gospel both to Christians and to Mohammedans.

SALT.

No European Missionary is at present residing at this station. During the year 1877, the Secretary of the Mission, Mr. Wolters, visited the place twice, in April and in October. He writes:—

My second visit was in every respect more satisfactory than the first. In April I found a spirit of bitter dissension pervading the congregation. The services, also, were conducted in a slovenly way, and the school had dwindled down to a lamentable state of inefficiency. So painful was the impression produced upon my mind, that I refused to administer the Lord's Supper. In October I was gratified to find a different state of things. The old schoolmaster had been dismissed and a new one appointed; and it was pleasing indeed to see, not only the improvement in outward order, but also the progress which the children have made. The services were conducted much more decorously; and what pleased me more than all was the apparent absence of rancorous feeling. They need a girls' school very much. The women are far behind in every respect, sadly ignorant and degraded and superstitious.

Mr. Jamal has been recently appointed to Salt, his place at Jerusalem being taken by Mr. Kawar.

Mr. Mackintosh, an agent of the British Syrian Schools, kindly visited some of the Society's schools in the Hauran, in March of the present year, and was able to give a fair account of them.

PERSIA.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Robert Bruce, M.A. (m), to North India, 1858; to Persia, 1869.

Mr. Bruce writes:—

As regards our Church members, our one object this year has been, not to seek increased numbers, but increased spirituality. Daily have we besought the Lord that, as He aided us in the building made with hands last year, He would build a holy temple of living stones this. We have not yet got the answer we expect, but I think we have got some droppings of His grace, and look for the heavy rain. Our Sunday morning congregation, and number of adherents who hear the Word, has increased to about 130; our communicants to thirty-five. The Sunday-school contains eighty scholars. This is our most interesting work; and I trust a blessing rests on it, and on our Saturday evening meeting for our Sunday-school teachers. The conduct of our people has been, in the sight of the world, irreproachable. In a great number, alas! we see no sign of spiritual-mindedness; but in a few there are manifest tokens of growth in grace. Our services are, as before—Sunday morning, in Persian, by myself; Sunday and Saturday afternoon, in Armenian, by Mr. Melcom; daily prayers in Persian; Sunday-school and Wednesday prayer-meeting; confirmation-classes, weekly, by Mr. Melcom and myself.—I believe one service should always be held on Sundays in Persian. The fact that no Eastern Church holds Divine Service in a tongue understood by Moslems marks their loss of all missionary spirit. No Armenian or Roman Catholic Church in Persia offers prayers for the Shah and rulers of the land. Protestants alone do so.—We have a few hopeful youths, whom I am anxious to carry on in theological training for evangelistic work. Julfa may yet prove a good school for the ministry of the Word to Mohammedans.

Our boys' school contains 132 scholars, viz., fifty-one Protestants and adherents, seventy-eight Armenians, and three Roman Catholics, and, under Mr. C. Johannes' excellent management, gives great dissatisfaction to the Roman Catholic and Armenian ecclesiastics, and universal satisfaction to all others. I teach the Bible and one secular lesson to the head-class daily. The girls'-school, under the joint management of my wife and Mr. Melcom, contains fifty scholars, viz., thirty-four Protestants and adherents, and sixteen Armenians. I call those Protestants who, with their parents, are regular in their attendance on Sunday services and Sunday-school, though not as yet communicants.

During the last year I have had very little time indeed to pay or receive visits; but the door is wide open, and no people are more conversational or fonder of discussing religious questions than Persians. It is not an open door that is wanted, but some one to step in.

Openings for work among Mohammedans in Persia.

As regards Itineration there is also an open door, but no man to occupy it. During the year I was only able to take one short trip, and that in the hottest month of the year, more for rest than work. I only visited two or three Moslem towns or villages. In one I met a labouring man to whom I had given a little portion of Scripture seven years ago, and who had read it and remembered it well. I was much encouraged by the way we were received, and the opportunities I had of preaching to the people. In another town I had an interesting night with some Baabys.

We cannot but hope that this sect, who believe that Jesus Christ is returned in the Person of the Father, and is now in prison at Acca, in Palestine, will in time be open to the Gospel. They hate Moslems and love Christians. They freely allow that all their best tenets are taken from the New Testament and not from the Koran. They do not allow polygamy, and believe in the incarnation and divinity of Christ. The great difficulty in arguing with them is that they are deeply imbued with Pantheism through the writings of the Sufies, who are Pantheists.

Thank God, we enjoy great peace, nor do I see any probability of our enemies being able to annoy us again.

Mr. Bruce is also engaged in the study of the Persian, Arabic, and Armenian languages, as well as in translational work in the first of these three languages.

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived in 1820).

I. Bombay.—II. Deccan.—III. Sindh.

General.

The Western India Mission has suffered much from the inadequacy of the Society's resources, especially as regards personal agency. Several Missionaries have been removed by failure of health; and it has not been found possible to supply their places.

I. Bombay.

The Native congregation is under the charge of the Rev. Appaji Bapuji. The total number of adherents does not exceed 112; but of these no fewer than 65 are Communicants. Four adults have been baptized within the year. During the latter part of the year several inquirers made application for baptism; and Mr. Bapuji consulted the leading members of the congregation respecting them. They advised that they should not be baptized until they had obtained work, and were able to support themselves. Some of them have stood the test, and at the date of Mr. Bapuji's letter were soon to be received into the visible Church.

Work among the Mohammedans.

The Mohammedan Mission in Bombay was one of those selected by the Committee for relinquishment. Steps were taken for carrying the decision into effect in the autumn of last year. Up to that date the agents employed (the Rev. J. G. and Mrs. Deimler, two Catechists, a Schoolmaster and a Schoolmistress) had been carrying on the work as usual, by means of street-preaching, visiting houses, markets, shops, the harbours, and the hospitals; the sale and distribution of tracts and portions of Scripture. To this were added, at the beginning of 1877, Hindustani schools for boys and girls, attended by forty boys and fifteen girls. Bible stories and Christian hymns were taught. One adult was baptized during the year, an Abyssinian woman. No mention is made in Mr. Deimler's Report of any other candidate for baptism. Mr. Deimler, however, makes the following powerful appeal against the Committee's decision—an appeal to which the Committee will most joyfully respond, if only a large and decisive increase in the Society's income, together with the offer of Candidates specially inclined and adapted for Mohammedan work, should enable them to do so :—

Appeal against relinquishment of the Mohammedan Mission in Bombay.

The decision of the Parent Committee to break up the Mussulman Mission, owing to want of funds, took me by utter surprise, and made me feel as I only felt when those most dear to me were taken away by the messenger of death. . . . . A great part of our united labour has been lost, and the best hopes of our life have been frustrated. I cannot believe that it is the will of God to give up the Mohammedan Mission. If I had the means of supporting myself and family, to continue the Mission would be easy enough; but as this is not the case, I have to try other means. Thus I humbly beg to receive a favourable hearing on the part of the Parent Committee.

From my last Report, the Society will perceive that in the Mohammedan Mission in Bombay, there is certainly no lack of labour. I have mentioned—preaching in streets and in church; visiting the market-places, shops, houses, the harbours, and the hospital, and on these occasions the distribution of tracts and portions of Scripture; holding meetings; imparting Christian instruction at home and in houses; school-work; writing tracts; and visiting zenanas. I may add that, if we had had more time and more men, we might have also laboured in the gaol, on board the many Native crafts in the harbour, among the Sipahis, and more persistently among the thousands of pilgrims on their way to and from Mecca. We might also have reached by train the considerable Mohammedan population of the towns of Tanna and Kallian, Thus the Bombay Mussulman Mission must not be considered to be in the same condition in which the Mohammedan Mission of Turkey is. There—to choose two important and fundamental branches of labour—neither preaching, with conversation, in the streets, nor house-visiting, can systematically be carried on; here we can do both to our pleasing. In preaching we have often large and quiet assemblies, amounting to perhaps 100 and 150 persons. As visitors in houses, we are generally welcome, and invited to call again.

Let us present to ourselves the vast field of the Mohammedan world before us in the city of Bombay. There are about 150,000 Mussulmans of different nationalities and religious communities. We find here the Chojas, the Memons, the Bohras, the Khonkanies, the Dekkhanis, the Panjabis, the Sindhis, &c., or, in other words, the people of all parts of India, speaking various vernaculars, but understanding more or less Hindustani or Urdu. Among the first two or three sections there are many well-to-do and rich merchants, trading between China and India, or between India, Europe, and East Africa. The Chojas, and amongst them especially the reformed party, are perhaps the most enlightened portion of the Mussulmans, and the most accessible to the Christian missionary. Then we have thousands of East Africans, Arabs, Persians, Afghans, Beluchis, and some Turkish, Somali, and Malay stragglers. The Society has a Mission in Persia and Central Africa; but shall the people of these countries residing in the British dominion remain unprovided with the Gospel of Christ? Besides these, we find thousands of pilgrims, from all parts of India and the adjacent countries, passing Bombay on their way to and from the city of Mecca. Last of all there are the many fakirs from all countries round about. Can the Society, after the Mission has been well commenced, leave all these people to themselves?

To speak of the results of the Mohammedan Mission in Bombay; we have gained by intercourse the friendship, and even the affection, of many Mussulman families. This supplies a basis for further influence. When I commenced the Mission, in 1859, I scarcely knew a single Mohammedan; now we are connected in some way or other with hundreds of them. At the outset of the work, not a single Mohammedan house was open for zenana-work. I well remember the rare pleasure I felt, when I could bring home the good news to Mrs. Deimler that she was invited to a Mohammedan family. Now forty to fifty Mohammedan houses are open for zenana-work, and more would open, if there were more labourers in the field. If Mrs. Deimler were to give herself exclusively to house-visiting, and I to house and shop visiting, we should both find more than sufficient employment.

We must remember also, at the present time, European influence, learning, education, and mercantile pursuits, exercise an influence upon the Mussulmans of Bombay as they never did before, loosening the bigotry and exclusiveness of the stereotyped faith of Islam, and slacking the bonds of connexion with their religion and religious guides. Thus disintegration is steadily doing its work amongst all Mussulmans, but especially in one influential community which most befriended us. Already a large number of them have separated themselves from their spiritual guide, and have established their own community. This state of things is the seasonable time for missionary operations.—At the last meeting of the Missionary Conference in Bombay, the unanimous opinion of the members of the Conference [representing various Protestant Societies] was expressed as follows:—"The Bombay Missionary Conference has heard with regret of the abandonment of the Mohammedan Mission of the Church Missionary Society. The Missionary Conference considers that there is an ample field and an urgent call for far more missionary effort among the Mohammedans of Bombay than has yet been put forth, and hopes that the field will not be left unoccupied."

The Robert Money School contains 236 pupils on the rolls, with an average attendance of 193. Of these, seven are Protestants, four Romanists, two Mohammedans, twenty-one Jews, 100 Brahmins, and 102 other Hindus. The cost of Native Teachers during 1877 was Rs. 5750, and the fees paid by the pupils amounted to Rs. 2516. There are two Europeans engaged in it—the Rev. T. Carss, the Principal, and Mr. Jackson, the Head Master. The Committee report with much thankfulness that the Rev. Jani Alli, B.A. of Cambridge, and formerly a student at the Noble High School of Masulipatam, where he was converted from Mohammedanism, has joined the Bombay Mission, and has been appointed for the present to assist in the Robert Money School. Mr. Carss writes:—

In our highest class the number is greater than it has ever been in the history of the school. The amount of the fees—a very fair test of the estimation in which the school is held by the Natives—is larger than it has ever been before. The school passed a good examination this year, and the discipline was spoken of with approval by her Majesty's Inspector of Schools. I find Mr. Anandras, our Christian master, of great service in teaching the Bible to the lower classes. Mr. Jackson and I give religious instruction to the higher classes. We never forget that this is a field of missionary labour, and that our great work is to make known the saving truths of Christianity.

The Gospel of St. Luke is our chief text-book, and from it we seek to preach Christ simply, faithfully, and affectionately. Such books as Paradise Lost, and Cowper's works, our chief text-books in English, in the senior class, give us frequent opportunities of impressing the truths of Christianity upon the minds of our students. . . . . In some instances, when lads first join the school, they regard the Bible with aversion and contempt, and ourselves with suspicion; but in a short time these feelings vanish, and are replaced by a certain amount of respect for our religion and affection for ourselves. During the year the school has been visited by several Christian friends. All of our visitors have expressed great satisfaction with the thoroughly missionary character of the school. Those who have not seen much of Mission-work have told me that they were surprised to find heathen lads possessing such an accurate, intelligent, and extensive acquaintance with the facts of Scripture. An encouraging feature of the work is that a large number of the students, after they leave the school, visit me from time to time. They view me as their friend and regard me with the utmost confidence, telling me of all their trials, and asking my advice. I often meet lads who were under me fourteen or fifteen years ago, whose beaming faces tell better than words how much pleasure the interview gives them.

That so many years should have passed away in this School without a single student, among those who were heathen when they entered, openly confessing Christ, is matter for great sorrow and searching of heart. The trials which a Bombay convert would have to endure, becoming in some cases an outcaste for ever from a loving and united family, and having the curse of his parents upon him, are, indeed, often terrible beyond description; but Christ's Missionary servants will, notwithstanding, however tenderly, urge even one so circumstanced, to be willing for Christ's sake to forsake, offend, and even grieve to the uttermost, all that are dearest to him upon earth.

Ninety-three girls, chiefly children of heathen parents, with a few little boys, receive Scriptural instruction in a School superintended by Mrs. Weatherhead.

NASIK AND SHARANPUR.

The whole number of Native Christian Adherents connected with Sharanpur and its out-stations of Makmalabád, Deolali, Pathardi, and Igatpuri, as registered on the 30th of June, 1877, was 485. Of these, 140 were Communicants. Thirteen adults had been baptized during the previous twelve months, and the whole number of baptized persons increased from 375 to 444. The printed Report, drawn up by the Rev. C. F. Schwarz, for the year ending at the date above named, which of course did not reach the Society's house in time to be inserted in the Annual volume for 1876-7, gives no details respecting any of the adult baptisms.

The following extracts from this Report, and from a more recent letter, will be read with interest:—

In regard to the spiritual condition of the Native Church, to speak generally, we have not been discouraged. Two persons were expelled for misconduct, but the very fact that unworthy members are weeded out, not by the Missionary alone, but in conjunction with a Church-Committee, is some proof of vitality.

Beneficial effects of the Famine Relief Fund.

When, on account of drought, the prevailing scarcity developed into actual famine, the writer trembled for his people, seeing no means for their subsistence during this great distress. In silence he cast his cares upon God; and behold, one of the mails brought the glad tidings to our Secretary in Bombay that a certain balance of a former Famine Fund was available in the present distress, to be applied to relief works for such of our people as have no other work. On application I was enabled to employ monthly from fifty to a hundred persons, men and women, on various works for the last six months. Our main endeavour was to find water for our village. Many endeavours have been made in past years, but, Sharanpur being situated on a very dry slope, all had been without success. But our recent relief works have been rewarded with decided success. We have found a rich supply of the purest spring water, without which our whole village would now be in the greatest distress, since all other wells and our nearest river are lying almost entirely dry. A second well, for agricultural purposes, now in progress, is equally promising.

Evangelistic Efforts in the District have been carried on by a number of evangelists, who, in pairs, have repeatedly been out in different directions. The Rev. Lucas Maloba at times led them on in their work, making shorter or longer tours with them. He has met with good receptions; and in some instances acquaintances which Mr. Lucas had made during his travels came afterwards, wishing to buy Scriptures for themselves. All the large villages around Nasik have also repeatedly been visited during the rains.

All our schools have been subject this year to a very strict Government examination. The number of scholars from the town of Nasik is increasing again in the Anglo-Vernacular School. The number of this school is thirty-four pupils. In the course of the last few months all heathen teachers, with the exception of two, have been done away with. This involves of course a reduction in the number of our schools.

A Girls' Boarding School, with thirty-nine inmates, attended also daily by eleven out-scholars, is under the care of Miss H. Schwarz. The same lady visits Native ladies at Nasik. Such, however, is the strength of prejudice in this Brahminical city, that the only families to which Miss Schwarz can gain access are those of Government Native officials.

A third department of Miss Schwarz's labours is the superintendence of Native Bible-women, who make Evangelistic excursions to the neighbouring villages. The gatherings of the women to listen to their message vary both in number and in attention.

MALIGÂM.

The Rev. W. A. Roberts writes as follows:—

Our Native Church has, I trust, upon the whole, grown in knowledge and stability of character. With one exception, but that a very sad one, calling for rubrical observance of Church discipline, I am not aware that any of its members have brought discredit upon the Christian name. In the Sunday services I have introduced a monthly public catechizing of the children in the Church Catechism, with explanations; and this new feature I think has been useful to the adult members of the congregation also. Our present numbers are 89, with 42 Communicants, which is a slight increase on last report.

I have instructed the Christian teachers and catechists who have been present in the station. This class of five young men has been an interesting one. They seem to take an increasing pleasure in the study of Holy Scripture. A Brahmin youth, who was baptized here four years ago, is a candidate for assistant catechist's work, and has received additional instruction to prepare him for his examination.

Our public preaching in Maligâm has been continued, and the catechists have visited the villages round their several centres. The school-boys have afforded me opportunities of cultivating friendly intercourse with the parents at their homes. Our plan for the last three or four years has been generally, to work and revisit a limited area rather than to take up new ground at a distance. After visiting twenty-four villages round Maligâm itself, with slight intermissions, I personally accompanied the catechists in preaching to the villages round eight centres where we encamped. Stolid ignorance and indifference with respect to Christianity still characterize the people whom our itinerating efforts are designed to reach. A thought has now and again occurred to me whether or not, instead of visiting every village, however interesting and healthy this morning work and ride may be, this might be done by the catechists alone, and the missionary direct his chief attention to the small towns with which we are surrounded, and where, of course, the greatest intelligence exists.

Personal acquaintance with individuals might then be cultivated to a greater extent.

The total number attending our schools, 184, is also slightly to the good. The number on the roll of the Anglo-Vernacular School is the same as last year; the Vernacular boys' school shows a decrease of ten; but in the girls' there is an increase of ten, and the Dhulia school an increase of seven. Our total grant-in-aid this year exceeded that of any previous year.

AURANGABAD.

The Rev. Ruttonjee Nowrojee (Ratanji Nauroji) is the Missionary of the station. His Annual Letter is again one of the most cheering communications which the Society has received from Western India. The Baptized have increased in number from 295 to 329, and the Communicants from 115 to 150. Twenty-one adults were baptized during the year; and at the date of the Annual Letter six Catechumens were under instruction.

Mr. Ruttonjee writes:—

During the year under review, 21 adults and 24 children, making in all 45, have been baptized; 11 members of this congregation have gone to their final rest; so that the present number of Native Christians is 329, out of whom 150 are communicants. The daily and Sunday services, the monthly celebration of the Holy Communion, and the missionary meeting have been held as usual without interruption. In the early part of February last we had a triennial visit from the Bishop of Madras, when forty members of my congregation were confirmed. His lordship's exhortation, coming as it did from a heart full of zeal and love, will not easily be forgotten.

Conversions at Aurangabad.

Among the adult baptisms, the hopeful and interesting inquirer mentioned in my last Report is included. He has had his share of the trials which a high-caste Hindu generally meets with on his conversion. But he has patiently and cheerfully gone through all; and I am not a little comforted to see him "grow in grace." Recently he was very ill. While labouring for days under a mild form of delirium, he talked of nothing else but God and heaven—of prayer and praise. Had he been cut off, his relatives would have attributed his early death to his change of religion. But the Lord has raised him up again; and his calmness and Christian character has, at last, softened his heathen wife who seems now favourably disposed towards Christianity.—The chief instrument employed in the conversion of another was their own daughter, who attends our infant-school. This dear little girl, who is eight years old, was in the habit of reading aloud to her parents the lessons she learnt at school. The good seed thus sown took root and the baptism of the whole family is the happy result—illustrating the words and experience of the sweet Psalmist of Israel, "Out of the mouths of the very babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength."

I have quite recently engaged, for the Anglo-Vernacular School, the services of a Native Christian master, who is an undergraduate of the Bombay University.

From the beginning of the year I was obliged to open out a few relief works, which have maintained upwards of 100 people, who would otherwise have suffered great misery, if not death. The money thus spent has done good work. . . . . Four wells, a rest-house, and a school-house have been built; and, since October last, I have been engaged in building a church at this station. While the Famine Relief Fund helps towards the labour, I have to collect money for the purchase of materials. Those who have had any experience of such an undertaking will form some idea of the trouble and anxiety it has caused me; but I am greatly comforted with the prospect of having (what I have longed for years) a decent place of Divine worship. The church is situated in a prominent part of the camp, and is in every way suitable to attract our heathen neighbours to come within the sound of the Gospel. We hope to take our stand in the church compound, when finished, to preach on bazaar-days to the people who pass to and fro by hundreds.

Mr. Weatherhead visited us in December last. He came at a time when I most needed help and sympathy, and these he has given me with his wonted warmth of love.

III. Sindh.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. James Sheldon (m), 1854.
Rev. George Shirt (m), 1866.
Rev. John Bambridge, 1876.

KARÂCHI.

THE Rev. J. Sheldon's Annual Letter needs no introductory comment. He writes:—

The European staff of this station was increased by the arrival, early in January, of the Rev. J. and Mrs. Bambridge. The latter, to the grief of all, was called away to her heavenly rest, after a very brief sojourn with us, but not before she had shown the true missionary spirit, the sweet savour of which will long remain in the Mission. Her bereaved husband has remained faithful at his post, devoting himself to the acquisition of the language, and rendering occasional help in the services, schools, and bazaar.—One of our Native agents has left for the Panjâb; but his place has been more than supplied by the arrival of an old pupil, who, after many years of experience in our Panjâb Missions, is desirous of devoting himself to evangelistic work amongst his fellow-countrymen, the Sindhis. Another Native agent has also been engaged, who is to labour amongst the Mohammedans, especially directing his attention to the strangers —Patans, Arabs, and Persians—visiting our port.

The Native congregation numbers in all seventy-three, being an increase of five on last year's return, with thirty-one communicants, which also shows a slight increase. At the Native services, the Bible-readings on Sunday afternoons, and also on Wednesday evenings at the chapel specially adapted to our adherents and inquirers, the attendance during the whole year has been encouraging. Including the church offertories, which amounted to Rs. 90, the contributions to the Native Church Fund were Rs. 324. A Church Committee has been formed in connexion with this congregation, and has proved a useful auxiliary to the missionaries. With many anxieties in this pastoral charge, we gladly record many instances of the working of true Christian principle, and of an earnest desire to make sacrifices for Christ in spreading His Gospel, which have cheered us in many a weary hour, making us hopeful for the future.

Preaching in the bazaars has been unremittingly carried on, at seven selected stations, where good audiences are generally secured. Sometimes considerable opposition has been shown, and once or twice stones and other missiles have been thrown; but on the whole, the preaching has been quietly listened to, and has also been the means of bringing inquirers to us. One of the catechists, a converted Brahmin, in addition to his work in the bazaars, where he is a successful preacher, has occasionally been invited to discuss the claims of our Christian faith in large Hindu assemblies, and reports well of the manner in which he has been received. Another, a converted Mohammedan, has gained admission into the homes of the upper class of his former co-religionists, where he has been able quietly to state the convictions which led to his conversion. Another of our agents, a converted Afghan, has been most useful in attracting strangers, especially his fellow-countrymen, who in the cold season visit, with their caravans, Karâchi in considerable numbers. He sits in a small room—a sort of zaiyat—near a public thoroughfare, and almost every evening may be seen in earnest conversation with one or more visitors. —Our bookseller has sold over 1200 books. These are, for the most part, of small value, but each book contains some religious truth well suited to Native readers. Had we the means of increasing our stock of books, including English, a very much larger circulation would be secured, the demand having lately greatly increased.

Our educational efforts have been attended this year, on the whole, with unusual success. Not only have our schools in past years given us converts, but they have more than any other instrumentality furthered our work. In both our boys' schools, the numbers have increased, being at the end of December—in the Anglo-Vernacular School 125, and in the Vernacular 215, or a total of 340. Of the efficiency of the former the Government Educational Inspector, after the last examination, October, reports most favourably. In all our schools religious instruction is regularly given; and boys who, on entering the school, have shown marked dislike to reading the Bible, have, as its wonderful truths have been gradually unfolded to them, listened gladly, and openly expressed their approval of the Scripture lesson. Repeatedly have some of the senior boys, without solicitation, mentioned to me their thankfulness for Bible-teaching.

Opening in Beluchistan.

At the close of the year, the Sirdars of Beluchistan accompanied the Governor-General's political agent of that province, Major Sandeman, to Karâchi. They encamped near the Mission-house, and thus a favourable opportunity was afforded of holding intercourse with them. Visits were exchanged with the leading Sirdars, and copies of the Gospels in Persian presented to them. They were received with many expressions of goodwill. One of the principal Sirdars offered to give us his protection, should we see our way to establish a school in the chief town of his territory. It may also be interesting to mention that two youths—one a Beluchi, and the other a Brahoi, both natives of Beluchistan—are pupils in our school, and daily receive Christian instruction. Thus it may be that this country, so long closed to us—for years the prey of intestine strife, where every man's hand was against his brother—may, in the providence of God, ere long be opened to Christian effort.

HYDRABAD.

Twenty-two years have now passed away since this station was first occupied; and much zealous and prayerful labour has been expended on it. But Hydrabad furnishes another proof of the tremendous obstacles presented to the Gospel by the two (widely differing) systems of Hinduism and Mohammedanism. Let prayer and effort be continued and increased. The Native adherents number thirteen, including of course the four Native teachers and their families. There are six Communicants. The Native scholars are 207 boys and fifty-five girls. The following extracts from Mr. Shirt's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

On our return to Hydrabad, we resumed Bazaar Preaching, and have generally had good audiences, though there are times when one feels that little good is being done; still, while men will listen, it is our duty to try and persuade them; and this, at least, we can say with confidence, that public preaching increases the demand for Christian literature. We have also visited all the places within easy reach of Hydrabad.

The Sale of Christian Literature is on the increase, and it is capable of still greater increase, if we were able to go from town to town preaching, and had with us a greater variety of cheap Sindhi tracts and small books. During the last four months more than 600 small books and vernacular Christian tracts have been sold. Each book or tract contains some important spiritual truth set forth in a style which can be understood by the reader. If friends, either here or at home, would give us a few special contributions to aid in this work, we should be deeply thankful.

In the Anglo-Vernacular School our numbers have of late decreased, but I think we have reached our lowest ebb. (We are now free from the matriculation fever; it is found that, commercially, matriculation does not pay.) Religious instruction is given in all our classes; and the interest in these lessons seems to increase, as the boys rise in their classes. In the first-class, the percentage of marks gained in the Scripture part of the examination is generally very high.—The Vernacular School is full of boys.—In the Girls' School our numbers have of late increased, while the progress made is generally very good. They are nearly all Hindus, and mostly the daughters of Amirs. It is a pleasure to see the interest many of them take in their lessons, and the anxious desire they have to do well in their monthly examinations. Mrs. Shirt gives nearly three hours daily to the school, and through it she has been permitted to visit several families—a thing which would not have been allowed a few years ago.

Native Christian Congregations.

In the Society's Annual Report for 1876-7, it was mentioned that no report had been received respecting these congregations for the year then under review. The same remark may be made in regard to the period now reported upon, except in reference to Agarpâra. But in November, 1877, some information was received of the work in connexion with these congregations for the year 1876.

At the close of 1876 the congregation of Trinity Church, Amherst Street, Mirzapore, under the pastoral care of the Rev. P. M. Rudra, numbered 365 persons, of whom 135 were Communicants. There were then ten Catechumens; and it had been strengthened during the year by the baptism of nine adult converts. No particulars were given of these baptisms. Several members of the congregation were engaged in voluntary evangelistic work; and Mr. Rudra himself, besides his pastoral duties, had had several interesting religious conversations with non-Christian Bengali gentlemen. The Kól effort continued, in a modified form; but no detailed account was given of it.

The congregations of Kristopur and Terulia, in the Salt Lake District, under the care of the Rev. Râjkristo Bose, numbered 200 souls, being an increase of 50 during the preceding four years. In the same period the Communicants had increased from 12 to 40. Dissensions which had previously caused a falling away had ceased.

A small congregation at Banhugli, about six miles from Calcutta, consisted of twenty-four persons, and showed much vitality. It had begun about twelve years before by the conversion of the family of a musical instrument maker. At one time they suffered much from persecution, in which the Brahmists (Theists) of the neighbourhood took a leading part.

At Âgarpâra (under the care of the Rev. F. J. De Rozario), there has been a diminution in the number of the congregation, owing to the prevalence of malarious fever. There were some deaths; and several of the Native Christians left the neighbourhood. The present numbers are 157 adherents and 50 Communicants. The Colporteur has sold, during the year, 537 different portions of the Scriptures; which fact Mr. De Rozario regards as "indicative of a growing desire for further knowledge of Christianity."

Very important work is carried on at Âgarpâra among Native women and girls of all ranks. It is conducted and superintended by Miss Neele. On her registers are 599 Zenana pupils, 330 girls and four Seminarists (Native Christian girls or young women in training to become teachers). The girls' schools comprise day schools (chiefly, if not exclusively, attended by heathen), a boarding school for Native Christian girls, and an Orphanage. Miss Neele has been much distressed, and the good work apparently much impeded, in the inscrutable providence of God, by the prevalence of sickness, and latterly, by the arrival at Agarpâra of that terrible fever which for so many years desolated Burdwan and its neighbourhood. After referring to these sad trials, Miss Neele, in her Annual Letter, adds:—

Of some of the elder girls I am thankful to be able to give a most satisfactory report. Fourteen of them have joined the Bible and Prayer Union, forming a kind of Association with Mrs. Elmslie's girls at Amritsar, with whom they have had a little correspondence; and I purpose asking Miss Drœse whether the Bhagalpur girls will also join them. A few of our former pupils, now married, have also become members of the Union.

In all Zenana work (and Miss Neele's is not an exception) deeply interesting incidents often occur, the account of which cannot be published, for fear of stirring up opposition, and thus perhaps putting a stop to all communication between the devoted teacher and the timid inquirer.—The Native Bible-women are somewhat discouraged, and ask for intercessory prayer. It seems to them that the prevailing epidemic only hardens the hearts of those whom they visit.

Cathedral Mission College.

Mr. R. J. Bell, one of the missionary Professors of this college, had to leave Calcutta on account of failing health in April, 1877. Mr. Dyson (the Principal), and Dr. Baumann, continued their labours through the year with unintermitted diligence. Mr. Hodgson was brought up temporarily from the North-west Provinces to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Bell's return to Europe, and, though having the reverse of a predilection for educational work, discharged the duties thus imposed upon him with great diligence and efficiency. Mr. Dyson writes:—

We have attended College every day, have opened the day's labour with prayer and a careful and systematic exposition of some portions of our Lord's life as contained in the Gospels, and then have carried through the other lectures in the subjects prescribed by the University, and have wound up the week's work with an earnest and practical religious address to all the students assembled in the hall. I do not here report upon Sunday services and other mission labour, which the present paucity of missionaries in Calcutta has thrown necessarily upon the overworked College staff.

During this year we have not been so fortunate as heretofore in securing help from Christian gentlemen for the religious addresses. Dr. Copleston, Bishop of Colombo, when in Calcutta, happened to call on a Saturday at the College to inquire about some Ceylon students, and very readily consented, though at some inconvenience, to speak to the students, and afterwards engaged in conversation with several of them. We have again to thank Colonels Haig and Touch for assistance in this direction, and I trust it will be continued in ensuing years. I have reason to know that in many cases the truths inculcated during these addresses have been long remembered, and have produced practical effect. . . . . By far the majority of our students on entering the College are in almost entire ignorance of Christianity, and of spiritual religion. Dr. Baumann has now for many years taken under his special charge the students of the first-year class, and he finds it very helpful, before taking up the Gospels, to give a series of lectures on the elements of religion. In order to secure the hearers and scholars for this careful inculcation of Divine truth, we have to labour hard in other directions, and to show our competency to teach other things than Scripture. We should all like, of course, to have the Scriptural teaching alone, uncomplicated with secular instruction. It is not altogether true that the educational missionary is not exercising any Christian influence when engaged in teaching his students secular subjects. A relation of kindly interest subsists between teacher and pupil, and lends impressiveness and weight to the living voice of the teacher when dwelling on the all-important truths of Holy Writ. If this affectionate regard does not dominate the heart of the teacher, the lecturing on secular subjects will be drudgery, and the Scriptural teaching will be mechanical and lifeless.

An increasing number of our students seem disposed to take up Latin rather than Sanscrit. These Latin students, most of whom are Native Christians, have been regularly taught by Dr. Baumann, who in his labours abundant—more abundant and varied than I can now describe—had volunteered to add this weight to the extra burden which, since the departure of Messrs. Vaughan and Stern for England, has been resting on his shoulders.

Though from the concluding sentence in the above extract it is clear that there are Native Christian students at the college, yet the number of Native Christian undergraduates in North India is still but small, comparatively speaking; and of these, again, the greater number are loth to come down to Calcutta, even if they could afford the expense. Hence the hostel founded by the Society for the reception of such undergraduates at Calcutta has not as yet proved to be needed for that purpose. It is, however, useful for Christian boys attending the Mission English School, some of whom may afterwards matriculate.

Training of Native Pastors and Evangelists.

The Rev. W. R. Blackett, who was sent out from England in October, 1876, especially for this most important branch, has been somewhat hindered, by other work almost unavoidably thrown upon him, in the acquisition of the Bengali language; but though not yet so fully acquainted with the vernacular as he hopes to be, he has been pronounced by competent examiners sufficiently advanced to commence his task, and at the date of his Annual Letter, 27th Nov., 1877, was hoping to set to work shortly after Christmas.

KRISHNAGAR.

This Mission, with its 6000 Christian adherents, calls for the earnest prayers of all true-hearted friends of Missionary effort. The Rev. J. Vaughan, who is now in charge of the work, sees much among these 6000 nominal Christians that causes him the deepest distress. Like all his predecessors he deplores both the scantiness of signs of spiritual life, and the presence of great and serious evils. But here and there the Missionary finds some that are true fellow-helpers in the Lord; and the Committee doubt not that GOD will graciously bless Mr. Vaughan's loving and prayerful labours.

The work at the Sudder (or Central) station, the town of Krishnagar itself, has been carried on during the year 1877 by the Rev. F. Gmelin. As regards pastoral duties, Mr. Gmelin remarks that the Christians of the Sudder station are generally regarded as in advance of those of the country districts, and that though that superiority may be partly attributed to the continued presence and fostering care of European Missionaries, he yet thinks the time has come for the congregation to be handed over to a Native Pastor.

> This department of Mission work has been carried on under my superintendence by two Catechists and two readers, in the towns of Krishnagar, Santipur, and Nuddea (Navardipa). The men have, as in former years, come to me for instruction, encouragement, and prayer, at which time they have also given me a report of their work. All have been consistent and regular in their duties. One has perseveringly visited educated natives at their houses, and instructed in Christianity students of the Government College. Students from the Government College have, as in former years, received Christian instruction at my house. Since closing the English school at Nuddea, I have transferred our ablest Catechist to that town.
> There are also two Bible-women under my charge, at Santipur. Their work is most interesting and encouraging. No longer looked upon with suspicion, they are in many cases welcomed; and the word of Christ which they deliver is eagerly listened to. I trust that this part of the work will be taken up and extended by Miss Harding, who has been lately appointed to the Zenana Mission at Krishnagar.

The Zenana work made over to Mrs. Gmelin by Miss Blumhardt, before she left for England, has been regularly and systematically carried on. Mrs. Gmelin has been kindly assisted by an elderly English lady, who does not wish her name to be made known. The work was very encouraging, and we only regretted that we had not the power to enlarge it. It has now been taken up by Miss Harding.

The more important and central of the educational establishments connected with this Mission were also under Mr. Gmelin's care. The chief of these was the Training Institution, the object of which has been to train teachers, readers, and catechists for the Bengal Mission generally. Twenty-three students received, during the year, very careful instruction in Holy Scriptures, in the Thirty-nine Articles, in the Romish, Hindu, and Mohammedan controversies, in various useful branches of secular knowledge, and in the art of teaching. Very favourable testimony was borne to the efficiency of Mr. Gmelin's instruction by the Government inspector and by other visitors. Attached to the Training Institution is a Practising School, as also a Sunday School. At both these schools the attendance of Christian children has greatly increased. This change for the better Mr. Gmelin ascribes to the introduction of new and improved plans; and he is of opinion that by means of similar plans the same happy result might become general throughout the whole district.—The inadequacy of the Society's resources, in men and money, have led to the closing of the Mission School at Navardipa (Nuddea), a step which Mr. Gmelin much laments.—The Society's five schools at Santipur have maintained their high efficiency and good attendance, notwithstanding a very unhealthy season and the continued opposition of a Hindu School. A favourable testimony has been borne to them by the Government inspectors.

Early in 1878 Mr. Gmelin, to his great sorrow, was compelled by failure of health to return to Europe.

BHÂGALPUR.

No adult has been baptized at this station during the year, nor do there seem to be any inquirers under instruction. The Native Christians number 364, and the Communicants 80.

The Rev. E. Drœse is the Missionary in charge. His Annual Letter contains the following interesting passage:—

Having heard that the people of some ninety hill-villages in the vicinity of Taljhari (one of our Santâl Mission stations) were desirous of receiving Christian instruction, the missionary felt encouraged, and thought he might and ought to do more for at least those of the poor Pahâris (hill-men), who live near to a place only half an hour from Bhâgalpur by railway. The Committee are aware of the fact that up to 1862 a regiment of hill-men was stationed at Bhâgalpur, and that almost all the converts of the Bhâgalpur Mission were people belonging to that corps. The missionary has now again taken up the Pahâri language. The little he had known before will not thus be lost to the work, as he hopes, with the Lord's help, to succeed in acquiring such a command of Pahâri as will enable him not only to speak that language, but also to prepare such books, in manuscript at least, as may help other missionaries in acquiring the language. By the assistance of several well-educated Christian hill-men living at Bhâgalpur, St. John's Gospel has been translated, and a tract has been drawn up for use among hill-people. There are at present two readers employed for work among hill-people. A third, it is hoped, may soon be added. As a rule the people are willing to listen.

SANTÂLIA.

The information from this Mission is somewhat incomplete. One Missionary, much esteemed by his flock, the Rev. H. Davis, has been removed by death; and more recently the Rev. James Brown has by medical orders retired for awhile to this country. On the other hand, the Committee are thankful to report that the Rev. W. T. Storrs has returned to the place of his former labours, accompanied by Mr. Tunbridge. The Committee have also designated to this Mission a student of the Islington College, who, it is hoped, will leave England in the autumn.

Mr. Brown, since his return to England, has kindly furnished the Committee with the following remarks on the condition and prospects of the work:—

Although during the last few years the Santâls do not come forward in such large numbers as they did formerly, yet the cry in every part of the land is "Teach us." We feel it has become our duty therefore to open new stations and centres of evangelistic work. There are English-speaking enemies of Christianity in the land who pooh-pooh missionary work, and speak of any religion being as good as the Christian religion. The chiefs of the Santâls also are a corrupted set of men. They love drink and bribes, and they use improper means to get these, and the poor ryots suffer at their hands. The chiefs have learnt to do this from their contact with Hindus, especially Bengalis whom they meet in Bazars and at Cutcherries. Hence the necessity to do speedily what we have to do to save the Santâl race from a deeper depth of immorality.

The ground for the station of the new district of BHÂGÂYÂ has been finally determined upon and obtained; and the Rev. John Blaich has taken charge. A second new station has been finally determined upon, and the ground obtained at BÂHÂWÂ or BAHALWA, a station upon the loop-line of railway. The village in which the station will be situated is Dharmpur, i.e. city of truth, justice, righteousness, religion, holiness, a beautiful name for a Mission Station! The district of this new station will be taken out of the Taljhari and Hirampur districts. These were both too large; and by forming a new district between the two old ones, the work will be more concentrated, and at the same time more extended. Three congregations will be attached to the new station at the outset by this arrangement, two from the Taljhari, and one from the Hirampur district.

The profession made a year ago by a great number of Hill-men (Pahâris), of a wish to become Christians, I am sorry to report, died out. They could not resist the temptation to drink intoxicating spirits at the heathen festivals. They can make a beer from the maize which they cultivate on the steep sides of their mountains; and they often purchase rice-beer from the Santals. They also are the tari (toddy) extractors of the district. Wherever there are palm-trees, Pahâris are to be found climbing them during the spring months of April and May, and tapping them, and fixing up earthen vessels for the toddy to run into. No use has been made of the toddy except that of drink. In the midst of the forest they erect a few temporary huts in the spring, and a great quantity of toddy is collected and drunk almost as fast as collected. Sometimes crowds go by invitation, and drink themselves drunk. [Mr. Brown here gives some most painful details of the prevalence almost universally of drunkenness among the Pahâris, men and women alike.]

I believe if Government would suppress the toddy-drinking by a prohibition, the Pahâris would give it up. When Sir R. Temple's Government Minute on intemperance among the Santâls was circulated and put into the hand of every village chief by order of the Commissioner of Bhâgalpur, G. N. Barlow, Esq., C.S.I., the Pahâris heard of what the Government desired the Santâls to do, and they at once said, "We too wish to be restrained from drunkenness, and we wish to become Christians too. But they were not restrained, and when temptation came they fell. The Pahâri is lower in the scale of humanity than the Santâl; yet we have hope even for him. We know of some who once were as hopeless as any of them, who are now pious and godly living men—ornaments of the Christian profession—and examples to their neighbours. We want a missionary for the Pahâris. There are about half a million of them in the Santâl districts. We who are working among the Santâls cannot efficiently work among the Pahâris too. Their language is totally different, and they occupy the heights of the mountains. May the Lord raise up one to be an apostle to the Pahâris!

Offering of Santal Christians.

The conduct of the Christian Santal congregation at Taljhari during the year has been on the whole satisfactory. There have been one or two cases requiring discipline. The offertory has been equal to that of former years. In September there was a maize harvest festival; people brought willingly and plentifully of their substance, and there was a good offertory at the same time of pice (coppers). This was sent to the relief of the famine-stricken Kois of South India. Again, on New Year's day we had an annual rice harvest festival. The people again brought of the produce of the land with a good heart willingly. You know perhaps that they bring their offerings in baskets to the ministers in the chancel. Instead of sending a man with the plate to the people during the reading of the offertory sentences, the minister gives the people an invitation to bring up to him whatsoever they wish to give to God's work. And then first the men and boys come, and then the women with children in their arms, and the little infants are taught by their parents to drop a pice into the alms-dish. Those who wish can bring offerings in kind instead of pice.

The number of those who have been baptized during the year in the Taljhari district has not been so large as it was last year—18 men, 13 women, and 68 under twelve years. Total belonging to Taljhari, exclusive of Godda and Hirampur, 1075.

HIRAMPUR.

This was Mr. Davis's station. As his removal took place just a few weeks before the time when the Annual Letter would be sent, no formal Report has been received of the district. Mr. Brown's account of this sad event, besides being interesting on its own account, incidentally mentions various features of the work. Extracts are subjoined:—

It was on the 6th of September, the day on which the Rev. W. T. Storrs and Mr. Tunbridge left England to come and strengthen our Mission, that dear brother Davis, worn-out with a disease which must have stealthily and rapidly grown upon him, and after a hard day's work at translations into Santâli, laid down his pen and said to his Bengali Munshi (Gorochand Catechist) who was assisting him, "I cannot do more, I am very weary." It was Thursday. On the following Sunday (September 9th) he entered into his rest. We, in Taljhari, received no information until Monday morning. A party of three of us at once set out from Taljhari, notwithstanding the rains and floods, and reached Hirampur on the same day, in time to see the lifeless form of our departed brother, and to assist in the interment. The sorrowing widow was wonderfully upheld by Him who is the Husband of the widow. A very large number of people assembled together. Christians came from all parts of the Hirampur district. And the heathen of Hirampur and the adjacent villages, Beharis, Bengalis, Mussulmans, and Santâls, all came in considerable numbers to pay a tribute of esteem for their departed friend. In consideration for the Christians who had assembled, the Santâli language for the Burial Service was chosen instead of our own (to us sweeter) English tongue. I then addressed all present. Many sobs were audible among the boys and girls of the schools. After the address, we all sang, though sadly, his own translation into Santâli of the much-loved hymn (now more than ever dear to us), "Work, for the night is coming." This ended, we slowly returned from the grave. And many were the expressions of grief and looks of sadness even from the heathen, who seemed then to be in human sympathy brothers and sisters, although not so in Christ. All felt that they had lost a true friend, who had ministered unto them night and day in their sicknesses, as well as instructed them in the Word of God. He had nearly completed his sixth year in the mission field, and his work at Hirampur had been already blessed. Not a few had been converted and added to the number of the Lord's people in that district during his ministry.—I must not omit to mention Mrs. Davis's work in the girls' school. The school was evidently flourishing under her constant care and zeal. The girls were all much attached to her. And when the time came for Mrs. Davis to take her farewell of Hirampur it was touchingly sad to see what a wrench the parting was both to Mrs. Davis and to them.

Death and Funeral of a Missionary.

The Rev. F. F. Cole is employed in the educational branch in the Taljhâri district. He has charge of thirty-four seminarists (older students, some of whom it is hoped may become agents of the Mission or the Native Church), 380 boys, and 51 girls. Mr. Cole is also otherwise usefully engaged, as will be seen by the following extracts from his letter:—

One of my proposals at our last conference was that we should have a Christian Lyric, in six parts, adapted to six Santâli tunes. Subjects to be:—1. Creation to the Flood; 2. Exodus; 3. Kings; 4. Prophets; 5. Our Lord's Life; 6. Spread of Christianity and Glorious Hopes of the Christian. The Santâls have no written language, but all their traditions are handed down from generation to generation by recitation, interspersed with songs. These tunes we have taken, and formed a Christian Karam Binti, as it is called in Santâli. It was unanimously resolved that we have such a Lyric, and that two prizes be offered to Christian Santals to incite them to compose such a Lyric. Two only have been sent in to me as yet, but we hope for more.

This year has been a very busy one for me in a literary point of view. The brethren asked me to translate the three Gospels and revise St. Matthew. My translation was sent round, and notes and emendations were added by the brethren; then I edited them, and, after again passing round and settling disputed points, I was empowered to carry it through the press. It was my great joy last week to receive a copy of the four Gospels, bound together. "Not unto us, not unto us, but unto Thy Name be the praise."

We are now engaged in translating the Acts. Besides these, the Religious Tract Society has published a translation of "The Old, Old Story" in Santâli for me. At the beginning of the year I published a small poem, or rather song, setting forth by Scripture and the Santâls' own traditions how they have been deceived into forsaking God, and how they have left the old paths, and are going on to ruin.

The statistics of GODDA give 97 Communicants, 270 adherents, and 26 adult baptisms during the year. The corresponding numbers for 1876 were, 80, 232, and 21. Of the adults baptized during the year, six were Santals. fourteen Pahâris, four Hindus, and two Mohammedans. The Rev. A. Stark, the Missionary of the station, gives several instances of the persecutions to which Santal converts are subjected.

At the last Conference of the Santâl Missionaries, a meeting was held for consultation, with forty Santâl Christian delegates. It was resolved:—(1) That besides the two stations (Bhâgâyâ and Bâhâwâ) mentioned above by Mr. Brown, a third should be sought out next year for Mr. Tunbridge:—(2) That more rigid church discipline should be enforced:—(3) That the older Santal Christians should be encouraged to voluntary evangelistic effort:—(4) That "Missions" (special services) should be conducted in Christian villages; and (5) That Christian marriages should be less expensive; and that the minimum age for marriage should be sixteen.

General.

The Native Christians connected with the Society in the North-West Provinces, have now a Provincial Church Council. The Council administers funds for Native Church purposes, which have been placed at its disposal by grant from the Society or by subscriptions from Native Christians. It is not an ecclesiastical body; but, comprising as it does many leading Native Christians, the opportunity was wisely taken, and with very interesting results, to discuss several important questions.

BENÂRES.

The Native Christian adherents connected with this station, form two congregations known as the City congregation and the Sigra congregation. Their numbers are registered as 423; of whom 122 are Communicants. Their spiritual life seems feeble, though no special failings are reported. Four adult converts were baptized during the year. The European Missionaries were, at the close of 1877, the Rev. J. Fuchs, since deceased, who was then Senior Missionary of the station; Mr. John Treusch; the Rev. G. M. Grime, since returned to England invalided. At the date of Mr. Fuchs's Annual Letter (20th December, 1877) there was no Native Pastor; the Rev. J. Carter, who held that position, having died during the year. Another Native Christian, Aman Singh, was to be ordained to the post at the end of the month. Mr. Fuchs wrote:—

The Sigra congregation was deprived of their Native pastor, Solomon, who in the beginning of May was transferred to Lucknow, and the newly-ordained Native pastor, Joseph Carter, put in his place. J. Carter was naturally an amiable and agreeable man; and, as a good Christian, he combined also in himself sober-mindedness, sound judgment, and activity. In knowledge and acquirements, he was superior to many. But he arrived here already fever-stricken, and was scarcely able to commence his work. At the end of June, to his grief, he was obliged to desist from all work; and, though fond of Sigra, as our people were also much attached to him, he returned to Lucknow in the hope that its climate would better agree with him; but, instead of improving in health, he grew worse, and lingered on, in much pain, till the beginning of November, when he entered into his rest.

I have baptized four adults within the last four months, of whom Wazir, a weaver from Ahrowrah, with his wife and two children, may first be mentioned. I saw him last year, and heard that his co-religionists—the Mussulmans of the place—knowing him to be an inquirer, were hotly persecuting him. Soon after, he could stand it no longer, but came into Benares. After his baptism, myself and Rahimbakhsh [the Catechist of Ahrowrah, an alumnus of the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL] persuaded him to return to Ahrowrah, and live among his own people as a witness of the truth. On his arrival, however, all the Mussulmans, headed by the inspector of police, gathered around him in fury, as if they were going to tear him to pieces. They would not allow him to hire a house, nor to draw water from their wells. Rahimbaksh stood fearlessly by him. But his opponents would not keep quiet, nor the disturbance subside, until I wrote to the magistrate of Mirzapur claiming for Wazir, according to the Toleration Act, liberty of faith and protection against his enemies.

This had the desired effect, for no sooner had the police-inspector received notice from the magistrate of the complaint brought against him, than he turned at once a great friend of the Christians, and restored perfect peace. So the poor man has since been left unmolested, and has resumed his former occupation, and is earning an honest though scanty livelihood. He is a poor and illiterate man, but simple-minded, humble and quiet. I trust that with him the beginning of a good work has been made at Ahrowrah, and that his example will encourage other inquirers to follow it.

I must correct a statement in the Society's last Annual Report. The apostate Gagub was baptized at Sigra, not at Chunar. There is now every prospect of his return to Christianity. He has of late visited Aman Masih several times, but is ashamed and afraid of coming to me. I sent him word that, if he truly repented of his apostasy, and would confess it openly in our congregation, in whose presence he had been baptized, as he had openly abjured Christianity before his people, he might be re-admitted into the Church.

The work at Chunar has not prospered during the year. There are no inquirers; and there has been no adult baptism during the year. Even the school had languished, though it was hoped the falling away would prove only temporary.

Nothing of interest has occurred at Gharwa or Baburi. Mr. Fuchs thus concluded his Annual Letter with words which, though sorrowful, are quoted in the hope of stirring up prayer for the work—(the Committee, however, disclaim all despondency) :—

The catechists, Babu Peter and Chris Chit, were out on a monthly preaching tour to the north and east of Benares, and Nathanael Rahimbaksh went into the Vindhiya mountains, and each party has given an encouraging account of its tour. The two former, with Aman Masih, have pursued their work in the city also with steady perseverance and faithfulness; though this year again no fruit of their labour is visible, nor have we any inquirers in the city at present. So you will have to head the portion about Benares in the next Report again with "Hope Deferred;" and "Though it tarry long, wait for it." If you take a somewhat desponding view of this Mission I do not wonder, having myself often to struggle against fear and doubts, as if the Lord intended to put us to shame, and make our enemies triumph over us.

AZIMGARH.

The Rev. B. H. Skelton is the Missionary of this station.

The Native congregation is small, numbering about 30, and consisting almost entirely of persons in Mission employ. One adult was baptized during the year, respecting whose conversion no details are given in the Annual Letter. Mr. Skelton, who is about to take charge temporarily of Gorakpur, writes :—

Preaching and itinerating are not neglected by us. It has been regularly carried on, and I hope before I leave for Gorakpur to arrange with our little Church Committee for systematic work during the next hot weather. We cannot preach in the bazaar, as the streets are too narrow, and we have been forbidden on that account; but a corner by our new church, and a house in the middle of the city, will be used, I hope, more profitably. The catechists are now spending fortnights out at our branch schools, making the school their head-quarters, and preaching all round. They find old friends from their last year's tour, and have sold a fair quantity of books. I was looking forward to making some efforts out in three or four large places, fifteen or twenty miles off, when our church was finished; but now it must wait till I am released from Gorakpur.

The School, though successful in a secular point of view, has not yielded any visible Missionary fruit during the year. It has two Native Christian teachers, the head-master and the fifth, of whom Mr. Skelton speaks favourably.

GORAKPUR.

The most interesting feature of this station is the Gorakpur Native Missionary Association. The following extracts from its Report will be read with much thankfulness :—

A Native Missionary Association.

In 1871 we opened with 26 subscribers; in 1877 we had some 41 subscribers, two preachers, and three teachers, with some 80 pupils. The schools are attended by very poor boys, who read during a portion of the day, and then work in the fields. Owing to the scarcity still prevailing, many boys left off coming. Still, the work went on, and should it please God to remove the scarcity, we hope to find our schools crowded.

In September last we as usual commemorated the Anniversary of our Association. Our president, the Rev. H. Stern, examined the boys before a large gathering of Native Christians, and other friends, and was pleased with the result. Our secretary, Catechist Patras, then read the Report of the work done during the year, of the money received and spent, and of the other matters connected with the association. After this, Babu Prabhi Dass, the translator of the Judges Court, read a paper on Charity. The children then received each a suit of clothes and a cap. Prizes were given to the most deserving. Sweetmeats were also distributed among them.

Some months ago in visiting the Chamars (leather-workers), round about Basharatpur, the Rev. H. Stern came across old men who were there when the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson arrived there [in 1823]. These men complained of having been neglected by us. Since then our preachers have regularly visited them, and the result is that some 28 of these Chamars, men, women, and children, are now under instruction, and it is hoped that by Easter they will be prepared to enter the visible Church.

Our two agents have made long tours, and have preached the Gospel in almost all the villages round Gorakpur. One of them writes:—"In these days when there is a great scarcity of rain and food, I preached once in Babu Gangalu's village on Isaiah lix. 1—3. There were about 16 men present, who heard me with attention. One of them was asked, 'To whom do you pray? to the gods made by men, to Brahma, or to Vishnu?' He replied, 'We pray to the same God of whom you are speaking.' I asked him, 'How do you pray?' He said, 'We go out to some solitary place, there we bend the knee and put our face on the ground.' In the evening I went with some Christian brethren to witness their devotions. Afterwards I asked them to join me in prayer. I prayed that it may please God to send us seasonable rain, and that His kingdom might come by the speedy conversion of all idolatrous unbelievers. The next day we had an abundant fall of rain. I then went to see them, and preached from the words, 'Ask, and it shall be given unto you.'—In all the villages adjoining Basharatpur in which our schools are established, I hold services with the heathen. I generally read and explain a chapter of the Bible, and then I pray.—The fruits of my labours are as follows, one heathen family has already been baptized. Twelve other families are anxious to join us, and are learning the ten Commandments, the Lord's prayer, and the Creed."

ALLAHABAD.

The Rev. B. Davis, now at home for a few months in consequence of the serious illness of Mrs. Davis, is the Missionary of this station; the pastoral care of the Native Christians devolving on the Rev. D. Mohun. The latter has been much disabled by sickness. The statistics of the Mission (480 Adherents, 135 Communicants, and 423 Native Scholars) do not differ appreciably from those of preceding years. "The Native flock," Mr. Davis writes, "has gone on steadily, and is, I hope, improving." Four adults have been baptized during the year; of the most hopeful of whom,

Baptism of a convert from Mohammedanism.

I have had little opportunity of seeing Stephen Wajih-ud-din, since his baptism, as he left shortly afterwards for employment near Jurruchabad, but I have heard from him several times, and have every reason to believe he has continued faithful. He came to Allahabad to study for the Pleadership examination, and called on me expressing his desire to learn more of Christianity. He came regularly almost every day to read the Testament with me; and though for a time he feared a profession of his faith would interfere with his prospects, he at last determined to trust this in the Lord's hands, and was baptized.

The preaching in the Bazaars has met with the same constant opposition from the Mussulmans as in former years, their preachers taking their stations regularly at a short distance from Mr. Davis and his helpers. Notwithstanding this, the Christian preachers have frequently had good opportunities of proclaiming their message. The annual mela was again attended during the month that it lasted; and the cold weather itineration afforded its usual opportunities of preaching Christ to the heathen.

JABALPUR.

The Native Christian adherents connected with this station are 135 in number, virtually the same as in the preceding year. The Communicants have increased from 40 to 45.

The Rev. E. Champion writes:—

I think this year I look back with most pleasure on the results of my pastoral work. In several particulars I am glad to recognize renewed life and vigour. There has been a new and sustained (and let me add a spontaneous) effort to subscribe regularly to the Pastor Fund. The brethren almost without an exception agreed to give one pice in each rupee of their income for the purposes of this fund. As there are very few of them who have much over after their wants are supplied, this was very gratifying. Again, after a sermon, in which I made some allusions to the sufferings of the famine-stricken in Madras, three brethren sent me Rs. 10: 8 for their relief, which was more than an eighth of their aggregate monthly income. Another instance of encouragement also deserves notice. When, on account of the falling off of the Society's income, I had to reduce my staff of catechists, and when the head catechist was going away, one of the brethren came forward with a word of encouragement and assured me that the work would not be allowed to suffer, for he and others were willing to step into the gap and assist, and he bade me call upon him freely whenever I wanted help. This assurance had the true ring in its tones, and as the speaker had more than once before shown himself a good and true man, I thanked God and took courage.

Nothing worthy of special remark has occurred in the schools, which are, however, doing a useful work, and contain about 800 children.

Mr. Champion has long wished to labour among the Gonds, an aboriginal race found in districts not far from Jabalpur. After weary waiting and repeated disappointments, two brethren have been set apart to help him; but even these are, for the time, kept from him by the pressing needs, and lamentably weakened agency, of other stations.

LUCKNOW.

The Rev. C. G. Daeuble, the senior Missionary of the station, who has lately been bereaved of a beloved partner, writes as follows:—

We have in truth been sowing in tears during this year. A beloved wife, and faithful fellow-worker in various mission-fields during twenty years—a loving mother, not only to our own children, but to the Native Christians—has unexpectedly received the summons, "Come up hither!" and, to our outward senses, disappeared behind the veil. Joseph Carter also, the most trusty of our Native helpers for more than seven years, has, after only a few months' work as Native pastor at Benares, been called away after a long, painful illness. After sowing such precious seed into God's acre in Oudh, are we not entitled to expect a good harvest?

With reference to our Native Church here, the long-desired object of a Native Pastor has been obtained during the year. Joseph Carter having been ordained for the Benares Native Church, the Rev. D. Solomon has been transferred thence to Lucknow.

Preaching in the city has been regularly kept up, but with no perceptible results. In our itinerations, during the cold season, we find the country-people generally very willing to listen to us. They are very simple and cannot take in much. I have found some little things—a watch, an opera-glass, a small terrestrial globe, and a small microscope, exceedingly useful in collecting an audience and fixing their attention.

Of our five out-stations no decided results can as yet be reported, if results are counted by adult baptisms. If we had been in a hurry, we might have had nearly a dozen baptisms in our out-stations during the last two years; but as there was fear that the Mission might be burdened with the support of some of them, they were not admitted. I want those that become Christians in the country districts to remain in their own villages, and become a light and a salt amongst their countrymen. If our Society were to adopt, in North India, on a small scale only, the policy pursued in East Africa, we could baptize many more than we can now, being assured that, if thrown out from their former life and employment by becoming Christians, our converts would find means of earning their bread honestly in some industrial institution, and not be cast upon mission-funds. Let me plead for the establishment of schools of industry managed by lay agents all over our mission-fields in the north.

Mr. Daeuble rightly insists that the industrial schools, the establishment of which he advocates, should be such as would soon become self-supporting. Their initiation and subsequent management would be exactly the work that might be attempted by the more or less wealthy Native Christians of the upper and middling classes.

Mr. Daeuble's excellent and devoted colleague, the Rev. G. B. Durrant, gives an account of varied and miscellaneous work during the year, which indicates much zeal and activity.

FAIZABAD.

The Rev. J. P. Ellwood is the Missionary of this station, Its statistics are as follows:—Native Christian adherents, 78; Communicants, 29; Adult Baptisms during the year, 3; Scholars—boys, 61; girls, 93. Mr. Ellwood makes no remarks respecting the spiritual condition of the Native Christian flock.—The accounts of the Evangelistic efforts of the Mission are interesting:—

I have devoted much of my time to visiting the educated classes at their homes, but many of them are still disinclined to discuss religious matters. I have also obtained a piece of ground near the Government school, on which as soon as funds are forthcoming, a shop will be built with two rooms—one in which we can meet Natives, and discuss the claims of Christianity, and the other used as a depôt. A book-stall has been opened, too, at the railway station, and will be carried on, it is hoped, on the Lucknow plan, which proved so successful.

We need the prayers of our friends at home for seven halting inquirers—one in Faizabad, another in Akbarpur, a third in Sultanpur, two in Ajudhya, and two in Pertabgarh.

The antiquity and sanctity of Ajudhya in the opinion of every Native is beyond doubt. Thousands flock during the melas to bathe in its holy river, and many of them never return home to tell the tale of their misfortune. No less than two millions of people were present during the last mela. These pilgrims are in earnest, at least most of them. Ram is to them a household word. He is their protector and Saviour. "Ram, Ram," forms their greeting every morning, and is the general salutation. It is remarkable that many of the ideas attached to Ram now-a-days have been borrowed from Christianity, and many of their teachers are beginning to say Ram and Christ are the same. The catechist at Ajudhya is very active, and having been a Brahmin of the highest caste before his conversion, has much influence. Two inquirers were under his instruction during the past year, but our hopes concerning them have been as yet disappointed. One has turned against the Gospel, and the other, a Brahmin of high caste, fears persecution. Of both, though, I have hope. Ajudhya should be well manned, especially during the melas. Much of the good done will perhaps never be seen, for the population is only small, and pilgrims form the greatest part of our congregations. Grand opportunities are given us for preaching at the melas. A preaching-chapel would be a great boon, and give us a better opportunity of reasoning quietly with those who appear anxious to hear more of the Gospel.

The work in Sultanpur has been carried on by J. J. and S. B. All the Natives speak of them with respect; and it is evident that God has convinced many of the residents that there is more in Christianity than they once supposed. This is all very good so far as it goes, but it is not enough. During my last visit, the English-speaking Babus invited me to give them a lecture on some religious topic. We spent a very pleasant evening together after discussing the relative merits of Christianity and Hinduism. They wished me to give another during my next visit, and suggested the following as the subject for discussion: "How can Europeans and Natives understand each other better, and be brought more in contact with one another, and join in friendly discussions on religious matters?" The above suggestion shows that the Natives are ready to discuss religious matters in a friendly way, and to take Europeans in their confidence, on even the most vital subjects. Would to God we had more godly Europeans to help us in this matter!

Pertabgarh is sixty-five miles from Faizabad. Besides the catechist and his family, two other Christian families reside there. Every Sunday, Divine Service is conducted by the catechist in the house of a Christian Babu, who very kindly affords us all the help he can. The catechist has visited the surrounding villages, and preached in the bazaar. A Mohammedan here professes to be an inquirer, but he fears to declare his convictions. A young Hindu also visits the catechist secretly; but like many others, he desires to serve both God and mammon. A short time ago he was at the point of death, and thinking that his hour was come, called for a pair of scissors to cut off the sacred knot of hair from the crown of his head. Having accomplished his object, he asked his friends to throw it away, saying, "From henceforth I am a Christian, and will die in the faith." Unfortunately the catechist was not allowed to see him, and, on his recovery, he relapsed into his former state. Now he is even afraid to acknowledge before his friends any sympathy with the Christian religion. I have hope of him yet.

Akbarpur and the surrounding districts have been well worked during the past year. J. B. and A. have gone from village to village at stated periods throughout the year, and preached in the bazaars and fairs regularly. In addition to the Sunday-school reported last year, we have now a day-school numbering about thirty scholars on the roll, chiefly from the labouring classes. Some time ago, when the parents heard I was going to examine the school, they refused to send the boys that day, for fear, by some means or another, I should make them Christians by force during my stay. They have got over their fear now, and no longer absent themselves.—J. B., the catechist, was selected by the Calcutta Committee to go to Jamaica to preach to the coolies, and he set sail in November. We were, indeed, sorry to part with him, but no doubt he will find a greater sphere of usefulness amongst his fellow-countrymen in Jamaica. Before starting, he was commended to God in prayer by the Native brethren, who feel a deep interest in his work and welfare.

AGRA.

The Missionaries engaged at AGRA during 1877 were as follows:—The Rev. C. E. Vines, who, however, was at the Hills from May to September; Mr. A. H. Wright; the Rev. T. R. Hodgson, for the first three months of the year; the Rev. J. A. Lloyd; Mr. P. Zenker, from March; Miss Ellwanger; Miss S. Davidson; and three ladies connected with the Society for Female Education in the East. The statistics for AGRA and Mattra combined, give larger numbers both of Native Adherents and of Communicants than those of the preceding year, being respectively 353 and 100, as compared with 288 and 88. The causes of the increase are not detailed. Seven adults have been baptized—four at Agra, and three at Mattra. The rest of the increase may arise from immigration and from the excess of births over deaths. The pupils under instruction are 427 boys, 135 girls, and 14 Seminarists.

The Native congregation at Agra was, until the latter part of the year, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Madho Ram, who was then transferred to Mattra. Mr. Madho Ram's place at Agra is to be supplied by Katwaru Lal, late student of the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

An interesting baptism is thus recorded by the Rev. T. R. Hodgson:—

Baptism of a Brahmin.

I am thankful to record the baptism, in Agra, of a Bengali Babu, a Brahmin of very high caste, with his wife and family. He is a thoroughly educated man, being a medal-holder of the Roorkee Engineering College, and formerly employed by government in the Public Works Department. He literally and in the fullest sense gave up everything for Christ, except the family ties of his own wife and children; these he brought into the fold with him, the whole family being baptized together. Since that time he has laboured voluntarily amongst his own countrymen in the cause of Christ, and has been suffering the greatest distress. He and his son were baptized by Mr. Vines in a crowded church, the whole mission party at Agra standing sponsors. It was a day of praise and thanksgiving.

Open-air preaching in the city, and Missionary itineration in the villages, have not been neglected, though the former was somewhat impeded by the unusual prevalence of sickness among the agents.

Other portions of the work are spoken of in the following extracts from Mr. Vines's Annual Letter:—

The interesting caste, the Chamars (leather-workers), who have for long occupied my thoughts, are still the object of special efforts. A reader is engaged amongst the adults, and his son teaches the boys in a small bazaar-school. The plan is to visit them in the early mornings and in the evenings, before and after their work. Only a few, who are shoemakers, can be taught during the daytime. As soon as they can read, they are given the Gospels and Christian hymns in Native metres. Lately I have engaged a Native Christian musician to teach them to sing the hymns to Native tunes.

The work of visiting the women in their homes, which had languished necessarily during Miss S. Davidson's visit to England, was resumed with brightening prospects on her return. Many more houses are now open to the Christian visitor, and receive Christian instruction. It has been found necessary to engage two Native Christian women to assist Miss S. Davidson, who give elementary instruction, which she follows up.

Miss Ellwanger has carried on three schools for Mohammedan and Hindu girls.—Mrs. Vines' Native Christian boarding-school for the North-West Provinces has made progress during the present year. With the help afforded by the Society, we have been enabled to double the school-building, and have thus secured room for present requirements. The numbers attending the school have been thirty-five—twenty boarders and fifteen day-scholars—the former paying, for the most part, three rupees monthly, and providing their own clothes and bedding. This system of getting the parents and guardians of the children to pay for them is a great advance on former times The teaching is given largely in English; for those parents who are well off lay much stress on their children acquiring English. They mix so largely with the East Indian population, and the employments of the men are so dependent on a knowledge of the English language, that the girls also have to learn it, and the parents will not send them to us unless we teach it. We teach English, therefore, and not altogether unwillingly, as it lays open to them the stores of English Biblical literature; but we insist, at the same time, on a knowledge of Urdu or Hindi, which they have to read and write in the Native and in the Roman character. The Bible lesson and the prayers are in the Native language.

St. John's College is at present under the charge of the Rev. J. A. Lloyd, B.A., of Cambridge. Mr. Lloyd writes as follows:—

At the beginning of the hot season, Mr. Vines, who was the Principal of the college, and head Missionary of the Station, was obliged, on account of his health, to leave Agra for the hills. I was then made officiating Principal of the college, which I have continued to be since.

First impressions of educational Missionary work.

Over 300 pupils are taught here, who, with the exception of about sixty, are either Hindus or Mohammedans—mainly the former. All these are taught the Bible, or some book of Christian evidences, each day for an hour, arrangements being made that a Christian teacher always takes the lessons. The junior classes, who know little or no English, are taught in their own tongue; and partly for this reason I have never taken any but the higher boys, viz., either one of the two classes which contain boys, or rather I should say men, who are members of the Calcutta University, or the class of boys who are reading for the "Entrance," or "Matriculation" Examination. Were it not that one so often hears people who are not engaged in the work of teaching, say that all such efforts are useless, one would have expected that all who knew India, and the difficulty of getting any access to the higher classes of the people, would be surprised and grateful on hearing of such a splendid opportunity of putting Christ quietly, fully, and freely before educated, thoughtful young men. . . . Those who come to such a college as ours are almost the cream of the land. It would not be quite fair to say they are the very highest. These go generally to a Government college, which is naturally looked upon as of a higher standing, and where the opportunities of getting work on leaving are greater; yet those whom we do get, though not our Eton or Harrow, are, as far as a comparison can be made, our Clifton or Cheltenham, or our large grammar schools. They are under our care, from the age of about seven, not only till they go to college, but while they are there; for Calcutta is carried on as our London University, with undergraduates scattered over the country, and coming up, from time to time, for examination and degrees. . . . The way in which I find it best to take the Scripture class is to allow the students freely to discuss any fact or doctrine which comes in our portion for the day, or any fairly direct inference from it. Any difficulty which they feel, or any view which they take (and often their religious ideas lead them to thoughts which would never enter Western minds), I always endeavour to explain or follow down to its root, that they may learn to see the difficulty as it really is, and not be satisfied with any superficial objection to Christianity. The thoroughness and depth of the view which they take of Christian truths is, in many instances, I think wonderful—so that one feels that, if they were to change their faith, it would be from the working of a conviction which has grown step by step, slowly but surely, and has been built upon the firm foundation of convincing truth.

The first impressions of a comparatively new comer are not only interesting, but most valuable. Perhaps, however, in some instances the real causes that retard the conversion of Students in Mission Schools and Colleges, are not so much intellectual as moral and spiritual. When such is the case, the longer the student resists the light the more hardened he is likely to become. But this consideration does not at all detract from the importance of Mr. Lloyd's work, and should stir up more earnest prayer on behalf of all those who are similarly engaged.

Mr. Wright, besides assisting in the College, and being mainly responsible for the School department attached to it, conducts also a Normal School, i. e. an Institution for Training Schoolmasters. Two young men completed their course, and took appointments during 1877, and two or three more will, it is hoped, be ready before the close of the year now current.

As regards the out-stations, Mr. Vines writes :—

Ferozabad, Tûndla, Etmadpûr, have been visited by a catechist, who lived at Ferozabad and travelled up and down the railway.

He has introduced me to men who were reading our books and inquiring after the truth. I still desire very much to place a Bengali catechist at Tûndla, to work amongst the Bengali clerks in the railway offices there.

ALIGARH.

The Rev. J. Stuart, who has charge of the work at this station, together with the out-stations of Soron and Bulandshahar, writes as follows:—

My preaching-work is looking up. On St. Andrew's Day the old head catechist from Jabalpur, with whom I had worked there for eight years, on his own application got transferred, and joined me. Another man also came with him, whom I shall be able to pay from my Special Mission Fund.

We have had an interesting baptism lately. The new convert is a young man of good social position, about twenty-five, with a good education. He had gathered a fair knowledge of Christianity before he came to us, and evidently had thought a good deal. On being fully satisfied of the honesty of his intentions, I baptized him one Sunday morning, by immersion, in the presence of the little Mission flock. He tarried with us a week or two longer, being confirmed in the faith, and then took grateful leave, proceeding to his old sphere of work as a sort of under-accountant to private contractors on the new canal diggings.—

Mohammedan inquirers.

Another, a Mohammedan, was to have been baptized at the same time and place. He too was a young man; his friends discarded him because of his open leanings towards Christianity. He came into the station, and got one rupee upon his Koran (a choice copy) to pay for bringing his goods and chattels into Aligarh, where he intended setting up as a small shopkeeper. Since then, he has altogether disppeared; and no trace could we ever find of him since, although the new convert after his baptism went out in disguise to try and find his whereabouts. From the first he knew that he had nothing to expect from us, as indeed he often told us that he wanted nothing. He had been with us to the bazaar, and openly espoused the cause of Christianity.—Several Mussulmans lately have been most anxious for baptism. But the question with them was, "Must we starve? for, if we become Christians, no Mussulman will give us either food or work." One Mussulman brought me a petition for baptism, saying that he loathed his own religion. He was accompanied by a young man, a student of the Mohammedan College, who also ridiculed his own religion, and assured me that at heart (and I believed him) he was, intellectually, a Christian.

I have now been at Soron about a month, getting up a school-chapel for our Native Christians here. The work, for various reasons, has dragged. But, at length, a most substantial building is up, and a well is dug; and so, our despised brethren here (who have all come from the Sweeper caste) will, for the first time, not only have a church to worship in, but also a good well of their own, from which they may drink without molestation.

Help from English residents.

One Sunday, at the close of my sermon in the English Church (I am honorary chaplain), I mentioned to the congregation that if some 50*l.* or so could not be raised, the probability was that, owing to a home-order for retrenchment, the station at Aligarh must be given up for a year. Some gentlemen remained behind, including the collector (Mr. Lang). The latter told me to "send round the hat," simply saying that I must have my 50*l.*, and that he would head the list with 10*l.* I did so, and next morning before breakfast had donations entered to the amount of 30*l.*; and now the list shows names amounting to over 100*l.*

MEERUT (MÎRAT).

The Rev. Hermann Hoernle is the Missionary of this station. Of the congregations Mr. Hoernle writes:—

The Congregations are much in the same state as before. The purely Native part of our Christians can be kept under better control; but that part which consists of poor Eurasians, small pensioners of Government, &c., living here and there, scattered about, it is very difficult to supervise properly. I have often thought that it would be better if they were separated from our other congregations, and had a pastor of their own, of the same class and rank in life as they are. They generally look down upon a purely Native pastor, especially if he does not understand English.

The Evangelistic work seems to languish from the want of Native helpers possessing those special qualifications which, with God's blessing, an efficient Training College will partly discover and partly produce. It will be almost always found that the opinions held by European Missionaries in any Mission of the worth of Native agents generally, is proportional to the effectiveness of the means employed in that Mission for the training of such agents. Mr. Hoernle, however, has not been without encouragement. He writes:—

The Lord has not left us without some encouragement and token of His presence and help. Adults, men and women, were baptized—eight—a number much greater than during each of the four preceding years. A whole family was baptized on Christmas

Baptisms at Meerut.

Day, the Lord, in His goodness, making thus this day a season of real joy to us all. They were seven persons—an old man with his wife, two sons, a daughter, and a daughter-in-law and an infant child. The old man can read, and thus possesses a considerable amount of knowledge; and it has been through his exertions that his family was brought to join him. I heard of the man's final resolve to be baptized on my itinerating tour in November. I then told him that unless I was perfectly sure he understood that the Mission could not support him, I could not baptize him. His answer being satisfactory on this head, I invited him to come into Meerut before Christmas. The whole family having come, they were all baptized during morning service, before a congregation of more than two hundred Christians and a large concourse of non-Christians.

The Schools have remained much in the same state as before. The English High School is now satisfactorily conducted by a Native Head Master. The Government grant has been diminished by Rs. 80, while the expenditure on the Government Schools has been increased. This seems contrary to the principles laid down in the Educational Despatch of 1854.

DEHRA DÛN.

The Missionary station of this district is the Christian colony of ANNFIELD. The superintending Missionary is the Rev. C. T. Hoernle. In the year 1857 the late Major Rind purchased a piece of land in the valley known by the name of the DEHRA DÛN for the express purpose of settling Native Christians upon it, who might thus be free from persecution and molestation. Successive parties of settlers came in until the year 1861, when the whole number of colonists amounted to 260. Since then there have been but few immigrants; and the increase, which has not been inconsiderable (the number at present being 370), has been chiefly owing to the natural growth of population. In temporal matters the colony is fairly prosperous. All the men are engaged in agriculture; and, though none of them wealthy, they are able to maintain themselves. Their attendance at the means of grace is satisfactory, the number of Communicants being 167; and their outward conduct is on the whole consistent.

Evangelistic labours are carried on steadily by Mr. Hoernle and his helpers among the Pahâris (hill tribes) scattered over the slopes of the neighbouring mountains, as also among the inhabitants of the valleys. Mr. Hoernle estimates that nearly 1000 Hindus and Moslems have thus heard the Gospel, and heard it attentively. One of these, an intelligent young Pahâri, was baptized by Mr. Hoernle at Landour.

A school for Hindu children in a neighbouring village is also an evangelistic effort, as the children are exclusively heathen. It was established at the request of the Zemindar; and the schoolmaster is a young man of the colony, trained at Meerut.

Mr. Hoernle hopes that the extension and vigorous maintenance of direct evangelistic work will, by God's blessing, have a good effect on the Annfield colony; their "mode of Christian warfare" being "as yet," he remarks, "more of a defensive than aggressive character."

THE Panjab Mission is still carried on with the activity and energy that have characterized it from the first. The Native and European brethren have joined with the Committee in thanksgiving to God for the appointment of Dr. French to the newly-established See of Lahore, and in earnest prayer that the grace of God may be abundantly bestowed on His faithful servant. In the various departments of the Mission the leading members of the new Provincial Native Church Council are taking an active part. Christian Government officials, Christian landowners, Christian lawyers have undertaken systematic work as honorary catechists and visitors. An Editorial Board, composed of two Native clergymen and six native laymen, converts from the three religions of the Panjâb—Hindu, Sikh, and Mohammedan—has been formed, "to write for Christian newspapers, write or translate Christian books, and edit a monthly vernacular magazine on the plan of the Leisure Hour and Sunday at Home." The chairman of the Panjâb Church Council is the Rev. Robert Clark of Amritsar.

KANGRA.

The Rev. C. F. Reuther reports as follows:—

Our Christian congregations at Kangra and Dharmsala number sixty souls. The conduct of the Native Christians has been good; and their charity and brotherly love is increasing. They have contributed to the Pânjab Native Church Fund and other objects Rs. 185.

Our bazaar preaching has not been neglected. We have met the heathen in their houses and in the streets, holding forth to them the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world.—Itinerating tours have been made in the east, north, and west of Kangra, and we hope to be out again towards the south so soon as the weather will permit. The Gospel message has been heard thoughtfully by many; and there are those who are on the side of Christianity, but conceal it from fear of men. Caste is yet strong in these hills.

In our five schools we have 244 children under instruction, some of whom appreciate their Gospel lessons, and love the Lord who bought them.

The Hindus have the feeling, that Christianity will prevail in the land, and that they will have to become obedient to the new faith, which they acknowledge to be so much better than their own.

AMRITSAR.

The following passages are extracted from the deeply interesting local Report for 1877, drawn up by Mr. Clark:—

Comparison of the present with the past.

Effects of twenty-five years Missionary work in the Pânjab.

But a few years ago, the idea was held in the Panjâb, that Christianity was a godless religion which rested on no foundations either of reason or of true revelation. It was believed, that it could produce no sound arguments for the maintenance either of its dogmas, which included the existence of three gods, of whom two were human; or of its precepts, which allowed not only the use of wine and unclean food, but of much licentiousness also. It was then believed, that Mohammedanism was unanswerable and unassailable; and that both the Koran and the Hindu Shasters contained the truths of the wisdom of the East, which far excelled the learning and philosophies of the West; which latter, as far as they were good or true, were copied mainly from the former. It is not much more than a quarter of a century ago since there were but few schools for boys in the Panjâb, and none for girls. The opening of a Zenana for Christian teaching was a thing unheard of. There were but few vernacular Christian books, and they were but seldom read, even by the few.

Now all is changed. Schools have been established in the whole country both for girls and boys. Zenanas are opened in almost every town. The Scriptures have been translated and are widely circulated. Many vernacular Christian books have been published, and are seen and read by thousands. No longer does Christianity stand merely on its defence, but goes forward, confident of ultimate victory, to the attack of what is unreal and untrue. Mohammedan and Hindu objections to Christianity have been fully answered; and Christianity (instead of Mohammedanism) now stands forward in the eyes of many learned, earnest, thoughtful Natives as being unassailable. The arguments of Christianity against Mohammedanism and Hinduism are those which now remain unanswered. India's own sons and daughters have laid hold on Truth with a grasp, which they will not quit. They not only defend the standard of the Cross which they erect wherever they go, but go forward, sometimes with a steady step, to win over their fellow-countrymen to the faith, both by loving words and by holy example.

Native Christians.

The number of Native Christians in Amritsar and its outstations is now 345. The number of Communicants is 119. During the last year, 5 men, 8 women, and 22 children have been baptized. The Native Christian Church during the last year has given Rs. 645/15/10 for religious purposes. Amongst the events of the year must be recorded the death of a Christian sister, Elizabeth, who was baptized by Mr. Keene on July 14th, 1869, and who was married to Munshi Imam-ud-din on March 13th, Native Christian sisters dying.

1877. She died at Batâla on May 5th, 1877. She wanted to come to Jesus, when a girl in the Lady Lawrence Schools many years ago; and she came to Him; and she has now gone to be with Him for ever. Her husband felt that "the arm on which he had leaned was broken." May he now learn to lean on Christ alone. Since the year expired, we have witnessed another death amongst us, that of Bibi Hannah, the wife of the Rev. Mian Sadiq, the Native Pastor of Amritsar, who died on January 19th, 1878. Another home is thus made desolate. Her husband was away on Missionary work when she was taken ill, and returned only just in time to see her die. Her quiet gentle manner had won for her the respect and affection of the women and children in the congregation. She too has gone home, leaving one little boy behind her; and our brother Sadiq is left alone. God has given him a strength of faith and character, and a firmness of purpose to labour for Christ, through which he has been upheld by Him whose servant he is. To his work of Pastor, has been lately added that of Vernacular Secretary of the C.M.S. Panjâb Church Council. We commend our dear brother, in his solitary home, to the prayers of friends. It has been a happiness to witness in the past year the baptism of the wife of our brother Ishaq, catechist at an out-station. After very many years of doubt and difficulty as a Mohammedan, she has at last joined her husband and her Christian children in the Saviour's fold. She was baptized on July 1st, 1877.

The joint-stock Christian shop.

A "Joint-Stock Christian Shop" has been opened in the heart of Amritsar, with the objects of (1) providing a means of livelihood for converts of the trading classes; (2) employing the capital of wealthy converts, so as to unite their interests with those of their poorer brethren; and (3) to plant among the heathen a specimen of independent practical Christianity. "The shop," says Mr. Bateman, "pays both in a missionary and in a pecuniary point of view. At first the neighbours would not allow even water to be given to the Christian shopkeeper, but now they go freely in and out of the store, and receive him as one of the trading community, and have, in fact, made an unconsciously honourable amende by naming it the Sachchi Dukân (Honest Shop)."

Evangelistic Work.

The Rev. W. Keene reports as follows:—

On January 3rd, 1877, after an absence of over four years I returned to Amritsar, and on the same day left for Lahore to be, present at the Annual Conference of C.M.S. Missionaries. The Conference being ended after six days sitting, I came back to Amritsar, and commenced preparations to itinerate for the rest of the cold season. These were attended with some difficulty. After three weeks, I at last left Amritsar. One great object I had in view was to pay a visit to Uddoki, the native village where Narayan Das, a Christian lambardar (Native headman entrusted with the collection of revenue) lives,—a place a few miles south of Batâla. I found him in his village home, built of mud and sun-burnt bricks, and saw his wife and daughters, who are still unbaptized. He offered up prayer very simply,—came and sang Christian bhajans (or hymns, set to native musical modes) in my tent,—gave an exposition on Sunday at the morning service, and enlarged admirably upon a sermonette of mine. He has cabinets full of the best Sanscrit authors, including Max Müller's last great work in several quarto volumes. This man is the head lambardar of his village; nationally he is of the noble race of Jats, he was formerly a Sikh, but gave up Sikhism for Hinduisim, for the former of which religions he has much contempt. I have heard that he does not believe in the Divinity of our blessed Lord. Let all who read these remarks make this man's case a matter of earnest and frequent prayer, that he may be led by the Holy Spirit's teaching to acknowledge Jesus as his Lord and his God. The Church has now three converts to my knowledge from among this fine race of people—Thakur Dass Singh, Munsif Sher Singh, and Hakim Singh of Hoshiarpur.

Prayer asked for a Native Christian headman who is in danger of being led away from the truth.

Before I left Amritsar for England in 1872, I had commenced an ambulatory preaching chapel. This chapel has, I am thankful to say, been finished and brought into use during the past year. It has sometimes been found, that when shops have been rented and preaching chapels built, the people in the neighbourhood who at first attended, have ceased to do so. Now this ambulatory chapel, when such a crisis occurs, can be taken down and removed to another spot. I am in great hopes of finding some eligible spot for its erection in some quarter of the city frequented by the Sikhs; at present it is situated among a Shîa Mohammedan population from Kashmir, opposite my catechist's house, as an experiment.

An ambulatory preaching chapel.

I notice a great change towards the preachers of the Gospel in the people of Amritsar as compared with former years—their manner is respectful, and they are not so prone to disputation.

During the year I have had the privilege of baptizing three adults, a man and two women. The former was a Puj or Jain devotee; indeed he has tried several religions. He is now working as a Colporteur. One of the women was a Ram devotee of the Chamar caste. She is now engaged in instructing some women, who daily assemble in a hospital opened by one of the ladies of the Mission, as well as in selling books to Native women.

The other was a Cashmirin who had been taught by the ladies of the Zenana Mission.

The Rev. Rowland Bateman writes:—

Growing respect entertained for Christianity and Christians by the heathen.

Looking back over a period of eight years, and comparing the reception of the Gospel now with what it was when I began, I feel very much encouraged: the more so when I call to mind that in 1870 my companion, now the Rev. Mian Sadiq, used to say that, as compared with his experiences eight years earlier still, preaching was then a grateful task. The fact is that though the Church has done little, God has done much; and there is among thoughtful Natives all over the district a growing distrust of their own religious teachers, and a nearly proportionate readiness, if not desire, to learn the truths of Christianity. Hence there is a better reception accorded to our message, to ourselves, and to our Native Christian companions. This is especially the case where we are not strangers.—Native Christians holding such posts as School-teacher, Tahsildar, or Extra Assistant Commissioner, have in several places which I know, almost entirely removed public prejudice by their purity of life and general consistency of conduct. There is no doubt that Christians are held in much less social disesteem than formerly. Hindus and Mohammedans mingle freely with them in business and pleasure, and it is custom only, not personal dislike, and far less religious conviction, which prevents their eating and drinking together as well.

Mutual fear among Natives and consequent suppression of convictions.

But Natives are terribly afraid of one another, and not the least afraid to disguise or misrepresent their convictions. Yesterday a teacher in a Government School came up to me, as I was riding out of the town, and said, "I repent of what I said just now. I know in my heart that the Gospel is true." He had been publicly asserting the contrary. Unless he had done so, he would have lost both the respect of his pupils, and the confidence of their parents. It is just the same with Hindus. "For yourself you have done right, and I congratulate you," said a Brahman to his Christian son, "but how will you answer to God for having covered your parents with shame, and filled your home with tears?" "I would willingly send my daughter to my Christian son-in-law," said a wealthy merchant last week, "but my neighbours would accuse me of being a Christian, if I did;" and so the poor girl lies sentenced to perpetual widowhood. A Hindu may believe anything or nothing, he may live by bribery and corruption, he may swear that black is white, he may openly violate all moral law; and the zamána (age in which we live) will bear the blame; but should it be whispered that he has smoked with a Mohammedan, or drunk at a Christian's well, the very wife of his bosom will renounce him as a hopeless reprobate. Mutatis mutandis the same is true of Mohammedans.

Education.

Of the Amritsar Mission Boys' School the Rev. F. H. Baring reports as follows:—

Effects of a Mission English school.

Every day the Bible is taught in each class by Christian teachers, and a knowledge of God's Word is thus being spread throughout the country. Two or three months ago a Native Christian gentleman was travelling from Delhi to Lahore; just as they were leaving one of the smaller stations, a Police Officer who was in the same carriage casually remarked that the Station Master of that place was a Christian. On being questioned he said, "He is not a baptized Christian; but he reads his Bible regularly, and believes in Jesus Christ, and tells others he is a Christian." This young man was formerly a pupil of the Amritsar Mission School, and must suffer considerable annoyance where he now is on account of his belief in Jesus. Not long ago a Mohammedan boy was removed from our school and sent to the Government School because his would-be father-in-law positively refused to give him his daughter in marriage so long as the boy remained in the Mission School, for fear he should become a Christian. During the past year, two of the former pupils of our school have come forward and very kindly given prizes. Babu Faiz Ullah has given two silver medals to be given to the boys who passed first in Arabic and English in the recent Calcutta University Examination. Babu Rallia Ram has given Rs. 5 as a prize for Scripture. In the Calcutta Entrance Examination three boys passed in the 2nd division out of four boys sent in for the examination. The cricket and debating clubs have both been carried on during the year with great success, and have done much to improve the boys mentally, morally, and physically.

The Alexandra School is intended for children (girls) of Christians of the higher classes. A building is now in course of erection for this purpose in Amritsar, for which contributions are urgently requested. A school of this kind already exists at Lahore under the care of Miss Henderson; and some, at least, of its pupils will remove to Amritsar when the new buildings are completed. Mr. Clark writes:—

Alexandra girls' school.

To a purely Vernacular education will be added as much of English, and of Western knowledge and acquirements, as the children are able to receive, with the view of their being in every way fitted for the positions which they will afterwards be called on to fill.—The payment given at present, by each girl in Miss Henderson's School in Lahore, is Rs. 5 a month. The children pay for clothes and books, and washing also, which amounts to Rs. 2 more, so that children of this class already pay about Rs. 7 a month. The present number in the Lahore School is 48. The number is being gradually each year increased. It was thought at one time, that there would be but few paying children. It is now found that in India, as in England, the coming of children to a school depends not on the payment, but on the school. The new building is now rapidly rising under Mr. Vivian's care. At present the Committee have only seen their way to advise the erection of the lower story. This lower story will accommodate about forty-five scholars, or the same number which is now in the Lahore School. Yet accommodation in the new schools is needed for at least 80 or 90 pupils. To afford this accommodation, a new story is required, which will cost about 2000*l.* more than has been yet received. The writer of this report would earnestly ask the Christian Church, whether in England or in India, to supply the funds, by which an institution, which is now so necessary for all the C.M.S. Missions in the Punjab may be completed. One gift of 2000*l.*, or two gifts of 1000*l.* each, would at once remove all difficulties, and lead to the establishment of the school, in that state of efficiency which is so greatly needed and desired.

There are several girls' schools in Amritsar more or less directly connected with the Society, in which deeply interesting work is going on. The same may be said of the Orphanage under the care of Mrs. Elmslie.

The Rev. B. N. Ghôs, who is the Head-Master of the Nârowâl Mission School, also acts as Pastor to the few Native Christians who reside there. The following extracts from his Annual Letter will be read with much interest:—

The two stated church services on Sunday, and one during the week, have been regularly maintained during the whole of the year. The congregation in regular attendance is very small, consisting of only eight communicants—men and women—and some children. All the other converts belonging to this place have gone to Amritsar and Lahore; some are reading in schools, and some have got employments. They sometimes come to Nârowâl, and then there is a goodly gathering of brethren; and it is a matter of thankfulness to God that they are growing in brotherly love and unity of spirit.

Ever since the last many baptisms [owing under God to the Nârowâl school] the aversion of the Narowal people to Christianity has grown very strong, so that they would scarcely listen to bazaar preaching. Frequent opportunities, however, have been sought for and found by the Catechist for conversing with the people sitting at their shops or elsewhere. Since our removal into the city, we have had easier and better access to the people.

Occasional itinerations into some of the villages have been made by the Catechist.

A Mohammedan, a Saiyad (or descendant of Mohammed), upwards of forty, who can read the Old and New Testament in Urdu, has placed himself under our instruction for some time as a candidate for baptism.

Controversy with Mohammedans.

Hearing of the arrival of two Maulavies from the country, we called upon them at their own house, and found them reading the New Testament and some Mohammedan works against Christianity. They told us that they were earnest inquirers after the truth, and would gladly hear all we had to say in the whole controversy between Christians and Mohammedans, which, they added, was comparatively new to them. Knowing that these country Maulavies are generally speaking better disposed than those in large cities, we took them at their word, and, trusting in the Lord for guidance and help, commenced a discussion, which was carried on for hours daily for more than a month. Many others—Hindus as well as Mohammedans—were present to hear us.

The School is thus reported of by Mr. Bateman:—

Two baptisms in the Nârowâl school.

The maintenance of the Nârowâl school has been a permanent anxiety. The people send their small children pretty freely, but take them away early for fear of their becoming Christians. Thus our standard is kept low, and Government is not satisfied. Moreover, to add to our perplexity, the support of the European community at Sialkot has been withdrawn (after a continuance of twenty years) because we belong to the C.M.S.—Two more boys have been baptized since last report; both, however, after they had been removed from school. The first was a youth of nineteen, who had been a foe and a spy, when his class-fellows were baptized three years ago. I was very doubtful of him, and kept him on probation for a month. At last, as he stood firm, and as he had long been away from Christian influence when he applied for baptism, I was persuaded that the Lord had called him, and I received him; but the day after his baptism his friends, who, unknown to me, were in ambush in a shop they had hired just opposite my house, pounced upon him, and throwing a cloth over his head, carried him off in broad daylight in the streets of Amritsar. They kept him in close confinement for thirty hours, and when the second night came, they took him to his father-in-law's village, some forty miles away. A Delilah is much relied on by the heathen in such cases, and in this instance she prevailed; for though he wrote telling me what had happened, and begging assistance, yet before I could do anything for him, he was a blinded captive in the hands of the Philistines. He still sometimes finds his way to me for prayer, and professes himself at heart a Christian, and I believe will some day come out again, but he will never be a strong Christian. This, I am thankful to say, is the first serious trial we have had among our Nârowâl boys. All the rest are holding on and growing in grace. The second case of conversion is that of a youth marked E in my last report. [See Annual Report for 1873-4, p. 105.] He was a Hindu, and had been taken away from school as a suspected character, having in 1873 spoken openly of his belief in Christianity. He was sent away to a tea plantation in the Kangra Valley, but the hand of God was over him for good. He continued to read and pray. The owner of the plantation lent him books, and after an absence of more than three years, he came back to the Mission for baptism. The boy had changed into a man, but the pure teachable disposition remained, and he became Mr. Hooper's pupil in Lahore. His relatives have tried him sorely, and he has returned to the tea plantation, where his light is shining brightly, though alone. He differs too from the last-named convert, in that instead of yielding to his wife, he has held firm. She has joined him, and I hope soon to see them a happy Christian couple.

LAHORE.

The Revs. W. Hooper, F. A. P. Shirreff, and H. U. Weitbrecht are the Missionaries of this station. All these are engaged in the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL. At the date of the last returns, 31st December, 1877, the students at this college numbered seventeen. One of these is a Catechist of the Society, and another is a pupil-teacher in the college itself. The remaining sixteen appear to be supported by private European benefactors or memorial funds. None, therefore, come upon the funds of the Society; but it is to be regretted that so few are maintained by their own relatives. In other respects the college has decidedly prospered, and gives increasing promise of usefulness. Mr. Hooper writes:—

Two Native Pastors provided by the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

We have had a change of pupil-teachers this half year. Katwaru Lal, who had occupied this post for three years faithfully and steadily, had long been desirous of more directly spiritual work; and this Long Vacation he received a call from the congregation of Agra to become a candidate for their pastorship, vacated by the removal of the Rev. Madho Ram to an easier sphere of work, owing to his failing health. I am very happy to be able to report that the Bishop of Calcutta has accepted him, and that he was ordained at Agra on January 1st of this year. The Bishop examined and accepted, at the same time, another old student of this college, who left in June, 1875, and has been labouring hitherto at Benares, where he is to be ordained very shortly (D.V.) to the pastorship of the Sigra congregation.

Subjects of study at the Lahore Divinity School.

The subjects of instruction (begun in October, and to be continued till the end of June) are: 1. In the Old Testament, the Books of Samuel and Kings, the Psalms, and the Minor Prophets. The last-named subject is taught by myself. I am expounding the easier prophets at daily worship, and the more difficult in class. Those of the former kind which we have already gone through are Amos and Jonah; those of the latter kind Hosea, Joel, and Obadiah. 2. In the New Testament, Mr. Shirreff has continued his exposition of St. John's Gospel at daily worship, and has expounded the second Epistle to the Corinthians in class. I have begun, and have finished the first three divisions of the Epistle to the Hebrews (down to the end of chap. vii). This Epistle has the great advantage for beginners in Greek, that its language is so pure, and its diction so smooth and beautiful: but far above this is the unique importance which it has among the whole of the books of Scripture, as a systematic and perfectly finished inspired exposition of the absolute excellence of Christianity, and the glory of Christ. 3. In Christian doctrine, I have begun dictating to the students an Urdu summary of part of Dorner's book entitled "The History of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ." 4. In Church History, we have come to the most modern period before that in which we live, viz. between the Reformation period and the second decade of the present century. What has hitherto, since October, occupied us is the History of the Church of England during the period referred to. This history is less fruitful, indeed, in the teaching of fundamental principles than the earlier ones: but it is most necessary for understanding the present aspect of the Christian Church, with which we have to do in our life-work. 5. Mr. Shirreff has commenced explaining the Prayer-book to the students two hours a week. This forms only occasionally a subject of instruction, so that each student goes through it but once; but it is a subject of very great importance, not only to enable them intelligently to join in, and hereafter to lead, the public worship of our Church, but in preparing the future Church of India to frame her own Liturgy on the best models and principles. 6. For Pastoral Theology, Mr. Shirreff has been dictating to the students an abbreviated translation of Gregory the Great's "Pastoral Care," which contains very much that is in a high degree useful for those who are to be pastors. 7. In the matter of language (Hebrew and Greek), I think we are a little better off than at the time of my last report. The new students of last session passed a very good examination in the two languages at the beginning of October; and their construing in class, though not perfection, is very much better than what I have generally been accustomed to in this college. As regards helps to the acquisition of these languages in the shape of Grammars and Dictionaries in the Vernacular, I hope we are now nearing the time when our wants in this respect will be supplied. A Hebrew and Urdu Lexicon, indeed, is still (as far as I am aware) a thing of the future, for the late Mr. Warren of Gwalior left one so very far from completion that it will probably have to be begun de novo. The same lamented author's Hebrew Grammar (in Urdu) has been a very long time now in the press; so that I hope we shall not have to wait much longer for it. The Greek Dictionary of the New Testament, at which Katwaru Lal and I worked for an hour a day through the last session, we were able to finish by strenuous exertions in this Long Vacation, and it is now passing through the press.

Liberal subscriptions from Eurasian Christians to the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

As regards the finances of the college, I am happy and truly thankful to be able to give a better account than I did in the last Report. The appeal which I issued in June to Indian friends, was very warmly received by many; "unto whom," I can truly say, "not only I give thanks, but" many "of the Churches of the Gentiles." I would especially mention here, with thankfulness to Him who often stirs up the free, princely, self-devoting spirit especially in the poor of this world, that several Eurasian clerks here in Lahore, in receipt of but small salaries, have come forward without any solicitation on our part, and become fellow-workers with us by giving their subscriptions to our work.

Thankfully would I also add that the home subscriptions, which had fallen low at the time of my last half-yearly Report, have been, partially at least, restored since.

Mr. Hooper notes with satisfaction the enlargement and improvement of the College Chapel and the completion of a good Library-room.

The Rev. H. U. Weitbrecht, son of the late well-known Burdwan Missionary, has written a very valuable and interesting Annual Letter, though not of a kind calling for insertion in these pages. Mr. Weitbrecht has already begun to preach in one at least of the vernaculars, and wishes, if possible, to continue for another year direct evangelistic work before finally joining the Divinity School. May our Heavenly Father abundantly answer the many prayers that will be offered up on his behalf!

JHELUM ITINERANCY.

The Rev. G. M. Gordon has been actively and zealously engaged in this branch, and has given conspicuous proofs of his devotion to the Missionary cause. No detailed account of his labours during the year has been received by the Committee.

DERA ISMAIL KHAN.

The Rev. W. Thwaites writes as follows :—

This is the first letter I have written to the Secretaries in London for two years. Last year there was little of an encouraging nature, and very much of the reverse, to write about—quarrels of Native Christians, and the sorrowful termination of one's hopes in the case of inquirers. The present year has been one of more encouragement, with one sad exception. [Mr. Thwaites here gives particulars of a supposed inquirer by whom himself and other Missionaries had been deceived.]—In the school many of the boys and teachers, with an intelligent knowledge of Christianity, and which is not without considerable influence on their conduct, are yet without the courage which the Holy Spirit alone can give. The school is progressing in other respects; numbers high, the boys and teachers working well and steadily, and the education given more and more appreciated by the people, notwithstanding that now and then a boy becomes a Christian. We have more hope now than ever of getting the girls under instruction. A beginning has been made, which, though small, will increase, and, with God's blessing, prosper.—Within the year, a preaching-tour has been made in the district, which will be repeated this cold weather, God willing.—Books are wanted much more now than formerly. A great many have been sold to Hindus, Mohammedans, and Sikhs. The reading of them raises a spirit of inquiry, which, with God's blessing, will some time or other lead to the saving of souls.

The Medical Mission at Tank has been in operation all the year, since the return of the Rev. J. Williams from Kashmir. He is very much liked by the people. I was with him on his return after six months' absence, and he received quite an ovation from the inhabitants and people who had come in from the hills to welcome him. He writes now of being more patiently listened to when speaking on religious subjects, and he says a spirit of inquiry is springing up amongst them. He has a great desire to go into the hills, but the authorities are very much against anything of the kind, especially now that the frontier is in such a disturbed state.

Mr. Williams himself adds :—

You will be pleased to hear that within so short a time, the Lord has been graciously pleased to let us see some fruit of our labours. I have already baptized three persons, and have several other inquirers.

BANNU (BUNNOO).

Mr. Mayer's Annual Letter breathes a spirit of energy and enterprise. He has had, however, some disappointments among the real or professed inquirers. One of the converts also, who has been mentioned in former years as a convert steadfast under persecution, has given trouble by misconduct. The Native Communicants are six in number, and the Native Adherents 19. Mr. Mayer has had many visits from the hill-men, especially the Wazirees, who show themselves very friendly.

MÛLTÂN.

This station has been for some time under the charge of an energetic lay Missionary, Mr. W. Briggs. He has lately been joined by the Rev. J. S. Doxey.

Mr. Briggs writes:—

One cannot but feel depressed and humbled, when one's labours seem to be in vain in the Lord—so far, at any rate, as conversion and confession go. I can tell you that young men in my Bible-classes read and listen to the Word of God with due respect, and in some cases with reverence. Some are often visibly affected, and take a pleasure in coming to our Sunday and weekday services; but of the twenty-four youths in the two senior classes I don't know one that thinks about becoming a Christian. I have reason to believe that a few are intellectually convinced of the truth of the Bible and the absurdity of Hinduism; nay, more, that the truths of the Bible exercise a happy influence over them in their every-day life; but we desire more than all this. We long to hear them say to their Christian teachers, "Where you go, I will go, and your God shall be my God."

From a secular point of view our Mûltân School has continued to make progress. Two of the senior boys passed the examination (Middle School) which qualifies them for office in the Government Uncovenanted Service last December; and, later on, one passed well in the University Entrance Examination.—There is a great improvement visible in the Shujahabad School in every respect over last year.—The Bahawalpur School is not in such a flourishing condition as when I last reported on it. It has lost more than a hundred scholars, including the branch schools. The State grant to the school was variable and averaged about Rs. 220 per mensem; but in the beginning of last July the new Political Agent told me very kindly that, in view of the approaching majority of the Nawâb, he thought it advisable to place the school on such a footing, as far as State aid went, as would give it a chance of continuance under the Nawâb. He therefore fixed the grant at Rs. 100 per mensem. This great reduction forced on me a revision of the school establishment. The head-master's pay was reduced from Rs. 125 to Rs. 80; one teacher of the main school was dismissed, and the two branch schools were given up. The school thus received a shock from which it has not yet recovered.

The work among the Native ladies, and Native women of the lower ranks, is encouraging. Two Bible-women are kept fully employed in visiting from house to house; and the girls' schools are thriving. Mrs. Briggs spends much of her time in the city; and the European ladies of the station are so far interested in her work as to help her in a sale of fancy articles this Christmas-tide, and to occasionally visit the schools and some of the Zenanas with her.

The Parent Committee will not consent to the continuance of the Shujahabad School unless a Christian Head-Master can be obtained, which, up to the date of his Annual Letter, Mr. Briggs had not been able to do.

Mr. Doxey writes:—

In the spring of the year, very soon after our coming to Mûltân, my wife and myself, after many weeks of suffering from recurring fever, were both ordered home as the only remedy for our recovery to health. At this juncture our only child was taken from us in God's providence by dysentery, which delayed our starting on the homeward journey. I cannot describe the sadness of heart which I felt at this time on being severed, as I thought, from the work on which my heart was set, so soon after my arrival in the country. Whilst in this state of mind an opportunity occurred of journeying into Kashmir with Dr. Downes, whose wife, on account of the state of her health, was unable to accompany him. Being rather better, with the doctor's permission, I only too gladly seized this opportunity, and, after an absence from the hot plains of India of five months, I and my wife are again in Mûltân, completely renewed in health and strength.

I am now so far advanced in the knowledge of the language (Hindustani) that I am able intelligibly to conduct the services in our church in Mûltân. There having been no resident ordained minister for some years, as might be expected, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper and other ordinances of religion were irregularly and with difficulty administered. Now, however, all this is remedied, and the change will, I am sure, be conducive to the edification of the Church.

Within the last month a Native reader has joined me, who, I trust, will be most useful. In addition to bazaar preaching in the city, it is my intention to take him out with me into the surrounding villages, where much more is to be hoped for than from the city, where bigotry and fanaticism are found in the extreme.

PESHÂWAR.

The little Native flock at this very important station numbers, with catechumens, one hundred persons. Its Pastor, the Rev. Imam Shah, himself a convert from Mohammedanism, speaks of it as growing in grace, and as taking delight in the service of God.

Baptism of a Saiyad.

There have been several inquirers during the year, most of them only of dubious sincerity. A Saiyad, however (descendant of Mohammed), of very respectable family, has been baptized, of whom Imam Shah has good hopes that he will show himself a true soldier of Christ.

KASHMIR.

Dr. Downes writes as follows :—

I left London last January, and reached the Panjâb at the beginning of April; there I was detained a month, and did not reach Srînagar till the end of May. I was forced by sickness to leave Kashmir in the middle of the summer for three weeks or a month, and I was obliged to return to Murree at the end of September; so the season this year was a very short one, but I endeavoured to make the most of my time.

The preaching of the Gospel attentively listened to in a Medical Mission.

The old Kashmiri catechist, Quadir Bakhsh, addressed the out-patients each morning, and always concluded his address with a few words of prayer. He was listened to in a way that I never before witnessed in all my experience as a Missionary; and fervent and loud "Amens" from the poor suffering people, who joined in his prayers with hands uplifted to heaven, showed how promising a field for missionary work our dispensary will become when a good Missionary is added to our medical and surgical staff. We look forward to having Mr. Wade with us next year; and it is the greatest comfort to me to think that in another year the still more precious remedies of a full and free salvation will be offered by so earnest and able an ambassador of Christ in the wards of our hospital and to our thousands of out-patients.

The poor Mohammedan Kashmiris deserve our deepest compassion; they have always been a conquered people; they seem utterly to have lost heart, and their only weapon of self-defence is deceit. If only they could be made to feel that some one cares for them, and, above all, that the Son of God gave Himself for them, what new life might spring up among them!

In conclusion, I must mention the kindness I have received from the Maharajah and his officials. His Highness had already built a hospital for us, while my predecessor, Dr. Maxwell, was the medical missionary of Kashmir. He is about to enlarge it considerably. He has not only given full permission to the Missionaries to remain in Kashmir during the winter, but is about to make such alterations in the mission-house that the Missionary and his family may be able to live during the cold winter months with every comfort and without risk.

The out-patients during the year have numbered 4180, and the in-patients 219.

General.

The Famine of 1877, which called forth so much sorrowing sympathy and active help in this country, has had diverse effects. In some places it dispersed the Native Christians, inducing them to remove elsewhither in order to find subsistence. On the other hand, Bishop Sargent testifies to the softening influence it had upon the heathen, especially when taken in connexion with the generous liberality of English Christians. To this cause may, in a measure, be attributed a very remarkable movement in some districts of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, where no fewer than 16,000 heathen have asked to place themselves under Christian instruction. The Committee earnestly pray that this great impulse may be divinely blessed and guided, and trust that its favourable effects will be felt in closely bordering districts where the Church Missionary Society is labouring.—On the whole, the aspect of the Native Church in South India affords abundant cause for thanksgiving. The Bishop of Madras, in his recent Charge, stated that the number of baptized native Christians (as distinguished from catechumens) connected with the Church of England in his diocese had increased from 48,252 in the year 1862 to 79,917 in 1877. Of this last number, 52,662 were connected with the Society. Adding the catechumens, and correcting according to the most recent returns, the whole number of Native Christian adherents connected with the Society's South Indian Misions is now reckoned at 66,513.

The remarks made by Bishop Gell, in the same charge, respecting the consecration of Bishops Sargent and Caldwell, and his anticipations of a future Native Episcopate, will be read with much interest and satisfaction :—

Remarks of the Bishop of Madras on the consecration of Bishops Sargent and Caldwell.

The consecration of Bishops Caldwell and Sargent at Calcutta on the 11th March last was at once both a mark of progress in the history of the South Indian Missions, and was an event charged with a promise of even more substantial progress in the future. That promise has thus far been abundantly realized. The Christians of Tinnevelly, delighting as they did to welcome those honoured missionary fathers on their return invested with the high office of Bishop, felt that their own branch of the Church now stood in a more honourable and more firm position. The Bishops themselves have been diligent since their consecration in visiting all those parts which I have entrusted respectively to the care of each. I myself feel exceedingly thankful that work which I had been unable to do is now done very thoroughly by persons peculiarly qualified to do it—men of ripe experience, of local knowledge, familiar with the language, and respected by all whom they are appointed to guide.

This arrangement is confessedly a temporary one, made with the hope of a future development of the Native Church, when it shall be provided with Bishops chosen from among its own clergy. How long it may be before any Native Bishop should be consecrated, it is impossible at present to judge. The Lord will remove obstacles out of the way, when His time is come.

As in Tinnevelly, so also in Travancore and Tanjore, I believe that the building up of the Native Church and the work of Missions might be furthered by the presence of a Bishop, in whom were combined both the general qualifications of a Bishop and those required by the special circumstances of the clergy and congregations over which he would have the oversight.

MADRAS.

Native Christian Congregations.

The Native Christian adherents attached to the Southern Pastorate (366 in number, with 184 Communicants) have not escaped the effects of the famine. None, it need scarcely be said, have been suffered to die from starvation; and it is also a matter of unfeigned gratitude to GOD that none fell victims to cholera or small-pox, which during the famine committed such dreadful ravages in Madras. The statistics show a slight increase from the previous year—366 adherents and 184 Communicants, as compared respectively with 353 and 170. Mr. Sattianâdhan writes:—

Conversions in a private school conducted by a Native Christian.

There has been but one case of adult baptism. Two cases of heathen children, however, deserve special notice. They are brothers; one, twelve years of age, and the other, ten; and they were educated in a private school of Mr. Andrews, a convert from heathenism and a member of my congregation. (Mr. Andrews has a school, numbering about 120 children of both sexes, as the result of his own industry and zeal. Along with secular subjects he teaches the Bible so well that he receives a small monthly grant from our Society as an encouragement. He is one of my unpaid lay-helpers.) Being impressed by the Scriptural instruction they received, they gave up the worship of idols, and felt a desire to embrace the Gospel. Whilst in this state of mind, the eldest boy was attacked with a severe illness. On his sick-bed he made a vow that, if he recovered, he would at once present himself with his brother for baptism. This he communicated to his heathen parents, who cheerfully acquiesced in his proposal. On his recovery, the father, a very intelligent and sensible person, brought him and his brother to the font and manifested a great interest in the ceremony. These two boys are still living with their heathen friends; but they continue their study in the school, and attend the church regularly.—There are several inquirers under instruction.

The work among the educated classes (of the heathen) is going on favourably. English lectures have been given every month in our lecture-hall at Chintadrepettah. On the first week of this month the Rev. C. M. Pym, who is come out for a six months' evangelistic tour in India, gave an address on "Regeneration;" and it was listened to by an intelligent and attentive audience, which filled the hall. But we must not draw too favourable a conclusion from the mere fact of many educated Natives quietly listening to our message. Many of them are utterly unconcerned about all religions. A small number only seem earnest in their search after truth; and even these do not ask the question of questions, "What shall we do to be saved?"

Connected with the Northern Pastorate there are 494 adherents, of whom 476 are baptized, and 227 are Communicants. The following extract from the Annual Letter of the pastor (Rev. V. Simeon) will be read with interest:—

Adult baptisms resulting from voluntary efforts of Native Christians.

During the present year three adults have been baptized, one of whom belongs to the Monegar Choultry (Rest-house), which is a building resorted to by the poor. The total number of Christians in the Monegar Choultry is at present sixteen. I and my assistants hold weekly services in this Choultry for the benefit of the people residing there. Besides this, the Christians living in the Choultry are themselves in the habit of holding a prayer-meeting every morning. They also frequently preach the Gospel, and speak of the Saviour's love, to the heathens who live with them. After having instilled the doctrines of our religion into the minds of such as express a desire to embrace Christianity, these Christians recommend them to me, first to be examined, and then, on approval, to be baptized.

MOHAMMEDAN MISSION.

The HARRIS SCHOOL, with which the Gore Langton School (intended more especially for members of princely and noble Mohammedan families) may now be said to be amalgamated, numbers 137 students, independently of thirty-two others that are pupils of a branch school.

The Evangelistic work among the adult Mohammedans, to which the Harris School was always intended to be a fulcrum, is carried on by the Rev. Malcolm Goldsmith, who reports of his work as follows:—

In my own particular bazaar work a public controversy with a

Moulavi has been the chief event of the year. It was carried on for five successive months, and only came to a close on my departure to the hills on sick-leave. It arose from my meeting a young Moulavi on February 14th in a carpenter's shop. We arranged to meet again, and this next time an elder Moulavi and about twenty other Mussulmans were present. Other meetings followed; but the carpenter's shop being inconvenient, we moved to the court-yard of a private house not far from this school. Here we set to work in real earnest, and each question and answer was recorded by scribes on both sides. His object was to prove that the New Testament had been interpolated and corrupted. Passage after passage was brought forward, and quotations made from Saiyad Ahmad's translations of Horne's books on this subject. Splendid opportunities were given for explaining some of the truths of God's Word and of man's only way of salvation. During the latter few weeks (we met every Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7 or 8 p.m.) our controversy was carried on in a still larger building—a porch attached to a large Native house, in which, and on the space outside, which was conveniently secluded from the public road, probably 100 or 150 Mussulmans were generally present. Other Moulavis also attended, but took little or no part in the argument. The hour of evening prayer always occurred in the middle of the proceedings (about 6 p.m.); and the interval, during which the Moulavi and most of the audience resorted to a neighbouring roof for their devotions, was very welcome both for spiritual and bodily rest. Some of the local newspapers (Hindustani) contained accounts of what went on; and the notoriety thus gained gave a fresh impulse to daily intercourse with men in the bazaars and elsewhere; it provided intensely practical subjects for daily conversation, and led to useful interviews with many respectable men.

Public controversy with a Mohammedan Moulavi.

There are several Mussulmans whose words would show that they are open to conviction. Most interesting talks do we have from time to time on the need of the Sin-bearer, on the "Mercy and truth met together" in Christ and Christ only. On Fridays (the Mussulman Sabbath) a kind of lending library has been very extensively used. It is gratuitous, and frequented by Mussulman boys from schools far and near, whose names are entered in a register. The books are mostly children's story-books (Bible and other moral stories), obtained from the Lucknow and Lodiana Tract Depôts. Many get lost, and many come back hopelessly torn; but the attempt thus to reach their hearts and homes seems to me well worth the outlay.

Private conversation with Mohammedans.

Mr. Goldsmith adds:—

A flourishing Girls' School has been started by the ladies of the Mohammedan Zenana Mission, and in it Scripture teaching has been freely given. Every such Christian undertaking helps to break down Mohammedan prejudice by bringing pure Gospel light into contact with the people. In the same way the advance made by Mohammedan schools in our Masulipatam Mission has been a great encouragement to us here.

In Madras itself, and in its immediate suburbs, 1090 children are instructed by forty-four teachers in the Society's Vernacular Schools. A large proportion of these children are heathen. The teachers are all Christian, and spend part of their time, after school hours, in preaching to the heathen and distributing hand-bills. This work is supervised by a Native brother, the Rev. J. Cornelius.

The European lady mentioned in former years (Mrs. Vickers) continues her work in the Zenanas. She has now under instruction six married women and nine girls. All of these in addition to other studies are taught Gospel truth from the Old and New Testament, and many seem to be seriously impressed.

Madras Itinerancy.

This Mission district, under the charge of the Rev. J. D. Thomas, comprises the whole area of the collectorate of Chinglepat. Six adults have been baptized during the year; but yet, owing to the famine, with its consequent mortality and dispersion, the number of adherents has declined from 680 to 577, and of Communicants from 285 to 267. Many of the Christians who have left the neighbourhood, will doubtless return as the effects of the famine pass away. There have been diminutions from this cause at Mévalûr, Palâveram and Pûnamali, while from another village the whole Native Christian community migrated to Madras and other places.—One at least of the adult baptisms of the year was a case of much interest. Mr. Thomas gives the following account of it:—

Interesting adult baptism.

A young man of the Vellâlar caste (one of the highest, next to the Brahmins) who had been brought into distressed circumstances by the famine, came to the relief camp from a village about thirty miles distant, to see if he could do anything for himself. Soon after his arrival he heard one of the catechists preach about the "Prodigal Son." This awakened in him a desire to be saved. He told the catechist that he wanted to hear more about Christ. He was brought to me, and I had a long conversation with him. I told him of the cross he would have to bear, the ignominy and scorn of all his relatives, the expulsion from his own home and caste. I held out no hope of his getting employment from us by professing Christianity, but told him that he would have to labour with his own hands, and earn his bread as heretofore. But I also told him of the glorious reward; and I spoke to him of sin—of the ruin it had brought upon man, and of the only remedy—the only means of pardon—the precious blood of Jesus the Son of God. He continued to remain at the relief-house, earning his food by work done. As he was able to read, I desired him to learn the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and ten Commandments, which he did, and daily attended the prayers and the instruction given by the catechist. His parents got to hear of this, and came up from their home in great anxiety. They both appealed to me to prevent their son becoming a disgrace to them, and to order him to return with them. I told them that their son was as free as any person there to leave if he wished, but that I could not compel him to go home with them. They turned to their son, and with tears entreated him not to leave them, but to return home with them. He remained steadfast. His friends treated him with contempt, would not let him eat with them, or have anything in common, and frequently jeered and abused him, and called him a "Pariah." (The majority of the Christians in this district are from the Pariah caste, which has led the heathen to regard the term Christian and Pariah as synonymous.) After about four months of this ordeal, I had the happiness of baptizing the young man on Sunday, August 5th. A large number of his heathen acquaintances, men and women, came to the church to witness the ceremony, and stayed through the sermon. The heathen have an idea that baptism is a process of defiling a man, and causing him to break his caste by making him drink water in which leather has been soaked! Those who were present were agreeably surprised to find that such was not the case, and were struck with the simplicity and solemnity of the service.—Some two months after this, during my absence on vacation, the young man was induced to marry the daughter of one of our Mêvalûr Christians, thereby raising a most insurmountable barrier to his ever being received back into his own caste. His parents have come to see him since, and, though they would not eat with him, or touch anything he or his wife had cooked, they appear to have been more friendly than I imagined, and to have treated his wife with a civility quite unexpected. Gnânâyŭtham (the weapon of knowledge)—for such is his name—is now engaged in trade, and I hope will prosper in body and soul.

Mr. Thomas has eight schools, in which 200 boys and forty-nine girls receive instruction.

II. Tinnevelly.

The Mission is divided into 10 districts, viz. 1, Palamcotta; 2, Mengnânapuram; 3, Dohnavur; 4, Paneivilei; 5, Pannikullam; 6, Nallur; 7, Surandei; 8, Nallammalpuram; 9, Suvisêshapuram; 10, Sivagâsi.

General.

The Report now presented by the Committee is, for Tinnevelly as for all the Society's Missions, a report, for the most part, of the events of the year 1877. To it properly belongs therefore the notice of an event which was known to its readers many months ago—the elevation to the episcopate of the Society's long-tried and much-loved and honoured Missionary, Dr. Sargent of Tinnevelly. It was on the 11th of March, 1877, that Dr. Sargent (together with Dr. Caldwell, of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel) was consecrated at Calcutta to be a coadjutor bishop to the Bishop of Madras. Bishop Sargent, in announcing this event to the Committee, wrote:—"Now that the long-expected consecration has been accomplished—what is it? More honour, is the first reply. But I would rather say—what I feel it to be—more responsibility, more labour, a call to more patience, more faith, more love. I thank God for the word of promise in which He has caused me to hope—'My grace is sufficient for thee;' otherwise who is sufficient for these things? And now, dear friends, [may we ever remain] in the bonds of the same great truths and principles which have kept us together these many years past."

Bishop Sargent's remarks on his own consecration as Bishop.

The Native Christians of Tinnevelly, as individuals and in things temporal, have suffered severely from the famine; but the Native Church as a whole, and the Mission as a whole, have continued to advance. Large numerical diminutions, from deaths and removals, have been more than counterbalanced by accessions from heathenism and natural increase. Still more cheering is the growing indication of spiritual life and missionary zeal.

Districts connected with the Church Councils of which Bishop Sargent is President.

The PALAMCOTTA district contains eight Pastorates, and one Mission circle under the charge of one of the eight Pastors. The Native Adherents number 6032, of whom 4796 are baptized, and 1218 are Communicants. Sixty-one adults were baptized during the year. In comparing these numbers with those of the previous year, it should be stated that some congregations have been recently transferred to Palamcotta from Nallur and Dohnavur.

One of these Pastorates embraces the town of Tinnevelly, with a population of 21,000, besides 31,000 more in the suburbs. Within the last few years considerable advance has been made, especially in gaining converts from the heathen castes of Shanars and Weavers. To promote the good work among the upper classes, the Pastor recommends that a hall be erected in some conspicuous place, where a library of useful and attractive books might be kept by a librarian competent to meet the objections urged by the Hindus, and to commend Gospel truths in a loving spirit to all who may feel disposed to visit the place.

MENGNÂNAPURAM comprises fourteen Pastorates and one Mission circle. The Native Adherents connected with it number 14,076, of whom 2700 are Communicants. The adults baptized during the year were 107.

The DOHNAVUR district contains four Pastorates. The Native Adherents number 2961, of whom 343 are Communicants. Twenty-two adults were baptized during the year.

In the four Pastorates of the PANEIVILEI district there are 2506 Native Adherents, of whom 496 are Communicants. Thirty adult baptisms are recorded.

PANNIKULLAM has four Pastorates, 2573 Native Adherents, and 629 Communicants. The adult baptisms during the year were twenty-five.

In NALLUR there are three Pastorates and one Mission circle. The Adherents number 2189, and the Communicants 493. Twenty adult converts from heathenism were baptized during the year.

The SURANDEI district has four Pastorates and one Mission circle. It contains 2696 Native Adherents, of whom 526 are Communicants. Ten adults were baptized during the year.

NALLAMMALPURAM has but one Native Pastor. Under his care, with the help of six catechists and readers, are 1411, Adherents, of whom 398 are Communicants. Only three adults were baptized during the year.

Education.

The Palamcotta ENGLISH INSTITUTION is now under the care of the Rev. Henry Schaffter. At the date of Mr. Schaffter's Annual Letter, November 6th, 1877, about six months after his first arrival, the number of pupils, including those in the Practising School, was 223.

Mr. Schaffter writes:—

Evangelistic efforts of Christian students.

A high spiritual tone is clearly discernible in, I may say, nearly half of the Christian students.—I addressed the students one day on our duty to do all we could to spread the Gospel, and proposed establishing a small mission among ourselves to support a catechist to the heathen. . . . . In a few minutes two deputations came to my study door. The first consisted of boarders, the second of Christian day-scholars, offering to contribute. The masters gladly agreed to help, and in two days everything was arranged—the collectors, secretary, and treasurer settled; and the monthly total was fixed at twelve rupees a month, which down here is good pay for a catechist.

The number of heathen students on the books is twenty-seven (only seventeen when I arrived), less than one-fifth of what it was four years ago. The only remedy that suggested itself, which was approved by the Missionary Conference and Madras Committee, has been laid before the Home Committee in the form of a request to allow an F.A. class to be started. The answer to that request we are eagerly expecting. [The request has been granted.] Among these few heathen students there are four anxious ones, who now come regularly to Sunday-school, but shrink from taking the last step. By the kind assistance of Mr. Spratt, I am able to give prizes once a year for Scripture knowledge only, called the "Spratt Scripture Prize." We have two in each class. To encourage the heathen to try, one is for the heathen exclusively: and I was very surprised by the answers of some Brahmins. Their knowledge of Scripture truth is great.

One hundred girls were residing at the SARAH TUCKER INSTITUTION at the date of Mr. Lash's last Annual Letter. All these are receiving a careful Christian education such as fits them to become schoolmistresses or Bible-women. Applications for admission are now so numerous that Mr. Lash has been able to raise the monthly fee. It still, however, amounts only to the very moderate sum of one rupee.

The district Boarding Schools (exclusive of Sivagâsi in the north) are now conducted by Native agency, under Mr. Lash's superintendence. They are three in number (at Surandei, Nallur, and Panneivilei), and contain altogether eighty-five girls. Mr. Lash writes of them as follows:—

These schools are getting on well; all the children pay a small fee, and give half-price for their books. Most of the children now in the schools are such as will probably be the wives of the future pastors, catechists, and schoolmasters of the Native Church. In spite of the fee, the candidates for admission are as numerous as in former years. The fact that the leading members of the Native Church send their daughters willingly, notwithstanding the withdrawal of European missionaries and their wives from the close and personal superintendence of the schools, is a pleasing proof of the confidence of the parents in the Native teachers. It is in consequence of God's blessing on the labours and influence of European brethren now withdrawn to other spheres, that a class of teachers has been raised up who can be trusted to work alone.

At the beginning of the year under review the Branch Girls' Schools were enjoying marked prosperity and rapidly progressing. As the pressure of the famine grew more severe this progress was checked; but the net increase of scholars was, notwithstanding, from 1230 to 1690.

SUVISÊSHAPURAM.

The Rev. V. W. Harcourt writes as follows:—

This is, perhaps, the last Report that I shall write as the Superintendent of the Suvisêshapuram district, I am expecting to return home on furlough, and its superintendence will, I suppose, in future, devolve on Bishop Sargent. In my retrospect of three or four years I am thankful to say the lights predominate over the shades.

I am thankful that the Rev. Mr. Samuel has been ordained. He is twice the worth he was. He is placed in a trying position now, for I have removed him to Suvisêshapuram, on account of its frequent dissensions, and two recent cases of grave irregularity; but, as Mr. Samuel knows the secret of prayer, I have confidence that he will stand the ordeal.

The agents, as a body, have acted nobly under the severe trials I have alluded to. They have stuck to their posts when cholera has visited the congregation, have ministered to the sick, and retained their presence of mind at a time when the heathen, as a rule, lose theirs entirely. Visitations of cholera are invariably attributed to the malignity of evil spirits by the heathen, and, even after a man has become a devout Christian, the old dread of demoniacal influence often remains.

The congregational returns show a decrease in numbers; but I think our movement has been a steady onward one notwithstanding. Cholera and famine—or, I should more correctly say, dearth—have driven many of our people from their homes, or stricken them down in their homes. Our numbers this year are 1846. In 1876 they were 2102.

The Schools also have held their ground. We have succeeded in gathering more girls this year than the last.

Probable effects of the reduction of the Society's grant to the Tinnevelly Native Church.

The people have kept up their contributions to the standard of former years. The aid we at present receive from the Society is a little more than 15*l.* a month, and we have been told to expect a reduction of one-twentieth year by year. The trial will thoroughly test the stability of the people, and is surely a severer one than the Irish Church has been called upon to experience, considering the status of our congregations. My own opinion is, the Church of Tinnevelly will bear it, and be strengthened by it, as long as European guides are continued to it. The Native generally lacks administrative ability and firmness; though I am happy to say there are some bright exceptions to the rule.

SIVAGÂSI.

On the return home of Mr. Meadows early in 1877 the work previously connected with this station was divided as follows:—The pastoral work of the larger part of the district remains connected, as formerly, with the Sivagâsi Church Council, the chairman of which, however, is no longer a European, but a Native brother, the Rev. V. Vêdanâyagam. A smaller part of the district, having as its centre Sâchiapuram, is under the pastoral care of the Rev. Hugh Horsley. Mr. Horsley also undertakes Evangelistic work among the more educated classes throughout the whole of the district.

Mr. Horsley writes, under date November, 1877:—

Almost all my congregations (comprising, according to the lists, 656 persons) belong to the lower and therefore poorer classes. This being the case, many of them have suffered much from the severe famine which has visited us, and is still felt among us. One congregation almost ceases to exist, the members, with a few exceptions, having left their homes in search of food. Much seasonable relief was, however, received from the contributions of private friends in England, and from money received through the Committee at Madras.

I have to record three Itinerancies since June. As usual they were not without some points of encouragement. On one or two occasions I was both surprised and delighted at the reception which I received from Brahmin audiences. Street-preaching has been kept up regularly twice a month in the town of Sivagâsi. The attendance has always been good, and, as a rule, the people have given us a patient hearing. A portable pulpit has been made for the purpose. The addresses are interspersed with the singing of Christian Lyrics, a few of the boarding-school boys acting as choristers.—Moonlight Services have been carried on in the surrounding villages. These services have also been well attended. The novelty of the thing helps us. Our school-boys are most useful here also.

At present our two Boarding-Schools—one for boys and the other for girls—are quite full, each containing forty children. I have two Anglo-Vernacular Schools. One of them, at Strivilliputtur deserves a short notice. It was reopened in March, under a new head-master—a Native Christian, and an F. A. of Madras University. At that time there were about thirty boys on the rolls; now, thanks to the head-master's exertions, there are about 120 boys on the rolls, while the average attendance is nearly 100. On the evening before starting for Strivilliputtur to open the school, I received a letter from a Native pleader, stating that a school had been started on a firm basis in the town, and that it was not necessary therefore for me to trouble myself further. On my arrival I found Mr. Peter, the new head-master, waiting for me, and at once arranged to have a meeting, calling together the principal men of the town. About seven o'clock in the evening a goodly company had assembled in the school-building, and I had the pleasure of introducing Mr. Peter as the new head-master. After various speeches were made, the Tahsildar, a high Government official, kindly concluded with a few words, urging the people to send their children to the school just opened under new auspices. At Mr. Peter's request I then offered prayer, and the company dispersed. The rival school gradually dwindled away; and the last I heard of the author of the letter to me was that he had taken to reading diligently "Ragland's Life," and was urging others to do likewise. May we yet hear of him as a worshipper of Ragland's God, and following that holy man, even as he followed Christ!

Successful opening of a Mission English school under a Native Christian member of the Madras University.

Mr. Vêdanâyagam writes:—

This is an eventful year to South India. The famine which began last year has continued and appeared in a most fearful form this year. Most of our Christians suffered severely from it, some of them falling victims to it. At this critical time, however, the Society's Madras Corresponding Committee came forward and helped us promptly with seasonable and liberal aid [from the contributions specially given for this purpose], much beyond our expectation.—This is also an eventful year to our North Tinnevelly Mission. Mr. Meadows, one of its founders, and one who managed it as its superintending missionary for about seventeen years with great skill and winning affection, "showing all meekness unto all men," has left for England with Mrs. Meadows, a mother of mothers. The greater part of the Sivagâsi district is therefore left to the sole management of three Native pastors and their Church Council. The responsibility thus laid on us is indeed great, and we feel its weight very much, our weakness and want of efficiency being apparent. But "our sufficiency is of God." We are, however, refreshed and strengthened by the visits we now and then pay to, and the sweet conversation we have with, Mr. and Mrs. Horsley, who are a great acquisition to North Tinnevelly, and who in a great measure fill up the breach made by the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Meadows.

Feeling of a Native Pastor under increased responsibility from the removal of a European superior.

In speaking of the congregations, I am sorry to be unable to give a favourable account of their numerical strength from the reason already stated [the famine]. I am glad to be able to speak with joy and gratitude of the congregation, of Paliampatti where a sort of revival is going on. This congregation, consisting almost entirely of converts from the Naik caste, has grown during the last ten months from 70 to 140. In every visit I am sure to find three or four new faces. Their catechist is an efficient man. Also, some of the intelligent Christians of the place proclaim the Gospel to their heathen kinsmen. Perinba Naik, the patriarch of the congregation, is especially earnest in this work. The dear old man's heart is full of joy to see his heathen relatives coming over to the fold of Christ one after another; and he loudly praises God for His wonderful mercy shown to his bigoted caste people. The other day he was called to pass through a heavy affliction in the death of his third son's wife, a young woman who was baptized four years ago, and who died fully trusting in the mercy of God. She took leave of us all as though she were going to a marriage feast, her face beaming with joy. "What a great mercy it is," said the old man, "that God should allow such an affliction to happen to us now, and not at the time when we first became Christians! Then Satan would in all probability have had an easy victory over us."

Earnest efforts of Native Christians for the conversion of heathen kinsmen.

The schools of the district have all been in a fluctuating condition, in consequence of the famine, with the exception of four or five.—The agents have given us great satisfaction, I am thankful to say, with the exception of one whose case was brought before the notice of the Church Council and decided.—The contributions of the Christians, in spite of the pressing famine, have been praiseworthy. Let me, in conclusion, entreat your prayers that we may believe and feel that the loving eye of our Heavenly Father is ever upon us.

The following very interesting passages are extracted from a valuable letter written by the Rev. D. Daniel, one of the Native clergymen attached to the Sivagâsi Church Council:—

Successful evangelistic efforts of an illiterate Native Christian.

In one village where there was no stationed catechist, a man named Masana Mutthu, through the gracious working of God, was doing as much work as a faithful catechist could do. Though illiterate, he learnt some Christian lyrics by heart through the help of others. He used to climb palmyra-trees six months in the year, and do farmer's work at others. During the mid-day recess, and when he had finished his work, he used to gather the people in his house, sing lyrics, teach lessons, and speak to them about the sufferings of Christ and the happiness derived therefrom. He was the means of bringing his own family and others to Christianity. We then sent a reader there. He looked upon this as a great privilege, and built a house for the reader at his own cost. A reading-class for adults was conducted in his own house at nights. All the Christians as well as the heathens around him acknowledged that he was a steadfast and earnest Christian. Suddenly on a Sunday morning last March, he was attacked and carried off by cholera. Many of the non-Christians round about began to doubt whether the congregation would remain steadfast. But it was a plant that was planted by God. His parents and brothers have remained steadfast. His mother, who is about the age of fifty, feeling that her son, if he had lived, would have done more for the glory of God's name, allotted a piece of ground, which she bought for herself, and erected a church upon it. She and her household are not rich.

At Strivilliputtur, where I reside now, and the surrounding villages, there is a population of 23,000. Of these many are Brahmins. The preachers are comparatively few. Many, however, hear the Gospel with interest, without making objections as they did some ten years ago. Satan is active, and is trying to do his work, fearing that there will soon be an end to them. While we see heathen temples in some places in a ruined condition, we see them at other places renewed and repaired. Many people are hindered through fear of being persecuted by the Zemindars in whose village they live. Even such Zemindars are brought down by God. I preached once on Ezek. xiv. 12, 13, a verse selected by the bishop to be used at a service held for rain. A member of my congregation, who heard the sermon, repeated this verse in a touching manner to a Zemindar who was acquainted with him. The Zemindar, at hearing it, shed tears and brought a Bible, which was given to him by Mr. Meadows, and read the verse himself, and confessed that our sin was the cause of the famine. His wife, who heard this, came to the Christian and asked him, "Are you so good? How dared you to tell us this?" The Christian in reply said, "Yes, madam, it is true; I am a bad man; I am acid, like a lemon; but this Bible can produce a change even in me, and if you accept it, it will be good for you." The Zemindar further desired him to ask his pastor to come, bringing a Prayer-book with him. So I went to him and had a conversation with him. He promised that he and some of his household would become Christians. He did, not, however, keep his word. There seems to be a struggling in his mind.

III. Travancore and Cochin.

In this Mission, the adherents, the baptized, and the Communicants have increased respectively during the year from 18,500 to 19,300, from 16,000 to 17,150, and from 4490 to 4740. The increase would doubtless have been greater but for the activity of the newly-formed schismatical body known as the Six Years' Party.

The Syrian Church presents a mingled aspect. The non-reforming section is as hostile as ever to the simplicity of the Gospel. The reformers appear differently to different

COTTAYAM.

The Committee are much gratified to find that the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION is at length taking its proper place in the estimation of the Native Christian Church. For many years after its first establishment, it seemed to be overshadowed by its elder neighbour the COTTAYAM COLLEGE. This happy change is owing partly to the steady work and unfailing perseverance of the late Principal of the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON (Rev. J. M. Speechly), and partly to the loyal and generous self-abnegation of the Rev. J. H. Bishop, the Head of the COTTAYAM COLLEGE; under whom, however, the latter institution has been as prosperous as at any former time.

The number of Students at the Cambridge Nicholson at the close of 1877 was twenty-eight; of whom five belonged to the Divinity Class. The present acting Principal, the Rev. W. J. Richards (who has been assisted during the year by Mr. M. Browne, a European schoolmaster, and by the Rev. Jacob Chandy, a Native clergyman), writes as follows:—

The students have given me, on the whole, every satisfaction as regards their moral behaviour. I trust all are trying to copy the example of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Divinity Class has, during the year, supplied men for four posts in the Mission-field—two junior students for Rev. R. H. Maddox's new work in the Cochin State, and two under Rev. J. Caley, one (on an emergency) for three months only.

The Divinity Class subjects were as follows:—1. Holy Scripture: English; Isaiah, Pt. II., and I. and II. Samuel, and Epistle to Romans. 2. Greek Testament; Epistle to Colossians, and Gospel of St. Mark. 3. Hebrew Grammar and Exercises. 4. Maclear's Handbooks to Scripture History. 5. Pearson on the Creed. 6. Thirty-nine Articles (Bp. Browne). 7. Church History, Cent. i., ii., iii., Robertson. 8. Jevon's Logic Primer. 9. Composition and Criticism of Sermons, Malayalim. 10. Butler's Analogy, pt. i., Malayalam. 11. H. Bushnell's Chapter on the Character of Jesus. 12. Hindu Controversy (in Malayalim).

Two college boys, recommended by Mr. Bishop, joined us in the Christmas term.

During the year Mr. Browne examined in the Art of Teaching, &c., students of the Schoolmaster-Class, who had been practising in the Model School. Two failed, and the rest received printed certificates, which are much sought after by those who wish to become teachers.

It is important that the students who have gone out to actual work should be enabled to return to carry on their studies, if judged worthy and capable of it by the missionary. One such student, a reader, rejoined the C.N.I. during the year from Mr. Caley's field, and one the Model School from the Cottayam district.

On Sundays the students preach and conduct prayer-meetings in various places; one is a Syrian congregation.

It should be added that the Bishop of Madras has, with his accustomed kindness, given most liberal help to the institution in the form of scholarships and prizes.

The Rev. W. J. Richards has also been in charge of THE DISTRICT. He writes:—

The Rev. Jacob Chandy, one of my assistants in the Cambridge Nicholson Institution, has willingly worked in the congregation and taken the greater part of the pastoral work. For this purpose he has been free from teaching after one o'clock each day. Of course, as he is a mission agent, no part of his salary is paid by the Native Church. But this is only a temporary arrangement.

A wealthy Native Christian congregation.

Cottayam is the richest congregation probably in the Mission. Many of its members draw good salaries as English teachers in the College, and some as writers or clerks and agents for the coffee estates. Hence I think that in a comparatively short time the congregation should be able to support its own pastor. Feeling this, with the hearty consent of the Cottayam delegates to the Church Council, lists were circulated, with a blank against each name for the amount which they would promise to give for the current year. It is a pleasure to be able to say that some have trebled, some have doubled, and all promise more than last year's subscriptions, and this without any coercion whatever.

Baptisms of adults, during my charge, have numbered about fifteen, all (with one interesting exception) from the lowest class—the slaves. The case referred to was that of a woman, a widow, of the Washer caste, who was brought for baptism by one of the college masters, by whom, while she was in his service, she was trained for baptism. The COTTAYAM COLLEGE C.M. Association was instrumental also in having two Paleyan youths, aged about seventeen and eighteen, taught to read and prepared very nicely for admission into the visible Church.

MÂVELIKARA AND TIRUWELLA.

The Rev. J. Caley, who is chairman of the Church Council for this combined district, reports as follows :—

It is now a little more than four years since I took charge of the combined districts of Mâvelikara and Tiruwella. Two of the four years have been years of great anxiety, and I must confess that I have often felt not a little depressed. Still I feel that there is much to be thankful for; especially when I see how that dreadful delusion, called the "six-year movement," has made havoc of the Syrian Church; and how its whole energy is concentrated, not on the heathen but on the Christians, and is ever finding something new and exciting by means of dreams, visions, prophecies, curses, and threatenings of Divine vengeance on those who believe not the new dogma. This movement has taken a few here and a few there, some for a longer and some for a shorter time—still it has not stopped our steady onward progress. The following table will show this :—

In 1873 the number of adherents was	5534
„ 1874 „	5786	an increase of	252
„ 1875 „	6000	„	214
„ 1876 „	6214	„	214
„ 1877 „	6473	„	259

There are in the district seven pastorates, presided over by seven Native clergymen, who have under them fifteen readers and twenty-three schoolmasters. Each pastor is responsible for the affairs of his own pastorate, and arranges with his agents for evangelistic and other work. Some of them have, also, two days a week for out-door preaching to the heathen. The seven pastorates are formed into a Church Council, which meets about three or four times a year. There are twenty-two members, viz. seven pastors, fourteen laymen, and the president. The Council discusses a great many things of importance, such as Church-building, financial matters, evangelistic work, &c., &c. I should like to see the laymen take a greater interest than they sometimes appear to take. They are however only learning as yet.

There are twenty Mission congregations not included in the pastorates, seventeen of which are in the Tiruwella district.

A voluntary Native Christian Evangelist.

I was very much pleased last week with the congregation at a place called Kunnuntanam. The Teacher there is an earnest man, and so is the headman. They have both been working beyond the limits of their own parish, and have established a new congregation about four miles away. The son of the headman is teaching the children, and the Teacher instructs the adults whenever he can spare time for that purpose. When they came last week, they brought some of the leading heathen men with them, who are very anxious to learn about Christianity. They said that fifty persons had already come and "knelt down," and that there were several more who are almost persuaded.

Some time ago we used to have two men itinerating regularly; but they became six-year men, and left off preaching to the heathen. Since then we have had no men set apart specially to that work; but it has by no means fallen into abeyance. The pastors with their readers, as well as the Mission readers, continue this most important branch of our work. Continually going about, I have opportunities innumerable of speaking to the heathen. On great occasions, such as large festivals, &c., it is usual for several parties to disperse themselves about and continue the preaching for two or three days. Mr. Joseph of Patapally and myself have arranged for a regular Mission in January next among the pilgrims going to and coming from Chouramala. Four centres will be occupied, God willing, for several days; and thus we hope to set forth the truth to a great number of somewhat earnest, but blind and erring men.

Native Christian laymen voluntarily conducting Divine Service.

I am increasing the spiritual agency by getting some laymen of good character to conduct Divine Service in some of the out-stations once or twice a month each.

There are in all fifty-two village schools, fifteen of which are connected with the Palayan congregations. In all the schools we teach Holy Scripture to all the classes. In each of the Palayan schools the schoolmaster acts also as a Catechist. He has to teach as many children as he can get to come until noon, for five days in the week; the afternoon and Saturdays he has for evangelistic work and the preparation of sermons. What we are aiming at now is, that each child shall be able to read the Bible fluently; also sign his name and learn simple accounts, so that his master may not be able to cheat him. More may be aimed at afterwards.

In the boys' boarding-school there are thirty-seven scholars who learn English. In this way it acts as a feeder for the COTTAYAM COLLEGE and the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION. Amongst all the ways proposed and tried for helping the Syrian Church, I believe one of the best is for us to educate our own agents well and lead the way. Now that we are doing more work with fewer Europeans, it is most important that our Native agents should be well educated.

The Sunday-schools are in their infancy; though some of them have already done a good work. A very short time ago, I heard a Syrian Catanar (Presbyter) mention with gratitude the help he had received from two young men who had been sent by one of our pastors from his Sunday school.

TRICHUR AND ALWAYE ITINERANCY.

The northern part of Travancore, that is to say the country lying between the Cottayam district in the south and Trichur in the north, has hitherto been, from force of circumstances, all but neglected and passed by. Its Evangelization is the work which Mr. Maddox, on his return to the Travancore Mission, was invited to attempt. He writes:—

I made Cochin my head-quarters for some three months, in accordance with instructions from the Committee, and set myself to work at once to organize an itinerancy in the country lying between Trichur on the north, and Cottayam on the south. I travelled (for exploration) by boat and by land through the greater part of the country, visiting the more important centres. From Trichur to Cottayam is a little over eighty miles, and the breadth of the district averages about twenty miles. This wide stretch of country, with its large population of Syrians, Syro-Romanists, Romanists, Hindus, and Mohammedans, has never yet been systematically worked. Preaching-tours at distant intervals have been carried out; missionary visits have been made to some of the chief Syrian Churches; schools here and there have been carried on for a time, and then abandoned. There is therefore hardly anything to show for such labour as has been expended. There are no Protestant congregations, no catechumens, no inquirers, no schools, no agents. The densest ignorance prevails everywhere. The condition of the nominal Christian communities in the country is deplorably low. The Hindus are shy and reserved; and I regret to say that some of my greatest difficulties in dealing with them, on the subject of religion, arise from the ignorance, superstition, and degrading customs and ceremonies, of the so-called Christian Churches in the country. The Syrian Christian Church in this district has not been touched by the wave of reformation and revival which in God's good providence has rolled over the Churches of the south. The Catanars [Clergy] as a body are careless, ignorant, worldly-minded men. The recent visit of the Patriarch to this country has apparently confirmed both Catanars and people in their superstition. Nearly all the Syrians in these parts have disclaimed Mar Athanasius and his reforming policy, and have submitted themselves to the Patriarch. Bibles have been put out of the churches. Services in the Syriac language [not understood by the people] and other superstitious observances, where they had been abolished, have been restored. The Patriarch, before he left the country, laid a strict charge on all Catanars and people under his authority to beware of missionaries, and neither to entertain them nor wish them God-speed.

Missionary difficulties in hitherto unevangelized districts of Travancore.

The Roman Catholics in this country are very strong.

My first tour for preaching was in company with a volunteer Evangelist. He was a teacher from the south, formerly a fellow-worker in the Mâvelikara district. Next I was accompanied by two volunteers from the Cambridge Nicholson Institution divinity class. They worked during their long vacation. There were many difficulties. We had no suitable centre. The absence of mission-houses, churches, and schools in the country made it exceedingly difficult to travel from place to place. In the south, the Syrian Christians are our hosts; the church rooms are placed at our disposal; Catanars and people vie with each other in showing you attention. Here all is reversed. One day, when travelling with the Rev. A. Thoma, pastor of Cochin, we tried in vain to secure shelter even from the mid-day sun. Neither Syrians nor Romanists would open their doors to us. After preaching and talking and distributing books, we had to rest under the shade of a tree as the best shelter we could find for the day.

I have now a house at Alwaye, and a small place at Kandenade, where I can put up when I visit the district. In each place, we have two itinerating catechists, who work each in a given area, and also a book depôt. At Kandenade I have commenced a school for Syrian and other boys, where they may learn the elements of English also. I have also employed a slave Christian convert to visit among the large slave communities in the country. The feeling against allowing the slaves to learn and become Christians is strong almost to violence in the country, and it is shared, I regret to say, equally by Hindus and Syrian Christians alike.

Our work has not been without many encouraging features. People listen readily to the preaching of the Gospel in the open air; many purchase the Scriptures, although the Roman Catholic and Syrian priests discourage and forbid; some come to our house and are under regular instruction, although they cannot be said as yet to be catechumens. I could instance men of good social position who come to see me whenever I visit their neighbourhood, and seem to take real pleasure in conversing on religious questions. Two or three Syrian Catanars are willing to join us as soon as they can see their way.

General.

Telugu Provincial Council.

The Provincial Council for the Telugu Christians connected with the Society, held its second meeting in Ellore this year, and proved a decided success. Delegates came from all parts of the mission-field except Dummagudem. The subjects discussed were of great practical utility, and there was a general expression of opinion as to the great interest and utility of the gathering. A proposal from the Madras Corresponding Committee to have a special evangelistic agency connected with the Provincial Council was very warmly taken up; and the Missionaries in charge of districts agreed to preach sermons for the fund throughout the Mission.

MASULIPATAM.

No Report or Annual Letter has been received of the Noble High School, which is under the charge of the Rev. J. Sharp and the Rev. E. N. Hodges. From the Madras Record it would appear that the number of pupils at the close of 1877 was 234. A deeply interesting account has, however, been given by Mr. Sharp under date October 8th, 1877, of the conversion and baptism of one of the students, from which the following extracts are subjoined:—

Brahmin convert from a Mission English school.

The young convert was eighteen years of age on September 27. His convictions quickened into real earnestness some three months ago or more, and he has been reading the New Testament and such portions of the Old Testament as he could get hold of in Telugu with avidity during this time. He has been very eager to get any tracts or little books on religious subjects in Telugu, and he has, I believe, been practising private prayer regularly.

I waited till he was fairly turned eighteen, that there might be no cause to show that he was a minor, and then permitted him to come when he liked. He came on Saturday afternoon, October 6th, and at once wrote a letter to his father, saying that he had resolved to be a Christian. His father is an old Veidika Brahmin, held in the highest veneration as a Maha Rashi in the town on account of his strictness in religious ceremonies. This son is the only surviving one out of three, and of the three daughters one is a widow.

The aged father and mother, the former nearly blind, the widowed sister and some other relations, came to my house soon after five p.m. They soon settled down with him on the ground under my verandah. The mother held the son very tightly clasped in her arms, sitting behind him, the father in front. The usual affectionate entreaties were plied in many forms with wearisome repetition to induce him to go back with them, or to go to a married sister's house for that night alone, with profuse promises of the liberty to follow his own choice, which would be given him in the morning, if he should still wish to be a Christian. He was wise enough firmly to resist all such deceptive solicitations. When their appeals were almost more than he could bear, he prayed audibly for help to the Lord Jesus, and entreated Him to bring his parents after him, instead of his going back to idolatry and them. Sinayya Garu, Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Sharp, and I, sat or stood by while this heart-rending struggle went on for four hours. After a time the young man became worn out with it, and got away in the dark into my bedroom. His relations up to that time had been tolerably quiet, and had several times tried what good-natured craving and flattery would do. But when he had escaped from them, and we tried to persuade them to go home for the night, they began to be very noisy. Their cries and entreaties gradually changed into howls and shrieks, and abuse of us and of our religion. It was eleven before we could take our food and have prayers, and nearly midnight before we got to bed. When all was quiet the youth broke his caste by asking for a good draught of water, as he was extremely thirsty and exhausted. Of his own accord, also, he took off his sacred Brahminical thread, and gave it to me.

At four o'clock in the afternoon of the next day (Sunday) we took him in a bullock coach to the church, and during the Telugu service I baptized him.

To-day (Oct. 8) school has gone on as usual, as the boy has been in his class. Of course he has had to bear a good deal of banter. But as the attendance both at the High School and the Branch has not been affected by the occurrence, and I have not yet heard of any boys leaving the school on account of this event, I think public opinion here views these conversions very differently from what it once did. Mrs. Sharp has been admitted this afternoon, as usual, to a Zenana, and has had a very pleasant visit.

The TRAINING INSTITUTION has been under the care of the Rev. W. G. Baker. Thirty-two students were under his care at the date of his Annual Letter. A spirit of discontent broke out among the pupils on their being required to undertake some manual labour for their own service. The labour was not of a kind that Hindus would regard as discreditable for men of good position. Several left in consequence. Most of the malcontents subsequently wished to return; but it was judged expedient formally to expel the ring-leaders. Mr. Baker believes, however, that "the boys in general come up to that standard which one could reasonably expect." Some of them he regards as not only real but also intelligent Christians.

MASULIPATAM DISTRICT.

The Adherents in this district number, by the most recent returns, 1401, and the Communicants 176. The adult baptisms during the year were 49. The corresponding numbers for the previous year were 1429, 153, and 52. The diminution in the number of adherents has probably arisen from the famine and accompanying cholera, the mortality having been great, and many having left their homes in search of work. The district is at present under the charge of the Rev. W. Clayton, who writes as follows:—

Of the twenty-eight villages in which there are Christians in this district, there are several which need the exhortation to "strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die"—villages from which better things might be expected. I am sorry to say that in some places Sunday has not been properly observed. But the past year was one of peculiar trial. Often the people had to go far away from their homes in search of work, on account of the famine, to villages where they were under no good influence. There are, however, signs of life in many of the villages, one of which is an increasing desire on the part of the heathen around to become Christians.—The subscriptions from the Native Christians are quite equal to those of last year; altogether they amount to upwards of Rs. 420. A goodly number, also, came forward for confirmation last month—nearly 200 offered themselves, 130 of whom our Bishop confirmed.

During the past year I have received several applications for schools and Christian teachers from heathen villages. In one case three men were sent as a deputation to me for this purpose, to a place where I was staying, seventeen miles from their own village. I was much struck with their manner. They were more intel- Mala inquirers.

ligent, cleaner, and altogether different from most Mâlas. When I went to the village, a good number soon gathered round. I told them, as simply as I could, the old, old story, explaining also that if they really became Christians, they must give up work on Sunday, attendance at heathen festivals, drunkenness, and any other sins they might be in the habit of committing. Then I urged them to count the cost, as the heathen would probably persecute them, &c. I added, further, that our own good resolutions were worthless, unless aided by God's Holy Spirit. I said also that they must show they wanted a teacher by providing a place for him to teach and live in. One of the men who first came to me at once pointed out a house belonging to him which, he said, we might have. After further speaking we had prayer, probably the first time that most of them had ever knelt in prayer. Last week the catechist brought me the names of 170 people—men, women, and children—from this village, who were wishing to place themselves under Christian instruction. Though I believe that most of them are really in earnest now, it very often happens that a half of those who first give in their names never get beyond inquirers.

BEZWÂRA.

The Anglo-Vernacular School at Bezwâra, attended by 121 boys, is under the care of the Rev. M. Ratnam. One of the pupils, a Brahmin boy, expressed a desire to be baptized. He has been forcibly removed by his kinsmen, but there is good reason to believe that he holds fast to his faith in Christ. Three boys were sent up to the Madras Matriculation Examination, of whom one passed.

RAGHAPURAM.

During the year 1876 this district was under the charge of a Missionary residing at Masulipatam, who combined the supervision of it with that of the Masulipatam district. The Rev. W. Ellington, however, the Missionary referred to, has now been relieved of the charge of Masulipatam by the Rev. W. Clayton, and has taken up his residence at Raghapuram. The progress of the work has been somewhat impeded by the famine. Ten adults have been baptized. The Adherents, however, owing to the famine, have decreased from 729 to 718. The Communicants, however, are 213 as compared with 210. Mr. Ellington writes:—

This district has suffered from three causes—the loss of the resident missionary in 1875, the cholera the year after, and the famine following on immediately. We began in February last to give a meal a day to the weak and aged, and the timely aid which Mr. Darling sent enabled us to continue to do this until the beginning of August; and since then by means of the help we have received through the Madras Committee, we have both been supporting the weak, and giving employment to the able-bodied on useful relief works. As many as sixty-nine Christians from this village were away at the Government relief works; and our school, which has now fifty children in it, was then so deserted that neither my wife nor I could for some days bear to go and see it. On one occasion when I said, "But why do not the little children attend? They can earn nothing by staying away," the teacher replied, "The parents keep them sleeping as much as possible, so that they may not think of and cry for food." In the case of the distant schools and congregations it was worse. We have now, however, to thank God that the worst is past, though prices are still high. During the last year we have had twenty-six deaths, but only one marriage. Effects of the South Indian famine.

On December 13th we had a visit from the Bishop of Madras, and forty-nine persons were confirmed by him.

The number of villages in which there are Christians continues to be about fifty, but it is not easy, just now, to give the exact number of the Christians themselves. Several have migrated during the famine, who may or may not return to their former abodes. A few from distant villages have gone to Dummagudem, and this I cannot regret, as Messrs. Cain and Razu will be well able to look after them there.

The first duty I addressed myself to, after coming to live here, was that of trying to devise the best plan for improving the agents. I have made arrangements whereby a class of six can come to me for instruction and assistance in their studies twice in each month. The subjects are those appointed for the Bishop's Prize Examination—the two Books of Samuel, Second Epistle to the Corinthians, and Ephesians, chap. iv. to vi. To these I am trying to add two others—the Prayer-book and Early Church History.

For the vast regions lying beyond, we must try and do what we can. One man is wholly employed in selling books and tracts. I am trying to arrange so that another may devote part of his time to this work in the town of Jugiapettah. I hope to be able to make a tour myself to the town of Nelgondah in a few weeks.

ELLORE.

The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander writes:—

The statistics of Ellore show a total of 900 persons under instruction as compared with 846 in the former year. Baptized

Christians are now 605 against 528 in 1876. The increase is not very much, but taking into consideration the famine pressure that has been on us, it is satisfactory. Eighty-three names have been removed from the lists as of careless and unworthy inquirers; but the number has been made up by the natural increase of the Christian community, and by accessions within older congregations. This year, the first for many a long one, no new village has been occupied. When the June rains set in, many Ellore Christians found food and employment from their more favoured brethren in the Godaveri sub-district. This will serve to connect the people of the two districts into a close bond of Christian union. Though falling short of actual starvation, the famine was very severe in these parts. The poor lived for a time on fruits and roots of the jungle, and on the soft heart of the cedar and date trees; and if it was not for this precarious supply, many must have died. This unusual food brought on cholera, and we have to lament a large number of deaths this year. Liberal assistance began to reach us in August, and did a great deal of good.

Mission education is very flourishing in Ellore. Taking both boys and girls together, there cannot be less than 600 children under instruction at Ellore, and over 400 more in the district. When I joined the station in 1857, there was only one school of fifty pupils in Ellore.—Our chief encouragement this year is from female education. We have finished a new schoolroom on our side of the town, and it is now occupied by seventy-five caste girls and Mussulmans. In the centre of the town we have another school with forty children, Mussulman girls only. The caste people of Ellore are showing decided readiness to put their girls under Christian instruction. The deputy-inspector of schools, himself a heathen, proposes to establish in Ellore a school for Brahmin widows, with a view to fit them for being teachers in caste girls' schools. Miss Davies, from Australia, is a willing and powerful helper in this good work. It is most interesting to see the Hindu and Mohammedan girls come constantly to our house to see and speak with our ladies. They are taught in our Gospels, they learn our formularies, and attend a Sunday-school especially established for them.—I have the satisfaction of seeing six of the Christian boys of Mala origin now reading in the Ellore High School. Only two years ago, when the first of them was admitted, all the Hindu scholars and teachers left in a body. This year only one Christian boy was qualified in the branch school to enter the higher classes. He came up, however, and not a single objection was raised. Still more surprising, a very worthy master of the same class, formerly one of my pupils, was chosen to give Scripture instruction in the other branch school, where none but Hindus or Mussulmans are to be found, and even this did not create any stir. Thus has this good principle been securely established in Ellore; and Native Christians are no longer debarred from the advantages of higher education provided at the expense of Christians in England. All the Christian boys so promoted have taken good places. One of them has won a scholarship, and is in the matriculation class.

Advance of female education.

Subsidence of caste prejudices.

DUMMAGUDEM.

The European Missionary at this station is the Rev. John Cain. His fellow-helper, the Rev. I. V. Razu, though a Native of South India, may also be appropriately termed a Missionary, inasmuch as those amongst whom he principally labours (the Kois) are not only heathen but also of a different nationality from himself. The Native Adherents connected with the station now number 348; of whom 69 are Communicants. Eleven adults were baptized during the year. Out of the whole number of adherents (348), only 59 are Kois; but both Mr. Cain and Mr. Razu believe that real progress has begun amongst this interesting tribe.

Of the state of the non-Koi Native Christians connected with the station the reports of the Missionaries give no special account.

The Koi Christians Mr. Cain rightly regards as those through whom the heathen Kois are to be reached.—To strengthen them is therefore his first object; which he will aim at, as far as human means are concerned—by carefully teaching their teachers—by endeavouring to raise up teachers and pastors from among themselves—by accustoming them to depend directly on the Great Head of the Church, instead of on the agents and resources of the foreign Society—and, lastly, by stirring them up to labour for the evangelization of their heathen fellow-tribesmen. But although it must be admitted that, in modern times at least, the most successful of all Missionary efforts have been those made by unpaid Native Christian evangelists; there is yet ample room also for those agents who, from circumstances, will need some modest temporal support; and the Committee therefore acutely share in Mr. Cain's regret that the inadequate supply of funds from the Church at home has compelled the curtailment of expenditure on this head.

Several leading men among the Kois have begged that schools might be established amongst them.

The following extract from Mr. Razu's letter will be read with interest:—

This year the work in Pedda Nallapalli and Chinna Nallapalli has made real progress. One of the Kois in Pedda Nallapalli is the Samatu Dora, or headman of the twenty-five villages around here, and was for a long time a bitter opponent and reviler of the Gospel. For about a year he has now been a most regular attendant at church. About three months ago he told me that he felt convinced that the Christian religion was true, and desired to be baptized. This year has not only been one of great distress in consequence of deficient rainfall last year, but we have been visited by cholera, which carried off many people, and caused such fright that many of the Kois left their homes and fled for a short time to the jungles. At that time the headman above mentioned, trusting in His Heavenly Father, refused to flee, and remained manfully at home. The same headman lost all his cattle, and was told by his heathen friends that it was in consequence of his being a Christian, when he replied, "Never mind—it was not for cattle that I became a Christian. The Lord gave, the Lord has taken away, and, if He think fit, can give me again." Other Christian Kois also showed undaunted faith when troubles came to them.

Steadfastness and resignation of a Koi Catechumen.

As regards extension Mr. Cain writes as follows:—

Missionary openings in the valley of the Godavery.

There is abundant work for two missionaries—one to make the Kois his especial care, and the other one the Hindus; for the longer I am here the more plainly do I see that we ought not to regard this station as a kind of offshoot from the missions of the lower district, but rather as a basis for work amongst the Kois to the north of the river, and amongst the Hindus living in the Nizam's dominions on the other side of the river. A missionary provided with a good boat, built expressly for navigation on this river, would have a splendid field of labour in the villages as yet totally unevangelized, lying on the banks of the river from the north side of the Eastern Ghauts to the foot of the second barrier.

CEYLON MISSION.

(Commenced 1817.)

I. Colombo and Cotta. II. Baddegama. III. Kandy. IV. Jaffna.

General.

The organization of the Native Christian congregations connected with the Society in Ceylon, anticipatory, according to the Society's minute of July, 1861, to "the ultimate settlement of the Native Church upon the ecclesiastical basis of an indigenous Episcopate, independent of foreign aid or superintendence," has received further development during the year. The complete system of Church Committees, District Church Councils, and a Provincial Church Council, as explained in the Church Missionary Intelligencer for February, 1878, has now been introduced into the Society's Ceylon Mission. It is true that the power of these bodies, or at least the root of their power, is almost exclusively pecuniary. But not the less on that account do they furnish opportunities for training and preparing the Native Christians for self-government in matters ecclesiastical. The chairman of the Ceylon Provincial Church Council is the Rev. J. I. Jones.

I. Colombo and Cotta.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. John Ireland Jones, M.A., 1857.
Rev. William Edward Rowlands, M.A., 1861.
Rev. Richard Thomas Dowbiggin (m), 1867.
Rev. Henry Newton, M.A. (m), 1877.

COLOMBO.

It is on so many accounts desirable to bring together supporters of the Society's work, from among the European residents of any place where the Society is labouring, that the Committee cannot but rejoice in the continued existence and prosperity of the English congregation of Christ Church. This church was built some years ago with the consent of the then Bishop (Dr. Chapman), at a time when it was supposed that the Corresponding Secretary of the Mission would be a clergyman residing in Colombo. Its present zealous incumbent, the Rev. H. Newton, is supported by the congregation, though he is at the same time one of the Society's Missionaries and is endeavouring to acquire the Singhalese language.—The congregation sent to the Bishop of Madras 230*l.* as a contribution in relief of the sufferers from the Indian Famine.

Work among the Tamils.

This is still under the charge of the Rev. W. E. Rowlands, whose deeply touching and interesting Annual Letter needs no introduction. Mr. Rowlands writes:—

The loss that our Mission has sustained in my beloved wife's removal is one that can scarcely be over-estimated. Having once "put her hand to the plough," she never thought of "looking back," and the answer she invariably gave to friends who spoke of our returning home was in spirit just in accordance with these words which I see she had written in her little daily text-book:—"What would you say if your labourers left their work at noon-day?"

The number of our congregations is the same as last year—seven—including Negombo [on the sea-coast about sixteen miles north of Colombo] and Galle; but Divine Service is held in nine distinct places, some of the congregations being subdivided. The number of adherents in connexion with these congregations is 1070 as compared with 790 last year, showing an increase of 280, principally traceable to the fact that in certain localities more Christians from India have been resident than usual. The average attendance at Divine Service throughout the year has been 402. It must be borne in mind that many of our people are at the bidding of their employers, and therefore unable to do as they like even as regards going to church. The prayer-meetings held in different places during the week have been better attended than formerly, and our special meetings held during the week following the Day of Intercession for Missions were taken up with great interest.—The Slave Island Sunday-school has been perseveringly maintained by the same young men who carried it on last year, and another has been commenced at Maradâna which bids fair to do very well. In both these little Sunday-schools more of the children are heathens than Christians.

The sum total of Native Contributions and Collections for the year is Rs. 995: 75; Rs. 72 less than last year. But this arises from the accidental circumstance that no special effort has been made to obtain funds for church building, towards which object we received Rs. 160 last year.

But the most cheering fact of the whole year is that the number of baptisms—both of adults and children—has been much larger than on any previous occasion, twenty adults and thirty-two children, in all fifty-two. One man was brought to a knowledge of Christ entirely through our preaching in the Colombo jails. He was for several years under instruction, and during the whole of that time manifested an unwavering desire to receive baptism—a desire which would certainly have been complied with sooner, but that he was on more than one occasion removed to some other jail at a distance from Colombo. Two others of the candidates were girls from our boarding-school, one of whom had been betrothed in her childhood to a heathen—the young man to whom I made allusion in my Annual Letter last year. As soon, however, as he became a Christian, he desired that the girl too should receive regular instruction, and requested that she might be admitted into our boarding-school, where he paid her fees from his own earnings.

It is a striking instance of God's mysterious dealings, that during last year, when we had a larger number of pupils in the Girls' Boarding-school than at any previous time since its opening—25, the full number admissible—I should have been obliged temporarily to close it. I am doing everything in my power to secure the services of a lady who will make it her special work; and I pray that God, who can very easily provide for His own, will stir up the heart of some one to come out to Ceylon for this particular object.

The Boys' Boarding-school has continued throughout the year in a very satisfactory condition, both as to discipline, general conduct, and progress in learning. The number on the list has been thirty-seven, only three short of our full number. The master makes it his constant endeavour, I am sure, to lead the boys' hearts to Christ.

Of the Boys' Day-schools in Colombo, I have nothing particular to report. Of the Girls' and Infants' Day-schools, three opened in 1876 (to which I have lately added another) were set on foot specially with a view to attracting, if possible, little Mohammedan girls, and this object has, to some extent, been attained. There are 115 children attending these five schools—64 little boys and 51 girls—and amongst the latter there are 20 Mohammedans, Moors, and Malays, some of whom have been quite regular in their attendance from the first, and can therefore now not only read Tamil very fairly, but repeat from memory a great many texts of Scripture and two or three hymns. These little schools owe their origin entirely to a suggestion of my beloved wife, and will always be associated with her memory. It was very affecting in one of them to find that every child could say by heart a little prayer she had written for them in Tamil, asking for the forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ, and the cleansing of the Holy Spirit.

COTTA.

The Cotta station has been very considerably strengthened during the year, by the appointment of the Rev. J. I. Jones to take charge of the COTTA TRAINING INSTITUTION. By mutual consent between Mr. Jones and Mr. Dowbiggin, the former has also taken the Chairmanship of the Cotta Native Church Council. Mr. Dowbiggin will thus be enabled to give more of his time to Evangelistic work, among both adults and children. The new arrangement had scarcely, however, come into operation at the date of Mr. Dowbiggin's Annual Letter, November 30th, 1877.

Of the Native Christians (numbering, with Catechumens, 873) Mr. Dowbiggin writes:—

There has been an increased attendance of adults at the services on the Lord's day. The number of Communicants is also larger, 184 as compared with 160 last year. There have been eighteen adult baptisms (inclusive of Colombo, twenty), and there are eighty-three candidates for baptism. Four additional Sunday-schools have been carried on, and the average attendance at the thirty-two Sunday-schools has been 727. When it is remembered that more than half of the Sunday scholars are Buddhists, we have great cause for thankfulness that so many come voluntarily to receive purely religious instruction on the Lord's day.—The subscriptions in the district amounted to Rs. 1028: 83.

Mr. Dowbiggin continues:—

Success granted to the efforts of the Cotta Church Missionary Association.

Evangelistic Work has been carried on both in Colombo and in the Héwágam and Rayigam Korales. After about three and a half years of patient labour (connected with the Cotta Church Missionary Association) at Liyanwela, we have been privileged to reap some fruit. In April last six young people, varying in age from eighteen to twenty-five, were baptized. One of the six was the daughter of Christian parents; but all the rest had been brought up in Buddhism, and, until we began to preach Jesus, knew no other religion. I remember one of the six, a young man of twenty-five, asking me a great many difficult questions about animal sacrifices, the killing of fowls and animals for food, &c., which I tried to answer fully on the occasion of my first visit to Liyanwela three years ago. At that time it was thought by the catechist that he was only asking captious questions with a view to annoy or puzzle the missionary. He nevertheless used to stay for exposition of the Scriptures, and was in the habit of attending our services. At the end of three years he openly professed his faith in Jesus, and was baptized. Nearly all of those baptized at Liyanwela date their first desire to become Christians from observing the conduct of our teachers as contrasted with Buddhists.

The work in the Preparandi Institution has been carried on steadily during the year. Once a week the students have gone to Colombo for street-preaching and gaol-visiting, and on Sundays have assisted in carrying on services in the villages near Cotta. During the year four students completed their course of study and were employed, two in the Kandy and two in the Cotta District. Four new students were accepted on probation.

Testimony of a Ceylon Government official to the Girls' Schools of the Cotta District.

1. The schools now number forty-four, as compared with twenty in 1870. Three schools have been opened during the year—two for boys and one for girls. Sir C. P. Layard, K.C.M.G., remarks in his Administrative Report of the Western Province for 1876, as follows:—"I do not know a more gratifying sight than that which may be witnessed on any occasion of a collective examination of the girls educated in the Church Missionary schools of Cotta and the Salpiti Korale, an attendance of well-behaved, well-dressed, and even accomplished young women, whose manners would do credit to an European community." Such is the testimony of a civil servant of fifty years' experience; one who is not wont to bestow praise where it is not due. The number of children on the lists in all classes of schools is, of girls 962, and boys 1221—a total of 2183. The schools have been carried on at a cost of Rs. 11,415 : 86, and towards this sum the C.M.S. has contributed Rs. 1500, which is expended solely on vernacular education.—The English school at Cotta maintains its efficiency, and, with grants-in-aid, is self-supporting. The number of boarders is twenty-five, and day-boys ninety-seven, which gives a total of 122 on the list. Two young men who had been educated in this school gave each of them half of his first month's salary as a thank-offering to the Society. Both of them were admitted into the office of the Surveyor-General.—In the girls' boarding-school there are at present forty-one girls, six of whom are Tamils that we have taken in until Mr. Rowlands can reopen his girls' boarding-school at Borella Road. Four girls were baptized last Christmas, one is a candidate for that rite, and seven are being prepared for confirmation. The school passed a good examination in November, 1876. We are under a deep debt of gratitude to those ladies who, through Miss Webb and others, sent us boxes of work from England to be sold for the benefit of the school.—No less than fourteen young people, the fruits of our school-work, were admitted into the Church by baptism. One of these is the daughter of a devil-dancer; she has bravely confessed Christ, and is enduring persecution for His sake.

II. Baddegama.

Baddêgama, commenced 1819; Bentot, 1861.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. John Allcock (m), 1864.

BADDÊGAMA.

THE Rev. J. Allcock has conducted another year's patient and prayerful labour in this district, with many signs of God's blessing. The Native Christian Adherents have increased from 374 to 462, and the Communicants from 146 to 151. Twenty-six adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Allcock's Annual Letter is rather a collection of salient points in the year's history than a systematic review. It is not the less interesting on that account. He writes:—

Thank God the daily prayer-meeting has been carried on for another year. It is held at 6 p.m. The average for every day during the year has been fifteen, Sunday excepted. Some have been a little weary, others complain about the steepness of the hill, and others think it is too much of a burden to come every day; but, thank God, we have persevered, and have been encouraged by many answers for our prayers.

The amount of our Native subscriptions is larger than last year, notwithstanding the dearness of rice during the famine.

We are making great efforts to enlist more unpaid volunteer evangelists, and we have succeeded to some extent; but the practical difficulties to flesh and blood are enormous. They complain, "Sunday is our only day, and we are employed all the week, and we want rest. How can we walk six miles on our day of rest?" We have about ten volunteers who have been preaching for the last three months; and I hope the number will be increased after Christmas.

Successful labours of a Kandian Christian peasant among Christians and heathen of the maritime districts.

When at Holbrook, 1875, I was much rejoiced by the gracious results of the evangelistic services of Alfred Clark, the workingman. The thought struck me, "May not God have given us some Singhalese Alfred Clarks whom we might bring forward, and whom perhaps we have kept back?" I invited Abraham from Talampitiya, in the Kandy Itinerancy, to come here. I had my serious doubts whether caste prejudices and jealousies would not destroy his usefulness; but, thank God, all our best people have received him with Christian love, and have worked with him most cordially. He speaks with all the feelings of a man who has been grievously injured by Buddhism, which he regards as a masterpiece of Satan's cunning. I am glad to say that his presence and evangelistic addresses have been most edifying and profitable to our leading Christians. The catechist at Dodanduwa says that he expects many of the Buddhists there will be converted. The celebrated priest of the neighbourhood (younger brother of Mr. D. Wirasûriya, one of our leading Native Christians) sent for Abraham to the Pansala or priest's house. In the temple a crowd of Buddhists assembled to hear Abraham give the reasons why he forsook the ancient religion of Buddha. The chief aim of the priest seems to have been to show that Abraham was not a man of learning, acquainted with Pali grammar, but an illiterate, ignorant brawler. The priest asked a few foolish and hackneyed questions: "What place had God to reside in before and when He made the heavens and earth?" "When was the creation of God?" &c. Abraham replied, "Things of eternity and infinity do not belong to our finite understandings. Let us go to the finite things of God's creation. Who is the maker of man, beasts, birds, and creeping things? It is an axiom with your grammarians that every sentence must have an agent. Who is the agent of all creation?"

A Native Christian lawyer.

A Native Christian proctor finding that one of his clients, who came from an interior village, was living in a state of the most horrible and degraded immorality, offered me sixty rupees if I would send a teacher of the Gospel to the place. I have done so, and I believe that a most gracious work of God will follow. This village is about six miles from Kosgoda, where the proctor lives, and he goes there himself to preach the Gospel on two or three Sundays during the month. Two other Native gentlemen have given liberally towards the building and establishment of Christian schools in heathen villages.

Controversy with Buddhists.

After we had preached on seven moonlight nights in Gonapinuwala, the leading Buddhists of the village sent us a challenge to meet one of their noted preachers and a pupil of Migettuwattê's. He is a layman of the Goldsmith caste, and lives at Galle. Our champion was Mr. Sirimanna, catechist of Balapiti. He is most certainly in his proper position when engaged in controversy with the Buddhists. His facts and logic were simply irresistible. I never heard the hollowness of Buddhism more manifestly exposed. It was shown to be a giant cheat, a miserable system of the dry bones of moral precepts without any truth, life, or way to redemption. The Buddhist champion went away dumbfounded, and did not speak his appointed time. In his attacks on the Bible he manifested such gross ignorance of Old Testament History that he became a laughing-stock. His hearers were inclined to bring one of the school-boys to give him a little instruction.

A young man, who was a disciple of the notorious adversary, Migettuwattê, has been converted and baptized this year. He attended our moonlight preaching in Kosgoda school-room. The subject was, "How long halt ye between two opinions?" When we repeated the solemn question at the end of the address, and pressed it upon the Buddhists present, this young man, with much presumption, began to ask blasphemous questions, cavilling against the sacrifices of harmless animals ordained in the Old Testament. From that day, however, he began to associate with the old man who was baptized last Christmas. A few weeks afterwards he made a public profession of his faith in that God and Saviour whom he had previously blasphemed.—The blessing of God has rested on our new out-station at Elpitiya. I was enabled to occupy this new outpost by the aid of 30*l*. which Christian friends sent me from Holbrook for paying an evangelist and opening a girls' school. It appears to me their offerings, and self-sacrifices of faith, and their faithful prayers have prevailed with God. In a year we have four baptized adults and six anxious inquirers. The Bishop (Dr. Copleston) paid a visit to this out-station in September last, and was very much pleased with the conduct, intelligence, and answers of these candidates for baptism. He kindly commissioned me to give a Singhalese Bible to two of them. I was astonished at the Bishop's power over the Singhalese language.—Forty-one persons have been admitted into the visible Church by baptism. Twenty-six of these were adults, and fifteen infants.

III. Kandy.

Kandy, commenced 1818; Itinerating Mission, 1853; Tamil Cooly Mission, 1855.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. William Oakley, 1835, Secretary of the Mission.
Rev. William Clark (m), to South India, 1848: to Ceylon, 1868: at home.
Rev. Richard Collins, M.A. (m), to South India, 1854; to Ceylon, 1871: at home.
Rev. Stephen Coles (m), 1860.
Rev. Edward Moule Griffith (m), 1867: at home.
Rev. Gerard Francis Unwin, 1873; on his way home.
Rev. Anthony Ramsden Cavalier (m), 1874.
Mr. Thomas Dunn (m), 1874.
Mr. Isaac John Taylor, 1877.
Mr. W. B. Ferris, 1877: at home.

The small but influential Singhalese congregation connected with the Society at Kandy, numbering (inclusive of Catechumens and children), 174 persons, is, as before, the charge of the Rev. H. Gunasêkara. The Communicants number 39, and there have been three adult baptisms. The candidates for baptism are nine in number, five of whom seem to be hopeful cases. Mr. Gunasêkara would rejoice to see in the members of his flock more signs of spiritual life and of zeal for the welfare of the Native Church. Evangelistic work is regularly carried on by this esteemed Native brother in the streets, in the verandah of the Police Court, and in the bazaar preaching-room; and also on Sunday morning at seven o'clock in the gaol. It was the preaching in the gaol that led to the profession of faith in Christ by two of the adults whom Mr. Gunasêkara baptized during the year under review.

The Rev. B. P. Wîrasingha has the pastoral care of the congregations of Katukaelê and Gaetaembê, numbering altogether 175 Native Christian Adherents and 26 Communicants. No adults were baptized during the year, but there are some hopeful and interesting candidates. Contributions for religious purposes have increased.

TRINITY COLLEGE, together with the Collegiate School attached to it, contains 114 students. Its Principal is the Rev. R. Collins, who was assisted during the year by Mr. T. Dunn, to whose ability and tact Mr. Collins bears strong testimony, and by competent Native teachers. Mr. Collins writes:—

Conversion of a Buddhist.

I have had the satisfaction of baptizing during the year two of my pupils—one a very interesting and, I believe, most sincere Singhalese, and likely hereafter to take a prominent position among his countrymen. He is now the head boy of the school. Also one, at least, of the students who have just passed the Calcutta University Entrance Examination, will be, I trust, a worker in the Lord's vineyard.

I sent up four boys for the Entrance Examination: all passed in the second division. This is the second year we have passed all the candidates presented from this school. Last year an F.A. and two entrance candidates were presented, all of whom were successful. All these boys have been pupils in this school for some years. We have two students for B.A., and one for F.A., besides the matriculation class. It is, however, doubtful whether the B.A. students will be able, after all, to present themselves for examination, owing to the serious expense of a voyage to Calcutta, and the necessary residence there for a time. This difficulty can only be removed by scholarships, and I am thankful to report that I have had the offer of between Rs. 5000 and Rs. 6000 from some Singhalese gentlemen, the interest of which is to go to found a scholarship for this school.

I have received Rs. 2000 from the Kandyan chiefs for building purposes. With this sum I have built five private rooms for boarders, in addition to the two large dormitories I had previously erected.

TAMIL COOLY MISSION.

In the course of the year just concluded, the Bishop of Colombo offered to recognize the Tamil Cooly Mission in the same way as it had been recognized by his predecessors, if a guarantee could be given that the Mission was conducted on Church of England principles. Though the Committee did not see the need of such a guarantee—as the rules of the Mission provide that such shall be the case, and no evidence had been adduced of their having been transgressed—they readily acceded to the Bishop's wishes, and a guarantee was accordingly given. This step was at first misunderstood by the local Tamil Cooly Mission Committee; but the Parent Committee rejoice that the explanations they have offered have proved satisfactory. They have assured their friends that no change of plan or principle is intended, and that the Society is determined as ever to maintain the just liberties of the Mission and to preserve to the Tamil Cooly Christians purity of doctrine and simplicity of worship. The Committee have full confidence that the laws and established practice of the Church of England will protect the due freedom of their Missionary operations, notwithstanding the difficulties attendant on the transition from the early days of evangelistic effort to the establishment of that indigenous and self-governing Native Church which they have always regarded as the ultimate issue of a successful Mission.

The Guarantee referred to is expressed in the following terms:—"The Tamil Cooly Mission, as a part of the work of the Church Missionary Society—which is a Church of England Society—is carried on entirely on the same principles as every other part of the Church Missionary Society in Ceylon; the clergy, catechists, and readers connected with the Tamil Cooly Mission standing in the same relation to the Bishop and Diocese of Colombo, as do the other clergy, catechists, and readers of that Society."

The work of this Mission, like that of all others connected with the Society, is of two kinds, (1) Evangelistic efforts among the heathen, and (2) Pastoral, for the benefit of the Native Christians. It is of course with the former of these two that the local Tamil Cooly Mission Committee is directly concerned.

The Rev. W. Clark and the Rev. A. R. Cavalier are the two European brethren engaged in this Mission. Mr. Clark, the senior of the two, interests himself in the whole work, but has (or had, during the year under review) also special charge of the Northern district. He writes:—

The work of the Mission has been carried on with as much energy and regularity as circumstances would permit. I have myself visited the estates as frequently as I could.

The Rev. P. Peter (Native assistant), has been active and diligent, and the catechists have, for the most part, done their work faithfully. There has been a good deal of sickness among them, which has somewhat interfered with their work.

Our congregations have done well, on the whole. In the Northern district there have been nineteen adult baptisms, and the Adherents and Communicants now number respectively 868 and 209.

Our schools have not been so successful this year. Good teachers are obtained with great difficulty. Still, some of the schools have succeeded really well. As our schools are usually dependent on local support, they are very apt to fluctuate,—the departure of one influential man being sufficient to close a school altogether.

Our funds have somewhat increased. The strong feeling which was aroused disposed many to give liberally, and we shall get about 1400*l.* or 1500*l.* which is, however, less than we hoped for.

The ordinary work of the Mission in this division has been carried on with a greater degree of regularity than before, the increased staff of agents enabling us to be more punctual in visiting estates and more attentive to the Christians. We have, however, suffered a good deal from the effects of an unusually wet season, and at one time during the year more than half the catechists in the divison were laid up by illness in consequence.

During the period under review I have baptized seven adults, each of whom had been under preparation some months. A considerable number of inquirers were prepared, but returned to India before arrangements could be made for their baptism. We trust that in their own country they may continue to seek after the truth and help to swell the numbers of the Christian Church there. In this Mission we cannot expect to have large and settled congregations. The coolies are constantly coming and going.

ANURÂJAPURA.

This ancient city has now become one of the Society's Missionary stations, the Rev. G. F. Unwin removing thither in February, 1877. Mr. Unwin writes:—

My work at Anurâjapura is, as it was in Kaigâlle, of two kinds—town work, including, fortnightly English services, preaching in the streets and hospital and the prison, and village itinerating.—I have eight village schools, besides the one here, which is Anglo-Vernacular.—Large coloured Scripture prints (I have five of Old Testament subjects and five of New) I find of great service both in daily reading with the people here and when I travel. I visited a new village not long since, where there seemed an opening for a school, and fastened up against the walls (mats suspended from the roof) my Scripture print. It was that of Eli and Samuel. I let them first satisfy their curiosity by a good look at the picture, and then, as they gradually asked its meaning, I told them the story. Many thus came and went in the course of the afternoon; but I was particularly struck with one old man's question. Having listened, he went away; but later on, returning, asked with apparent earnestness, "Does God really talk to people like that, or listen when they pray to Him?"

Does God really listen to people when they pray to Him?

One great hindrance to the advance of Christianity here is the utter disregard to religion shown by those in responsible positions under Government. To mention only one thing—the erection of our public buildings is carried on on Sundays as on other days. I have had, also, great trouble in getting agents both willing and able to give themselves to the work here, Anurâjapura being regarded as a very unhealthy place.

Mr. Unwin's Annual Letter closes with a lengthened and painfully interesting account of the sad apostasy of a young lad who had given promise of being a useful helper. Mr. Unwin justly remarks that "such incidents may show quite as much as our successes, what need we have of the increased sympathy and prayers of all God's people, whether at home or here."

IV. Jaffna District.

Nallur, commenced 1818; Chundikuli, 1842; Kopay, 1847.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Jonathan D. Simmons (m), to South India, 1860; to Ceylon, 1875.
Rev. David Wood (m), 1867.

The Native Christian Adherents connected with the Society at Jaffna number 780; of whom 329 are Communicants. The corresponding numbers for 1876 were 767 and 298. Thirty-four adults were baptized during the year. There have been considerable accessions also to the list of Catechumens; although from emigration and from mortality through the prevalence of cholera, the increase in the total number of Adherents has been scarcely appreciable. One interesting fact is thus recorded by a Native Pastor:—

We fixed a day for the baptism of a young candidate and waited for him in the church, but he did not make his appearance. On the next morning we learnt that his father having understood that he was to be baptized on that day, closely watched him. But the boy openly told his parents that he wanted to be baptized, and set out to go to the church. His father flogged him severely, and tied him to a post, and thus prevented him. But the boy insisted much, and expressed his fixed resolve to become a Christian. His parents at length left him to his own course, saying that they will take no interest in his welfare nor give any help towards his education.

Perseverance of a young candidate for baptism.

The Rev. J. D. Simmons writes:—

The high prices of food, owing to the famine in India, have affected our church funds. We began the year with Rs. 300 in the Church Pastoral Fund, but we closed it with only Rs. 25 in hand. The amount contributed to this Fund is Rs. 1044, being Rs. 208 less than last year. Many have promised to try, not only to raise their subscriptions in the current year to what they were before, but also to redeem the deficiency of the past year.

Another source of anxiety has been the illness of two of the pastors.

The prospect for a succession of efficient labourers is not so bright as I desire to see it. You kindly gave a grant to enable me to open a theological class for young men of promise, who had finished their secular education, and I thought I knew of three or four who would willingly join the class; but when our terms were made known, no one came forward to do so. We have now come to the conclusion that, instead of a regular class, we must carry on three or four young schoolmasters in theological studies whilst they continue their present work. Several are anxious to do this. This plan has disadvantages, but no other course appears practicable at present.

The number of adult baptisms in the year is thirty-four—a number considerably above our average. Last year there were but ten, and the year before fifteen. There are also forty candidates for baptism. God does not limit His blessing to any one form of labour for Christ. Some of these converts are the reward of faithful work in schools; some were converted by the Word preached in public; others heard it spoken more privately in the house; again, others were brought to Jesus by the prayers and efforts of children and friends. Sickness and affliction also were instrumental in leading some. Some of the converts have had no slight amount of trials to endure for the Gospel's sake. One man's wife was so violent on the day fixed for his baptism, threatening to drown herself and the children during his absence, that he had to postpone his public confession of Christ; and on the day of baptism he appeared in borrowed clothes, as his wife had hidden his own. He has been faithful and persevering in efforts to win her to Christ, and there is good hope of his success.

Our evangelistic work in the Wannie is extending year by year; though somewhat impeded during the last twelve months by the prevalence of cholera. [The Wannie is a tract of country on the mainland of Ceylon, opposite the Jaffna peninsula.] A good school bungalow and a house sufficient for a catechist and schoolmaster have been completed this year at Vavoniavelankulam; also three schoolrooms and a small house in villages near Mullativo.

The Educational work in the Jaffna peninsula is under the care of the Rev. D. Wood, with the exception, however, of the Kopay Training Institution, and the Girls' Boarding-school, which Mr. Simmons superintends. Mr. Simmons writes:—

In the Kopay Institution four students finished their course in May last, and are now employed by us as schoolmasters. There are at present eight youths in the training-class, and thirty-four boys in the boarding-school. The conduct of most of them has been good, and the piety of some is manifest.—In the Girls' boarding-school several students finished their course and left in April, and their places were filled up with young girls drawn from the day-schools. The grant obtained by Government examination was Rs. 642, the largest ever received. It has been the constant care of all connected with the school to lead the girls to Christ, to give them a good knowledge of the Bible, and some instruction in the principles of the Church of England, as well as to train them in general knowledge and usefulness. There are forty-six in the school.

Mr. Wood has found the work much interfered with by cholera and the high price of food—the latter owing to the Indian famine,—which have proved serious hindrances. The Chundikuli English Seminary was specially affected, being indeed practically closed for four months. It may be hoped, however, that the decline is only temporary. Taking the schools under Mr. Wood's care, as a whole, the numbers on the lists have decreased from 2499 to 2257. Four pupils have been baptized from the schools during the year.

Work among Madras Coolies.

The Society's work among the Tamils is divided between the Rev. H. D. Buswell and the Rev. N. Honiss; Mr. Buswell taking the central districts and Mr. Honiss the northern. (The work among the Tamils in the southern districts is conducted by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.)

Mr. Buswell has been tried both by the weakness of his own health, and by sad instances of moral and spiritual frailty among the agents and the members of the congregations. On the other hand his Native brother, the Rev. J. Gabb, has proved himself a most unwearied and faithful labourer.

Twenty-six adults were baptized during the year, one of the most interesting of these being a Chinese. Mr. Buswell expressed the hope that regular work among the Chinese resident in the colony would soon be begun. An intelligent Chinese Christian had recently arrived from Calcutta who was receiving instruction for this work from Mr. Andrews, the civil chaplain of Port Louis, formerly one of the Society's Association Secretaries in Ireland.

The preparandi class under Mr. Buswell's care numbers only three students at present. Three have been placed out during the year as schoolmasters; two of whom are also engaged in instructing catechumens.

Mr. Honiss, who is stationed at MOUNT PITON, writes as follows:—

In our present quarters we are surrounded by the Indian population, and the situation is healthy, as well as picturesque.

Small prayer-houses on Mauritius sugar estates.

There have been fourteen adult baptisms during the period under review. Nine of these were all from one estate, where they have built a small prayer-house, ten feet long, by seven feet wide. I am strongly in favour of making the people build these little prayer-houses. Every little village in India has its own sacred place for worship. It may amount to nothing more than two or three stones, with a little whitewash and a dab of red paint. But there it is, always in their midst. Why should we not utilize this idea when they become Christians? To the European, that small prayer-house is but a miserable hovel. But what if communion is held there between the awakened spirits of men, and the God and Father of all? The hovel then becomes a Bethel, as much so as Westminster Abbey or St. Paul's.

Day-scholars are admitted into our boarding-school, in which we have an average attendance of nearly fifty. All of them are daily taught that they are by nature and practice sinful, and that "Christ came into the world to save sinners." At morning prayers all are expected to repeat some passage of Scripture. In the Christmas examination, when fifty-five were present, the boarding-boys were particularly good in this respect—one boy repeating as many as sixty-seven texts and ninety-eight hymns in Tamil or English.—I have also the management of four other schools in different parts of the district. Besides the Christian education for the children, we thus gain an introduction to the parents in their homes. I see an obvious difference in camps where we have children under instruction, and in others where we have not. In the former case I am a recognized friend.—I look forward to the time when we may have a school in every camp. These schools can be carried on with little or no expense to the Mission. So far, my schools have not cost the C.M.S. a rupee. The boarding-school is sustained by the contributions of those kind friends who have hitherto charged themselves with its support; while the grants from the Local Government have proved sufficient for the working of the day-schools.

Condition of the Indian coolie in the Mauritius.

The Indian in Mauritius has lost, in a measure, the cunning, cringing ways of his countrymen. He has seen more of the world, and has learnt to recognize his rights as a British subject. He knows there is a great gentleman called the Protector of Immigrants, whose special business it is to look after the rights of the Indian. He is better clothed, better fed, and better housed than in his native land. He can be polite without being cringing. With all these improvements the Indian in Mauritius does not appear to be any the nearer to the kingdom of heaven. He is far more ready to adopt the white man's vices than his religion. On the day of the Port Louis races, which the Indians patronize as well as the Europeans, I saw more drunken Indians than during my seventeen years' residence in India.

Work among Calcutta Coolies.

This branch of this Mission is divided between the Rev. F. Schurr and the Rev. P. Ansorgé; the latter being assisted by, or perhaps rather giving the assistance of his counsels to, a Native Pastor, the Rev. C. Kushalli. Mr. Schurr takes charge of the work in the two southernmost districts of Grand Port and Savanne, Mr. Ansorgé in the rest of the island. Mr. Schurr also conducts a Præparandi Institution.

Of the Native Christians Mr. Ansorgé writes:—

St. Paul's Church at Port Louis is now complete. If our friends at home who have helped us could see the church on a Sunday, with its congregation, its Native Pastor and Native organist, I am sure all would feel still more happy for having contributed towards its completion.

I am glad to state that the Christians have continued regularly their payment of 3*l*. per month for Mr. Kushalli's part payment of his stipend. The conduct of the Christians has in general been satisfactory. I doubt not that the Lord has a good many chosen ones among them, though there are a few sad exceptions. The attendance for Divine worship on Sundays has increased. Besides St. Paul's Church at Port Louis (spoken of below), Sunday services are conducted in four different churches belonging to English congregations; and I most thankfully acknowledge the kind help thus afforded by the English chaplains. Three services are held every Sunday at Plaisance [Mr. Ansorge's own residence]. There is also a regular service conducted at Rodus Bois, on the property of a Protestant English gentleman, who has given us a house for the purpose of getting the Christians in his neighbourhood for Divine worship. On his estate we have about forty Christians, all labourers.

Evangelistic efforts Mr. Ansorgé thus describes:—

Myself, Mr. Kushalli, and all my seven catechists, have proclaimed the Gospel to Hindus and Mohammedans in town and in the country, in prisons, in hospitals, and in the camps on the sugar estates. Two of our Christians help without receiving pay. Catechist Hope Mirza, whom I have stationed at Moka, has visited many estates. But the glad tidings of Jesus are brought not only to the men, but also to the women, as my daughter Louisa goes with the Indian Bible-woman, visiting the camps in the neighbourhood.

The statistics of Mr. Ansorgé's districts are:—Native Christian Adherents, 856; Communicants, 174; baptisms during the year—adults, 62; children of converts, 10; children of Christian parents, 27: Native Scholars—Boys, 115; Girls, 96.

The work among the Calcutta coolies in the southern districts of Grand Port and Savanne is carried on as before by the Rev. F. Schurr. Mr. Schurr is assisted by three Native Christian fellow-labourers. The Native Christian Adherents under Mr. Schurr's charge are sixty-two in number. Six of these are Communicants, and six adults were baptized during the year.

The Immigration Depôt at PORT LOUIS is visited on the arrival of any new immigrants by Mr. Kushalli and two Catechists. If any Christians are found, they are immediately informed of the opportunities for attending the means of grace, and are provided with portions of Scripture; and if about to be sent into the more distant districts, they are advised as to the best way of communicating with the nearest Mission Station.

SEYCHELLES.

On the Seychelles islands the labourers on the estates are mostly natives of East Africa. The solitary Missionary, the Rev. W. B. Chancellor, has laboured with patient industry, and has established an Industrial Home for African children on a mountain 2000 feet above the sea. Of this work Bishop Royston, and Lieutenant Sanders, of H.M.S. Fawn, have written in warm terms.

CHINA MISSION.

First attempted, 1836—1840. Recommenced, 1844.

HONG KONG.

The Society's Missions in China have the advantage of being under the Episcopacy of two Bishops, not only sympathizing with the spiritual principles of the Society, but possessing also Missionary experience gained by actual service.

Contemplated extensions from Hong Kong.

Hong Kong is in the diocese of Bishop Burdon. The Committee are glad to entertain the hope in which the Bishop has himself encouraged them, that he will be able personally to initiate and superintend Missionary operations at the Society's expense at Pakkoi, on the mainland. The arrangements for this, however, are not yet completed.

In Hong Kong itself the Society's Missionary (Rev. A. B. Hutchinson) writes as follows:—

> The number of our Communicants has increased to fifty; eight of the additional fifteen being the outcome of the Church itself, and seven the result of other labours in Melbourne and elsewhere.
> Of the candidates for baptism, two are old scholars from our Taiping-shan school; two are men who have heard the glad tidings at St. Stephen's; three are at the station at Wong-pi; four at the new station, Tseng-ün, and two are being prepared by the itinerant evangelist on the island.
>
> We have had fewer baptisms than in the previous year; but this is partly because I have been prevented visiting Wong-pi, as I purposed doing in December. I hope to be there very soon after the Chinese new year commences (Feb. 4th). I have baptized altogether eight adults and three children, whilst six Natives, members of our Church gathered in other lands, have joined our ranks on returning to their native land. These, with a member of the London Mission who has (with full consent of his former teachers) become an assistant evangelist, and thirteen adult candidates for baptism, bring up our numbers to 123.

Contemplated extensions from Hong Kong.

Quite unexpectedly, three members of the Church of England baptized and confirmed in Australia, have recently come to see me, expressing an earnest desire to labour for Christ in China. This, together with other circumstances, has encouraged me to attempt extension in various directions, and if I can carry out all my plans, we shall then have as our out-stations, Wong-pi, fourteen miles S.E. Canton (Salary, Society); Tseng-ün, eighty miles north (Salary, Society); Kong Mun, south (Salary, Local Fund); Yan Peng, south-west (Salary, Local Fund); Tsang Ching, north-east (Salary, Rev. E. Davys).

FUH-CHOW.

General character and constitution of the Fuh-Kien Native Church.

The Fuh-Kien Mission stands prominently forward in the evident and abundant tokens of the presence and energy of the HOLY SPIRIT. The Native Christian Adherents have increased from 1700 to 2300 (not including 800 in the geographical district of another missionary body, who for some reason not fully explained to the Committee, seem resolved to force themselves on the care of the Society's agents). "All these," writes Mr. Wolfe, "are bitterly hated, and too often cruelly persecuted, by the governing and influential classes of their own countrymen, while they are despised as fools by the masses. Many of them, it is true, are weak, and need much teaching and shepherding, and often cause much anxiety and care. Joy and sorrow, sunshine and clouds, have alternated in our experience of the Native Christians during the year. . . . . The joy and the sunshine have predominated." The Christians are ministered to by three Native clergymen (one much-esteemed brother having died during the year), ninety-three paid catechists, and about double that number of unpaid "exhorters"—these being aided by the advice and guidance of three European Missionaries. Every Native Christian is urged to do what he can for the evangelization of his countrymen; but the "exhorters" are a recognized class of voluntary helpers, who work under a certain system of rules. Many of them show great zeal and intelligence.

In the Training College, Mr. Stewart, one of Mr. Wolfe's younger colleagues, is carefully preparing for future usefulness twenty-nine Chinese students, varying in age from seventeen to thirty, and selected from the "unpaid helpers." Mr. Stewart's Native colleague is a Chinese graduate, who has lost all, including wife and child, for the Gospel's sake.

The Annual Conference of the Fuh-Kien Christians was held in October, 1877. Three hundred Native Christians, agents and independent delegates, were assembled on the occasion. It was a time of spiritual benefit to all. The Conference pronounced against the custom of betrothals in early childhood.—In the twelve districts into which the Fuh-Kien Mission is divided, 274 adults have been received into the visible Church by baptism during the year; and a very large number of inquirers have placed themselves under regular instruction.

The following passages are extracted from Mr. Wolfe's wonderfully interesting Annual Letter:—

Death of a faithful Chinese pastor.

One earnest and familiar voice and form at our conferences we shall hear and see no more in our earthly assemblies; the Rev. Su-Chong-Ing has been called away to his heavenly rest. His end, as we learn from the Christians who were with him when he died, was perfect peace. Though a young man, he has done much good service for the Master. His first employment as a catechist was in the city of Ping-Nang. He was the first to occupy that station, and endured a good deal of persecution from the gentry and literati of that place. The chapel was ultimately pulled down, and he had to fly for his life. He held an honorary official rank, for which he had a button. He was degraded from this rank, on the representation of the magistrate, of being a propagator of heterodoxy. He was afterwards for a short time in the students' class at Fuh-chow, and was subsequently employed as a catechist at different stations. He had charge of the Ku-Cheng station at the time of his ordination two years ago by Bishop Burdon. He was afterwards removed, partly for the sake of his health, to Lo-Nguong, to take charge of the congregation in that city, where he continued to the time of his death, a few days ago. He leaves a widow and four children entirely unprovided for. May the God of the widow and the Father of the fatherless provide for them and help them! Mr. Su was a man of commanding voice and figure, of great eloquence and quiet earnestness. He possessed a good knowledge of his Bible, and his sermons were full of scriptural instruction. He excelled in his mode of preaching to the heathen, and he was invariably listened to with attention and respect.—The Mission has also lost the services of the Rev. Wong, who resigned, and has set up as a medical man on his own account. He is a true Christian, and will have many opportunities of doing good to the cause of Christ in his new profession. I trust he may embrace these opportunities, and be the means of leading many to the Physician of souls.

The Mission is now divided into 12 districts, as follows: 1. LO-NGUONG. 2. NING-TAIK. 3. Hok-Ning-Fu. 4. Southern Ku-Cheng. 5. Central KU-CHENG. 6. Western Ku-Cheng. 7.

Kiong-Ning-Fu. 8. Iong-Ping-Fu. 9. Hing-Wha-Fu. 10. Taik-Wha. 11. Lieng-Kong. 12. FUH-CHOW and vicinity including two Hiens. Two, and sometimes three, of these districts are at present superintended by one head Catechist, while the whole twelve are visited by ourselves, the English missionaries.

The LO-NGUONG district has suffered from the severe and long continued illness of the Rev. Su-Chong-Ing, which has now resulted in his death. Still the work has made fair progress. In each of its eleven out-stations some advance has been made. Though the city itself has been quite barren of results, the city congregation has been somewhat increased. There were thirty-eight baptisms during the year, and the Lord's Supper was administered to over eighty Communicants on the occasion of my last visit towards the end of the year, in December. Very few of the female members of this city congregation are able to attend the public services in the Church, in consequence of the long distances they have to walk and their own crippled feet. A great desideratum in this and in all our stations is an intelligent female agency to teach the women. The book depôt has been in operation, and, though but few except the Christians have availed themselves of its privileges, the Curator has kept the little chapel in the depôt open for preaching and conversation, and many, through his means, have heard the Word of God. The Romanists in the neighbourhood have given the Christians much trouble; and the persecutions on the part of the heathen gentry and magistrate have considerably harassed the converts during the year, and have kept many inquirers from joining the Christian ranks. The magistrate of Lo-Nguong publicly flogged one of the Christians for no other reason but because he refused to worship at the tombs of the ancestors. The work at Seu-Hung and Tong-A has made considerable progress; and though there have not been many baptisms in these places this year, a goodly number have joined the congregations, and are preparing for admission by baptism.—Wong-Pwong and Iong-Tung, have during the year given us very great encouragement. At the latter place the converts, about sixty in number, have subscribed $100, and with the help they received from us were enabled to purchase a large house to serve as a church. There have been thirteen baptisms at Wong-Pwong, and altogether a deeply interesting work has been going on there during the year. There are some very earnest "exhorters" at work in this station, voluntarily assisting the Catechist.—Achia has been much disturbed during the year by the intrigues of the hostile gentry; but it has made steady progress notwithstanding, and seven have been added by baptism. —Oh-Iong has not made very much apparent progress during the year; only twelve have been baptized. This is accounted for by the fact that we had, from certain circumstances, been compelled to abandon our little chapel there, and remove several miles away to another place. We have again returned, and God has wonderfully provided a suitable chapel for us in the old village.

The NING-TAIK district now contains twelve out-stations, in most of which considerable interest has been manifested during the year.—At Chek-Tu there have been nine baptisms, and the people have shown a great readiness to listen to the public preaching of the Word. The severe opposition of former years seems to have subsided a little.—Lek-Tu also has made an advance; nine have been baptized, and the people show an encouraging willingness to listen.—The older stations of Sioh-Chuo, Ting-Sang-Ka, Ni-Tu, and Sioh-Iong, have not been destitute of encouragement; though the number of baptisms at these places have been very small, compared with former years. A large class of women has been formed at Sioh-Chuo by the intelligent and energetic young wife of the Catechist in charge, who is a daughter of our beloved brother Su, just departed. The congregation at Sioh-Chuo continues steady, and several have this year joined the inquirers' class.—The flock at the comparatively new station of Chung-Iong has greatly increased during the year, and twenty-one have been baptized. Here also the Catechist's wife, assisted by a very excellent Bible-woman, has formed a class for women, and a large number attend, and altogether a most deeply interesting work is being carried on at this station.—Other surrounding villages have asked for teachers, but we have found it impossible to comply with their requests. Our object is, if possible, to open a station as a centre of light to many surrounding villages, and not to send a Catechist, even if we could afford it, to every village that may ask for a teacher.

The progress in the KU-CHENG districts, though not so striking as last year, has given us much encouragement and cause for thankfulness to God. Persecution has continued more or less all the year round. A good deal of excitement has been produced by the hostile attitude of the new magistrate towards the Christians; and a large number of those, who last year had placed themselves under Christian instruction at the various stations have left us in consequence. But a goodly company of men and women have continued with us.

The city of Ku-Cheng, the head-quarters of the central district in this Hien, had had the advantage of the judicious and energetic labours of the Rev. Ting-Sing-Ki during the year. The city congregation has been enlarged by forty-eight baptisms, though a good many inquirers and candidates for baptism who worshipped with us in the church at the beginning of the year, left before the end.—There are altogether fifty out-stations in the entire Ku-Cheng Hien, twenty-six of which are within the central district, and are carefully superintended by Mr. Ting. The progress made in some of these stations has been much greater than in others, but very few have been altogether destitute of interest and encouragement, while in several of them the Lord has been manifestly working.—At Ngu-Tu a very great interest has been excited, and the number of inquirers have increased during the year to eighty or ninety. More than forty men attend regularly at the service, and keep the Sabbath, and have become candidates for baptism. Recently three influential men have joined this number of learners. These men just mentioned had taken a leading part in the collecting of funds for the erection of a large idol temple in the neighbourhood. They were the moving spirits in its erection, but when it was nearly completed they declared it to be the work of the devil, and abandoned it altogether. They attended the services and prayer meetings in the chapel, and placed themselves on the list of candidates for baptism. They now attempted to undo the work which they had been the chief instruments of inaugurating. They tried to persuade the people to pull down the temple, and even made an attempt themselves to lead in its demolition. In this, however, they failed. These three men had frequently heard the truth from the catechists and exhorters; and no other motive can be discovered for their sudden conduct, after all the trouble they had taken in connexion with the temple, except that which they themselves declare, viz. that they had discovered the truth to be with the Christians! The catechist here is one of our late students, and a very earnest and intelligent young man. His wife also is doing a very good work among the women, forty of whom have formed themselves into a class under her instruction. Both of them in their heathen state, practised the "curious arts" of necromancy, but when they became converted some years ago, they, like the Ephesians of old, who "used curious arts," brought the collection of their valuable books together, and burned them. Nineteen have been baptized during the year at Ngu-Tu.—Sek-Lek-Tu is another station in this district in which much encouragement and success have been vouchsafed. The little chapel has become too strait for the numbers who now attend. Twelve have been baptized this year, one of whom is a literary graduate. The friendly feeling manifested here by all classes in the village towards Christianity is also very encouraging. It was recently proposed by the Rev. Ting that one of the usual monthly district meetings of workers should be held at this station, instead of at Ku-Cheng city. The chapel being too small for such a gathering, one of the head-men of the village, a heathen, at once came forward and offered the use of one of the large Ancestral Halls for the meeting. He removed all the idols and other insignia of idolatry out of sight, and undertook at his own charges the expense of getting it ready for the occasion.—At Ku-Iong also, considerable interest has been manifested, and many from the surrounding villages have placed themselves under instruction. The catechist, the old Ang-Iong tailor, has been busily employed during the year superintending and teaching the various classes which have been formed in three or four of these villages.—The Lau-Ah congregation has not given us the encouragement this year that we had at one time anticipated from it. A few have been baptized; but two unworthy members have been expelled. The Ang-Iong tailor.

The Southern district of Ku-Cheng, of which Ang-Iong is the centre, contains twelve stations.—The progress at Ang-Iong has been steady and satisfactory during the year. Twenty-eight have been admitted to baptism, and there are at present a fair number of inquirers and candidates. Most of the stations of this district have made decided progress during the past year, and fill us with hope.—Cho-Iong, a comparatively new station, having been opened only twelve months, has a class of forty inquirers, twenty of whom are ready for baptism on the next visit of the missionary.—Tong-Liang has given us much anxiety and sorrow, and also much cause for thankfulness, during the year. The head-man, who was one of the duly constituted gentry class of the district, became a believer in Christ some two years ago. His eldest son also believed and manifested great interest in the spread of the truth in his immediate neighbourhood. The father, as soon as he was converted, determined to build a church in his village, which he did principally at his own expense. It was finished about the beginning of May last; and we were invited by our dear friend to come and formally open the church for divine service. This we did on Sunday, May 13th. There was a very nice congregation; and after the second lesson I baptized two adults and two children, the latter being the youngest son and grandson of our friend. Mr. Lloyd and myself were filled with joy at what we had been privileged to see and take part in, and left the village greatly encouraged with reference to the progress of the Lord's work in this place. During the summer the interest increased, and between forty and fifty individuals attended the services in the new church. Our friend was full of enthusiasm, and about the end of September came down to Fuh-chow to consult with me about plans for a school which he wished to establish in his village. I promised to do what I could to forward his views, and to bring the matter before the conference, which was to assemble early in October. He made his appearance at the conference, but the same evening was attacked with cholera, and notwithstanding all our efforts to save him, died the following afternoon (Sunday), full of peace and faith. His eldest son was with him the whole time. His death was a great sorrow to us all, and filled us with anxiety on account of his wife and younger son. These members of his family never believed in the Saviour, and they were rather violently opposed to the erection of the church, and all the other plans in favour of Christianity which the father and his eldest son inaugurated. Now that her husband was about to be taken home dead to her from Fuh-chow, we fully expected that both she and her younger son would take some violent measures against Christianity and against the eldest son, and greatly hinder the interesting work going on in the neighbourhood. The conference earnestly prayed on Sunday evening for the widow and her younger son. In public and in private they were constantly prayed for, and God was asked to turn this apparent calamity into a great blessing to His own cause in Tong-Liang, and to the family of our deceased brother. On the following Thursday morning, accompanied by several of the Christians, the funeral procession commenced its mournful journey to the distant village of Tong-Liang, among the wild and romantic mountains of Ku Cheng. The poor woman was overwhelmed with grief on receiving her husband's corpse. But our prayers respecting her and her younger son have been signally answered. She never uttered a word of reproach, except against herself, for not having attended to her husband's exhortations to her to become a Christian while he was alive. "He is now gone to heaven," she said, "I must strive to go there too." Her younger son is also wonderfully subdued, and both are earnestly striving to become Christians. The poor widow especially shows great anxiety, and exhorts all who are within her influence to become Christians and prepare for heaven.

The Eastern district of this Hien has not been so encouraging this year. Sang-Iong-Chong is the head-quarters of this Missionary district. There are only six stations open in this district. Most of the Christians, about fifty in number, belong to the village of Li-Iong, where at present there is no chapel. The converts walk to Sang-Iong to service, about four English miles. The work at Li-Iong was at one time full of hope, and even still is not without encouragement; but persecution has been so severe and persistent, that many became alarmed. and disheartened, and discontinued to attend the church. Among the Christians of Li-Iong, however, there are several very earnest men who have made real sacrifices for the cause of Christ.

The district of Kiong-Ning-Fu is under the superintendence of the Rev. Ting, the Native Missionary at Ku-Cheng. At present it contains only two stations, which on the whole have given us encouragement during the year. The opposition of the gentry and officials of this Fu has been very great; but our reception by the people everywhere has been most cordial and pleasant. We have been expelled from the city of Kiong-Ning-Fu, and at present I can see no prospect of a reoccupation of this most important place. But we are determined by the help of God to draw our missionary lines closely round the walls of this hostile city, by planting stations in its densely populated villages, as God may give us the means and opportunity for doing so.

The Iong-Ping-Fu district is superintended by a catechist. It contains seven stations. Most of these were occupied towards the end of last year We are still kept out of possession of our chapel in the city of Iong-Ping. As the work in most of these stations is comparatively new, the progress is naturally slow. The people, however, are friendly, and received the catechist very cordially.—At the older station of Nang-Sang the progress has been considerable, and about thirty meet together on Sundays and other occasions to worship God. The opposition of last year has completely subsided. The people, now that they know something of Christianity, are not so easily led away and deceived by the hostile representations of the gentry. Nang-Sang is a large and important place, and should Christianity take root here, it would have an influence on all the surrounding districts.—The station of Chong-Hu-Pwong, within the same district, has given us much anxiety, and has called forth much prayer during the year. The opposition from the leading gentry has been most bitter and persistent, and the hopeful and promising work commenced here about thirteen months ago has been completely stopped. It is a very large place, and we still hold on, hoping almost against hope. Not one now dares to come to our chapel, and the catechist is much discouraged. The gentry have put out placards threatening death against any one who should become a Christian.

Fierce opposition to the Gospel from Chinese gentry.

The district of Hok-Ning-Fu, still confined within its city walls, has been under the charge of the Rev. Tang. We have not been able to occupy any of the large towns or villages in this district during the year, chiefly from want of the suitable men, but also from the want of sufficient money. Romanism abound in the large villages in its northern parts. The first-fruits have already been gathered in the city of Hok-Ning-Fu. Four have been baptized this year, and several others attend the services and profess to keep the Sabbath. Compared with most of the other cities embraced by our mission in this province, the success vouchsafed in this city has been encouraging, and the interest seems deepening every visit we make to it. One of the converts brought to Christ in this place died early in the year, and left behind him a cheering testimony of his faith in Christ.

Hopeful beginning at Hok-Ning-Fu.

The Lieng-Kong district has given us very little encouragement during the year. The city has proved a barren field. There has not been a baptism here during the year. Preaching in the chapel and in the streets has been carried on with more or less activity, but no results have appeared.—There are five stations in this district besides the city. Two of these have been only very recently occupied.—At the Tau-Ka station, a very interesting work was commenced about two years ago. A large number attended regularly the little chapel, and much real interest was manifested by the people. But here, as in so many other places, the gentry by their threats and opposition—and in this instance backed up by the officials—have frightened away the people from the chapel, and are now endeavouring to turn us out of the place. Yet in face of all this opposition a few have boldly confessed Christ, and have been admitted by baptism into His Church.—At Tang-Iong there have been seven baptisms during the year, and there are several inquirers. But the Christians have not manifested that spiritual life which we earnestly desire to see in them. The church at this place has been finished during the year. The magistrate of the district at first refused to allow the sacred name of Jesus to be placed over the entrance, and summoned the catechist before him, demanded of him by what authority he erected the chapel at Tang-Iong, and threatened to have it taken down. I at once wrote to this official, stating that he could take the chapel down if he were so minded —that of course the Christians would not resist his authority, but reminding him at the same time that the toleration of Christianity was provided for by the laws of the Empire. We heard no more threats from him of pulling down the chapel.

Hing-Wha-Fu.—This is a district south of the Min and only recently occupied. It lies on the way to our Taik Wha district, and is one of the most thickly populated districts in the province. We occupy at present two stations, one in the Fu city, another in Hang-Tau. The latter is a very large town, having a much greater population than the city itself. There have been four baptisms at Hang-Tau during the year, and at present there is a class of between thirty and forty inquirers. There are seven inquirers in the city station. Hing-Wha is the stronghold of Buddhism in Fuh-Kien. In all its large towns and cities there are large and beautiful Buddhist temples, which are kept in capital repair, and are constantly filled with the devotees of Sik-Kia (Sakya Mûni or Gautama).

The Taik-Wha district contains three stations, viz., Taik-Wha city, Pe-Hu, and Ku-Iong. Taik-Wha city has not been very successful during the year, but Ku-Iong and Pe-Hu, especially Pe-Hu, have manifested some interest in the truth. There are six inquirers, and two baptized at Ku-Iong, and a class of thirty five candidates and inquirers at Pe-Hu. Ten have been baptized during the year at Pe-Hu, and altogether the work in this region promises to be very successful in the future.

The city and district of FUH-CHOW still present a hard surface and a barren soil. Only one has been added to the church this year by baptism from heathenism. Preaching has been carried on in the chapels and streets by the catechists and students, but the huge city of Fuh-chow still turns a deaf and indifferent ear to the message of salvation. But we hope now that as one of our number takes sole charge, and gives his undivided energies to the training of the large number of students, the city work, at least as far as the C.M.S. is concerned, will be brought into greater prominence, and we hope, with the blessing of God upon our efforts, prosecuted with greater success.

Speaking of the combined districts of Ningpo, Shao-hing, and Hang-chow, Bishop Russell observes:—

Progress in Che-Kiang.

The number of substantially built churches in this province up to the present time, connected with the Church Missionary Society, in which Divine Service is celebrated in almost as due form as in our churches at home, is nine—four in the city of Ningpo, one in Z-Ky'i, one in Kwun-hœ-we, two in Shao-hing, and one in Hangchow. These churches seat on an average about 150 persons each. In addition to them the C.M.S. has twenty smaller places—rooms—scattered about the province, principally in the vicinity of Ningpo, Shao-hing, and Hang-chow, which will accommodate about fifty persons each, in which Divine Service is also regularly, though not so formally conducted. When I call to mind the fact that all these stations have been opened, most of them with considerable difficulty, these churches built and these rooms set apart for the worship of Almighty God since the commencement of the Society's work in this province, not quite thirty years ago, and with an instrumentality altogether inadequate for such a vast undertaking, I am compelled to exclaim, even as regards these external matters, "What hath God wrought?"

NINGPO.

BISHOP RUSSELL writes:—

The first thing of importance connected with our affairs in this province which I have to bring before your notice is the meeting of the Native Church Council in the month of February. The following minutes of this meeting were taken by Mr. Bates, and will give you some idea of our present ecclesiastical position.

Ningpo Native Church Council.

"Ningpo, February 21st, 1877 (8th day of the 1st moon of the 3rd year of the reign of the Emperor Kwông-fü). At ten o'clock a.m. Divine Service was held in Mr. Hoare's schoolroom. There were present the Bishop, the Revs. F. F. Gough and J. Bates, four Native ministers, four catechists and twelve lay representatives. Prayers were read by the Rev. F. F. Gough, and the Bishop delivered an address suitable to the occasion, selecting as his text Ephesians iv. 16. The address was followed by the administration of the Holy Communion. At two o'clock p.m. the Council reassembled. After prayer by Mr. Gough, the Bishop called upon the Secretary, the Rev. 'O Kwông-yiao, to read over the rules for the Council's guidance which had been approved and sanctioned at the previous meeting, which having been done, the Bishop recommended all the members to furnish themselves with copies of these rules for their information and direction. . . . . The Rev. F. F. Gough, as Treasurer of the Native Church Fund, then presented a statement of the contributions made to this fund during the past year, which amounted altogether to 184,620 cash—$175. The Bishop took occasion to compare these receipts with those of the previous year, showing that, while advances had taken place in some instances, there had been a falling off in others. . . . . After various subjects had been discussed, the question as to the parties who shall be paid from the Native Church Fund was next considered. According to the Council's rules, only those Native pastors and catechists who are in charge of stations having at least ten Communicants are eligible. Taking, then, this rule as a guide, the Bishop stated that only four persons could probably come under this fund, viz.:—The Rev. Sing Eng-teh, Kwun-hœ-we; the Rev. Dzing Ts-sing, Ningpo; the Rev. 'O Kwông-yiao, Z-Kyi; Mr. 'En Kwông-tsing, Tong-un. It was decided that these four should in future be paid from the Native Church Fund."

Bishop Russell next refers to the opening of a new church near his own house. He writes :—

Erection of a church at Ningpo.

Having had myself to superintend the building of this edifice, with a very slender acquaintance with church architecture, and with workmen under me who needed a considerable amount of watching as well as teaching, it has cost me the expenditure of more thought, time, and money than I care to admit. Kind friends, however, came to my aid both here and at home; and now, thank God, the work is finished to my great joy, with the exception of a small belfry, which I hope soon to put up, and all expenses paid for. On St. Andrew's Day (Nov. 30th) we had the great satisfaction of formally dedicating it to Almighty God, and at the same time of conducting in it an Intercessory service on behalf of Christian Missions. The following is a short account of the service, kindly written by Miss Laurence for insertion in one of the Shanghae papers :—

"The little church connected with the Church Missionary Society in Ningpo, towards the erection of which the Shanghai community have kindly contributed on different occasions, was opened on Friday, November 30th. Admission was by tickets, which were given to the foreign heads of the various missionary bodies represented in Ningpo, and was almost exclusively confined to full Church members, so that an interested adult audience was secured. The church measures fifty by thirty feet, and will comfortably seat two hundred persons. The pulpit, reading-desk, Communion-table, and chairs are all complete, and a small stone font stands in front of the Communion-rails. The whole cost is a little over $3000. The only want is an harmonium, which we hope to have supplied in time. The service, entirely in Chinese, consisted of a short special service lately compiled by the Bishop for such occasions, the usual morning prayer, with the introduction of special collects for the day of Intercession, and a sermon. The introductory service was read by the Bishop; morning prayer by the Rev. F. F. Gough; the lessons by two of the Native Clergy; and the sermon was preached by the Bishop. The various Missions were well represented by foreign as well as Native friends, who helped to make the singing hearty and harmonious. The Venite and Jubilate were fairly well sung; as were translations of the hymns, 'Jesus shall reign,' 'Hail to the Lord's Anointed,' and 'Jesus, engrave it on my heart.' The sermon, on 'To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I might preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,' was listened to with marked attention."

In the city of Ningpo itself the Native Christians (including Catechumens and children) number 165. Of these, no fewer than ninety are Communicants. Four adults were baptized during the year. The Native Christians are connected with two churches, known respectively as Grace Church and Bishop Russell's Church. The pastor of Grace Church is the Rev. Dzing-Ts-Sing, of whom Mr. Gough speaks with much affection and esteem, characterizing his sermons as "spiritual and profitable." He was one of those to whose training the Revs. G. and A. Moule have given so much care.

Preaching to the heathen is kept up in various Mission-rooms and preaching-chapels in different parts of the city, by the Rev. Dzing-Ts-Sing and two or three Native lay-helpers. Mr. Dzing writes as follows:—

Impressions of a Native Chinese clergyman of the present condition of the Ningpo Mission.

When we look around us, it seems now as if there were some little symptoms of awakening. Ordinarily in the afternoons, or during the hot season in the evenings, we throw open the church-doors for preaching to the heathen. Amongst those who then come in, and those whom I meet with, there are some who still scoff at and slander us; yet there are often many who confess that their former ideas were mistaken, and allow that their past opposition was entirely wrong, so that there are not a few who gladly inquire into and openly praise the doctrine. . . . . We see at present, in Ningpo city and the neighbourhood, all is peaceful, and there is no persecution; yet at the same time there is no advance in the Church. Is this peace because God is exerting His Providence, or is it because the preachers of the Gospel are not very earnest, and the devil is therefore quiet and does not raise any opposition? If this is the case, the present calm ought rather to be to us a cause of anxiety.

Mr. Gough's step-daughters conduct a boarding-school and three small day-schools, attended by both Christian and heathen children. Under their supervision a Chinese Bible-woman is also at work, earnestly, though sometimes cast down. Three candidates now under instruction for baptism were brought in by her instrumentality.

The Rev. J. C. Hoare, who has been appointed to the very important and deeply interesting work of training Native Christian agents for the Mission and the Native Church, writes as follows:—

At the commencement of the year we numbered ten students. Since that time our number has been raised to seventeen, exclusive of David Armstrong, whom you sent out last year [a Chinese youth converted in England]. Six of these are students of a suitable age for systematic theological training. They form the first class. The second class consists of boys of from seventeen to fifteen years of age, who have already laid the foundation of a good Scriptural knowledge. The third class are a group of small boys aged thirteen. All have been selected with care, special attention being paid to their knowledge of the Chinese classics and written language, without which a Native agent must necessarily be greatly hindered in his work. In the Scriptural training I employ the ordinary methods used in England [in addition to the Chinese plan of copious memoriter repetition], according to the ages and requirements of the students. The younger boys daily repeat large portions of Scripture, whilst the older students, who have already committed the whole of the New Testament and several books of the Old to memory, have been analyzing and otherwise studying the Epistles with me. In addition to this, we have a daily Bible-class of the whole college, in which we are reading through the Old Testament. When we pass beyond the Bible on to other subjects, our teaching has to be carried on almost entirely by means of lectures, there being scarcely any suitable text-books in the Chinese language. Greek has also been introduced; but whether the experiment will be successful is regarded by some as at least an open question. Ningpo Divinity School.

It is also our object to train the students in active work. One of them has been assisting in Mrs. Russell's school, close at hand. Others have been with me when I have gone out preaching, and I hope that we may be able to give all the older students practice in preaching and in teaching.

We do not forget the old maxim, "Mens sana in corporo sano." Cricket is entered into with the greatest zest. Partly owing, perhaps, to this healthy exercise we have been wonderfully free from fever and ague through a very wet season.

On the whole, though we have had our difficulties and trials, I cannot but look back on the year without the feeling of deep thankfulness. . . . . The Lord Himself has been with us, teaching us all in a way that man can never do.

Of the Girls' Boarding-school Miss Laurence reports as follows:—

Our numbers have risen to twenty-six; but they are mostly very young. I find it the best plan to admit them young, as they are generally more easily taught, and the parents are more willing to bind them to me for the required number of years. There have been no baptisms during this year, but I hope that two or three of the girls are seriously purposing to apply for the rite next year. The studies are still chiefly confined to Scriptural works; and a great deal of time is given to various kinds of needlework.

Out-stations.

The out-stations number in all about sixteen, and belong to the four districts of (1) Saen-poh; (2) Saen-nen; (3) the Eastern Lakes; and (4) the Western Hills. (Saen-poh and Saen-nen lie to the north-west and north of Ningpo.) In the early part of 1877 these were under the charge of the Rev. J. Bates; but subsequently the sub-districts nearest to Ningpo, viz. those of Tsông-gyao, Gao-sen, and Tsong-tseng, were placed under the care of Mr. Hoare.

The statistics for the year give 139 Communicants, 330 Adherents, and sixteen adult baptisms; the corresponding numbers for the previous year being 147, 313, and nine.

Mr. Bates writes:—

I sincerely trust that most if not all our Native Christians are continuing steadfast in their profession according to the degree of light which they possess. I have endeavoured, during the past year, to build them up in the faith by special meetings for prayer and study of the Scriptures.

Slow progress in parts of China.

I often make inquiries among our catechists and Native Christians as to what the cause can be of our apparent slow progress. But they invariably have but one set of answers ready—the obstructive customs of the country, prejudices against foreigners, and false rumours against Christianity. Whilst acknowledging that there is much truth in such views, one cannot help feeling tired and disheartened in listening to them. "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" . . . . Rather ought we first to look into our own hearts, examine our modes of working, and see if anything be amiss there, and then betake ourselves in humility and confidence to the Throne of Grace.

SHAO-HING.

The Missionaries at this station at the beginning of 1877 were the Rev. J. D. Valentine and the Rev. R. Palmer. These brethren each take charge of a separate district, the districts being designated by the churches at their respective head-quarters—Christ Church for Mr. Valentine, and St. Saviour's for Mr. Palmer.

To Mr. Valentine the year has been one of some trial and disappointment. No adult has been been baptized during the year; nor has there been any addition to the Communicants. The present number of Communicants in Mr. Valentine's district is 12, and of Adherents 27. After speaking of some things that have caused him sorrow, Mr. Valentine continues:—

At the same time I must allow that the Sunday services have been as fairly attended as in any previous year; that the contributions of Native Christians have been as liberal as one could expect; that the progress made by the two students under my care has been somewhat gratifying; and that the few children we have been able to gather together have learnt a little of Christian truth that may hereafter make them "wise unto salvation."

In my catechumens' class I have now three persons: one is the wife of one of our Church members, the other two are young men in our employ. I am afraid to be too sanguine about them, but pray earnestly that they may be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

The two young students above referred to in my preparandi class are, I believe, both of them really converted men. Besides studying, they have each had a fair amount of preaching to do. I have now a monthly meeting which they and the senior catechist attend, and which is refreshing to the soul.

My little printing-press has been kept at work during the year printing books in the Roman character for Ningpo and for this Mission.

The Native Christians connected with St. Saviour's, Mr. Palmer's district, are only seven in number, two of these being Communicants, and do not give much manifestation of zeal or spiritual life. Four adults, however, were baptized during the year.

Bishop Russell thus describes the dedication of Mr. Palmer's church (the Church of our Saviour):—

On Thursday, October 11th, I had also the pleasure of dedicating another church, built by Mr. Palmer, about the same time as my own, not far from his residence in the city of Shao-hing. It is a pretty edifice, with belfry and all the usual appendages of an English church complete. The cost exceeded mine by at least $1000. The whole was collected amongst his friends at home with the exception of a grant of 100*l.* from the S.P.C.K. We had an interesting service, commencing with a short dedicatory form read by myself, then morning prayer by Mr. Palmer, lessons by Mr. Gough and Mr. Valentine, and sermon by me on Matt. xviii. 20, "Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them." The congregation consisted of adult members of the three Protestant denominations represented in Shao-hing, who, after the conclusion of the service, were hospitably entertained by Mr. P. at an excellent feast, and then left highly gratified with the day's proceedings. On the following Sunday I had the pleasure of administering the rite of confirmation to twelve of Mr. Palmer's and Mr. Valentine's Church members.

Immediately after the dedication, Mr. Palmer was struck down by dysentery, and was compelled to leave first for Shanghae, then for Japan, and finally for England.

One or two of the Native Christians attached to Mr. Palmer's district, belong to the out-station of Si-bu, where preaching (to the heathen) has been regularly maintained once a week, and a large number of the people have gained some knowledge of the elementary truths of the Gospel. A Native helper has also visited many of the villages in the district, and reports a general readiness of the people to listen to the Gospel and to buy copies of the New Testament.—Itineration has been impeded partly by the weather and partly by the failure of Mr. Palmer's health.

Mr. Palmer has met with friendliness and courtesy from the Chinese of all classes during the year, including the Mandarin himself.

HANG-CHOW.

The Rev. A. E. Moule and Dr. Galt laboured at this station during the year under review, being joined in the latter part of it by the Rev. J. H. Sedgwick, transferred hither from Hong-kong.

Mr. Moule, in his Annual Letter, speaks first of various matters which are to be deplored, and which call for earnest prayer. Such are—the religious apathy among the heathen—some cases of inconsistency among Native Christians, and of falling away among inquirers—the parent Society's straitened condition financially, leading as this did to Mr. Elwin's detention in England—and lastly, the strong divergence of opinion and feeling among European Missionaries respecting the term-question. Mr. Moule has also passed through deep sorrow in the loss of a beloved mother, whose affection and prayers were to him a tower of strength and a source of much consolation.

Matters for thanksgiving, however, have been neither few nor small. Mr. Moule writes:—

Encouragements at Hang-chow.

Our Encouragements, are—(1) health granted to myself, enabling me to continue at my work throughout the year; (2) the absence of rumour and disquiet among the Chinese—a state of things in very marked contrast to the well-nigh frantic panics of the summer of 1876; and (3) there have been no deaths amongst our Christians. But (4thly) and chiefly, through God's guidance and merciful help, we have been enabled very considerably to extend our work. Whereas, twelve months ago, we had, in the city, only two places for evangelistic preaching (viz. the vestry of our Mission church opening on to the street, and the hospital chapel, open twice a week), we have now four, Dr. Galt having enlarged his hospital porter's lodge so as to seat about twenty persons, and I myself having opened a book-shop, with an inquirer's room, in the great street of the city. Then, again, twelve months ago, we had only one preaching-room outside the city; but now we have four, viz. (1) a little room, three miles from my house, beyond the Periwinkle Gate; (2) the house at Pondhead or Dan-de; (3) a small Mission-house in the district city of Fu-yang, thirty miles up the Tsien-tang River; (4) a room at Da-Kyien-Ay'i (Great Valley Stream) in the Chu-ki district, sixty-five miles due south of Hang-chow. A year ago we had a foot-hold in only two districts, namely, the Siau-shan and Wu-khang hiens; now we have work in four, namely, Siau-shan, Wu-khang, Chu-ki and Fu-yang, and "beckonings" from two others, Sin-ching and Lung-yiu. At Fu-yang we encountered much opposition at first, the landlord being threatened with violence, and the city being placarded with notices warning the people against dealings with foreigners. The magistrate, however, behaved honourably, and issued a suitable proclamation. I have recently secured better premises, and Dr. Galt hopes to visit the station occasionally, and to prescribe for out-patients. (5) God has granted us (utterly unworthy as we are) some tokens of His blessing in connexion with almost all our agencies. At Dan-de (see map), our first out-station, there are interesting inquirers. One man, named Wang, a native of Canton, who came into this neighbourhood sixteen years ago, in command of a small body of troops, and who since has engaged in trade, has heard, and we trust has received, the Gospel at Dan-de. His hope is to learn something of foreign medical practice from Dr. Galt, and then to settle down in the district city of Lung-yu (see map), about 150 miles up the river, where his mother is living, and there to preach the Gospel as a voluntary agent. Then, again, the little preaching-room, outside the Lo-s (Periwinkle) gate has been the indirect cause of a most hopeful and interesting movement. A man from Da-Kyien-Ay'i (Great Valley Stream), a village in the Chu-ki district, sixty-five miles south of Hang-chow, was attracted, on a visit to the city, by the words "Holy Religion of Jesus" written in Chinese characters over the door of the Mission-room. Having been directed for explanation to the catechist, he remained in Hang-Chow for a fortnight, studying the Bible and conversing with the Christian teachers. Declaring himself a believer in the Gospel, he returned to his home with the expressed intention of, for a time, concealing his newly-found faith. His observance of the Lord's day, however, brought the truth to light; and to his joyful surprise his kinsmen showed no ill-will, but themselves became inquirers. Nineteen in all have been baptized in this village. Fierce persecution, however, has begun, and I ask for prayer on behalf of this infant Church. Then, again, in the Book-shop, although there has not been much bookselling, yet, in the five months since its opening, two interesting inquirers have appeared as the fruit of the conversations held there. One of these is a "centurion" in the Tartar garrison, an officer who was distinguished, two years ago, for drunkenness and violence. He subsequently reformed his character, and had become remarkable for gentleness towards his men, for abstinence from wine, and for general respectability: but, more than this, he seems to hear, and to embrace with real interest and intelligence, the blessed news of salvation through the Lord Jesus. He has been several times to church. His wife is much interested in religion, and the officer himself is pointed at and sneered at in the garrison as a Christian.

The number of baptisms [26 adults and five children] is more than treble that of 1876; the Communicants have increased from twenty-nine to thirty-six; the number of Christian adherents is nearly double that of 1876 [amounting on 30th September, 1877, to 102], (and since September 30 more than twenty new inquirers and catechumens have come forward); and the Native contributions have increased.

The Hospital under Dr. Galt has received about 200 opium patients and forty-five general patients, besides administering relief to nearly 4000 out-patients. Mr. Moule and the Catechist come regularly to address the patients on religious subjects. Mr. Tai, the Chinese Christian artist, often converses with the patients on religious subjects; as also Dr. Galt's Chinese Christian pupil. Many of the patients seem to have been impressed; and five of their number confessed their faith in Christ by receiving baptism.

SHANGHAE.

At SHANGHAE the work is conducted by the Rev. T. McClatchie and three Native Christian assistants. The Adherents number altogether 64, of whom fourteen are Communicants.

Nothing of special interest has occurred during the year.

PEKING.

The Rev. W. H. Collins writes as follows:—

In the city our prospects seem very dark. In the early part of the year we admitted more than the usual number to the outward and visible Church, but I grieve to say the greater part of these have proved themselves unworthy. I do not think they were insincere in their profession, but they have been unable to resist subsequent temptation.

JAPAN

Our country station gives more satisfaction. There we have added six to our numbers, and have not had to complain of their falling away, as in the city. It may be that the temptations in the country are fewer, but there seems to be a greater earnestness among our members there. We are continually attempting to enlarge the area of our country work, and hope, next year, to be able to report greater success.

Mr. Collins's colleague, the Rev. W. Brereton, has been chiefly engaged in the study of the colloquial. About the close of the year he began to experience the great joy of being able to tell the story of redeeming love so as to be understood by his Chinese hearers.

General.

The progress in Japan is encouraging. The number of Native Christians connected with the Society now amounts to eighty-eight; and there have been eighteen adult baptisms during the year just concluded.

The evidences and claims of Christianity are frequently discussed in the Japanese newspapers; and letters written by Native advocates of the truth are freely inserted. The suppression of the Satsuma rebellion, and the publicly announced intention to withdraw State aid from Shintoism and Buddhism, are regarded by the Missionaries as auspicious events.

The portions of Holy Scripture now translated into the Japanese language are the earlier chapters of Genesis; the four Gospels; the Epistles to the Romans, Galatians, and Hebrews; and the Epistles of St. John.

Miss Laurence, of Ningpo, who has recently visited Japan to recruit her health, writes:—

Secular progress in Japan and character of the Japanese people.

The secular progress in Japan is very wonderful. In Yedo, or, as it is now called, Tokio, a first-class education in every conceivable branch of knowledge is within reach of every young man of moderate abilities. Foreign systems of education are being adopted throughout the country, even in remote villages; and the women share to a great extent the advantage of education. I met troops of girls coming out of the Native day schools, with their bundles of books.

The people at first sight are doubtless more attractive than our poor dear slow Chinese. Exceedingly cleanly in their persons, graceful in their dress, displaying great taste in their houses and gardens, genuine lovers of pleasure and beauty in every form, they much more easily adopt foreign habits, and assimilate themselves to foreigners. One thing which struck me very much was the absence of quarrelling and fighting; and I was told that there was very little of either in the schools. Politeness characterizes even the Japanese coolie. But there is a dark side to the picture. . . . . Fickleness and inordinate self-conceit are the roots of bitterness from which many a troubling plant may yet spring up.

TOKIO (YEDO).

The Rev. J. Piper writes as follows:—

Our Christians have been regular at the Sunday Services and come pretty well to our Thursday evening Bible class. We have enjoyed the Holy Communion monthly, and all our hearts, I trust, have been drawn together in the bonds of Christian fellowship. There are two features in our little flock which especially encourage us. (1) They begin to associate with and visit each other because of their common faith; and (2) the majority of our married Christians have partners who also have embraced the truth—thus they help each other.

There have been seven Baptisms—five adults and two children.

We have been much pleased and comforted to watch the progress of the above persons, whose ages range between twenty-eight and thirty-eight years, in their search after and interest in the Gospel.

As regards preaching to the Heathen, although our chapel has not been so well attended this year as last, we have had good audiences almost every time I preached. The thinner attendance is easily accounted for. The civil war in the south-west of Japan, which lasted seven or eight months, unfavourably affected certain classes of the people in their attitude towards the Gospel. Then the partial closing of a bridge for general traffic near our house, and the opening in its stead of another some distance off, has diverted from us the stream of passers-by.

Besides our regular services in the chapel, I have made several excursions into the outskirts of the city, distributing tracts and telling of Jesus.

Mr. Piper has had many conversations with inquirers, and has also been engaged in literary and translational work.

NAGASÂKI.

The Native Adherents at this station are twenty-nine in number, of whom thirteen are Communicants. Six adults were baptized during the year. The Rev. H. Maundrell, under date 22nd December, 1877, writes :—

Mission-work has had to be conducted under some disadvantages, during the year now drawing to a close, in Nagasâki, on account of its proximity to the disaffected provinces. The services and preaching at Deshima church, however, have continued uninterruptedly. The attendance has averaged from twenty to fifty on Sundays, and rather less on weekdays. But more than formerly of those who do come are inquirers.

I thank God, also, for the regular, and, I think, appreciative, attendance of the Native Christians at both the ordinary services and the Holy Communion. Five men have been baptized ; but owing to the unsettled state of the country, about the same number are no longer with us.

In reference to the need of special preparation for those intending to become schoolmasters, catechists, or ordained ministers, you will be glad to know that the building for which the Committee made me a grant has been finished, and that it was opened on St. Andrew's Day. Three young men are admitted as students. Another is equally desirous of becoming a teacher; but his (as yet heathen) wife and parents do not sympathize with him in this desire, so for the present he is a non-resident student. While I am writing this, they are sitting before me in the class-room of the College, writing their first examination paper—one on Genesis and Exodus. . . . . English serves them as a classic, and a good knowledge of it will admit them to the sciences, as well as being invaluable to them in the study of theology and Church history. They come to me with the advantage of having had a fair Japanese education.

OSAKA.

The Rev. C. F. Warren, under date 9th January, 1878, writes:—

It is cause for devout thanksgiving to the King of kings, who ruleth over all, that the civil war which has darkened the year just closed, with its attendant bloodshed, destruction, and misery, is at an end. Japan is at last a united empire.—It is remarkable how little our work in Osaka has been affected by the war, no difficulty has been placed in the way of gatherings for Christian work or worship in the Native city. Surely we may see here the finger of God.

Until August 23rd our Church Services were held in the little chapel erected three years ago, or, when that was not available, in a room. They are now carried on in the new church, which was opened on that day. During the year 1877 there were two Sunday services, and one on Thursday evening. Since the opening of the new church the averages have shown a decided and cheering increase.—The Holy Communion has been regularly administered. The Native Communicants, six in number, seem to be growing in knowledge and grace, and in power to bear witness for Christ.—The growth of the Sunday afternoon Bible-class, and the intelligent interest manifested in the subjects under consideration, are most hopeful signs. The last quarter of the year shows an average attendance of just twenty. Some of the classes have been of very great interest, both the matter and tone of the remarks made by our Native brethren being cheering and edifying. Each class is commenced with a hymn, after which I offer an extempore prayer. After the lesson one of the Native Christians always closes with extempore prayer.—The Catechumens' Class has been held with but few interruptions during the year. A number of those under instruction at the beginning of the year, and who subsequently joined the class, have gone back. Thank God, some very hopeful candidates remain, whom we hope to baptize shortly.—In July I commenced a Weekly Class for Women, both baptized and catechumens. The average attendance has been from eight to ten. Lessons on fundamental truths, chiefly founded on the Apostles' Creed, have formed the course of instruction. Mrs. Warren always joins us. My heart has been cheered again and again at the clear apprehension of truth, and the apparent love for it, manifested by these women.

Conversations in the chapel or church with inquiring visitors have been continued, though not without interruptions, owing to the pressure of other duties. For several months the number of visitors was almost overwhelming.

We have hitherto been unable to form a regular class of theological students, but have commenced working in that direction with such material as we have at hand. At present I meet two of our Christians twice a week to study the Old Testament; and Mr. Evington has a weekly class for the study of the Gospels.

I am thankful to be able to report that the bond of union between all Protestant Missionaries here not only continues unbroken, but is evidently growing in strength. It has never been my lot to dwell in the midst of a body of men of different views, who seemed to love one another so fervently in the bonds of Christian fellowship as do the missionaries in this district. The Day of Intercession was the occasion of a recent manifestation of it. At 9 a.m. Christians connected with the American Episcopal Mission, American Board Mission, and the C.M.S. Mission, knelt together (both Missionaries and converts) at the same Lord's Table.

Union among Protestant Missionaries.

In a more recent communication Mr. Warren adds :—

I write a hasty line to inform you that of those formerly reported as under instruction, four men and three women were, on Sunday, the 10th March, admitted by baptism into the congregation of Christ's flock. We believe that their faith is both intelligent and sincere.

The Rev. H. Evington has also been diligently employed, chiefly in work of a directly Evangelistic character, in the chapel, in private houses in the city, and in the country villages.

The Native Adherents at Osâka are twenty in number, and the Communicants six, as stated above.

NIIGÂTA.

At this infant Mission station the Adherents are only five in number, three of these being Communicants. The Missionary (Rev. P. K. Fyson) writes as follows :—

There has been much to be thankful for in the conduct of those already baptized. Of the two young men who became converts last year, one was transferred to a situation in his own native town, and therefore, though I frequently hear from him, I am not so well able to judge what amount of spiritual progress he has made. The other, who stayed in Niigata, has given decided evidence of growth in grace, and has been a great help to me in the work in various ways.

During the present year there have been two baptisms—one an old man nearly seventy years of age, and one a young man, first brought by the old man ; the wife of the old man also I hope to baptize shortly. The old man himself is one whom I felt specially confident in admitting into the visible church. He had scarcely missed a single service, Sunday or weekday, for more than ten months before he was baptized. Also, he gave more evidence than any of the others of consciousness of his own sinfulness.

The local officials of Niigâta seem to have an antipathy to Christianity. This is far from being always the case in Japan.

HAKODATI.

There are now nineteen Native Christian Adherents at Hakodati, of whom four are Communicants. The Rev. W. Dening will, it is hoped, have returned to the station before this Report is issued. The Rev. J. Williams, his colleague, wrote under date December 18th, 1877, as follows:—

It is now ten months since Mr. Dening returned to England. Having been in the country only three months, it was not to be expected I could fill the place of one who had resided three years in Japan ; but I am thankful to report progress.

Mrs. Williams and myself have struggled hard to master the language, and, though we cannot yet claim the victory, we do not acknowledge defeat. When Mr. Dening left Hakodati, I was not ready to conduct the various meetings which he had organized ; but most providentially, at this juncture, a Christian layman, who had himself recently found, or, to speak more correctly, been found by, the Saviour, volunteered to help us. We thankfully accepted the proffered aid; and for three months Mr. Hellyer—for that was his name—took a Bible-class regularly twice a week. Strange to say, the numbers attending the classes became greater than in Mr. Dening's time, as though to rebuke our unbelieving fears. When business called away our friend from Hakodati, I commenced to take the classes myself, and have continued to do so regularly ever since.—Our catechist O——, who is quite a young man, only twenty-one, has laboured most earnestly to keep the work going, holding two classes during the week, and preaching every Sunday.—I made my first attempt at preaching within ten months of my arrival here, and since that time have preached as often as I conveniently could.—The average attendance at our services has been, I think I may safely say, fully 100.

The services at the out-station of Ono were discontinued throughout the summer, owing to the simple fact that no one came to them, the farmers declaring themselves to be too busy in the fields all day to spare time for anything else. We have lately recommenced the services, and a fair number come together to hear the Word preached.

Three adults received baptism at our evening service on the 28th October. There were about 150 persons present, and I must say they were as attentive and well behaved as any congregation at home would have been under similar circumstances. All had been under instruction for some time, and all promise well. One of them (Daniel) is a soldier in the fort here. At first he seemed to be rather conceited; but, after a while, a great change came over him, he became very attentive in class, and his answers showed that he took a deep interest in the subject under discussion. He has often brought his comrades with him to class, and is not ashamed to ventilate his opinions before them. We pray that by God's grace he may become "a good soldier of Christ Jesus." Three adult baptisms at Hakodati.

NEW ZEALAND MISSION.

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

I. Northern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Auckland.

II. Eastern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Waiapu.

III. Western Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Wellington.

In New Zealand, as in the Society's other Missions, the great question of Native Church Organization has met with much attention, and received many practical illustrations.

Very much interest will be attracted by the following article from the Auckland Church Gazette, headed Native Church Boards, and drawn up, it is believed, by the newly consecrated Bishop of Waiapu, Dr. Stuart:—

Native Church Boards.

The Native Church Boards were constituted by a statute of the General Synod in 1868, and consist of the Bishop, or, in his absence, of his Commissary specially authorized, the licensed clergy, English and Native, ministering to Natives, and one or more Lay Representatives from every Native Parish or Parochial District. About the same time the Missionaries of the C.M.S. received instructions from the Committee in London for the formation of 'Native Church Councils,' differing but slightly in their constitution from the Church Boards, and with exactly the same objects, viz. the organization and self-government of the Native Church. As these Boards and Councils are almost identical in constitution and object, the provisions of the General Synod have been found sufficient.

The first Church Board of the Northern Archdeaconry met at Waimate on April 22, 1872, under the presidency of the Bishop. Since then annual meetings have been held at different places, and each one has been more interesting than its predecessor. Many of the Lay Representatives have to ride great distances to attend the Board, spending four or five days on the road. On the last occasion fifteen Lay members were elected, and all were at the Kaikohe meeting, though some had come from distances of sixty or a hundred miles.

The Boards have stimulated all to greater activity in Church work by giving each member of the congregation a voice in the administration of the Church funds. One has only to see the eagerness with which the proceedings of the Board are read, to be convinced of the utility of these annual meetings. The renewal of life in the Native Church in the Northern part of the diocese is mainly due, under God, to the increase in the staff of the Maori clergy, and to the establishment of the Church Board.

With regard to the late meeting of the Waimate Archdeaconry at Kaikohe, all who wish well to the Maori Church will be gratified to learn that with the exception of only one, every resolution originated with the natives, in witness of which fact were the many resolutions handed to the President written in pencil and on scraps of paper torn from soiled pocket-books. To those ignorant of the Maori manners and customs, some of those resolutions may appear almost frivolous . . . . but they emanate from the laudable desire of 'doing all things decently and in order.' . . . . On the first day of the Kaikohe meeting, sixteen notices of motion were given, and two select committees appointed. On the following day every point of each motion was fully discussed, and the concise reports of the committees would not have disgraced any civilized body.

The districts of Kaitaia, Waimate, Paihia, and Kaipara are all comprised in the Waimate Archdeaconry. The statistics (5265 Adherents, 880 Communicants) do not appreciably differ from those of last year. There are few, if any, professed heathen Maories left in these parts.

The Native Church of this Archdeaconry has suffered a very severe loss in the death of the Rev. Matiu Taupaki, Pastor of Paihia. The very high esteem that he had obtained may be judged of by the two following extracts. The first is from a letter written to an Auckland newspaper by its Paihia correspondent:—

A faithful and beloved Maori Christian Minister.

It is with much sorrow that I write to inform you of the death, after a short illness, of our Maori minister, the Rev. Matthew Taupaki, who was taken away on the 11th of July. The immediate cause was bronchitis, the attack having been brought on by labouring at an oar, and then sitting still in the boat after making sail. The boating expedition was to carry his colleague in the ministry, Hare Peka (Charles Baker), who was lying sick in Matthew's house, to Kawakawa, for medical advice. Matthew's constitution had been, I believe, impaired by over-work. He had many districts under his charge, which he visited travelling on horseback, or pulling his own boat. Of an eager temperament, he would never forego the smallest detail of duty, but was everywhere at his post at the appointed time, reckless of exposure, and this upon a salary of 50*l.* a year.

It would be hard to say whether he was the most beloved by his English or by his Native parishioners. With the former he was as a personal friend, for they recognized in him one of Nature's gentlemen—simple-hearted, truthful, and without a thought for self. Among the latter, his word was law; and this, although he was a Rawara, isolated among Ngapuhi.

The second testimony is from Archdeacon Clarke himself, who writes:—

On my arrival I heard Matthew Taupaki was very ill. I went up to him immediately on landing. . . . Death was unmistakably stamped on his face. . . . . His mind was beautifully bright and clear, and he spoke of dying without fear. I went up again after tea, intending to stay the night with him. At 9.45 his happy spirit left for its heavenly home. . . . . Alas for the Native Church! how are we to fill his place? God only knows. As for myself, I feel that I have lost my right hand; of all our Native clergy he was the one we could have least spared. As a proof of the estimation in which he was held by the Missionaries, I may mention that at our last conference, while discussing the suggestion of the Committee in the matter of a Maori Bishop, he was spoken of as the only one eligible for the office.

Further details are given in a journal of the Rev. B. Y. Ashwell, of Waikato, who happened to be on a visit in that part of the island. Mr. Ashwell writes:—

July 6th.—Hearing that my dear Native brother minister, Matiu Taupaki, was very ill, I went to see him. He was in great pain. I prayed with him, and he afterwards said to me, "God would not send pain if it were not necessary for us; He loves us too well—and you know 'God is love.'" "Yes," my reply was, "all His will is love." What a family likeness (if I may so express myself) in all God's children! The same language, "God is love," "He so loved us," &c. July 7th.—I again visited him. He was in great pain, but in much peace. He said to me, "Christ my rock and my salvation—no other name for lost sinners. Oh, speak of Him to my poor people!" July 9th.—I again visited him. I said to him, "Matiu, is Christ your only hope? His precious blood? His spotless righteousness?" He whispered, "Christ only! in whom we have redemption, through His blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace." July 12th.—Our dear Christian brother was buried at Paihia. About 100 Europeans and 100 Natives—200 in all—attended his funeral, a solemn and comforting service. July 29th.—I had native service.—Church quite full—all very attentive. . . . . .

NEW ZEALAND (NORTH ISLAND)

NEW ZEALAND (NORTH ISLAND)

Whilst talking to some of the Natives, many came up and said, "The Church in Ngapuhi is dead. Our father, Matiu Taupaki, our dear, dear minister is gone, is gone, is gone, and there is no one like him." This they said with tears, and then came an outburst of genuine sorrow. I said to them, "Be not faithless, but believing. Christ, the living Head, cannot die. The bond between you and that dear Native minister is a real bond—an union for eternity."

The Rev. Meinata Te Hara, late of Kaitaia, takes Matiu Taupaki's place at Paihia, and will, the Archdeacon believes, prove a not unworthy successor.

Of the eight Native clergy labouring in the Archdeaconry at the close of 1877, three only were in priests' orders; but it is with the greatest satisfaction that the Committee hear that the five deacons were all to receive priests' orders in the January following. As regards self-support, temperance, general consistency of conduct, and attendance at the means of grace, the Archdeacon is able to give a favourable report. This report is fully confirmed by Mr. Ashwell, of Waikato, who has recently visited these districts.

The Rev. J. Matthews's Annual Letter from KAITAIA shows that, by the grace of God, he is able still to "bring forth fruit in" comparative "old age." It is replete with interest in other respects also; but there is not space for its insertion in these pages. One passage, however, of it may be referred to, in which he speaks of the forty unpaid lay-helpers in the district, "many of whom give evident proof of being good and sincere Christians, and are men of good preaching abilities, such as makes it a treat to hear them. They conduct Divine Service, according to the Prayer Book, in an orderly and intelligent manner." This may be held out as an example to the Native Christians connected with the Society's other Missions; whom it is necessary now to make acquainted with the fact that the pecuniary expenses of their public worship and pastoral care cannot with justice be supplied from the funds of a Missionary Society.

The Native Christians of KAIPARA, numbering 300, are under the care of the Rev. F. T. Baker. Thirty of their number are Communicants. They are very much scattered, owing to their being employed in gum-digging. Religious services among them are frequently conducted by unpaid Native laymen.

WAIKATO.

The Rev. B. Y. Ashwell gives the interesting information that his faithful Native fellow-labourer, the Rev. Heta Tarawhiti, has paid two visits to the district where the so-called Maori king resides. He was well received; and the Maori king, though head of an organization for the spread of Hau-hauism, has invited other Natives, even Queenites, to reside in his neighbourhood, promising not to interfere with their worship. He would not, however, express his consent that an English Missionary should reside amongst them. The Kingite Natives are becoming more quiet and courteous in manner, though they still retain a strong feeling against the British Government.

Work among Hau-haus.

Early in the present year Mr. Ashwell spent about three weeks in the immediate neighbourhood of the Hau-haus. His lodging-place was an inn close to a bridge over the Waipa river, which the Hau-hau Natives were frequently in the habit of crossing. Many of his old acquaintance and of the sons of his old acquaintance, came to see him. They were not unfriendly; but their feelings towards Christianity, especially among the younger men, were very painful. Yet the affectionate reasonings and entreaties of the Missionary, in which Christ crucified was evidently set forth, will not have been without effect. They acknowledge the Divine Trinity, but seem to regard their own Maori king as a superhuman being. The king himself, however, is said to be opposed to this view of his own dignity.

TAUPO.

The Committee have appointed the Rev. J. Sidney Hill, late of the Yoruba Mission, to co-operate with the Rev. T. S. Grace. Meantime Mr. Grace has been far from idle. He has visited the Kingite Natives, and has striven earnestly to remove their prejudices, to conciliate them to the Mission, and to set the Gospel before them. An account of his interesting visit to Opitiki will be found farther on.

II. Eastern Division.

Eight stations have been occupied in this division in the following chronological order:—1. Tauranga, 1835; 2. Rotorua and Maketu, 1835; 3. Turanga (now including Wairoa), 1840; 4. Waiapu (East Cape), 1842; 5. Heretaunga (Te Aute and Napier), 1844.

European Mission Establishment:

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF WAIAPU (Dr. E. C. Stuart) (m), to North India, 1850; to New Zealand, 1876.

Ven. Archdeacon Alfred Nesbit Brown (m), 1829.
Rev. Seymour Mills Spencer (m), 1841.
Rev. Samuel Williams (m), (Honorary) 1846.
Ven. Archdeacon William Leonard Williams, B.A. (m), 1853.
Rev. George Maunsell, 1866.
Mr. J. Thornton (m), to the Telugu Mission, 1864; to New Zealand, 1877.

THE recent widely-lamented death of Bishop Selwyn, the first Bishop of New Zealand, has been almost simultaneous with that of the venerable Bishop Williams, of Waiapu. For more than half a century Bishop Williams stood in the forefront of the battle, first with heathenism and then with the many evils that beset the Maori Church. He was, in fact, the apostle of the eastern districts of the island. The Committee unfeignedly rejoice at the election to the vacant see of their valued Missionary and late Secretary at Calcutta, the Rev. E. C. Stuart, and pray that a double blessing may rest on his labours.

TAURANGA, ROTORUA, AND MAKETU.

In speaking of the general state of the Native Church in his Archdeaconry (which includes these districts), Archdeacon Brown refers to the "sad indifference to spiritual matters manifested by the great body of the Natives, especially in those districts which have been most affected by the war." Drunkenness, he thinks, is diminishing; but scepticism, he fears, is on the increase.

The Rev. G. Maunsell is diligently at work among the Maories in the neighbourhood of TAURANGA. All of these were at one time Christians by profession, and attentive, on the whole, to religious ordinances. The war alienated them from the Society's Missionaries, and led them to secede from the Christian Church. At present the attendants at Divine Service, connected with the Mission, number 300. The remainder are (1) the Hau-haus; (2) Te Kooti's party; and (3) those that are indifferent to religion. The Hau-haus, though their system is widely discordant with Holy Scripture, willingly receive Mr. Maunsell's visits, and, indeed, urge him to come to them more frequently. The followers of Te Kooti are still more friendly, and are nearer to the truth. They take much of their worship from the Bible, chanting psalms and numerous texts; and in their prayers there occur such phrases as—"Enlighten us by Thy Holy Spirit;" "Wash away our sins in the blood of Jesus." But, on the other hand, they practically reject the sacraments, and keep their Sabbath on Saturday instead of Sunday. Among the third, or "indifferent" party, there are some signs of improvement. A few are beginning to attend public worship; and a considerable number of Bibles and Prayer-books have been sold among them. In their intercourse also with the Missionary, intolerance and dislike have changed to tolerance and personal regard. But the work is still arduous, and Mr. Maunsell much needs the prayers of God's people.

Sad as the condition of ROTORUA and MAKETU is, compared with days long gone by, the Rev. S. M. Spencer speaks without hesitation, of order reasserting itself among the Maories, of Gospel teaching being more highly prized, and of the schools as being well conducted and doing good service. Mr. Spencer also testifies to the increasing acceptability among the Maori Christians of their own Native Pastors.

In October, 1877, Mr. Grace (of Taupo) went to Opitiki, to set up a tombstone over the grave of the martyred Volkner. Large numbers of Maories, many of whom took part in the murder, and who still keep aloof from Christian ordinances, assembled on the occasion. "I stood," writes Mr. Grace, "on the very spot where, on March 6, 1865, I stood for many weary hours, being tried for my life, while many of those on whom I now gazed were there thirsting for my blood. They now sat before me quiet and subdued, thoughtful and grave, and I would hope, in many cases, penitent." He pleaded earnestly with them, telling them he desired not so much to call their sin to remembrance as to bring them to Christ.

WAIAPU, TURANGA, AND HERETAUNGA.

These districts belong to the Archdeaconry of the Ven. Leonard Williams, who reports, with thankfulness, a favourable and important reaction throughout the whole district. In temperance and in other respects there has been decided social amelioration. The demand for religious books, especially the Prayer Book, has been very great. Several churches have been built or repaired during the year, and nearly 170*l.* contributed for the endowment of Native clergy. Very few (if any) professed Hau-haus are to be found in the Archdeaconry.—The two boarding-schools for boys at TE AUTE and girls at Napier are prospering. The nine day-schools set on foot by the Government are slightly improved; but the religious instruction of the Maori children is still inadequately provided for.

III. Western Division.

First occupied by Bishop Hadfield in 1839. It now comprises three stations: 1. Wanganui, 1840; 2. Otaki, 1842; 3. Wairarapa, re-occupied, 1877.

European Mission Establishment:

Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Wellington (m), 1838.
Rev. James McWilliam, joined in the Mission, 1874.

WANGANUI.

This district has for several years had but little of Evangelistic or pastoral effort bestowed upon it. This arose from the enfeebled health of the Missionary formerly in charge of it, the Rev. B. K. Taylor (who, however, was much loved by the Christian Natives), his removal by death in November, 1876, and the inability of the Society to supply any European successor. At the Auckland Missionary Conference a resolution was passed in favour of sending to the district a faithful and able Native brother, the Rev. W. Pomare. This does not seem to have been done. The Bishop of Wellington writes:—

Acceptability of Maori clergymen among their own countrymen.

In October last I had great satisfaction in admitting Arona Te Haua to Deacon's Orders at Otaki. He had been a student under the Rev. J. McWilliam. He proceeded immediately after his ordination to the Wanganui district, taking up his residence at Putiki. Since his arrival there, he has spent the greater part of his time in visiting various parts of that populous district. At first, many attempts were made to persuade me that a Maori clergyman would not be well received in the district. I now learn that he has been everywhere well received, and that his energy and earnest manner of conveying instruction are commending him to all.

I hope to visit Wanganui in a fortnight, and to be able to induce the Natives there to do something towards making a permanent provision for one or more clergymen, but with what success I cannot say. I shall also hope, after consultation with Arona Te Haua, to initiate some plan of obtaining the co-operation of the more thoughtful Christian Natives to endeavour to revive religion among the people to the north of Wanganui. It is sad to think of the large population there at present totally neglected.

OTAKI.

The Rev. J. McWilliam is the Missionary of this station. It has pleased the Lord of the Harvest to accompany Mr. McWilliam's steady labours with tokens of blessing. Three Churches have been built during the year, almost solely by the Natives; and a marked improvement has taken place in almost every respect.

WAIRARAPA, one of the old C.M.S. districts, after many years' relinquishment, is occupied once again; now, however, not by a European Missionary, but by a Native Pastor and Evangelist. The Bishop writes:—

Acceptability of Maori clergymen among their own countrymen.

The Rev. Pineaha Te Mahanariki is working well at Wairarapa. His labours seems to be highly appreciated, both by English and Natives. He worked for some time under many difficulties, having no house of his own, and there being no place of worship at any of the places at which the population could easily assemble. A house has now been set apart for his own use by a chief for an indefinite period, and a church is being erected near his residence at Tiroreore. I spent Christmas day with him and his people there, and administered the Holy Communion to twenty-seven persons.

MANITOBA.

The Rev. R. Young, who now co-operates with Archdeacon Cowley as joint-corresponding Secretary of the Mission, still undertakes the pastoral duties of St. Andrew's. His Annual Letter gives an interesting, and on the whole a cheering, account of the congregation under his care. Though of mixed descent, it has long been exclusively Christian; and hence the application of the Society's money to its benefit may seem to be one of doubtful appropriateness. Mr. Young has accordingly called upon the congregation to furnish his own salary; and now that the grasshopper plague has passed away, it seems not improbable that this may be effected. During the summer a considerable number of Indian children attended Mr. Young's Sunday Schools; the wigwams and tents of the Indians, which during summer and harvest are scattered along the banks of the river, being specially visited for that purpose.

At the Indian Settlement the statistical returns show a decrease in the number of Native Christians, from 745 to 718. From what cause this arises does not appear. The mortality has been considerable, forty-four deaths; but, on the other hand, there have been six adult and thirty-nine infant baptisms. Their pastor, the Rev. G. Cook (a clergyman of mixed descent), writes:—

> Not a few of our Christians have during the past year given satisfactory evidence of piety and spiritual growth. Many of them are within easy access of the rising village of Selkirk, with its ale-houses and pernicious influences. As yet, however, I have had no occasion to grieve over the fall of any of the more decided inquirers after the truth.—Death has been busy amongst us. Three of our Communicants, after a long and somewhat painful illness, passed from the Church militant to the Church triumphant, leaving behind them sufficient testimony of their faith in Christ Jesus.—On the 21st of October last we had the pleasure of presenting to our good Bishop fifty candidates, young and middle-aged, for confirmation.

FORT ALEXANDER.

Of LANSDOWNE Archdeacon Cowley writes:—

Lansdowne is still in charge of Mr. W. Dennet, a catechist; but the Rev. Patrick Bruce is to succeed him next spring. It is a pity Mr. Dennet's education is not equal to his piety; he has done, I think, nobly at his station, reading God's Word and praying with the people. If evidence of the success God has granted him were asked for, I think I might point to the action of the Roman Catholics placing two priests and a schoolmaster there to hold their own.

When the Parent Committee were considering, in the autumn of 1877, what reductions could be made in the Society's expenditure, inquiries were directed as to the possibility of retiring from FORT FRANCIS on Rainy River. In reference to this subject Mr. Phair writes:—

Secular and religious advance at Fort Francis.

The Indians of the Rainy River are well known as the most difficult portion of the Ojibbeway (Soto) tribe. Living along the line between British and American territory, their prejudices have been strengthened from long contact with the vices of white men; while their aversion to his religion is much greater than when Mr. Mason and others attempted to impress them many years ago. When I took charge of this district the Indians were in a transition state. Having ceded their lands to the Government, they had their minds filled with the loftiest expectations never to be realized. The reaction came, and, Indian-like, they said, not so much in their haste as in their folly, "All men are liars." Consequently tobacco was despatched by special messengers from band to band, requesting unanimous resistance of the new religion so much hated among them; and, worse than all, they easily found white men willing and ready to help them in their attempts to frustrate the Gospel. . . . . I shall hardly ever forget the impression made upon me when several hundreds of naked savages, with guns and knives, came running down to the river to meet me. I had the greatest difficulty to obtain a hearing among them. Now the complaint often is: "The Catechist did not come to have prayer with us last week." At first the women and children were clothed in rabbit-skins, and had their faces painted as many colours as the rainbow. Now they are nearly all clean and tidy. On my first arrival there were but few houses in all the district. Now nearly all the families have their little houses, and some of them are as neatly kept as those of the white men. When I first came many of the Indians spent their time in begging and stealing, and but few of them cared to cultivate the soil. Now the Indian may be seen ploughing his land and sowing wheat like any white man. I believe in a short time many of them will be in a position of comparative independence. On my last visit, not many days ago, I was delighted to find several tolerably well prepared for the winter in respect of food. One great difficulty in the beginning was want of buildings either for the catechists or myself. Now we have all comfortable houses; and, in addition to the two school-houses on the river, we have an Indian school-chapel in which to teach parents and children during their stay at this place in the summer months.

Not a few of these people are fast being weaned away from heathenism. I might have had several baptisms already, had I been anxious to do so, but I wish them to be well prepared.

SWAN RIVER DISTRICT.

The Rev. G. Bruce (a country-born brother), stationed at FAIRFORD, writes as follows:—

Christianity too holy a religion to be adopted.

The Indian congregation continues to be well attended, and whenever I visit them they appear to listen to God's word with due reverence. Heathenism is quickly passing away. Its stronghold is at "Dog Creek Reserve," about eighty miles from Fairford, where the chief and all his leading men are heathens. In a visit I lately paid to them the old chief said,—"I admit the praying religion is good, and I like to hear about it, and I thank you for coming so far and telling me about it; but I cannot think of making up my mind to adopt your religion for mine. I am too old also to be able to follow up such a holy religion. My young people can do as they feel disposed, and, if they join the French or English creed, it will be immaterial to me."

The schools have been here regularly attended, and, on the whole, the scholars are going on well.

There are two other places closely connected with this—"St. Martin's Lake" and "The Kisiskatchewan Reserves,"—the former sixteen miles off, the latter thirty miles. The chief at "St. Martin's Lake," is still a heathen; but at times he is "almost persuaded to become a Christian."

The baptisms for the year ending Easter, 1876, to Easter, 1877, number 40 infants, 36 adults; total, 76. Communicants, 67; burials, 9; marriages, 8.

The Rev. J. Reader is the Missionary at TOUCHWOOD HILLS.

From this station, as a centre, he has visited Fort Pelly, Qu'Appelle, and Little Forks. The newly appointed Governor, Mr. Laird, who is the first holder of the post since the transfer of the country from the Hudson's Bay Company to the Canadian Dominion, has shown a most kind and favourable disposition towards the Mission, and towards the Indians generally. The Indians, on their part, are almost everywhere expressing a wish to settle down and cultivate the ground. They also now show signs of accepting the Gospel, at least outwardly. Their movement in this direction, however, is slow; and the Missionary is very careful not to admit to baptism any that do not appear to possess the requisite qualifications.—Mr. Reader begins to feel more at home in the use of Cree, and trusts he sees indications that God is about more evidently to bless his labours. —The number of Native Christian Adherents may be estimated at about 150. It is difficult to ascertain more accurately, from their being so scattered; and it is, perhaps, for the same reason that there are only ten registered Communicants.

CUMBERLAND DISTRICT.

During 1877, as during 1876, DEVON was under the care of the Rev. H. Cochrane, the son-in-law of the deceased well-known Indian brother, the Rev. Henry Budd. Mr. Cochrane's charge includes the out-stations of Moose Lake and Grand Rapids. Mr. Cochrane's letters show, writes Archdeacon Cowley, that "he continues to itinerate extensively among the Indians of his district," and "that the Lord is working with him, inducing many Indians to receive the truth."

CUMBERLAND HOUSE has now a resident clergyman of its own, the Rev. B. M'Kenzie (in deacon's orders), who, like Mr. Cochrane, is a Native of the country and of Indian descent. Mr. M'Kenzie first reached Cumberland House on the 1st of July, 1876. The Indians connected with the station comprise some fifty or sixty families, with about fifty children of school age. There are seventy Communicants. The families are much scattered, which necessitates much travelling on the part of their pastor. Between 1st July, 1876, and 1st July, 1877, there were fourteen (infant) baptisms, seven burials, and ten marriages. This does not seem to indicate diminution of population. Mr. M'Kenzie describes his flock as being very regular in coming to Divine service on Sundays. They are very attentive during service, and thoroughly enjoy the singing. "In point of morals," he adds, "they compare favourably with any people that I have ever been amongst." The visits of the pastor are always welcomed by them; and in other ways, as for example, by presents of food, and by voluntary labour in his garden, they have shown him much kindness.—A modest Mission-house (24 ft. by 20) was erected in the summer and autumn of 1876, in the erection of which Mr. M'Kenzie had not only to use his own personal labour, but also to instruct the Indians how to work. The erection of a School-house, 30 ft. by 20, also to be used as a church, was to be the work of the summer of 1877.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. J. Hines (m), 1874.
Mr. T. A. Clarke, 1877.

THIS division of the Mission is co-extensive with the Diocese of Saskatchewan. In a circular, lately issued, appealing for pecuniary help, the zealous and Missionary-hearted Bishop, Dr. McLean, writes as follows:—

Missionary openings in Saskatchewan.

The Diocese of Saskatchewan has an area of nearly 700,000 square miles. It presents a most interesting field for effort among the Indians. The tribes within its bounds are the Plain Crees, the Blackfeet, and, for some time past, the Sioux refugees of the United States. The great majority of all these are still heathen. The treaties formed by the Dominion with the Crees and Blackfeet, and the admirable order established in the country by the mounted police, open the way for bringing the Gospel to bear upon them under far more favourable conditions than any formerly presented.

The Rev. J. A. Mackay (country-born), Secretary of the Mission, writes under date 15th September, 1877:—

I am thankful to inform you of the safe arrival of myself and party, including Mr. Thomas Clarke, at this place (BATTLEFORD) on the 8th inst.—I have had encouraging meetings with the Indians. The chief and several of his band are willing to place themselves and their children under Christian instruction. They are also very anxious to be instructed in agriculture. Two days after my arrival, I accompanied the chief, at his desire, to choose a reserve for his band. I was not successful; but I have no doubt a good location will be found in this neighbourhood.—I have commenced building a small log house, but it will be hard work for us to get housed before winter. At present we are living in tents.—Government buildings are being put up at this place, which is the seat of Government for the North-West territories.

The work at STANLEY has been for many months without any resident clergyman. The Catechist at present in charge, Mr. John Sinclair (a pure Indian), is a man of sincere piety and average intelligence, and is also a fluent and effective preacher in his own language; his education, however, has been very limited. The Bishop of Saskatchewan, who is now in this country, has arranged with the Committee to ordain one of the students of the Islington College, and to place him at Stanley, with the view of his giving Mr. Sinclair some theological instruction and at the same time learning from him the Native language.

At ASISIPI the Native Christian Adherents now number 132. Twenty-two adults were baptized during the year; seventeen children are at the Mission School. Mr. Hines writes:—

The numbers appear small; but you must bear in mind the infant state of the Mission, the scattered population of the N. W., and also that the Missionary, who is also the founder, has had to contend not only with heathenism, but also with the powers of the Church of Rome. Perhaps you will ask, "How have you conquered their superstitions and won their affections?" My answer is, By trying to keep constantly before them the simplicity and adaptability of the Christian religion, as drawn straight from the Word of God, and by avoiding all comparisons and animadversions on other sects. This I know has always been the practice of dear Bishop Bompas, and I have proved its success here.

The hopes of an educational grant at Asisipi from the Government have been disappointed, the number of children not meeting the Government requirements.

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF ATHABASCA, D.D. (m), 1865.
Rev. William D. Reeve (m), 1869.

BISHOP BOMPAS gives the following rough estimate of the general statistics of his extensive diocese, the sparse and scanty population of which is almost exclusively Indian:—Total estimated population, 10,000; connected with the C.M.S., 3000; connected with the Romish Mission, 5000; unconnected with either Mission, 2000.

These statistics do not include, apparently, the whole of the Tukuth Mission, part of which is beyond Bishop Bompas's diocese, being in the territory of Alaska, which a few years ago was transferred from the Russian Empire to the United States.

In his Annual Letter, dated 20th August, 1877, the Bishop writes:—

Our mission party now numbers eight—four ordained, and four unordained, three of each being married. You may be sure that we should welcome an addition to our number, though the scarcity of supplies necessitates caution in increasing our staff.

A Missionary here ought to be a school teacher, or a farmer, or a doctor, or else endeavour to combine all three, as well as being a preacher of the Gospel. In the northern parts of the diocese, a little gardening is indeed all the cultivation that can be attempted, but in all parts schooling for both old and young (for both are alike ignorant), and medicines for the sick, are much required.

I have been enabled within about the last thirteen months to traverse the extreme breadth of the diocese from north-west to south-east—a distance of about 2000 miles—passing over, in going and returning, about double that distance, and visiting all the Mission stations and other posts on my route.

FORT CHIPEWYAN is Bishop Bompas's home, so far as he has one. During his travels the care of the station devolves upon Mr. Bunn, a country-born schoolmaster, who has proved himself an efficient labourer.

The Mackenzie, in its north-westerly course from Fort Chipewyan, passes through Great Slave Lake, on the northern border of which is FORT RAE, now occupied by Mr. William Norn, country-born. The Rev. W. D. Reeve, who had been residing there, quitted it for Fort Simpson in the latter part of 1876, by Bishop Bompas's wish, leaving

Mrs. Reeve, however, at the post. Mr. Reeve writes, under date 2nd July, 1877:—

I have been absent from Fort Rae more than nine months since last July, and have therefore seen very little of the Indians, who are still nearly all nominally Romanists; but my dear wife, besides holding school with the Protestant children at the fort, and a service on Sundays, has seen many of them during my absence, and by her kind attention to their ailments, and readiness to help them at all times, has gained so much of their affection that they parted with her with great regret, and some of them even wept when she came away. The Indians attribute our efforts to do them good to our belief in the teaching of "God's Book." With this thought in their minds I cannot but hope that in time, by God's good Providence, it will lead them to embrace and follow that doctrine the fruits of which they see and admire.

Mr. Norn has also the Hay River Indians under his charge, and is entrusted with the duty of visiting all the Indians round Great Slave Lake.

Of Fort Simpson the Bishop writes:—

Signs of improvement at Fort Simpson.

Fort Simpson, the first establishment of our Mission stations, presents a more cheering aspect than before, in respect to the Indians trading there. Last spring I was pleased to see the church there for the first time quite full of Indians attentively listening to God's Word. I trust that their natural listlessness is giving way to the claims of the Gospel, and that with a little more perseverance we shall see their hearts won for Christ. The Rev. W. Reeve has now returned to this post.

Of Fort Norman, which is still farther down the river, not far from Great Bear Lake, Mr. Reeve writes:—

Secular and spiritual progress at Fort Norman.

I have but recently returned from a short visit to my old friends at Fort Norman, which has given me great pleasure. When I was there three years ago, there were no buildings belonging to the Mission; now there are two small houses and a nice little church. A piece of ground has also been broken up which produces cabbages, turnips, and some other vegetables. Prayers were well attended every evening. There were seldom less than forty present, and frequently upwards of fifty, including children. The hymns and prayers were joined in very heartily, and great attention was paid to the address. Hardisty (the Native Catechist) has spent part of the last two winters with the Indians in their camps, and most of them now know portions of the prayers and hymns. Nideshi, who has always been the most eager to learn, knows by heart several hymns and prayers, and can repeat the decalogue in brief, each day's work of creation, and several short lessons.

FORT VERMILLION is thus referred to by the Bishop:—

I have had pleasure in visiting Mr. Garrioch's station at Fort Vermillion. His house is nearly finished, and he has a good garden, and the Indians appear to be attaching themselves to him.

Tukuth Mission.

Archdeacon McDonald still has charge of this Mission. At the date of the last Annual Letter received from him, which was written on the 27th of January, 1877, and which reached London in the October following, the Native Christian Adherents were reckoned at 1450, and the Communicants at 112; the corresponding numbers for the year immediately preceding having been 1450 (the same) and 101. In 1876 there were but four adult baptisms, while in 1875 the number had reached 160. During 1876 Bishop Bompas visited the Mission, and confirmed 133 candidates. The absence of adult baptisms is accounted for by the Archdeacon's having been unavoidably prevented from taking his usual missionary journeys.

The winter of 1875-6, until the 31st of March, Archdeacon McDonald spent at his head-quarters, FORT MACPHERSON, on Peel River, doing what he could among the few Indians that remained there, and probably engaged also in literary work.

In February, 1876, Mr. Kenneth McDonald, the Archdeacon's brother, visited an encampment formed of united parties of Indians from Peel River and from La Pierre's House (Rat River), who had taken up their quarters at a spot seventy miles south-west of Fort MacPherson. Here Mr. K. McDonald found the two (unpaid) leaders, John Tchietta and Willian Sekut, very diligent in conducting daily morning and evening prayers, and giving instruction according to their ability. Tchietta had a day-school with forty pupils, and though not a man of much teaching power, was doing good service.

Unpaid leaders.

On the 31st of March, 1876, the Archdeacon himself set out on a missionary tour, intending to reach the Youcon in Alaska (a territory far to the north-west, belonging to the United States), where there are many Indians to whom he had preached in former years, and some of whom he had been instrumental in bringing to confession of faith in Christ. But the scarcity of food that prevailed throughout the district at the time prevented his going farther than Rampart House, after having spent a week, on the way, at La Pierre's House. The Archdeacon, therefore, returned to La Pierre's House, where, after a few days, all the Indians of that district were assembled. The time was "pleasantly passed" in giving them daily instruction; and by the end of May, the greater number of them were reading the New Testament in Tukuth.

On the 2nd of June Archdeacon McDonald returned to Fort MacPherson to meet the Bishop. After a stay of four days, during which he confirmed twenty-three candidates, Bishop Bompas started for the west, and visited successively La Pierre's and Rampart House, confirming several candidates. The visit was, however, cut short by the failure of food.

In December, the Archdeacon again attempted his long-projected Missionary journey; but, after reaching Rampart House, was a third time driven back by the same cause as before—scarcity of provisions.

If the year thus reported of, 1876, was in some respects disappointing, there is every reason to believe that the Indian Christians were growing in knowledge, and, some of them at least, in grace also. Nor is there any reason to doubt that the Gospel was still sounding out from them to their heathen fellow-tribesmen.

Eastern Division.

James's Bay District, 1851; York District, 1854.

European Mission Establishment:

Right Rev. the Bishop of Moosonee, D.D. (m), 1851.
Ven. Archdeacon W. W. Kirkby (m), 1852.
Rev. John Henry Keen, 1875.
Rev. Edmund J. Peck, 1876.

Bishop Horden begins his Annual Letter for 1876, dated September 4th, with the following encouraging words:—

We have been enabled to lengthen our cords, and I trust that,

God being our helper, we have likewise strengthened our stakes. The cords now embrace nearly the whole of the diocese, and scarcely an individual therein can now complain, "No man careth for my soul." People speaking the various languages of the land hear and read therein of the wonderful works of God, and of reconciliation through the atoning blood of Christ. Cree, Soto, Eskimo and Chipewyan have all some of the precious food, the right use of which will make them strong in the Lord and ready to do battle in His cause. Extension at Moosonee.

Bishop Horden speaks of "the good work" at Moose as "proceeding quietly," the congregations being almost invariably very good, and the school very well attended. He finds the Rev. J. H. Keen to be a very efficient coadjutor.

The Rev. T. Vincent, a country-born labourer, carries on the work, under Bishop Horden's guidance, at Albany, which is on the western shore of Hudson's Bay, about 100 miles north-west of Moose Factory, and where the Cree language is spoken. He has also out-stations among the Sotos of Osnaburgh and Martin's Falls. The Indians who form the congregation at Albany are engaged during the winter in fur-hunting for the Hudson's Bay Company, travelling sometimes to long distances for this purpose, their families for the most part accompanying them. Several parties, however, come in at Christmas and Easter to partake with the Missionary of the pledges of their Saviour's love. During the summer months they remain at the station, still in the employment of the Company; and attend divine service with great regularity. Bishop Horden visited Albany in June, 1877, and confirmed thirty-nine candidates. Mr. Vincent believes there have been many true conversions among his people. At his visit to Osnaburgh Mr. Vincent received a very warm and hearty reception from the Christian Indians, and noticed a marked change for the better since his previous visit. Among the heathen Indians of that neighbourhood, polygamy and conjuring are mentioned by Mr. Vincent, as the two great visible obstacles he has to encounter.

Fourteen adults were baptized by Mr. Vincent during the year; and there are 48 Communicants under his pastoral care.

The out-station of Matawakumme, among Soto Indians, is occupied by the Rev. John Sanders, a country-born brother.

Bishop Horden thus reports of his work:—

I have just returned from a visit to Matawakumme, and all I saw there gave me much satisfaction. Mr. Sanders had prepared me a goodly number of candidates for confirmation, and had many ready for the reception of the Supper of the Lord. He has built himself a house and made himself a garden, quite establishing a home. He has attended, too, to the education of the young, and there are now scarcely any connected with the post, whether Indian or half-caste, unable to read the Word of God either in English or Indian.

Besides Mr. Sanders's work at his principal station, he has made several journeys in his district, going thrice to Flying Post and once to Misenabe and Brunswick. Each of these journeys received God's blessing, and through them many have been brought into the fold of Christ.

The European masters of Matawakumme, Metachewun, Flying Post, and Brunswick are all Communicants. This is a source of the deepest gratitude.

In reference to the work among the Eskimos, at LITTLE WHALE RIVER, now conducted by the Rev. E. J. Peck, Bishop Horden writes:—

Hopeful prospects of the Eskimo Mission.

The great event of this year has been the establishment of a mission among the Eskimos. The load of anxiety removed from my mind by the occupation of Little Whale River was a heavy one. I knew the needs of the poor Eskimos; I knew their longing for the Word of Life; and I knew too how very inadequately I could fulfil towards them the duties of a spiritual father. Correspondingly great was my joy when I saw the long-expected messenger arrive. I thank the Committee for "a" man; I thank them doubly for "the" man. Patient, humble, prudent, loving, he wins the hearts of all with whom he comes in contact, while his diligence is patent to all by the progress he has made in the study of the difficult languages with which he has to deal. He is now with me, and will study divinity until February, when I hope to ordain him.

YORK, with its out-stations of Severn and Trout Lake to the south, and Churchill to the north, is still under the charge of Archdeacon Kirkby.

The statistical returns of YORK itself give the following figures:—Communicants (Native Indians), 45; Infant baptisms, 26; Deaths, five. Surely the Indian population here is not dwindling away.

Adult baptisms have ceased, from the happy cause that all the Indians of the neighbourhood have already entered the visible Church.

Of the Native Christians, Archdeacon Kirkby writes :—

Liberality of Indian Christians.

There is a marked earnestness among my people, for which I thank God. A spirit of great liberality has been given to them by Him, so that out of their own great need—yea, deep poverty—they have helped me much in Church-work. One poor man brought me, at the beginning of the year, a silver fox as his gift, saying that he valued the house of God himself, and so wished the people of Severn to have one likewise. This was literally giving to God of the best, as that is the most valuable fur in the country. That one skin realized 2*l.* 10*s.* in the trading-room here, and probably in value was a fourth of his winter hunt.

Trout Lake and Severn are thus referred to :—

At Trout Lake the Indians received me with every demonstration of delight. A salute of over fifty guns was fired to welcome me ; and, during my stay there, twice a day did the Christian Indians of the place assemble together to worship God. And no greater argument in favour of syllabics is needed than to state that of the 350 souls (about) there, I did not see five adults unable to read that blessed Word for themselves. How different from the statements of Bishop Burdon regarding the poor converts in China! Some who, on my previous visits, clung rather to their heathenism, this time very gladly placed themselves under Christian instruction, and were diligent in learning all they could. The fact is, the poor Indian feels that he has a sore need. He sees that the Christians possess something which he has not, and so is restless until he also knows something of the Saviour's love. Only a few outsiders now remain at Trout Lake. The church at Trout Lake had been at a stand-still for a little, but a good deal of wood for it was cut and brought to the place by the Indians whilst I was there ; and Mr. Todd, the gentleman in charge of the fort, will help it on all he can.

From Trout Lake I went down to Severn, and was quite as warmly, but more quietly, received. The poor people there had suffered much from want of food during the preceding winter ; and not a few of their friends had, I fear, been starved to death. The church, though not quite finished, was sufficiently completed to use for Divine Service.

From Churchill also there are "good accounts." "The Indians keep well together, are diligent with their books, and thankfully use the little church when they come to the Fort."

NORTH-PACIFIC MISSION.

European Mission Establishment:

Mr. William Duncan, 1856, } Secretaries.
Rev. W. H. Collison (m), 1873, }
Rev. Robert Tomlinson, B.A. (m), 1867.
Rev. Arthur James Hall, 1877.

THIS Mission has recently had the advantage of a visit from Dr. Bompas, the hardy, self-denying, and devoted Bishop of Athabasca, who had what he describes as a "race with winter" in crossing the Rocky Mountains. The Bishop found Mr. Duncan carrying on his work with unabated energy, zeal, and Christian hopefulness. Mr. Duncan himself writes as follows:—

Our numbers in METLAKAHTLA have kept on steadily increasing as usual, and now we number about 1000 souls.

In January this year we had 67 adults baptized, and in December and January 64 children. The Bishop also confirmed 124 in January. Many refused to be confirmed till they had proved their sorrow for some recent faults. The Bishop did not think it wise to administer the sacrament to any Indians at present.

We have already 15 houses of the New Town up; but on account of depression in the fur trade and failure in fishing, the Indians are too poor to make much progress in building at present.

I have put before the Government a scheme for promoting fresh industries among the Indians which if carried out would greatly augment their resources.

We are steadily progressing in translation, and shall soon adopt the new Litany in our services. The progress the Indians are making in English seems to make it unnecessary to translate the Scriptures into their tongue. They prefer reading in English, and a translation would not be read if printed; besides, from the nature of the Tsimshean, it would be poor and imperfect at best.

During the absence of Mr. Duncan at Victoria, spiritual excitement arose at Metlakahtla, which, originating in what was good, developed unhealthy excesses that had to be repressed.

Mr. Collison has been admitted to both deacon's and priest's orders by Bishop Bompas (acting for the Bishop of Columbia) and now returns to Metlakahtla. Mr. Duncan and Mr. Collison are appointed joint-secretaries for the North Pacific Mission: and the Mission will thus, in all its Stations and departments, receive, in a more recognized manner, the benefits of Mr. Duncan's experience.

The work in QUEEN CHARLOTTE'S ISLAND will still be under the Rev. W. H. Collison's superintendence; but a country-born Christian of mixed descent is to be the resident agent of the Mission.

The Rev. A. J. Hall has commenced new work at FORT RUPERT.

The Rev. R. Tomlinson, at KINCOLITH, has earnestly asked to be sent farther onward in the direction of the Rocky Mountains, to labour among the Kitikshean and other Indians that are to be found in those parts. The neglected condition of these scattered tribes is described by Bishop Bompas in touching terms; and the Committee have cordially acceded to Mr. Tomlinson's proposal. Mr. Schutt, with his own full consent, has been directed to take Mr. Tomlinson's place at Kincolith. No intelligence of special interest has been received from this station.

The Committee have received much valuable advice from Bishop Bompas as well as from Mr. Duncan; and they humbly pray in all earnestness and with expectant faith that the plans which they have thus been led to adopt may receive the needed blessing from the Great LORD OF THE HARVEST.

* The Society has in past years withdrawn from eighty-two Stations, chiefly transferred to the Native Church of Sierra Leone, or added to Parochial Establishments in the West Indies, containing at the time of transfer thirteen Native Clergy, 5002 Communicants, and 13,451 Scholars.

CONCLUSION.

In closing their Report for another year, the Committee must express their deep sense on the one hand of the goodness of God toward the Society in the past, and on the other of the solemn, ever-increasing responsibilities which are involved in its present position. Each year brings its anxieties and difficulties—often sudden and unexpected—yet each year as surely brings also the needed strength and guidance.

One friend after another is called to his rest, friends who for many a year had proved as towers of strength to the Society by their strong attachment to its principles, their sound wisdom in council, their large-hearted liberality, their able, earnest advocacy, so that in their removal the hearts of those that are left are ready to look up wistfully to heaven and say, "Alas, Master, how shall we do?" And yet the Lord Himself has not failed. "He buries His workmen, but He carries on His work;" manifesting again and again that He can use the feeble as well as the strong.

But the Committee are assured they may also bespeak the full sympathy of warm and zealous friends in the convictions which year by year with increasing power the Lord has been bringing home to their minds in respect to the greatness of the work which He has been pleased to entrust to the Society. No one, they think, can thoughtfully contemplate the course of this world's history since the foundation of the Society without clearly perceiving the presence of His hand whose overruling providence ordereth all things in heaven and on earth. Scarcely a year passes that does not witness the removal of obstacles, and a freer course given for the word of the Lord. Two events stand prominently forward in the year just closed. First, the action taken for the complete suppression of the slave-trade by the Khedive of Egypt and the Sultan of Zanzibar, affording an entrance for the heralds of the Gospel in East and Central Africa, such as was never before; and, secondly, the severe blow given to Mohammedan influence by the military disasters of the Turkish Government, which, whatever may be the precise issues of the terrible conflict carried on since the last anniversary of the Society, may well be expected to have the effect of affording greater facilities for preaching the everlasting Gospel among the followers of the False Prophet, and of securing liberty of conscience for those who for centuries have been the victims of a relentless religious tyranny. These are only examples of what has been going on from year to year in all quarters of the globe,—until the voice of Providence seems to be taking up the word of grace, and echoing it afresh in trumpet tones, in the ears of a half-awakened Church, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

Meanwhile how does it stand with the C.M.S.?

Let the truth be told.—Encouraged by the growth of the Society's income in 1874, as well as by the awakening of a new spirit of prayer for Missionary labourers, the Committee at once began to devise liberal things—old Missions were pushed forward, new Missions were commenced. The result of this was an expenditure last year of some 13,000*l.* over income; and this year, though economy has been practised and retrenchments made, there is still an excess of expenditure over income of more than 4000*l.*, while even old and tried friends are asking how the Committee can expect last year's effort to be repeated. Again, there is not one important Mission Field of the Society from which the Committee have not before them at the present moment earnest appeals from those on the spot for more labourers to take up fresh ground, or to occupy more efficiently that which they hold. And yet, at the same time, the Committee have a resolution uncancelled upon their minutes, and they have acted upon it strictly in their late location of Missionaries, that except in the new Mission to the Nyanza, for which special funds are given, no Missionary shall be sent out from this country except to fill up a vacancy. Further, the Committee would call attention to the fact already mentioned, that the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge have given but one man each to the work of the Society during the past year, and Dublin not one. Moreover, it ought to be made known, that when an appeal went forth for volunteers in connexion with the recent martyrdom of the Society's Missionaries on the Victoria Nyanza, and an ordained clergyman was specially asked for, while offers of service poured in from officers of the navy and other professions, not one among the clergy of the English and Irish Churches was found willing and able to respond.

To-day the Committee would ask humbly, yet very earnestly: What is the meaning of all this? Does it mean that the servants of Christ, at all events in connexion with the Church of England, have not yet realized the world's need or their own responsibilities in respect to it? Does it mean that those amongst them to whom He has entrusted the wealth of this world, are, for the most part, forgetful of the account which they will have to render to their heavenly Lord, and are laying up treasure where moth and rust doth corrupt, instead of putting it out in His service? Does it mean that the spirit of ease and luxury and self-pleasing has been allowed too effectually to enervate many in the Church of Christ, so that there is an unwillingness to make sacrifices and to endure hardness for His sake? And is this the cause that among those who are specially pledged to take up their cross and to follow Christ, so few are prepared in a spirit of self-sacrifice to encounter the trials and hardships and dangers of a Missionary?

The Committee cannot forget, and the Lord Himself does not forget, the amount of self-denying zeal and love represented by the 220,000*l.*, entrusted to their charge during the past year. With their whole hearts they bless God for the little band that goes forth year by year, counting not their lives dear unto them, so that they may finish their course with joy. Yet they cannot allow that there is cause for gratification only. They must with all humility, but with all earnestness, place on record their solemn conviction, that if the work is to be accomplished which the Lord has set before His servants, there must be a fresh baptism of the Holy Ghost and of fire, such as was experienced by the Church in the early days of its first love. Let this spirit, then, the spirit of whole-hearted consecration, be earnestly sought of the Lord, and sought believingly and expectantly. The rich shall then no longer hold back their wealth, but rejoice in the privilege of casting it into the treasury of the Lord, as some already have learned to do, with a free and ungrudging hand. Parents shall no longer seek to dissuade their sons and daughters from the life of a missionary, but render up their children as a free-will offering to God, and gladly send them forth, saying with full hearts, "Go, and the Lord be with you." And these shall no longer refuse themselves; home ties, and home comforts, and home prospects shall be esteemed as dust in the balance when weighed against the constraining love of Christ. And the word of the Lord by His prophet Malachi shall have its blessed accomplishment:—"Prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The Committee would add one further word. Looking to the past goodness of God to this Society, they cherish the confident hope that He has yet a great work for it to do, and a rich blessing yet in store, of which the past is only the first fruits. They have good hope, even as they earnestly pray, that the old Church Missionary Society, so dear to many hearts, both in heaven and on earth, will be honoured yet more than heretofore in helping to gather in the world's great harvest. But whether this be so or not; whether it be given to this Society to maintain its present place amid the agencies for the world's evangelization, or whether this honour falls to others; every one who truly loves the Saviour, and longs for the coming of His kingdom, rejoices, yea, and will rejoice in this, that whatever hindrances may arise to the spread of the Gospel—whatever opposition be encountered—whatever dangers threaten—the purposes of God shall assuredly have their accomplishment; the tide of Gospel knowledge shall rise higher and higher; and ere long the heart of every true and loyal soldier of Christ shall be gladdened by the sound of great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever."

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love; give them wisdom in all their plans; perfect Thy strength in their weakness; and direct their labours to Thy glory!

The Harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth Labourers into Thy Harvest! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the devil; deliver them from all evil; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state ; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet ! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross !

Pity blind Idolaters, who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world !

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully ; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name !

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgivings for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation : perfect Thy work, O Lord ; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen !

Our Father which art in Heaven : Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country, where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil and suffer and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause. May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home. Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elect's sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses, temptations of the adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually; and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

APPENDIX A.

REPORT OF THE

HENRY VENN NATIVE CHURCH FUND.

Five years have now elapsed since this Fund was instituted. During that time an annual statement of its receipts and expenditure has appeared in the Reports of the Church Missionary Society. The Committee fear, however, that these notices may not have sufficiently attracted the attention of their friends and supporters; and they believe that a special Report of the Fund may serve a good purpose, by drawing fresh attention to it, and by giving a more detailed account of the manner in which the annual income has been applied.

Immediately after the death of the Rev. Henry Venn, in January, 1873, the Committee of the Church Missionary Society resolved that steps should be taken to raise a memorial to him, to keep alive the name of one whose labours on behalf of the Society had been so manifold, and attended with such marked blessing.

The result of their deliberations was the institution of this Fund, the object and plan of which is thus stated in a paper which was prepared in April, 1873, and has been widely circulated among the supporters of the Church Missionary Society. It is described as "a Fund for aiding in the internal development of the Native Churches. It will be administered under the direction of the Church Missionary Society; and from it grants-in-aid will be made, not only to Native Churches to assist them in providing for their own bishops and pastors, but also to Native Missionary Societies employing evangelists of their own."

In December, 1873, a considerable sum having been received, arrangements were made for the administration of the Fund. The General Committee of the Church Missionary Society resolved that the money thus subscribed should be invested in the names of four trustees, the interest being applied to the objects of the Fund; and that every year a Sub-Committee should be appointed "to consider applications made for grants, and to recommend to the General Committee suitable cases, with the amount to be granted in each instance."

The first Sub-Committee was appointed in May, 1874, and the following grants have been made out of the income of the Fund:—

Grants made in February, 1875.

I. Grants to Native Churches:—

1. To the Native Church of Sierra Leone, to enable them to undertake the charge of the district of Charlotte, in the Peninsula of Sierra Leone, and of the Islands of Bananas	£100 0 0
2. To the Native Church on the Niger, in view of the efforts at extension and development made by Bishop Crowther	100 0 0

II. Grants to Native Missionary Societies:—

1. To the Native Missionary Association at Gorakpûr, in the N.-W. Provinces of India, which maintains a School for the children of low-caste Hindoos, and sends a Teacher to itinerate among the surrounding villages	20 0 0
2. To the Native Church Missionary Association at Cotta, in Ceylon, who employ an itinerating Catechist, and had applied for assistance to enable them to employ a second Catechist	60 0 0
3. To the Native Missionary Association connected with the Tamil Cooly Mission, to enable them to employ an additional Evangelist.	25 0 0
	£305 0 0

Grants made in February, 1876.

I. Grants to Native Churches:—

1. To the Bishop and Pastorate Council of the Church of Sierra Leone, to enable them to sustain the charge of Charlotte and the Bananas, handed over to them in the year 1875	£100	0	0
2. To the Fund of the Niger Church, in aid of the efforts made under the direction of Bishop Crowther . .	100	0	0
3. To the Native Congregation at Lucknow, to assist them in supporting their Native Pastor, on the application of the Rev. C. G. Däuble	25	0	0

II. Grants to Native Missionary Societies:—

1. To the Native Missionary Society of Sierra Leone, to assist them in undertaking Missionary work at Bullom and Quiah	25	0	0
2. To the Native Missionary Association at Gorakpûr, in consideration of the advance made during the past year, viz., the opening of an additional School, and the employment of a Native Evangelist . . .	20	0	0
3. To the Cotta Native Church Missionary Association .	60	0	0
4. To the Native Association in connexion with the Tamil Cooly Mission	25	0	0
	£355	0	0

Grants made in February, 1877.

I. Grants to Native Churches:—

1. To the Bishop and Pastorate Council at Sierra Leone	£110	0	0
2. To the Native Church Council at Lagos, to aid in the development of the Native Church	50	0	0
3. To the Funds of the Niger Church, under the direction of Bishop Crowther	110	0	0
4. To aid the efforts at self-support made by the Native Church in Mauritius	25	0	0

II. Grants to Native Missionary Societies:—

1. To the Native Missionary Society at Sierra Leone, to assist their Missions established at Bullom and Quiah	20	0	0

2. To the Native Missionary Association at Gorakpûr, in North India	£15	0	0
3. To the Cotta Native Church Missionary Association, to meet sums raised among Native Christians . .	15	0	0
4. To the Tamil Cooly Native Missionary Association .	20	0	0
5. In aid of the Missionary operations carried on by the Chinese Christians at Fuh-Chow	50	0	0
	£415	0	0

Grants made in January, 1878.

I. Grants to Native Churches:—

1. To the Bishop and Pastorate Council of the Church of Sierra Leone, on the understanding that Kissey Road Church and District be transferred to the said Fund	£220	0	0
2. To the Native Church Council at Lagos . . .	50	0	0
3. To the Funds of the Niger Church, under the direction of Bishop Crowther	110	0	0

II. Grants to Native Missionary Societies:—

1. To the Native Missionary Society at Sierra Leone, to assist their Missions established at Bullom and Quiah	20	0	0
2. Also for additional expenses on account of the Sherbro Mission	50	0	0
3. To the Native Church Missionary Association at Gorakpûr, in North India	25	0	0
4. To the Cotta Native Church Missionary Association .	15	0	0

Under the head of Grants to Native Churches it will be seen that the familiar names of the Sierra Leone and Niger Missions have hitherto been most prominent. But the Committee anticipate that before long the Native Churches in India will also have reached such a stage of development that they will be entitled to draw assistance from the Fund. Three Provincial Councils have been already established in South India, each embracing a wide area and representing a large number of Native congregations. These Councils are not yet presided over by Native clergy, but a step in advance has been made in the province of Tinnevelly, where the District Native Church Council for the district of Sivagâsi has been placed under the presidency of the Rev. V. Vêdanâyagam. In the Missions of North India, also, similar arrangements are contemplated. Thus steps are being taken to train the Churches of India in self-government, and they show a growing power of self-support. For some time, however, these Christian communities will require assistance from without. At present the pecuniary help thus needed is very large, and is supplied from the general funds of the Society; but when the strength and liberality of the Native Christians have increased, a moderate subsidy from the Henry Venn Fund may render the Society's grant unnecessary,—thus at once placing the Native Church in a more independent position and setting free the Society's funds for its own proper evangelistic work.

In reference to Native Missionary Associations the Committee are thankful to report that the establishment of the Fund has been the means of encouraging some Native Churches to make efforts at self-extension, by undertaking Missionary operations among the heathen around them. Some were already at work in this way. Bullom and Quiah are districts in the neighbourhood of Sierra Leone, where the Society's agents had been labouring for some years. They have now been taken up by the Native Church at Sierra Leone, the members of which during the year 1875 contributed no less a sum than 500*l.* for work in those districts. The Chinese Christians at Fuh-chow are another instance of zeal for the spread of the Gospel. A body of voluntary agents carry the name of Christ to the surrounding towns and villages; and the Committee have voted a grant to this Association to assist them in supplying themselves with portions of Scripture and tracts for distribution. There is reason to hope that systematic efforts in the same direction, on a more extended scale than at present, will be made in India: schemes for such efforts being already under consideration.

The present income of the Fund, as has been said, is small. It is hoped that the circulation of this Report may be useful in showing how large a field is being opened up for the employment of it, and may elicit additional contributions from the supporters of the Church Missionary Society. The present generation is reaping the harvest sown by the faithful labours of such men as the late Rev. Henry Venn. Be it our part to follow in their steps, as they followed the mind of Christ; to try to carry out the plans which their wisdom suggested, to help the Native Churches to lengthen their cords and strengthen their stakes. Thus we may hope that we shall be "hastening on" the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and bringing nearer that glorious time when "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

APPENDIX B.

WALTER JONES NATIVE MISSION FUND, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1878.

Niger Mission.

The agents connected with the Walter Jones Fund, in this Mission, are one clergyman and five laymen. One lay agent was dismissed during the year. Those specially mentioned in Reports received from the Missions are—at Akasa, Mr. Apre; at Brass, the Rev. T. Johnson; and at Bonny, Mr. J. Boyle.

Mr. Apre is thus referred to by Archdeacon H. Johnson:—

When the Bishop, in consequence of Mr. John's absence in Sierra Leone and England, and Mr. Paul's removal to the newly formed Station at Kipo Hill, found it necessary to provide for Lokoja, he transferred to it from Akasa Mr. Pythias Williams, a young and energetic Teacher from Sierra Leone. In his stead, a real "son of the soil," the first fruit of the Akasa Mission, was left in charge. I was favourably impressed by Mr. Apre's manner. Born, and for the most part bred, in the country, it is needless to say that he was at "home" in the language, manners, and customs of Akasa. He had the privilege a few years ago of being taken to Lagos by Bishop Crowther. This no doubt accounts for the immense disparity that exists between him and those by whom he is surrounded. As to the latter, I do not know any people apparently more hopelessly degraded anywhere. Their migratory habits make it difficult to get at them; but Mr. Apre said that he occasionally followed after them in order to speak to them the Word of God.

Of the work at Brass, in connexion with the Rev. T. Johnson, the Archdeacon writes:—

In the year 1867, Bishop Crowther met with King Okiya at the Nun. The King begged him to come to his country to establish Schools, and do for his people at Brass, what was being done for Bonny. "Assuredly gathering that the Lord was calling him," the Bishop hastened to the place, where he was soon joined by the King. The following year saw the work actually begun. The Lord greatly assisted His servants, so that in less than three years the work had assumed such a decidedly aggressive attitude as to alarm the Juju priests, and make them tremble for their own reputation and their future means of subsistence. A violent persecution was set on foot at the instance of the crafty priests. The converts stood firm, but matters came to such a pass that the resident Teacher, Mr. (now Rev. T.) JOHNSON, found it prudent to follow the advice given to him to betake himself to the shipping for a time; as his house was threatened to be burnt over him, and his life was otherwise in the greatest danger. But he did not cease to go among the converts to encourage by his presence and advice those whose faith was undergoing such a severe trial. At length the fiery storm blew over, but only to revive in a fitful blaze in 1874. However, its force was spent, and it soon died out, and in all human probability will never be revived again.

Now, what is the result of nine years of unremitting labour at Brass? On Sunday, November 4th, there were no less than 480 persons present at the morning service (including six Europeans), and in the evening, notwithstanding a drenching shower, there were as many as 226. The next day being the first Monday in the month, the usual Prayer Meeting was held, when the church was nearly half filled. The King and some of his Chiefs residing at the village of Tuwon were present at both the services and the meeting. The next day (November 6th) saw the church once more filled. A Confirmation Service was held, and the Bishop administered the holy rite to fifty-eight persons. Those three days were among the happiest I spent in my trip to the Niger Mission.

King Okiya has now asked for a Teacher for Nembe, his capital, which is about thirty miles from the coast. Thus the work is gradually extending, under the auspices of the King himself, and the influential men of the country. The influence of the heathen priests has collapsed ignominiously.

Bishop Crowther writes of Mr. Boyle, at Bonny:—

As Mr. JAMES BOYLE, the schoolmaster, has all the time exerted himself most praiseworthily, I am glad he will be left in charge of two churches at Bonny, viz. St. Clement's and St. Stephen's, together with the Boarding School. I have promoted him to the rank of a first-class catechist, at a salary of 50*l.* per annum.

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

Seven agents (six male and one female) are employed in East Africa.

Mr. GEORGE DAVID and Mr. JONES, catechists, and Mr. MOSES WILLING, a schoolmaster, continue to do good service. The Rev. J. A. Lamb is desirous that Mr. David should be admitted to Holy Orders. No special mention is made of the other four.

PALESTINE.

Three schoolmasters are supported by the Fund, one at Acca and two at Salt.

The School at Acca has suffered from an outbreak of small-pox in the locality. At the date of the last accounts the children were beginning to return.

The School in Salt is reported of as going on very favourably.

INDIA.

Sixteen agents are employed in India. The only information specially bearing on their work is the following report from the Rev. F. W. N. Alexander, of the Telugu Mission :—

I have the pleasure to forward herewith a statistical return of the agents and congregations connected with the Walter Jones Fund, in the Ellore District. It shows a total of 132 Baptized persons, and 91 Catechumens, making a total of 223 persons under instruction, as contrasted with 194 persons reported under instruction at the close of the previous year. The figures now given are not unfavourable, especially when we consider the affliction of famine and sickness that prevailed during the year. But I cannot say my impression of the state of the work is as favourable as these figures would warrant.

1. Peddapad.—Every agent except KANDAVALLI PETER has more or less declined. Peter's work is in the immediate neighbourhood of the Krishna Canal. The people there have reaped a plentiful harvest, and so have escaped famine and cholera which raged in other parts. They are all cultivators, and have had food enough and to spare, and have gained high prices for their surplus grain. I am thankful to say they have in some measure shown their gratitude by offering to help in the rebuilding of their church, which was burned down three years ago. The congregation in Nayedugadem has been strengthened by the marriage of several good Christian girls from the boarding school to their young men, and I have good hope that these girls will be centres of light to all that are round about them. The inquirers in Peddapad stand firm, but they have made little progress in knowledge, and I have not yet been able to baptize any of them. Your agent, Kandavalli Peter, who is in charge of the circle, is a decidedly pious and able young man. This year he won the first place in the Bishop's Bible Prizes. It is worth Rs. 30, and was competed for by all the agents in our C.M.S. Telugu Mission, and by those in the Cuddapah Mission of the Propagation Society, so that it is truly an honourable distinction to have won it. He has joined the Ordination Class, and I have no doubt we will see him soon in Holy Orders.

2. Rajarâm.—I cannot give an encouraging report of Rajarâm, from the first it has been barren, the pressure of famine coming upon them this year scattered the people, and I had to close the school and remove the teacher. It is still visited by a Reader from a near station, but I am greatly afraid the bulk of those who are now called inquirers must have their names removed from our books. I have still hope of a few that they will not forsake the fountain of living waters.

3. Bataharagudem.—Near to them is Bataharagudem. The famine pressed sore upon this place, and the people were reduced to the last extremities. They supported life for a time on wild roots, and leaves, and fruits. This unwholesome food was attended by a dread attack of cholera. Eleven of our adult inquirers besides children were carried off, and two whole families were entirely swept away. This dreadful shock no doubt weakened their faith, and it was followed by the death of the man who first induced them to embrace Christianity. I had only time to receive his testimony of faith in Jesus, and to close his eyes. His son, aged fourteen years, who was apparently a promising inquirer, and the wife performed his funeral ceremonies according to Heathen ceremonies, and though not actually removed from the roll there is little hope of their return to steadfastness. The remaining inquirers stand firm, and I have a good hope to see some of them brought into the kingdom of God if we faint not. The agent here has some good points and some failings. He seems, however, to do his work well though not perhaps in the prayerful sanctified spirit we should like to see.

4. Vennalapalli.—In the Vennalapalli circle there are three villages, containing Christians and inquirers; it was most severely visited by famine and the Christians were sorely tried. Three young men baptized at the beginning of the year under such happy circumstances, have proved themselves unworthy of our holy profession. Church discipline has been enforced in their case, and I hope two of them may be restored, but the youngest I fear can never "recover from the snare of the devil, as he is carried captive at his will." The women of Vennalapalli are still very unpromising. They do not seem to make any progress. I fear the root of the matter is not in them. Pragadavaram which is also in this circle continues much in the same state as before. One family only has joined us. The others cannot make up their minds to self-denial and a holy life required by the Christian profession, and so they cling to this present evil world. In Singaraipapalam there are a few Christians and inquirers lately come from another part of the District. They are regularly seen after and services held for them by the Catechist in charge of the circle.

5. Hope of increase.—The year did not close without giving us hope of increase. Guzza Peter, the Evangelist in Pragadavaram, has found an open door amongst the relatives of his converts in Chintalapudi. This is a very important town on the borders of the Nizam. It is the Government and commercial centre of a large district. I trust soon to put a good man there, and I look confidently for a large increase in that direction as soon as the present distress is past. I am going to ask for the support of the new agent from the Walter Jones Fund first, because the whole of the work in that direction is paid for from the Fund, and secondly, because our estimates are largely cut down, and the General Fund does not supply us with the means of carrying out this extension. I have also the pleasure to report that we have erected a good school-church in Vennalapalli, and purchased houses there and in Bataharagudem, for the agents in charge. I feel strongly that this expense should be borne by the Fund, for it is impossible to carry on Church extension without Church building, and this requisite ought, therefore, to be charged to the Fund.

MAURITIUS MISSION.

The agents in Mauritius are four in number. No special account has been received of the work of any of them.

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

No. I.—Form of a Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East the sum of Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society to be paid within calendar months next after my death, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout but to be subject to abate proportionably with other Legacies in case my general Personal Estate shall be insufficient for payment of them all in full. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto† shall be paid out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund‡ and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my Personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund: and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, for the general purposes of the said Society, such part of my Residuary Personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the Residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, "such sum of money as shall be equal to one fourth or one half, (according to the intention) of my whole Residuary Personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my Personal Estate will extend to pay"]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general Residuary Personal Estate I bequeath the same, &c.§

* If so intended.

‡ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on Real Estate, then add, "and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates."

§ The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator's wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

I.—BENEFACTIONS OF FORMER YEARS, TO MARCH 31, 1875.

WHETHER PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY OR THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS.

N.B.—To save expense of printing, the following List is revised only once in three years. Additional sums will be placed in a Supplementary List during the intervening two years.

The Committee would be glad to receive information respecting any names in this List of "Benefactions of former years" which should be expunged or altered, from death or other causes.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

The Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit the proceeds of their respective Associations, together with the Contribution Lists and Accounts, as soon after the close of their Financial Year as possible.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to secure the insertion of the Lists in their proper places in the Report.

The Lists and Accounts (written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report) must, in order to secure insertion among the Association Lists in the Report, be sent in not later than the 31st of March. But both labour and expense may be saved to the Society by sending in the Lists and Accounts as much earlier as is possible. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Local Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given, it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case, where practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee would also point out, for more universal adoption, the convenience of making remittances on account whenever any considerable proportion of the year's receipts is in the hands of the Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalize in a greater degree the Income and Expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial Year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which, the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

N.B.—Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will find them in the List of "Benefactions of Former Years."

April 24th, 1878.

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting Preparatory to the Formation of an Association in Aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After Prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the first Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;") and that the following be its Officers and Rules:—

PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

COMMITTEE:
with power to add to their number.

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward: or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Subscribers of Ten Shillings per annum will receive a copy of the Annual Sermon and Abstract of Report. Collectors of Sixpence and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record;" and Collectors of Two Shillings and upward per week will receive a copy of the Annual Report in addition to the "Record." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a-week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant out-pouring of the Holy Spirit to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mohammedan Nations.
